THEO. CORNMAN Sec'y.

"ITEMS" MAKETH HIS BOW.—Reader, you will be kind enough to consider "ITEMS" as standing before you, hat in hand, making his most profound bow, and smiling his most irresistible smile.—Heretofore he has been compelled to pursue the "scatteration policy," in imitation of the war strategy of "the divine Stanton;" but now he has a separate department assigned to him, and he will concentrate his forces and "fight it out on that line all summer." In the year just opening up before us, you the entertained and he the entertainer, he hopes to come to you, week after week, in your gladness and in your sorrow, with a kind and sympathizing word here, a suggestion there, unimportant it may be, but just the very thing you need—bringing you little golden grains of thought, sparkling and fresh from the mint—telling of the joys or the sufferings of your neighbors—sometimes bringing you "glad tidings of great joy," and again, as is the part of every true friend, breaking mournful messages gently and tenderly, and mingling his tears with yours, and bidding you be of good cheer in the firm reliance that the darkest hour comes before the dawn.

We will try to make the local columns of this journal a complete record of the home affairs of this and the adjourning counties. To this end we desire that our friends in different localities will send us all matters of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods. Such assistance will enable us to keep our readers well posted on local affairs.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—We learn with regret that Mr. Wm. Golden, of Southampton twp., was frozen to death on Saturday night last. He had been spending the afternoon in Shippensburg, and about dusk started for his home, which is about three miles east of that place.—When about a mile from town, it is supposed that his sleigh was upset, and that he afterwards followed his horse into a woods a short distance from the road.—He was not discovered until Sunday morning, when he was found lying on the snow in front of his horse, life being extinct and the body frozen stiff. Mr. Golden was an honest, hard-working man, and a well to-do farmer, but sometimes indulged in liquor. About two years ago a brother of the deceased was found lying dead in the woods where he had been cutting timber, and no clue was ever discovered to the cause of his death. William Golden was a middle aged man, and leaves a wife and one child.

"DAY" AGAIN.—We are again under the necessity of reminding our friends of the Herald that Prof. Wm. Howard Day, the negro orator, delivered his second lecture in this place, on Thursday of week before last. As these lectures are in the interests of the Repnblican party, it is most culpable negligence on the part of the Herald to pass them by so cavalierly. We have had the pleasure of hearing the Professor, and are compelled to admit that he makes a better Republican speech than three fourths of the Republican "spouters" in this county. Are our abolition friends beginning to tremble for their laurels? If not let them at least do justice to their "colored brother" the next time he addresses the faithful in this place.

MURDER TRIAL.—The trial of John Clue for the murder of Henry B. Grove, a photographer, formerly a resident of this place, who was shot in his office in Baltimore, some two months ago, commenced in the Baltimore city Court on Monday last. The whole day was absorbed and only seven jurors obtained, after exhausting the regular panel and fifty talismen. The case excites great interest, and will consume several days. The proof against the prisoner is most positive of deliberate murder, and robbery afterwards. A gold watch was found on the person of Clare. A later report informs us that after exhausting the regular panel, and summoning one hundred and fifty men, and selecting from all only seven jurors, the case of John Clare, indicted for the murder of Henry B.Grove, was abandoned in the City Court, and removed to Baltimore county, for trial at the May term.

ROBBERS ARRESTED.—Some weeks since, we noticed the robbery of Mr. Kiehl of North Middeton township—some villains having entered his house at night and carried off several hundred dollars in specie and greenbacks. Immediately after the robbery, Robert McCartney and Andrew Martin set themselves to work to ferret out the perpetrators of the crime.—They exercised the most commendable diligence and shrewdness, and soon discovered a negro who had stated that he had been asked to join the party. From him they learned who the others were, and on Saturday and Sunday last arrested John Rudolph, a german, of this place, and Charles Sherman of Upper Allen twp., both parties, we learn, after being identified by the negro, confessed their guilt, and are now lodged in jail to await their trial at the April sessions. Both these young men have heretofore borne good characters, and are respectably connected.

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAIL ROAD.—A NEW ROUTE DEMANDED.—We clip the following well timed and sensible, article from The United States Railroad and Mining Register, one of the most reliable business journals in the Country. It seems that the newspapers and people along the line of the road are not the only ones who are growing very tired of "the procastination, indifference and want of foresight exhibited in the management of the Cumberland Valley Rail Road". The Register says:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, January 16, Mr. Bingham, of Pittsburg, offered a series of resolutions, of which number three, was in these words:

"Third. That the extension of the Connelsville railroad eastward, in the direction of the Baltimore and Washington, with branches to connect with the Lebanon Valley railroad, is alike required by the commerce of the country and the local claims of the counties through which the same would pass."

In the Register of Dec. 23 we published a letter and comments on the strategic and commercial importance of ground between the Lebanon Valley railroad and the Potomac river, via the Cumberland Valley to the vicinity of Shippensburg and thence via Bloody Run to Wills' creek or the Potomac river. Our matter, as we know, has elicted inquiry and consideration; and a number of papers have come to us marked, showing that the article has been extensively copied. And that the idea in it is germinating, we have abundant proof. How soon it may take a more tangible form will measurably depend npon the action of the Cumberland Valley railroad company, which undoubtedly, has it in its power, by a new policy of judicious expantion, to more fully satisfy the transportation necessities of the Cumberland Valley than it does at present, and thereby forestall combinations which otherwise will inevitably take place. But, from what we hear of the management of the Cumberland Valley railroad, and of its procrastination by the year in matters which might be fixed in an hour, we incline to the opinion that the discussion of the new project will procede uninterrupted, and that it will continue to add proselytes to its friends, till gnally it will command numbers and influence sufficient to warrant its construction and assure its success. And this opinion is based on the fact that, although the Cumberland Valley railroad years ago was conveyed to a new owner, the public have since looked in vain for any indication that it has a new master, the Bourbons being allowed to control its councils for the reason, perhaps, that "they forget nothing, even if they learn nothing."

The procrastination, indifference and want of foresight exhibited in the management of the Cumberland Valley railroad is doing more to hasten the construction of an ally of the Lebanon Valley railroad, than the Cumberland valley, than (and herein the danger is) will be appreciated or understood, till too late to apply a remedy.

Independent of all other considerations, we think the proposed route will be of incalculable benefit to the people of Cumberland County, in opening up and developing the vast mineral deposits along the South Mountain, and in affording improved facilies for reaching the city markets Let the new road be built by all means.

SERIOUS INJURY.—Mr. Hull, the well known locomotive engineer, on the Cumberland Valley railroad, was badly hurt, last evening, at Mechanicsburg. Some boys were amusing themselves by snowballing a colored woman, who retorted by throwing a brick with great force at one of the boys, which, missing him, struck Mr. Hull on the head, inflicting a very severe, perhaps a fatal wound. The injured man has a host of friends in this city, who will regret to learn of the accident that has befallen him, and we earnestly hope he may soon recover from the effects of his injuries.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The Ladies connected with St.John's church (Episcopal,) of our town, intend to give a supper at Rheem's Hall on the evening of the 9th inst., the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to the payment of the church debt. On the evening following (Saturday,) they will hold an attractive Fair in the same room. From the known enterprize and liberality of the ladies connected with this church, we predict a magnificent supper and fair. Tickets can be had of any of the managers.

SOMETHING NEW AND ECONOMICAL.

The days of humbug and swindling in spurious Gas Burners are at an end where the CHEAP AND STEADY LIGHT is introduced. I propose to the people of Carlisle to furnish them with a BURNER or REGULATOR that will save from 20 to 25 per cent. in their Gas Bills. I further propose to demonstrate satisfactorily on their Gas Pipes the truth of my assertions before they adopt them, which is but fair.

The principles of the Regulator are, first: The Consumer knows exactly what he consumes, for they are gaged at high pressure, while common Burners are gaged at low. Second: They can be regulated to burn six different sized lights, viz: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 Feet (cubic) per hour. They can, after burning four or five years, be renewed for five cents per Burner, being the price of the small steel tip at the top of the Burner, and the only thing purchasable about it; besides, having an independent chamber for heating the Gas, which is the only sure means of saving.

I have sold them in all the Eastern and Western cities with marked success, and would be pleased to give an improvement that would justify all that burn Gas to adopt them.

I will be at the TRANSCRIPT office for a few days, where all who wish can see the "Regulator" free of charge. I will also call on the citizens at their stores and dwellings, giving all a chance to get this truly remarkable and Gas saving Burner.
