Carlisle, Pa., Thursday, May 31, 1866.

the dreadful conviction was burning in my brain that the each was being moved slowly backward. A moody way to it was...

I rushed against the door with all my force but it mocked my utmost efforts. One side of my vehicle was fast going down, down, down...

When gentlemen look upon a man As if himself they meant to marry. And not as many soldiers seen A sutler or a commissary...

When young mechanics are allowed To find and win the girl of their choice, Who don't expect to be endowed With rubies, diamonds and pearls...

When wives, in short, shall freely give Their hearts and hands to aid their spouses, And live as they were wont to live Within their sties' one story houses...

Then, madam, if I'm not too old,— Rejoiced to suit this lonely life, I'll brush my beard, cease to scold, And look about me for a wife.
