7 1			Gen Algala	TITOPY
	PTTO
"OUR COUNTRY-MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT-BUT RIGHT ÖR WRONG OUR COUNTRY."
VOL. 52.		CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, DE		NO. 27.
MERICAN VOLUNTEER		the Board, but with Mr. Andrew Blair ad Mr. George McFeely, whom it became y sad duty to lay beneath the sod, I ex- gence from these scenes had a new me or eles the intrumunton of m
States	100000000000000000000000000000000000000	y sad duty to lay beneath the soil, 1 ex- benear the the interruption of m tet soon to go to reap my reward. Ladies me, or else the interruption of m	y peace of could not distinguish one word from another. in the character of annrecia- The little children cried and clung to their desire of the propag	the truit. Then in the Master, and who define publicly by their gators to meet the demand own act and word that henceforth they will
TERMS:		r the two fine large fat turkeys you have two if he week as a large of V	Villoughby vorite swains, and the whole house was ble bud is coaxed to	o make a vine, and many ment? On the coutrary, is not the spirit of
Two Dollars if naid within the		ess you all with a pleasant and bountiful lake, which was now a divorted to	g wander- ed inhabitants. One bright thought, howev. these elender specin	mens are forced into iruit land what does our Lord Ray, Joint, 12th
	C, partition, partition on one	- found negtures in search of 8 Will	a nower or   the initiater to come and my the dotting	want sucht not to have long on to enother " Remember what St
tinued until all arreprages are paid unless at	But bid the dumb canvass utter The story my lips shall weave.	in stray herry. One afternoon 1	came upon The parson, a man more celebrated for good and probably the ands for a nature, piety and credulity, than for talent and ry embodic heroism, slipped a small bible into his pock- the variety loses	not up to the description, Paul tells us, "love worketh no ill to his in the estimation of the neighbor-therefor love is the fulfilling of DYRBTISEMENTS Accompanied by the CASH, and	Your brush shall be Truth ; your colors The varied hues life wears—	couple of bright little girls, the ve	id, placing et, put on his band and surplice, that he grower.	the law. By their fruits ye shall know the upon which our West-them." Is it true that we, as a christian es for $2.00, and twenty-five cents for each itional insertion. These of a greater length in	And artists, to moisten your tears.	ITE VEV BLILL, upon them their summer hats,	the white- tagonist as possible, and hastened to the re- ern friends are exe	recised; some go so far as Church, are carrying out the principles of the
on-PRINTING-Such as Hand-bills, Posting-onis	First, paint on the magic canvass A meadow of freshest green,	onvo sup find two Found with BRIRT fringed waves, as they laved th	On coming to the house, the reverend man healthy development	nt to be grown under glass thrown out upon the world some four millions uracy and at the shortest notice.	With here and there a daisy Peeping the rocks between	Rural life has always a charm-a romance hich clings around it, especially to one B. " but a sudden remark caug	but "A. at least a dozen voices at the same moment, general culture.	We cannot agree with this care about the future, and what is being
WM. B. BUTLER,	Rocks, ragged and sharp and blood-stained- Where tender young feet have gone,	high clings around it, especially to one B.;" but a sudden remark caug	t we never asking questions which no one could answer, the strongest pos	$f_{max}$ around a growth. If   blo salf support?   acknowledge there is any
ATTORNEY AT LAW, CARLISLE, PA.	From the dead mother's icy busom To clamber the rocks alone.	he society of brooks and vales and follings had a trace of your lost hat."	it first, nor with the same penurious light, into the cel- this can be done in	the open ground, all the quantity of balatant oratory on this subject,
OFFICE WITH WM. J. SHEARER, ESQ. Sept. 14, 1865-19.	Then paint me a weary desert	ome germ of old rememorance uncover in aid I catch the reply; but I look	I had no keeping close behind him. He reached the him mulch, or if b	by shading them, let him cluthes, nor shellers the miserable and un-
JNO C. GRAHAM,	O'erhung with a leaden sky, Where never a bird would carol,	ection and come up, iresn and possessing au doubt from the appearance of the	children shadowy outlines of the enormous horns, changes by means	of glass structures he can we may believe one half even of what we are
ATTORNEY AT LAW,	And never a breeze sweep by ; Dip your brush in the waters of Marah,	ire, causing pangs of severe regree that and the other an aunt or grand.	of the fer- those that beheld them, removed all doubt, only accomplishes	by legitimate horticultu- extieme. We are told upon the best kuthori-
Office formerly occupied by Judge Graham, with Hanover street, Carlisle. [sept. 7, '65-ly	And paint Desolation there, A buried Hope, and the grave of Love,	A little stream which formed the outlet of lake embowered among the hills, as if to dd only the charm of a ray of sunlight to loveliness and grace than my fev	I my fancy if any existed in his mind, as to the infernal fail appliances we till greater nature of the being with whom he had to	season to do for him. That by the thousands. The public journals of
W. F. SADLER,	And the visage of fierce Despair.	dd only the charm of a ray of sunlight to he beauty of the landscape, ran, concealed nation had ever pictured.	ered imagi- The divine instantly fell on his knees, and young, is not in it	tself an argument against houses are being prepared for them. These the fact that young turkeys are both new inventions as far as the negro
ATTORNEY AT LAW,	Then, next, paint a fervid summer- A gorgeous tropical scene-	long by the alders and flags, the meadows and [ "Confound the fortune!" I	ejaculated, with uplifted hands began to pray in his in, any more than	to run in the wet grass, is is concerned, and never were needed for him
CARLISLE, PA. Office, in Voluntoor Building Scuth Hanover	With bursting fruit and bleeding vines, And the foliage rank and green;	and plunged into a thick forest and was lost record. But nothing satisfactory	was gained. I standing the plous man's induces, buy dap	physical condition is deplorable, almost, bay youd description, but that the hot breath of Bepta 7, 1861-1y.	With rosy clouds and golden	n comp • tension. One summer day, I tired of wondering merous other B's, but no "A. B. where this trout stream ran to; for, like the I was satisfied that "Anne" v	so the real mass with all his might at his submosed ad-	CRMON your discrimination is sweeping over them like the eirrocco of the desert. Moral disease,
J.M. WEAKLEY,	With my soul for your palette, artist, Paint me this dream of Love.	"brook" of Tennyson, there was a postic ro- "A. B,"	f my fate mensions of his dranery, missed the slender	or THE moral death is worse than any temporal ca-
ATTORNEY AT LAW,		rempted by the wildness of the scene, 1 and came near quitting on the	early stage body of the priest, and drawing mastry back REV. JOH	tude, only to leave them to the bondage of FICE on South Hanover street, in the room formerly occupied by A. B. Sharpo.	With clouds of misty gray; To-morrow is yet in cloudland,	made a journey to its course and wanded if or the queen a dominious, while along its fringed banks. A slight rushing lord accested me, and asked me sound, as of distant falling waters, or the not join a party upon the lake	if another prior with him into the cellar.	NKSGIVING DAY, IA, DECEMBER 7th, 1865. Ison the form their former condition, and
765. 27, 1862—9m. 11. NEWSHAM,	Our picture is done to day ; 1'll hang it where all shall honor	hastening of the wind through the foliage, gentleman was wanted, and the	a presented for the lost hope as it regarded himself, and	through whose ageney they now occupy their
ATTORNEY AT LAW.	A talent so bold and free;	I have the improvement of hearing new line and metured company bi	by the reading of the burst forth in the exclamation :	the 85th Panlm, in connec. pecially that portion of the American people FFICE with Wm. H. Miller, Esq., south- west corner of Hanover and Pomfret streets.	Is known but to you and me.	or picking my footholds among the rocks cation of attention on her part a	nd frequent   Brethren, take care of yourselves; the tion with the oth	chapter of the ist epistle bringing them to these shores, and whose children's children are now living on the
Carliele, Dec. 22, 1862-tf	mit. the states	which rose above the rapids. Over the bed of the stream, as it deepeved into the forest, hung the birch and elm, form-the lovely children I had seen he	e mother of This exhortation was better obeyed than said:	princely fortunes made in the African slave
STREET TO R N E V-AT-LAW.		ing a continuous shade and vista down which ny with.	his friends all fied and left him to his fate. We have assen	e Chief Magistrate of the ciple part of that trade was carried on by
FFICE in Inhoff's building, just opposite	MEETING OF TEACHEBS.	my eyes peered with all the admiration of a young poetic soul. Here and there a white cascade broke the regularity of the descent, begun ripened into admiration.	anointance I farmer who had, from the fist, supposed the j states	inks to Almighty God for Why, then, do not the men who have fille
Carlisle March 13, 1802-19.	At a meeting of the fuculty of teacherer	and wound around the base of jutting fill or bles were frequent, and the wre	act which I kent his thoughts to himself and pretended ed and unhappy 1	land-not that I recognize   delay import into those two States at least
J. W. FOULK, Attornicy at Law. Office with Jamos R. Smith, Esq., Rheem to all All business entrus'ed to him will be prompt.	7, 1865, it was resolved to present to M	and picturesque. could not summon courage enou	igh to tough to sympathize with others in their fears. the right of any to the church of the church of the church of	civil magistrate to dictate one minion of these nonverses, destructe the Christ in any way—but a ures, in order that they may be cared for t
fall. All business entrus ed to him will be prompt	of the appreciation of his services by th			at find its echo in the heart   natural protectors under existing circum
M. C. HERMAN; ATTORNEY AT LAW.	teachers. Mr. Theodore Coroman was a pointed to present them in the name of th	shore and clamber around a distance of a few ing to pluck a flower, and will not a when I again game full upon the turned away mustered sufficien	to have been and to be attempt. If the attempt of every man and forth unmingled	woman before me, and call stances for the sign of the times is the get
STRICE in Rheem's Hall Building, in	teachers which he did in the following r	stream and belield the pouring waters, the sound of which had grown more and more had lost a hat deckéd with flowe	The state of the s	the in being delivered from eral demoralization which we find meeting true, bloody, and desolating on every side. It may, indeed, be said the Highle rear of the Court House, next door to the Herald" Office, Carlisle. [Feb 4.,41-+9.	marks:	distinct as I approached. Turning suddenly to the left around a projecting ledge, the stream plunged down a height of a hundred would give my heart to know w	girl, and I 'Take along the bible if you will go?' wars the world end	ver saw. At the same time, "iniquity abounds," and yet what indiffe no one amongst us has wait- ence there is to the increase of crime. The
JAMES A. DUNBAR,	Carlisle were organized; as most things have	fact or more into a ratine still more dark "Why?" suprested I. musin	g, and learn- But, unheeding the suggestion and the ed until this hour	r to pour forth the gratitude press teems with murders, frauds, defale
ATTORNEY AT LAW. CARLISLE, PA.	and prejudice had to be overcome, rooms he	which broke in spray and sprinkled the mos- concealed with playfullness.	y which she introductions of concerning the animal by must have caused up on the calling to the astunished parson, every Christian	and lover of humanity Some tell us that this is the necessary resu fince next door to the American Printing offic	made for the accomodation of the pupils, by man like Andrew Blair sr., P. B. Smit	ses and which howers apoin its busice which have a knoll shaded by an over	" the hole, call as the horned devil was led in What minister of the horned devil was led in the hor use of the horned devil was led in the hor use of the horned devil was led in the horned devi	of the Prince of Pence has of increase of population, but that cannot b
April 14, 1864-1y F. E. BEL/TZHOOVER,	- Benvick Angney, Lewis Harlan, Thos. J Luchhe and James Hamilton Esg., were n	the shelving rocks, the fir and hemlock grew "You, Mr. Smith," said she	in surprise. midst of the company. A momentary si- thankfulness from	For it is a glorious truth goined by emigration No-it is in a gro
ANTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW	to be intimidated by these obstacles, the experiment	all view of the scene heyond. The vine and fall."	Lut the past was too ludicrous to admit of that Christ, His	gospel, and His ministers measure owing to the four years of blightin d to war, which in all its develoting possibilities through which we have
CARLISLE, PENN'A. FFICE on South Hanover street, oppo	neonio had dotorini te these mon more date	gooseberry intermingled with the dark gray rocks, while over the fall the mingling	* * burst forth from every side. during which consequences is burst forth from every side. during the new consequences is	fraught with evil and evil passed, in which all the evil passions of men are largely represented by corrup; and venal men, and that it is an understood and, ac midnight hour from their homes and famimen, and that it is an understood had, hd epited fuct that in many, many cases it is but n cessary to offer a bribe sufficiently large in order to have your point carried? The oal-lot box, of which we boast so much, is rotten creign State, and the Judiciary of the nation, to the core, and our independence, in which we appear to glory, is little more than a farce. It is a fact, as patent as the noonday, sun, that free Americans can be, and sun, that free Americans can be, and are, bought upon election days are, as readily, as you can buy sheep, in the market, and that the party which has the most money is the winning one. The tyrant, too, who em-ploys labor will compel his employees to yota in the way to suit himself, or discharge them from their places. And this employee calle himself a free American-s lover and promehimselt a tree American—a lover and promo-oter of civil and religious freedom! And the men who thus obey his behests are called. freemen, and challenge, the world to admire the liberty of thinking and acting for them-selves, which the institutions of their country guarantee to them ! Am I wrong in denoun-uing this second free free are a them himself a free American—a lover and promoeing this so-called free on as a farco when such things can be cited as facts? What such things can be cited as factor which significance, too, has the common expression which many of you have heard, " Ils can be approached." What does it mean, but that the man is in the market, and up for the highest bid? My hearers, if we do not awake In ghost bid 7 My nearers, it we do not lawage to a full sense of our danger, we will be swept by this tide of avarice, of grasping cupidity, which is widening and despening every day, into the maelstrom of irrecoverable rain.— And then, too, let us see what is the style, and what the character of the men who are back to percent we in the law-making selected to represent us in the law-making, as well as in the executive departments.----How few of the teening millions of rity and unflinching courage in the discharge of his duty-of the proper intellectual calibre away of the rubbin and a charter knower subject that there is no grape like the Tweedle-sert that there is no grape like the Tweedle- A relation to any more that you may live suphy live s dolts and most illiterate of men are elected to, fill places for which they have not one it, the book of the people, made for them and by them, and for their special benefit; and people had determined to try the experiment, and as their agents, these men were deter-mined to do their duty, and place, if gossible, the Common Schools of Carlisle on a sure the Common Schools of Carlisle on a sure schools of to day, second to none, bear witness; the prejudice which the atle away down all died away, and from a small stream, has of mill, the stones growing over with moss of which is destined to rown a mighty river, which is destined to OFFICE on South Hanover street, oppo-integration of the patent of the p grown a mighty river, which is destined to increase until nothing can stey the mighty influence exerted by the Common Schools, and great indeed is the debt of gratitude which we, the pupils of these schools, owe to the men who first planted the seed, which has germinated and grown into a wide spreading tree, under the shade of which, hundreds of children to-day are reaching, and the benefits of which, we, the teachers of to day, can bear testimony; but, whilst we praise the deeds of our first Directors, let us not forget those necessary sids the teachpraise the deeds of our first Directors, let us not forget those necessary nids the teach-ers, who so ably instilled into the minds of the scholars intrusted to their care, those principles, which to day enable them to fill their vacant chairs. But memory calls us the scholars intrusted into the solution of the fair owner, but to no principles which to day enable them to fill their vacant chairs. But memory calls us ning conducted and controlled these schools have passed away, the places that once knew them knows them no more, yet there remain a few of those bright and shining lights of by-gone days, to cheer us in the ar-duous tasks we have undertaken, the others or dividing the schools of the depending shade, but still I waited thought feasible carving a deduous tasks wé have undertaken, the others are quietly reposing from their labors, the sod has grown green over their coffins, and whilst they sleep the sleep that knows no waking, the monuments they erected, are growing larger and larger; the lines upon them inscribed to their memory, are growing brighter and brighter, our hope is that they them inscribed to their memory, are growing brighter and brighter, our hope is that they may be enjoying the rewards of the faithful, and stand prepared to throw open wide the gates of Paradise, to admit those who may hastened away, fearing to stay to claim it, or whether some accident might not have be beneath it. Man's a year later, I strayed again to the thicket and the fall, still hidden in the depth of a larger forest. There lay the old mill-stone—a tree of considerable size growing through it, and the wild flowers and the brambles were thicker and coarser. The ru-ins suddenly called to mind the incidents of the former wilt so long hefore that the pre-

all kinds and quality of seasoned LUMBER, LUMBER, BOARDS, SCANTLING. FRA

1 of iei, olej vi

183

of 18-1.0

Ť

SCANTLING. FRAME STUFF, Paling, Plastering, Lath, Shingling Lath, worked Flooring and Weatherboarding, Posts and Rails, and servy article that belongs to a Lumber Yard. All kinds of Shingles, to wit: Whitepine, Hem-fock and Oak, of different qualities. Having cars of imy own I can furnish bills to order of and length and size at the shortest notice and on the may be enjoying the rewards of the faithful, and stand prepared to throw open wide the gates of Paradise, to admit these we must speak of him who has so faithfully and effi-ciently ss messenger waited upon the schools of Carlisfe, and who has grown grey in the service to which he was called years ago, al-ways ready to communicate to us, the teach-ers, the actions of the Board, relative to our-selves or the schools. Punctual in his adminall times. I times. I have constantly on hand all kinds of FAMI-Troverton, Locust Mountain, Lobbery, which I

Best quality of

Limeburners' and Blacksmiths' Coal. always on hand which I will sell at the lowest figstreet

ANDREW H. BLAIR.

NOTICE. I still retain the same position in he firm of DELANCY & BLAIR, which will be there is a senergetically as over at their cld hand near the Gas house. As our purchases will be made together at the bead of the market, we be confident by so doing to be able to eccommo-te out sustemers and the public on the most reasonable terms. Having relinquished the tan ing I will deovice my entire attention to the Coul and Lumber business. All kinds of Coal and The Lumber business. All kinds of Cohi and School Directors of Carlisle; and from the Berinning of my career to the present time, it has been my study and desire to discharge my duties faithfally, and to the best interests of the Bur, ugh, and to make all connected ops to secure a liberal share of public patronage ANDREW II. BLAIR. June 15, 1865-tf CHAINS.-600 pairs of Traces Chains all kinds, with a largassortment of Butt hains, I Halteeahins, Butt hains, Breast " But hains, Breast " Fifth " Log " Tonguo " Spreads, &o.. & ... Aprel 27, 1963. Harris J. SaxTo Log " II. SAXTON April 27, 1963. DAINTS of Every Description, in large and Mill packages, Linseed Oil, &c., at • MILLER & BOWERS to celebrate Thanksgiving at his wife's fath-er's in an adjacent town, were hurried and confused extremely on the day preceding that festival, by the multiplicity of things which must be done before they could leave home with safety. The house was to be "banked up" and the gleanings of the harv-est, cabbage, turning, and go forth, put into the cellar, that the external entrance thereto might be closed for the season. Having car-ried in the vegetables, the cows were dis-patched to the bern for straw to fill the pas-erce with while the good man himself was the former visit, so long before that the pre-cise time was not recalled ; but before I left my eye fell upon the following inscription. "June 15, 1845. Found a hat and lost my heart. S. S." Just below, cut in a similar style, by the Just below, cut in a similar style, by the chiseling of a piece of quartz, was: "Lost my hat, but found no heart. A. B." I recalled to my mind my impression of the time that the hat was out of style and trimming usually worn in the country, and that it was no doubt that of a visitor to the locality, who had unattended, strayed to grat-ity a curjosity for romantic sceners. similar mill ruins, while somebody has added to the former inscription : " FOUND THE HAT, AND FOUND THE HEART."

THE DEVIL IN THE CELLAR.

A Rich Thanksgiving Story.

the following is a true narration : An honest farmer and his family preparing o celebrate Thanksgiving at his wife's fathsage with, while the good man himself was busied on the opposite side of the house.

An old ram, the horned patriarch of a large flock of sheep kept on the farm, having got a taste of the scattered cabbage leaves, unob-served entered the cellar and silently continued his feast. The avenue through which he had entered was immediately closed up, and all the necessary work and arrangements being completed, the larger boys and girls set off on foot in high glee, the dog running

NOTES ON GRAPES AND GRAPE CULTURE.

"What, more about grapes ?" says the lies. He ardently invoked the richest blessreader who has no interest in the culture of ings of the Almighty upon the President of the vine. Yes, for the renson that it is now the United States, the Governor of each sovone of the leading horticultural topics. The vine growers have their grape shows and supreme and subordinate.

bachelor relic, stowed in my garret, but it grape conventions, and we should not be has since been pulled out, and embodies to much surprised if they started a grape jour The sermon was based upon the text, St. Matt. 16th chap., 3d v.: "Can ye not discern the signs of the times," and was as follows: No man ought to be an idlo or inattentive much surprised if they started a grape jour-nal, but whether they do or not, we must have our share of grape talk. Those who do not come in contact with grape people, are little aware of the great amount of capital spectator of passing events, or shut his eyes to the signs of the times. But ii is a melanalready in vines, and of the perhaps still greater amount about being invested there, to the signs of the times. But it is a meinh-choly fact, that comparatively few of the great mass of men think for themselves, either politically or religiously, and hence they are the slaves or dupes of others who especially in the Western States. Individuals are about to plant their acres, and companinies with abundant capital, their scores of acres. Land in localities known to be favor-able to the vine, sells at great prices, and ers. It is known to the world at large, that In one of the small interior towns of New England, where the superstitions of our an-cestors still possess a hold on the people, the facts occurred a few years since of which the following is a true narration : we add to an this activity in planting vines, the large amount of capital engaged in rais-ing and selling them, it will be seen there is no one plant which is of more pecuniary in terest just now than the grape vine, nor one concerning which people are so anxious for the facts. ""Facts are just what I have been he one plane within the grape vine, nor one terest just now than the grape vine, nor one concerning which people are so anxious for fasts. "Facts are just what I have been looking for," suggests the reader, "I have looking for," suggests the reader, without the source of the grape discussions, we have been upon the verge of ruin, and I facts. "Facts are just what I have been looking for," suggests the reader, "I have read all the reports of the grape discussions, all the grape notes, books and catalogues, and the only "fact' I arrive at, is that it is all a precious muddle." We admit that there is some truth in this view, but we re-gard matters more hopefully. Chaos always precedes order, and every science accumu. there is some truth in this view, but we re-gard matters more hopefully. Chaos always precedes order, and every science accumu-lates first a disjointed mass of materials be-fore any general laws are found by which to the distribution of the di rights. How few of the teeming millions of this nation ever carefully read or studied the arrange them. So in grape culture we are accumulating varieties and bits of informa-Constitution of the United States? Do you tion, by and by, we shall have a sweeping away of the rubbish and a clearer knowelsuppose that more than one in every thous-and has ever done so? And yet this grand sert that there is no grape like the Tweedleselves or the schools. Punctual in his administrations to our wants, ceaseloss in his exertions to collect funds, necessary to meet our demands, al ays pleasant and agreeable in his intercourse with us, to him we return our sincere thanks; and, as a slight token of our appreciation, we the teachers of the Common