THE COMING MAN .- We are informed that on Saturday last, three "colored remmen" in the employ of our musical friend Prof. John A. McKeehan, of West ennsboro, were sent to the field for the ourpose of spreading manure. On going o the field shortly afterwards Mr. Mc-Keehan found his laborers luxuriating in the shade of an oak tree and no work going on. He directed them to go to work, when they flew up in high dudgeon, told him to "go to h-l, and spread his own manure" and left the premises.— Mr. McKeehan took the fork and proceeded to work, and shortly afterwards they returned and demanded their pay.-This he declined to give them, when one of them attempted to strike him; and getting a good stout blow in return, wrested the dung-fork from Mr. McKeehan's hands and attempted to run him through with the prongs. Mr. M., by running, made good his escape to a heap of stones, where he prepared to defend himself .-The darkies, fearing the arrival of reinforcements, finally made good their retreat. Could not our genial, jovial and musical friend treat us to another song at the Republican Mass Meeting this fall, and take for his theme the blessings of negro equality. The subject in his hands,

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP .-This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable.— His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but owerful remedy. His health was restored in a powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures reflected by his medicines have and the cures effected by his medicines hav and the cures effected by his meanines mive been very numerons and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's pulmonic Syrup, Scawced Tonic and Mandrako Pills are generally all required in curing Consumption.—Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars. Please observe, when purchasing, that the two Relate Observe, which prechange at the Anti-litenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.
