NATIONAL UNION COUNTY CONVENTION.—The citizens of Cumberland county favorable to the policy of President Johnson, met in Convention at the Hotel of Lewis Faber, in Carlisle, on Saturday, July 28th, at 11 o'clock A. M., in pursuance of the published call.

The Convention was organized by the election of Captain Wm. M. Porter, President; Robert Wilson Vice President, and R. M. Stevenson Secretary. The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this convention approves of the policy of President Johnson as opposed to the radical policy of Congress, that we sanction the call for and the objects of the National Union Convention to be held at Philadelphia on the 14th day of August, and that we will send delegates to the same.

Resolved, That we send one delegate to represent the County of Cumberland in said Convention; and that we appoint Conferees to meet Conferees from Perry and York Counties at such time and place as they may agree on, for the purpose of electing two delegates to represent this Congressional district in said Convention.

Resolved, That Captain Wm. M. Porter be and is hereby appointed delegate of this Convention to represent the County of Cumberland in the Philadelphia Convention; and that Robert Wilson, Benjamin Williams, and R. M. Stevenson be and are hereby appointed Conferees to meet Conferees from Perry and York Counties, to select two Delegates to represent this Congressional District.

Resolved, That in case the Delegate appointed to represent the County cannot attend said Convention he is hereby authorized to appoint a substitute.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Convention be published in all the papers in the Congressional district favorable to President Johnson's reconstruction policy.

The Convention then adjourned.

R. M. STEVENSON,
Secretary.

SOLDIERS' COUNTY CONVENTION.—According to previous call the Soldiers' Democratic Convention met July 25th, 1866, at the Democratic Club Room in Mechanicsburg, for the purpose of selecting seven delegates to represent Cumberland County in the Soldiers' State Convention to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., August 1st, 1866.

On motion Capt. T. F. Singiser was nominated as chairman of the meeting.

On motion the following gentlemen were selected Vice-Presidents: Maj. M. Hale, Capt. W. Penn Lloyd, Capt. J. P. Brindle, Capt. A. S. Landis, Capt. H. A. Longsdorf, Sergt. Daniel Beitzel.—Secretary—Capt. Isaiah H. Graham.

On motion Capt. Diehl and Jos. Rankin, were nominated as Assistant Secretaries.

On motion of Capt. Lloyd, it was moved to proceed to the nomination of delegates to represent the County in Convention at Harrisburg; on Wednesday, August 1st, 1866, when the following gentlemen were chosen: Capt. Landis of Shippensburg; Capt. T. F. Singiser, Mechanicsburg; Capt. W. Penn Lloyd, Lower Allen; Sergt. Wm. M'Clellan, Boiling Springs; Capt. I. H. Graham, South Middleton; Adjutant Geo. Voglesong, West Pennsborough; Maj. M. G. Hale, Southampton.

On motion of Capt. Longsdorf, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, At a Convention of honorably discharged Soldiers and Sailors of Cumberland County, held at Carlisle, Pa., on the 28th day of July, 1866, five delegates were elected to represent this county in State Convention, called by Gen. Hartranft, to meet on the 5th day of August, 1866, in the City of Pittsburg, Pa., and

WHEREAS, The delegates elected by this Convention, regularly assembled under said call, were denied participation in the proceedings of said Convention, and a delegation of Radicals admitted to said Convention from this county, who were neither elected to represent the interests of the Soldiers of this county nor did they express the true sentiments of the Soldiers of this county therefore be it

Resolved, That the Pittsburg Convention was a premeditated political trick, projected and packed by designing political tricksters for the purpose of swindling the majority of the true and loyal Soldiers of this State who fought for the preservation of the Union; therefore we denounce their proceedings and actions as worthy of notice but our contempt.

Resolved, That having served our country faithfully during the recent rebellion, having once more returned to the pursuits of civil life and to the full enjoyment of all our political rights and privileges granted us by the Constitution framed by our patriot sires. Therefore, we, free citizens of the United States—lately its soldiers—not having the fear of Radical bayonets before us if we do not accede to their infamous propositions and proceedings, desire to express to our fellow-Soldiers and countrymen our principles; and we therefore azure President Johnson to enforce and protect them, which are as follows:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the wise and statesmanlike course pursued by President Johnson in the policy laid down for the restoration of the Union, which commends itself to the support of all true friends of the Union and the Constitution.

Resolved, That we pledge to Andrew Johnson, as patriot President, our support and hearty co-operation in all constitutional efforts to restore peace, harmony and prosperity to our bleeding and distracted country, and for his firm and uniform resistance to the revolutionary measures of the Radicals.

Resolved, That we have viewed with amazement and indignation the course of the Radicals in Congress, who are by their revolutionary measures squandering the substance of the people—heaping debt upon debt, consequently—taxation upon taxes—all for the sake of political power and the elevation of the negro race.

Resolved, That the recent effort of that Negro-loving Radical—Thad. Stevens—to force upon the people of the States lately in rebellion immaterial suffrage, meets with the condemnation of every good Union men.

Resolved, That we express to our present worthy, efficient and patriotic member of Congress—the Hon. A. J. Glosbrenner, our sincere thanks for the manner in which he opposed the bold, bad men in Congress who are prostituting the institution by their unwise and revolutionary measures, and urge upon him the propriety of procuring, if possible, the passage of a Bill to equalize bounties and pensions.

Resolved, That in the Hon. Hiester Clymer, we recognize the true gentleman and patriotic citizen—holding opinions the same as our own; who favors the immediate restoration of all the States to their full political rights, and is therefore entitled to our support and that of all good and patriotic citizens. We therefore commend him to the Soldiers and Sailors who fought for the preservation of the Union, and are opposed to negro suffrage and equality.

CLUB MEETING.—An adjourned Meeting of the "Democratic Club" was held in the Court House on Saturday evening, July 28th. The Committee appointed at the previous meeting to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the Club, made a report through their Chairman, M. C. Herman Esq., when on motion the report of the Committee was adopted.

The Committee appointed to report permanent Officers for the Club made the following report which was accepted:

President—William Kennedy Esq.,
Vice Presidents—Henry Newsham Esq., C. Herman Esq.,
Secretary—Theo. Cornman,
Corresponding Secretary—John B. Bratton,
Treasurer—James Armstrong.

Mr. Kennedy on taking the Chair returned his thanks in a very able and practical address.

M. C. Herman Esq., was called for and addressed the Club.

On motion the meeting then adjourned to meet on Saturday evening next at 7½ o'clock.

THEO. CORNMAN,
Secretary.

REV. C. P. WING, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, expects to be in his pulpit next Sabbath.

PROF. J. B. ANDREWS, of Philadelphia, is visiting our town for the purpose of giving instruction in his new, short and simple methods of Calculation, including short methods of Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication and Division, and their application to Interest, Percentage, Discount, Banking and Partial Payments.—We have investigated Prof. Andrews' concise and beautiful system of calculation, and we must say that we regaad it as far superior to the old system. We take great pleasure, therefore, in recommending him to any who may need his professional services. We are authorized to say that the Professor gives instruction to Ladies and Teachers at a reduced fee, and to wounded soldiers free of charge.—His rooms are at Mrs. Aughinbaugh's, on Main St., where he may be found at any time when not professionally engaged.—Terms $3.

BE MODERATE.—In the present season, when cholera and other diseases threaten all classes, there can be no better advice given to our readers than to be moderate in their habits and avoid all excesses. An observance of this simple rule is of more benefit as a protection against diseases then any amount of medical advice or doctor's prescriptions. Many fatal cases of disease that have lately occurred among well-to-do business men, with every social comfort at command, have no doubt been owing to the fact that they were too free in their style of living. Inordinate indulgence of any kind makes the body a prey to disease, and there never was a more appropriate time than the present to practice moderation in everything relating to diet.

BASE BALL.—The Soldiers at the Garrison have succeeded in establishing a permanent organization and have adopted the appropriate name of Grier Base Ball Club. At their first regular meeting which was held on the 19th inst., the following officers for the present year were chosen:

President—Franklin Babbitt,
Vice President—James H. Price,
Secretary—Henry Yaeger,
Treasurer—George W. Burch,
Directors—Jas. B. Richards, Franklin J. Hart and Henry Hall.

Their season for play will commence on the 1st of September next, after which date they will be prepared to receive challenges.

MEETING.—A meeting of the Democratic and Conservative Citizens of South Middleton township will be held at "Centre School House," on Saturday, August 4th, 1866, to form a Club. All who endorse the reconstruction policy of Andrew Johnson, and favor the election of Hon. Hiester Clymer, are cordially invited to attend.

A CARD FROM MR. BROWN.

Now dats jist what Ise been tellin Linda Jane all dis time. Sez I, Linda Jane dem Herald folks means no good a comin bout de house and tellin us we're sistern and brethren. Dey's after mischief, dey is. I knowed it when dey fotched dat big bundle of sarmons preached by Mr. Cowan, and said dey wanted to put dem away under de bed, as dey had promise to gib dem to de people, and was a going to pretend to be wid Massa Johnsing, so dey could git de Post Offis, but dey was afeared to 'stribute dem because de "dam radicals" would start anoder paper. I knowed dey was foxy when dey said dey wanted de cullud folks to vote but was afeared to say so in de paper. Sez I, Linda Jane dat isn't onest, and dey isn't onest as says so. Was dey onest won dey calls to see brudder Howard Day and tells him how great dey think he is, and den is ashamed to tell de folks in de paper dat brudder Day had done been in de town an spoke a piece. Was dey onest when dey got me to send a pistle to brudder Kelley, which was to try to git the Post Offis fur de "ole man." Dey said dey was to pretend to be fur Massa Johnsing and git de 'pointment, and den dey would be de best frens brudder Kelley ober had and git it tru de Senate.—Dey said I must say de ole man was a good "wooly-head," and den dey was all right, dey would be on bofe sides and git de offis. Dey lafled and said dey was in de "bred and butter brigade" as much as enny body, if dey could only git de bred and butter, which was gittin scarce. And now dey is mad case Massa Johnsing wouldn't trust dem, no more wood brudder Kelley. So dey was beat on de Post Offis question, and dats whats de matter. Dey 'tempts to use my name to 'cieve de public, jist as dey did to 'cieve brudder Kelley, and dis darkey isn't gwin e to stand it. He doesn't like de 'sociation. Dey hasn't de back bone which de cullud folks likes to see. Dey seems to be week in de spine. Dey was too week in de spine to go into de army, altho de war was to free de cullud folks, as dey said. Dey thought dey was worth more than $300, so dey come down wid de rhino and bought themselves in at a mity high figger. It was de purpos of dis indiwidual to deny dat he writ de letter in de Herald, but dat letter was considered so smart dat de editor couldn't keep de secret and he told every body he met dat he writ it and not Cuffie Brown. He is welcome to de glory; as to de smartness, dats anoder pint. Dey considers some things smart in de Herald, which some folks doesn't see in dem lamps, but dey has as good right to laff at their one gokes as enny body else.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

SUCCESS OF THE GREAT ENTERPRISE!

Union of the Old and New World!

THE FIRST DESPATCH FROM EUROPE.

THE END OF THE GERMAN WAR.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The following despatch has just been received from Cyrus W. Field:—

HEART'S CONTENT, July 28.—We arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. All well.

Thank God! The cable has been laid, and is in perfect working order.

Second Despatch.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 28.—We are in telegraphic communication with Ireland.

The cable is in perfect order.

CYRUS W. FIELD.

Third Despatch.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 28.—England and America are again united by telegraph. The cable is in perfect order.

We have been receiving and sending messages through the whole cable since the splice on the 13th instant, off Valencia. CYRUS W. FIELD.

Mr. Field to the President.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 27.—To his Excellency President Johnson, Washington, D. C.—Sir:—The Atlantic cable was successfully completed this morning. I hope that it will prove a blessing to England and the United States, and increase the intercourse between our country and the Eastern hemisphere. Yours, faithfully.

(Signed) CYRUS W. FIELD.

The President's Reply.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—To Cyrus W. Field, Heart's Content:—I heartily congratulate you, and trust that your enterprise may prove as successful as your efforts have been persevering.—May the cable under the sea tend to promote harmony between the Republic of the West and the Governments of the Eastern hemisphere.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.

Mr. Field to Secretary Seward.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 17.—Hon. William H. Seward, Washington:—The telegraph cable has been successfully laid between Ireland and Newfoundland. I remember with gratitude your services in the Senate of the United States in the winter of 1857, and recollect with pleasure the speech you then made in favor of the Telegraph bill. That you may never have reason to regret what you have done to establish communication across the Atlantic is the sincere wish of your friend. CYRUS W. FIELD.

Mr. Seward's Reply.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—Cyrus W. Field, Heart's Content.—Acknowledgements and congratulations. If the Atlantic cable had not failed in 1858, European States would not have been led, in 1861, into the great error of supposing that civil war in America would either perpetuate African slavery or divide this Republic. Your great achievement constitutes, I trust, an effective treaty of international neutrality and non-intervention.

(Signed) WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

First Despatch of the Atlantic Cable.

HEART'S CONTENT, N. F., July 27, via Aspy Bay, C. B., July 29.—The London Times of July 27th says of the Atlantic Telegroph: "It is a great work—the story of the age and nations—and they who have achieved it deserve to be honored as the benefactors of their race."

A treaty of peace has been signed between Austria and Prussia. A previous telegram says that a five-days' armistice between Austria and Prussia commenced at noon on the 23d. There was more fighting on the 22d, the Austrians claiming a victory.

The Earl of Shaftsbury had protested in the House of Commons against the holding of reform meetings. Sir John Pakington admitted that England was behind other nations.

A severe naval engagement took place on the 20th of July, off the Island of Lissa, in the Adriatic. The Austrians claimed a victory, having sunk an Italian iron-clad ship and blown up three.
