Somes in the Convention.-There many amusing incidents connected ith the Soldiers' Convention, on Monwlast. When the Convention was to adjourn for dinner, Mr. John informed the soldiers that they not meet in the Hall that afternoon, ing been rented for an abolition ng at 3 o'clock. This meeting was vised by the abolition leaders, the iers' friends," for the purpose of ing up the Convention. The "boys e" at once resolved to meet in the House or in front of it, and thus nvented their pretended friends.

en the Chairman was appointing tanding Committee, the Districts called in turn, and a member aped from each. "New Cumberland, the Secretary. No response.some gentleman be kind enough ne a Committeeman from New erland?" asked the President.in Waggoner, of Newville, rose to et and very deliberately, with mock ness, suggested the name of John Geary. The suggestion was received lent refused to add the name to the uittee until John endorsed the platof the Convention. e of the radicals denounced the resns as "hell-born," and "disloyal," was about withdrawing from the when the boys surrounded him and ed to let him out until he apologized s insulting language.

BURNING OF THE OLD HARRISBURG BRIDGE.—A Grand Midnight Scene—His- | PAPER—Generally speaking but little imtory of the Old Bridge.—At about 12 portance is attached to the taking of a o'clock on Friday night last the citizens of Harrisburg and Bridgeport were roused from their slumbers by the terrific cry of other day. "fire." The old Harrisbueg Bridge was in flames! Soon/a vast concourse of peo- was appointed an Auditor to distribute ple-men, women and children-crowded | the funds in the hands of an Administhe banks of the river. The two elements | trator amongst the creditors. Notice of | -fire and water-combined with the the sitting of the Auditor was published darkness, served to produce an effect such | in two of the county papers. as the artist, if he ever contemplated before, certainly never rendered on canvas. Spanning the channel between the town and Foster's Island, set on seven piers below, was the vivid picture of a fiery bridge, every timber in the lattice and aroused from slumber, could scarce realize the scene, until the steam whistles and the excited voices of firemen thoroughly aroused him to the sober reality.

From all the facts gathered it appears by means of hay and other inflammable materials, set fire to the bridge, at the second span from the island. Some negroes, crossing the bridge at the time, gave the alarm, and at ten minutes past twelve the whole structure was in flames. The breeze on the river and the draft through the roofed bridge fanned the flames, and they darted hither and thither with lightning speed. At twenty minutes past twelve, one of the middle spans fell, with a crash like the sound of heavy artillery; and span after span followed in quick succession, wheeling around betimes into the downward current, and floating slowly but surely to the railroad bridge below. Hitherto the firemen could do little else than protect the gate and toll house at the eastern end of the wagon bridge, but now they hastened to the threatened structure below, where after much confusion, owing to the limited supply of hose, they finally brought their apparatus to bear with effect, although it was not till five o'clock A. M. that all further danger or damage had ceased. In the morning the black and charred piers presented a novel appearance. How changed was the aspect of affairs! Manifestly there was "something wanting." A small rudely constructed steamer this morning supplied as best it could, the place of the missing bridge, and represented in its curling smoke a little fortune in prospective.

In 1809 a company was chartered to erect a bridge, over the Susquehanna, at this point, and in July, 1812, the company was duly organ ized. In 1811 the Legislature authorized the Governor to subscribe $90,000 out of the funds of the Commonwealth to the capital stock of the company. The foundation stone of this bridge was laid December 2d, 1812, with much ceremony. The builder was Theodore Burr, and the structure was built on what was known as the/" Burr plan" (of which the rude, antique structure, still standing on the western side of the island, is an original representation) having been completed in 1817 at a total cost of $192,138. The contract with Burr was for $180,000, of which he recieved $35,000 in the stock of the company. Its length, including the width of Forester's Island, was twothirds of a mile; width forty feet, and elevation above the water, fifteen feet.

BASE BALL-THE AMAGEUR VS. THE Tyrolean."-- A match game between the "Amateur" of this place and the "Tyrolean" Club of Harrisburg, was played on the grounds of the latter Club, on Saturday afternoon last. As will be seen by the score, the "Tyroleans" were successful, but our boys played a very creditable game. We admire their pluck in accepting the challenge of such an old organization as the "Tyrolean;" and it was no discredit to have been beaten by seventeen innings, especially as the "Tyroleans" have "done it" to other clubs far

The Patriot & Union says: "Milligan Captain of the "Amateur" carried his bat through, presenting a clean score. Bierbower made a home run, the ball being lost among the bushes in the left field .-The "Amateurs" stood up to their worl manfully, but the superior playing of the 'Tyrolean" was too much for them.'

THE NEW LICENSE LAW FOR HUCKS TERS,-We last week copied from another paper an Act regulating the license of persons engaged in buying and gathering certain articles of produce, in this and several other neighboring counties, a shout of derisive laughter, and the for the purpose of removing the same from this County to sell elsewhere. We were impressed with the extreme highness of the tax, at the time, and could scarcely believe that even a Republican legislature would impose on the people such burthensome taxation, the effect of which would be to almost prohibit the traffic, thus destroying the business of many worthy citizens of this County, as well as seriously effecting the interests of many farmers in sections of the County remote from market, who depend upon such Hucksters to get such articles as butter, eggs, &c., made and raised by them, to market. We are glad to announce this week, that the law as it was offered, was modified greatly, before it passed, and that instead of the exorbitant rates which it at first appeared to impose, the license fees are moderate and such as few will and while engaged in the shifting | complain against. The license to huckster with one horse and wagon is Ten ars passing over him, severing both | dollars, instead of one hundred dollars gs, his shoulder, and crushing his as printed last week; and the license to His remains were brought over huckster with two or more horses and wagons is fifteen dollars instead of one hundred and fifty dollars. This applies only to persons residing within the county. Those residing without the county must pay respectively one hundred, and one hundred and fifty dollars. Applications for license are to be made to the

THE LOSS BY NOT TAKING A COUNTY county newspaper. This neglect and indifference had its practical reward the

Some time ago a gentleman in this town

It so happened that a few creditors residing in a certain portion of the county, who had collectively claims to the amount of seven or eight hundred dollars, from over fifty feet above the level of the water | the neglect of taking a county paper, never heard of the audit until after the Report of the Auditor had been confirmframework of which could be discerned ed by the Court. They then came to town in a livid redhot glow. The sleeper, just | to inquire about the likelihood of securing their claims; called upon an Attorney, who examined into the matter, and informed them that they had for ever lost their money; and we presume charged them five dollars for the information. that at about twelve o'clock some demon, All this resulted from being too penurious or too careless to subscribe for a county > paper. These gentlemen have learned a lesson that will last them the balance of their lives; and it is a warning to others who, from the same motives, fail to take their county paper.

There is scarceley a man in the community who will not be caught up some day on a legal notice, that does not take a paper, unless he clandestinely reads his neighbor's; and every gentleman should be above literary pilfering like this. -Ex-

Appointments of Gen. Knipe.—Gen. Knipe has appointed the following soldiers (not home guards,) clerks in the post office: Col. E. L. Witman, 210th P. V. Major John Gotshall, 55th P. V.; Captain J. M. Eyster, 18th U. S. regulars; Private George W. Shoop,, 1st Pennsylvania Reserves. No other appointments have as yetbeen made. All the above named gentlemen served during the war, and are in every way qualified for the positions they hold. The old Postmaster, true to his in stincts, could not act with the magnani mity usual in such cases, but left without a word of courtesy, and we are informed, took with him all the old clerks and other things, for the purpose of embarrassing the new incumbent. Fortunately he is foiled-for the new force is fully as efficient now as the old ever was. But such is life-and "you can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.''

THE NOTES OF STATE BANKS.—After the 1st of June, the Notes of all State Banks will not be received in payment of debts at the counters of the National Banks, or on deposit, except at such a discount as will pay the expense of returning these notes to the Banks that issued them, and exchanging them for National Currency. This is done on account of the high tax imposed by the Federal Government on the circulation of all State Banks that is out after the date named.
