OTHER ATTEMPT TO BURN RHEEM'S HALL.—On Friday night last, another attempt was made to fire Rheem's Hall. At about 9 o'clock it was discovered that a quantity of combustible material had been ignited in the cellar of the building...

DELICACIES OF THE SEASON will be furnished in the best style. The Hall is large and commodious—easy of access, being on the first floor. Ladies and Gentlemen desiring to spend a pleasant evening socially, will find this attractive place—besides contributing to a praiseworthy object.

ACCIDENT.—We are pleased to learn that the fire in Rheem's Hall, on Tuesday night of last week, Jacob U. Wunderlich, Esq., a member of the Good Will Fire Company, was very severely injured by falling through the stage of the hall. The injuries of Mr. W. are believed to be internal, and his sufferings have been intense. At last accounts he was in a very precarious situation, with but faint hopes of recovery.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church had a strawberry festival in the Court House on Monday and Tuesday evenings last. The attendance was large, and we hope the profits were commensurate with the exertions of the ladies. We believe that the proceeds are to be devoted to the purchase of a new organ.

THE FLAG PRESENTATIONS.—The ceremony of returning to the State the regimental and battle flags, carried by the Pennsylvania regiments, during the late war, which takes place at Philadelphia, on the 7th of July next, will be a very interesting one. It is desirable that these flags should be carried on this occasion by those who were actually in the field, and the divisions have been constituted and committees appointed to notify all who are entitled to this honor. Col. W. Armstrong, of Easton and Gen. James Selfridge, of Bethlehem represent the seventh division, composed of the counties of Schuylkill, Carbon, Monroe and Pike; Gen. W. W. H. Davis represents the county of Bucks. Col. Henderson represents this district.

THE FENIAN PUZZLE.—Final collapse of the invasion. NEW YORK, June 10, 1866. Special dispatches, dated at St. Albans, Vermont, on the 9th inst., announce that the Fenian invasion of Canada. The night wing of their army retreated from Highgate Hill to St. Albans, and the men were ordered to retreat to St. Albans. Reinforcements, arms and ammunition were sent to reach them, and their ammunition was carried to Montreal. The Fenian army was captured by the United States troops who are marching to the border. Considerable plunder was carried off by the Fenians. General Spears said he would rather be shot than leave Canada in the manner he has. General Meahan wept bitterly. Any Fenians who have not returned to their homes will be transported by the United States government, and many will avail themselves of this opportunity to leave to-night.
