HARRISBURG, March 28, 1866, the Editors of the Age: bout ten days after the adjournment the late Democratic State Convention, following statement appeared in the shington correspondence of the New

It will be remembered that the late pperhead Convention of Pennsylvania, er nominating Mr. Clymer for Gover r, passed a resolution indorsing the sident's policy. A sub-committee appointed to come on here and pret the resolution in person. This grate nission was essayed a few evenings. The committee was admitted to audience with the President, re proceeding, after the most approved n. to assure him that the Democra of Pennsylvania had designed no empompliment; that they had watched recent action with no ordinary gratition; and that they should stand by and his administration so long as he pobly adhered to the sacred Constitu-. Before the peroration was reached, President broke in upon them with suggestion that 'the wisest thing y could do was to go home and cliange ir ticket.' He believed that they had ide a tatal mistake in nominating such man, especially at this particular time, th much other remarks of a similarly raging character. The last seen of Pennsylvania Committeemen they e seen making for the Baltimore de-in a fearfully demoralized frame of the false and unfounded assortions tained in the above extract have been roduced, in various forms, in the Relican papers of the State. So long as statements were of a general charac-it was deemed unnecessary to make reply, but within the last few days I received letters from valued friends orming me that I am referred to as ring been one of the alleged "sub-comttee," and making enquiries of me as the truth or falsity of the above allegans. In reply, therefore, to these en-iries, and to the end that the unfoundcharacter of the whole extract may appear, I submit the following had the honor to preside over the de-erations of the Democratic State Conition which nominated Hiester Cly-ention which nominated Hiester ('lyjer for Governor.

It is false that any committee or submmittee was appointed by the Convenon or by its presiding officer to proceed by Washington to present to the Presient its resolution approving his policy, for any other purpose whatever. No action was ever made in the Convention, for was any adopted of that nature nor was any adopted of that nature, not any committee or sub-committee, or individual or individuals, authorized y that Convention, or in any way repesenting it, go to Washington on any uch errand. The whole statement of Tribune correspondent is one of un-sed and unadulterated falsehood.

l'owards the end of the week in which e Convention assembled, I, in compawith other Democratic Pennsylvania nators and members, visited Wash-gton, and, while there, I and the Hon. B. Beardslee embraced the opportuof satisfying a long-cherished desire assuring him of our cordial approval his restoration policy, and of his veto that iniquitous measure, the Freed-en's Bureau Bill. During the interew, the proceedings of our Convention ere referred to and I took occasion to ire the President of the sincerity and nanimity with which his policy was pported by its members. The resoluthe President—he remarking that they re clear, pointed, concise, as y could not be misunderstood.

y time or in any way directly or indi-ctly referred to by the President or reselves. Nothing occurred during the terview which rendered it proper or cessary; nor did the President, by any pression or suggestion, lead us to susect that he was unfriendly to Mr. Cly-her. The visit was truly gratifying to reselves, and we have no reason to doubt at that it was acceptable to him.

I may here state upon the very highest thority, that the President himself emnatically repudiates and denies that he as ever, to any one, made any statement a reference to the nomination of Mr. All the three to the nomination of Ar. Mymer, which could by possibility be ortured into the expression or sentiments tributed to him in the foregoing extect. It has been left for the malice and nendacity of disappointed and chagrined disappointed and chagrined sunionists to give a version to an inter-ew of private gentlemen with the Preslent, which would be most in accordance ith their hopes and desires, but which afortunately for them and their aims, is se and unfounded in each and every

RULES OF TRAVEL ON RAILROADS.—The following "rules of the road" are based upon legal decisions, and ought to be universally made known. The Courts have decided that applicants for tickets on railroads can be ejected from the cars if they do not offer the exact amount of their fare. Conductors are not bound to make change. All railroad tickets are good until used; are of no account. Passengers who lose their tickets can be ejected from the cars are of no account. Passengers who lose their tickets can be ejected from the cars unless they purchase a secand one. Passengers are bound to observe decorum in the cars, and are obliged to comply with all reasonable demands to "show their tickets." Standing on the platform, or otherwise violating the rules of the composition of the composition of the rules of the rules of the rules of the composition of the rules of the therwise violating the rules of the comany, renders a person liable to be put om the train. THE excitements of late have been any, the eclipse of the moon has given some people black eyes, by letting the blackened glass fall on their eyes, the vetoing of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill and Civil Rights Bill by the President of the United States has made many sore eads among the politicians and made others reoleing. The decision of the U.S. Supreme Court regard to Military trials, makes some fear that Jeff. Davis will now be pardoned, while others think the decision necessary for the liberty of the people. But the greatest excitement is the downward tendency of gold, which has reduced the prices of goods considerably at Julius Neuwahl's Clothing Store, between Drs. $65!$65!!A PREMIUM FOR SUBSCRIBERS!!! We will present to the person who sends us th largest list of New Cash Yearly Subcribers to the VOLUNTERR, accompanied by the money for the same, on or before June 1st 1866, a fine, improved WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINE which cost us $65. This is the best machine tha can be procured for the price, and is adapted to all kinds of family sewing and tailoring. It will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind, and perform every species of sewing. It is mounted on a Black Walnut table and the metal work is of ornamental bronze, making a beautiful household ornament. The machine can be seen at the office of Mr. John Campbell-Rail Road

Depot, Carlisle. The lists of subscribers will be carefully filed | HEMP away, and the premium will be awarded by three disinterested persons, On Saturday June 2d, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to the person having sent the largest number of good, yearly subscribers, accompanied by the calities. This proposition is absolute and unqualified; the machine is already purchased, and will be awarded, without fail, on Saturday, June 2d. In addition to this, our friends will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are increasing the circulation of their county paper, and thus helping along the cause of Democracy in which they all profess to feel such a deep interest. Let them put their shoulder to the wheel, and see what can be done for the triumph of Democratic principles, by a few days hard work.

Sample copies of the paper, and prospectuses on which to produce the names of subscribers, will be furnished to all who feel disposed to lend a helping hand and to try their chances for the sewing Machine.
