E NEW RAILROAD.—The Legislarecently granted a charter to a pany to build a railroad from Carlisle, way of Pine Grove, to Caledonia Furin Franklin county. There is every on to believe that the construction of road will be begun during the coming er, and will be rapidly pushed for d to completion, as the Cumberland ley Railroad Company, the South tain Iron Company and other wealcorporations and individuals have the matter in hand. The capitalalready engaged in the enterprise are thoroughly convinced of its feasiand we apprehend no difficulty be found in raising the means requito build the road. The fact is, the advantages to be gained by the contion of a road along the South Mounhave long been conceded, and herere the difficulty has been to get any to make a start. Now that a start been made, we trust the project will eive the cordial cooperation of the rents of those districts through which oad is to pass, and will be endorsed the public sentiment of the entire comity. It would be difficult to overesthe advantages to be gained by ning up and developing the vast minresources of the South Mountain and lopes-by bringing the Iron Works e Messrs. Ahl, Pine Grove Furnace Pond Furnace, Augusta Furnace lonia Furnace and Mt. Alto Furnace nin easy reach of railroad transporta--by bringing the South Mountain trict into direct communication with city markets-and by increasing the e of the real estate along the entire of the road. Ve feel very enthusiastic on this quesof the South Mountain and Caledo-Road, and regard it as an enterprise ich will result in incalculable benefit Cumberland county. The reports of erienced geologists show that no secof the State is richer in mineral alth than this. Ore banks are in option along the entire line of the moun-, yet the difficulty in transportation always been a serious drawback to operation of the mines. The more oughly this mineral wealth is develd, the greater will be the benefit re ing to all classes of our people. Had enterprise been undertaken ten years Cumberland county would to-day be head of where she stands now. To owners of real estate along the South entain at the upper end of this county on the eastern slope of Franklin, project should especially commend f, as it presents the only feasible e of railroad communication which vare likely to secure. To our Adams nty neighbors, over the border, it will n the distance they now have to I their produce to market; and passas the new road will for a distance and the first range of the mountain bring forwarding houses and the m whistle almost to their very doors. he new road will have to build maie shops and employ a number of kmen, and there is no place along the of the road where those shops could advantageously located as at Car-Then they will have to have a deand warehouses. In addition to this, new road will bring to Carlisle the ne trade of certain sections which has herto been diverted to other points; it will also bring within our reach mountain-tha ich there is none better in the State let us hope that with such superior vantages as we will then possess—with l, ore and limestone at our very doors r capitalists will be stimulated to the ion of one or more anthracite furna-, of a rolling mill and a nail factory our humble judgment, the South ountain Railroad will demonstrate for time whether the people of Carlisle ve any spirit of enterprise in themhether Mechanicsburg and Newville e to continue to shame us by their imements, their energy and their thrift whether we will seize hold of the ntages placed within our grasp, and ke Carlisle one of the most enterpris nd thrifty inland business towns in State. For the sake of awakening ancient borough from the Rip Van kle sleep of the last quarter of a cenry, for the sake of developing our minwealth, and for the sake of the agritural interests of the county, we are rmly enlisted in favor of the new raild project, and hope to see it completed an early day. More Incendiarism. - On Tuesday ight, about 11½ o'clock, the large stable tached to Hannon's "Franklin House," Mulberry Alley, in the rear of the ourt House, (the property of Mrs. Mceley,) was discovered to be on fire.he alarm was immediately given, and r citizens at once aroused. The flames ogressed very rapidly, and at one time atened serious destruction to the surunding property, but the united exerous of our fire department soon checked e further progress of the flames. The ole, with a large quantity of hay and aw were entirely destroyed. Two valle horses and a dog, belonging to Mr. olf, and a fine cow belonging to Mr. nnon, were consumed with the sta-There was no insurance. This is third time within the last twenty ears that the stable of this hotel has en destroyed by fire. ANNOUNCEMENT.—We are requested to nounce that Mr. Hannon has secured use of the large brick stable, belongng to the Given property, in the rear of Presbyterian Church, (Glass' old id,) and can furnish accommodations

ENGRAYINGS.—Mr. Levi Meiley is now this place canvassing for two very fine cel Engravings, engraved by that disnguished Artist, Mr. Samuel Sartain, of hiladelphia. The Engravings are called Chirst Blessing Little Children," and Bethlehem," and are match pictures. We are especially pleased with the "Bethem," which is a new Engraving and ecidedly superior Work of Art. The ingravings are fine ornaments, and the blects of them so interesting and aptopriate as to make them desirable in ry family.

POLICE ITEMS .- On Monday last, Joseph Moyer was arrested by officer Mcartney on a charge of horse stealing and as committed for trial by Esquire De-Henry Kyner was also arrested for ewdness and indecent conduct, and was committed for trial.

MAD Dogs.—The dogs of Cumberland county seem to be on a general hydrophobiac spree. Almost every day we hear of one being killed, in some portion of the county. Our local columns have contained an account of parties who were bitten near Stoughstown and in Shippensburg. A mad dog also made his appearance in Papertown, on Thursda y Inst I grand chase was made after him, and he was finally killed at the edge of town. Mr. Peter Spahr was induced to shoot a valuable dog, on Sunday evening, by the strange conduct of the animal. It seems to be the opinion of scientific men that this madness is induced by the long spell of cold weather, by which the streams vere frozen over for several weeks and the dogs prevented from getting their accustomed supply of water. OUR BOROUGH MAP .- Mr. Strong is now engaged in making his final canvass for subscribers to his publication. The work of making the drafts has already been completed, and it must have been very laborious. The proof sheets of the map are now ready for correction, and we are authorized to invite all who are interested, or who have property in town, to come and examine them, and have any corrections and alterations made they may wish. Mr. Strong will show the proofs to any who may wish to examine them any evening during the present or next week, at the office of the County Commissioners, in the Court House,-Any person who may examine the work will readily see the advantage of a publication of this kind, and the present work is executed on a very complete scale.-Those having land in the suburbs of the town which they intend to sell for building lots, can have the lots laid off on the map in any manner they may wish and without any expense to themselves.

EXTENSIVE SALE.—The executors of Henry Logan, deceased, offer at public sale, at the late residence of the deceased n York county, 11 miles east of Dills burg, on Monday and Tuesday, March 4th and 5th, the personal property of deceased. The first day's sale will embrace the stock and farming implements, the second day's sale will consist of household furniture. Sale to commence at 10 clock. J. J. Logan, W. H. Logan and J. C. REVIVALS.—The Lutheran and Bethe ongregations of this place have been olding a series of meetings in their re meetive churches for a number of weeks Their efforts have been crowned with unounded success, as over one hundred have made profession of religion since their commencement.

SLEIGHING.—" What a world of merriment, &c." Sleighs that had been laid on the dry-docks, under the impression hat the fun was over for this winter, were nauled down on Thursday last, and mustered into active service. Although in town sleighing was rather muddy busiless, in the country it was very fine. Quite a large party from this place paid its frosty respects to Greenvillage on Friday evening.

MAD Dogs,-Every person is crying mad dog," not however without some occasion, as that sort of cattle appear to be on the increase about here; in fact, so much so that to every dog that comes along one is inclined to adopt a lately recommended theory for prevent-eng-hydrophebia, viz: "Get on a high fence and stay there until the dog passes by." Two children of Jacob Fry, near Shippensburg, were bitten during last week. Several other cases have occurred, but we could not learn the names.

WARE HOUSE.-The C. V. R. R. company have in successful operation their arge ware house, at this place. The building is located on what was known as the old rail road lot.

NEW RAIL ROAD.—The immense bank of iron ore, known as the "Clever bank," discovered a year or so since. has given rise to a new rail road project. The design is to connect this bank with the C. V. R. R. by means of a branch, the disance being about three miles. This enerprise is very much needed, as the supply is large. Already, by means of lumbering road wagons, about 350 to 400 tons per week are deposited at the rail road for shipment.

NEWVILLE ITEMS.

FIRE.-On Wednesday night of lastweek, the Steam Saw Mill Building, belonging to the Doubling Gap Lumber and Mining Company, was entirely destroyed by fire. It is supposed that the fire originated through negligence in putting out the fires about the premises the day before. There was no insurance on the property.

OUR P. M .- We are blessed with a most amiable Post Master in Newville, and yet on the days on which the Volunteer arrives, his patience and amiability are sorely tried. The large package of Volun-TEERS which comes to this office on Wednesday afternoon causes a delay of about fifteen minutes longer than usual, in opening the mail; and it has becom a general remark among the citizens, "Oh, this is Volunteer day, there is no use in going to the office yet." Of course the crowd becomes impatient for the news, and the boys get noisy and mischevious, and "Mac" has to get out after them every now and then with a club, and this don't facilitate the distribution of the two or three big bundles of Volunteers. But "Mac" takes it all very good humoredly, and looks over the piles of papers for those who have no boxes very patiently, and after all every body goes away in a good humor in o doubt indulging the sensible reflection that if everybody will take the Volunteers, they will have to give the P. M. time to distribute them.
