His election, by a large majority, is conceded by all. er Allen, is our candidate for Jury Commissioner. This is an office created by to our last Radical Legislature, and is a very important and responsible position. It is not a lucrative office, but it requires a man with brains to fill it, and this the Democracy think they have got in Mr. Drawbaugh. A better selection could not have been made .--Our only regret is that while Mr. D's services will be invaluable in that office, the office itself will not be more valueble to him. But it is absolutely necessary that the position should be filled by a competent man, and the selection of Mr. Drawbaugh was made just because he possesses, in an eminent degree, the qualifications necessary to the proper discharge of its duties. He will make an excellent Commissioner. For Auditor the Convention selected ELIAS MOUNTZ, of South Middleton .-He is a gentleman of character, and a good accountant, and hisselection was a compliment he well deserved. This oftice, like that of Jury Commissioner, affords but a trifling compensation, but yet it is necessary that a careful and competent man should fill it. The Convention was fortunate in making selection of Mr. Mountz for this position, for all feel that he will perform his duties in an eminently satisfactory manner.

We have thus noticed, individually, our candidates, and we now submit them to the people, conscious that their merits will be recognized, and confident that they will all be elected triumphantly. Let the Democracy organize at once. We are proud of our cause and have confidence in our candidates, and under their banners will achieve the greatest Democratic victory ever won in Cumberland county.

We find the following among the special dispatches to the Evening Bulletin

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Gen. Grant's administration of the War Department is creating no slight astonishment. He ignores politics, and exacts fidelity and merit as the only test of promotion. He has introduced a system of rigid economy. All superfluous officers will be dismissed, and expenses reduced to the lowest point. We howly, supposed the Bulletin We hardly supposed the Bulletin would allow such a dispatch to appear in its columns. It indirectly charges that Stantou made polities, not merit or fidelity, a test of promotion, and that he had failed to introduce a system of rigid economy in the administration of his department. The country is well satisfied that Stanton is obnoxious to these charges. It mattered not how merituous a soldier was his services could not receive recognition at the War Department unless he was a Radical in politics. He was extravagant in his de-

CONTINUED.—The cases of J. A. Rupp and R: A. Sharp, in which true bills were found by the grand Jury, will not be tried at the present term having been continued until the November sessions. It will be remembered that these men were arrested a couple of months ago for the larceny of thousands of dollars worth of valuable books and other property be-longing to the State, which they sold to old paper dealers in this city. It is very i doubtful whether these Radical plun-derers will ever be brought to trial and punishment.
