Run Off.-On Monday morning last between the hours of six and seven, Mr. John Miller and wife were out driving on the Hanover turnpike, when some loose horses, running by at great speed, rightened Mr. Miller's horse and made him perfectly unmanageable. Mr. M. drew his horse to the side of the road and jumped from the buggy to hold him by the head, when he made a sudden spring, throwing Mrs. Miller from the buggy and making his escape. He brought the buggy with him to town, leaving it near the livery stable of Peffer & Brother, and was finally brought up on the pavement near the VOLUNTEER office, with nothing but the gears and two pieces of the shafts attached to him. We are glad to learn that neither of the parties sustained serious injury.

NEW BRIDGE.-The Cumberland Valley Rail Road Company are now engaged in repairing the bridge over Letort Spring, at the eastern end of town. The piers were destroyed by the rebels in 1863, sinc which time the track has been sustained by trestle-work. The old stone piers are now being rebuilt and the new bridge will be a substantial and tasteful struc-

BASE BALL.—The "Athletic" Bas Ball Club, of Philadelphia, on Monday, played a match game with the "Tyroleans," of Harrisburg, at Camp Curtin.— An immense crowd of spectators was in attendance, embracing many from Carlisle, Newville and Mechanicsburg. At the close of the game the score stood. Athletics, 118-Tyroleans, 11. An unsuccessful effort was made to get the Athletics to promise to play in this place during the coming fall.

ARRESTED .- The police seemed to be doing a big business on Tuesday evening. Two soldiers were arrested for threaten ing to shoot Benjamin Eckles, who had ordered them out of his house.

Two drunk and disorderly darkies were also arrested and committed to jail by Burgess Campbell.

WEEKLY PRAYER MEETINGS .-- FOR the past two months the young men of this town have come together once a week to engage in singing and prayer, and other pleasant evening exercises. These meetings are held every Monday evening of each week at the houses of our citizens, and are well attended. They are of immense benefit to every young man who attends them, who, otherwise, might spend the evening in places not at all suited to mould a good character. We trust that they will be encouraged by our

SOMETHING FOR PARENTS TO CONSID-ER.—A child beginning to read become delighted with a newspaper, because h reads of names and things which are very familiar, and he will make progress accordingly. A newspaper in one year, says an eminent teacher, is worth a quarter's schooling to a child, and every father must consider that substantial information is connected with advancement. The mother of the family, being one of its heads, and having a more immediate charge of the children, should herself be instructed. A mind occupied, becomes fortified against the ills of life, and is braced for any emergency. Children amused reading or study are, of course, considerate and more easily governed.-How many thoughtless young men have spent their earnings in a tavern or grog p. who ought t How many parents who never spent twenty dollars for books, for their families, would gladly have given thousands to reclaim a son or daughter who had ignorantly and thoughtlessly fallen into RELEASED ON BAIL.—Robert C. Gibson, and his sons Geo. H: and Charles, charged with the killing of Jacob B. Sheaffer, at the Falling Springs, this county, an account of which we gave last week, were brought before Judges Graham and Lefever on a writ of habeas corpus last Friday. The hearing occupied the whole afternoon. The father, Robert C., and one of the sons, George H., were released on bail-the former on his own recognizance in the sum of $1000 and two sureties of $500 each, and the latter on his own recognizance in the sum of $500 and two sureties each $250 .--Charles was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff. Their trial will come off at the August term .- Perry Democrat.

JUDICIAL SALES .- Last winter the Legislature passed an act in regard to Judicial Sales, the 2d and 3rd sections of which more particularly should be borne in mind by purchasers of real estate. The 2d section provides that private sales made by order of Court, under the act of 1853, shall discharge the premises sold from the lien of the debts of the decedent. except debts of record, and debts secured by mortgages. The 3rd section provides that when the lien of a mortgage on real estate is prior to all other liens except other mortgages, ground rents, &c., the lein of such mortgages is not to be destroyed or in any way effected by any judicial or other sale. A case occurred in Harris burg only a day after this law went into ce, where a party bid $5,000 on a certain property, against which was a mortgage of $5,000-thus, by the term of this ct, the purchaser becoming responsible for the payment of $10,000, for that for which he had only bid $5,000. Bidders at judicial sales had better hereafter have the records of mortgages, &c., examine and regulate their bids accordingly.

A HINT FOR THE WARM WEATHER. Workmen, pedestrians and others whose vocations necessitate anything like exposure to the sun while the thermometer is up among the nineties, will do well to remember that many a case of sun-stroke and general prostration from the effects of heat has been prevented by keeping wet green leaves in the crown of the hat. If leaves are not attainable, a pocket hand kerchief, eaturated with water and placed in the hat or cap, will be found to be beneficial in warding off the attacks of the DESTRUCTIVE HAIL STORM.—The York Pennsylvanian says a very destructive bail storm passed over Longstown and vicinity Wednesday afternoon of last week. The crops in the fields and the trees were ter ribly out up, and many fences were demolished. It has been stated that forty sheep were killed on a single farm. The hall storm skipped through portions of Spring Garden, Manchester and York townships.

Bores.-The most vigilant constabulary is no safeguard against bores. They can pounce upon their prev in the com mon thoroughfare, under the very nosof authority, without incurring the slight est peril. They can hold you but no policemen will hold them; not will an action for unwarranted arrest lie against them in a court of equity. It ought to, perhaps, but it won't. They can even invade your domicile and insist upon the loan of your ears, with entire impunity. And yet ordinary burglary is a trifle compared with such an intrusion upon your peace and privileges. The burglar you can shoot, if you have nerve, and the knack of it; but-such is the monstrous dictum of the code polite-you must be civil to the bore at the expense of con-

REV. Mr. McNight entered upon his duties as pastor of the Lutheran congregation, on Sabbath last.

Who is President of the United States?

Certainly not Andrew Johnson. Be cause:

1st—The July session of Congress is convened, not by the President, in the White House at Washington, but by Thaddeus Stevens, in Pennsylvania. The Constitution says the President "may on extraordinary occasions convene both houses—or one of them," but as the convening in this case is at the instance of Stevens, a good many people nuturally vening in this case is at the instance of Stevens, a good many people, nuturally enough, are concluding that he must be President of the United States.

2d. Others think it must be Secretary Stanton, seeing that it is to him, and not to Andrew Johnson, that some of the Southern Caliphs are addressing their edicts, rescripts and communications.—Thus to-day, the telegraph tells us, that Secretary Stanton has refused to receive the resignation of General Sickles. Andrew Johnson is not permitted to have drew Johnson is not permitted to have drew Johnson is not permitted to have any voice in the matter.

3d. Possibly, however, both of these classes of persons may be mistaken. The Express inclines to the conviction that General Sheridan is president. No man who is not persuaded that he is invested with supreme power, would have dared to write such a letter as he did the other days to General Great terrosting the best. day to General Grant, respecting the Pre-sident and the President's orders.

It may be thought that instead of be-ing but one President, as prescribed by the Constitution, we have now three or four—the one having the least power and the least respect paid to him being the one who occupies the chair in which

Washington sat.—N. Y. Express. NEPOTISM.—We find in Mc'Clure's Re

NEPOTISM.—We find in Mc'Clure's Republican organ, at Chambersburg, the following plain talk:

This ever despised Nepotism is becoming quite common, and should be stronging reprobated, yet the proper way to root out this, or any other such evil, is to deal with it in plain, pointed words, fearlessly pointing out those who are guilty of this violation of the rules which should govern men in official positions. This I propose to do and in doing it, I am persuaded I do my party service.

Of five transcribing clerks in the Sente. at its last session three were sons of ern men in official positions. This I propose to do and in doing it, I am persuaded I do my party service.

Of five transcribing clerks in the Senate, at its last session three were sons of Senators, and they each received a little over $1000 for their services. They were the sons of Senators Graham and Bigham, of Allegheny county, and Senator Rev. R. Audley Browne of Lawrence county. The latter Senator by giving his own son a place, drove home a crippled soldier, who held a position the previous season. A son of Senator Connell has been an assistant Door Keeper for several years, at a salary of about $800.

For this there is possibly some excuse, in the fact of Senator C's helpless condition. In the House, I find Geo. De Haven, Jr., son of one of the Representatives from Philadelphia, holding the position of an Assistant Messenger, James Ghegan, brother of a Philadelphia member, acting as an Assistant Door Keeper and the father of Frank Mechling, of Armstrong, in the same capacity, at an average salary of $800.

Odium should and will attach to men Odium should and will attach to men who thus use their positions for family purposes, and such conduct is damaging to the party, for the reason that it robs others, who desire and deserve positions, of their share in the fruits of party triumph. Conspicuously shameful in this list in the case of Speaker Graham, who is a man of large fortune, and professedly scrupulous in all his official acts, and yet who in this matter has shown an entire lack of delicacy in foisting his own son, who is but a boy, upon the Senate during two sessions.

Interesting to Germans.—J. Harvey Ewing, a lawyer of Baltimore, is to start to Europe in September to look after a great estate that if there is a failure of German heirs, is to come to some person in this country related to the Graf, Groff, or Grove family. There is a runor that an immense estate is in Holland for the descendants of Hans Graf, who fied from the persecution against the Menonites near the close of the seventeenth century, came to America, and settled in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. Among the descendants of this fellow Graf, are, it seems, the Immels, Mallory, Hodges, the descendants of this fellow Graf, are, it seems, the Immels, Mallory, Hodges, Foster, Graf, Strider, Grove, Musser, Price, Herttien, Lenhart, Myers, Lanning, Sanders, Groves, Groff, Guist, Kelso, Dawson, Huyett, French, Thomas, Ward, Webb, Rambo, Glass, Lynn, McFarlin, Fries, Hunt, Sechrist, Drake, Shackleford, Buxton, Gray, Shaw and many others to all of whom we wish much luck.

Mormons at the Paris Exposition.—
Says a Paris writer: "Within the past few days we have repeatedly come across some human outgrowth of, a peculiar American Institution, that, though not forming part of our Exhibition, are yet among the most curious of our contributions to the Exposition. They are two live specimens of Mormondom, in the form of two sons of Brigham Young. The oldest of the two calls himself Brigham Young, Jr., is a very intelligent person, oldest of the two calls himself Brigham Young, Jr., is a very intelligent person, between thirty-five and forty, of short stature and considerable embonpoint.—
The younger is a thin, rather cadaverous looking individual. The former, we understand, has brought two of his wives along, in the enjoyment of which double blessing, the French Police are not very likely to disturb him. The Exposition being 'universal,' it is perhaps no more than proper that Mormondom should be represented. But the two offsprings of the Head of the Church seem to be the only representatives from the land of the Latter Day Saints."

GOLD AND SILVER PRODUCTION.—It is estimated that the total national product of buillon in the United States is now about $100,000,000 per annum—$20,000,000 from placer or gulch gold diggings, and $80,000,000 from quartz-mining. Of the quartz product about three-fourths are from gold; bearing iodes, and one-fourth from silver mines. In the production of Gold, California takes the lead, yielding about $50,000,000. about $50,000,000.

TRIAL OF MAXIMILIAN.

omposition of the Court Martini-An Ablo Defence--The Accusations Against the Archduke, &c. NEW ORLEANS, July 10.-The Browns NEW ORLEANS, July 10.—The Brownsville Ranchero of the the 4th inst. publishes the proceedings of the courtmartial that tried Maximilian and his generals.

The court was composed of a lieutenant-colonel, acting as President, six captains, and the Judge Advocate, Lieutenant-Colonel Manuel Aspieroz.

The prisoners were tried separately. In each case they presented a plea denying the jurisdiction of the court, and protesting against the refusal of the right of appeal.

the last. He was ably defended by Senor Eulalco Ortega, who refuted the charges of usurpation and cruelty, and said the law of October 3 was made when Maximilian was cheated into the belief that Junrez had abandoned the territory, and that one of the articles of that law was dictated by the French Commander-in-Chief

Chief.

He said, moreover, that the law was only intended as a terror, as there had never been a petition for pardon presented but it was canceled. He earnestly asked the members of the court, in the name of civilization and of history, which will judge of the terrible deeds done this day, as the defenders of the second independence of Mexico, to save the good name of the country in the eyes of com-ing generations. They will forever ap-plaud it as the crowning of the greatest of victories and the greatest of pardons.

plate it as the crowning of the greatest of victories and the greatest of pardons. Among the accusations against Maximilian were the following: For attempting to prolong the war, by the decree of March 7, creating a regency in the case of his death in the coming battles.

Jesus Maria Vasquez, one of Maximilan's counsel, closed his argument as follows: "If you condemn the Archduke to death, I am not uneasy about a coalition in Europe, or the threatening attitude that the United States may assume towards the Republic. I have confidence in the Liberal armies, that have rooted out the French from the soil, but I fear the universal reproach that will fall upon our country as an anathema, more than even the sentence of death, because of the nullity of the procedings of this court."

The court commenced at 8 A. M. on the 13th, and went into secret session on the evening of the 14th, and dissolved at o'clock the same night.

Flendish, Outrage and Murder by Ne groes in North Carolina,

They then robbed the house of all its contents, and not becoming satisfied, set upon the family and committed the most cruel mu ders ever recorded. The first victims were Mr. Foster and his wife, who were taken out and murdered before the eyes of their children. They then seized a daughter of Mr. Foster, and her child, an infant about five months old, and after snatching the child from her arms and killing it, murdered the mother. A young daughter of the family caught up a child and started to run away from the scene, when she was fired upon by the miscreants and herself and the child both wounded.
