tion from us. Mr. Hutchison's reason for selling is that his business in Harrisburg occupies so much of his time as to prevent him giving the farm proper attention. The terms will be made easy.

NEW BUILDINGS.—The splendid three story brick building, being erected by Robert Given, Esq., on the site of the old stone hotel on the North-west corner of the public square, is rapidly approaching the town. There are two large storesidence on the second and third floors .---

Mr. Given deserves the thanks of the Community for removing the debris of the old stone house, and erecting such an elegant and imposing structure in its place. The neat and tasty private residence bnilt by Samuel Gould Esq., on Pomfret

West of Hanover, is the subject of many encomiums for its admirable arrangement. It is almost finished, and will be ready for the occupants early in October. The Messrs. Beetem have commenced the erection of a double brick house on Louther between College and East streets.
