REMARKABLE INCIDENT.-Some few Dickinson township, lost a valuable cow and advertised her. He hunted the country around, and had about given her up for lost, when strange to say while loading straw, about three weeks after her disappearance, he found her imbedded in the straw pile, perfectly sound and well, though somewhat weak She was last seen in the barn yard when Mr. Yeingst was threshing, and it is presumed the straw fell around her so fas that she was unable to extricate herself. It seems marvellous that she did not suf-

COURT.-The January term of Court convened on Monday. The attendance of suitors, witnesses and spectators is larger than usual. A full report of the pro reedings will be found in our next issue.

CROWDEDOUT. - An interesting letter from our Harrisburg correspondent, giving an account of the organization of the Senate and House, has been unavoidably crowded out.

ET CHARLES LOBDELL, associate editor of the La Crosse Democrat, was one of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD the victims of the late awful accident on the Lake Shore Railroad. He was on his way to Bridgeport, Conn., to be married. Lamentably sad.

AMERICAN SHERRY WINE .- This rich and delightful wine, made from the as weell as that most dreaded of all diseases, Con-Wine Plant, by Mr. Joseph Heiser, North Pitt Street, Carlisle, is, beyond question, the most wholesome as it is the most delicious of our domestic wines. It is highly recommended by our physicians for its medical properties, and is at present extensively used in the sick room. Mr. Heiser has man-ufactured a considerable quantity of this pure wine, and has it for sale at $2 per Hall's Journal of Health says, "there is no trouble in eating pork in cold weather." We don't dispute itbut there is a good deal of trouble in getting pork to eat this cold weather, at ruling prices.

'Canst thou not minister to a mind disceased, And, with some sweet, oblivious antidote, Cleanse the foul bosom of the perilous stuff, That weighs upon the heart?'

Certainly; Plantation Bitters will doit when nothing e'se will. Melancholy, Depression, Hypochondria, Insanity, all spring, more or less, from a disceased stomach, and this, Plantation Bitters is a sure cure. There is no mistake about it; Dyspepsia, Headache, Dullness, Ague, and Low Spirits must yield to the healthgiving and genial influence of the Plantation Bitters. If you are in doubt, make one trial and be convinced. Thus say those who know.

"There is a very marked improvement in the feeling of the people here as far as regards politics. The conservative, con-ciliatory course of conduct thus far putsu-ed by General Hancock, as well as the re-cent Democratic triumphs in the North, have seftened very myell the feelings of have softened very much the feelings of the Southerners in this city toward the the Southerners in this city toward the Union and Northern people. General Hancock is certainly the most popular man in New Orleans at present; and, as an indication of the change of sentiment, I am told by the great folks here that they, and more wonderful still, their wives, are going to open their houses to the General and his cntourage."

TALKING Dog. -- A story has been current for some time in Washington to the effect that, when inquiring individuals seek to obtain an expression of opinion on political subjects from General Grant he invariably begins to "talk dog." The Tribune, of yesterday, gives the following specimen of the General's ability to shirk the question:

An occasional correspondent writes us from Washington the following dialogue, which we print as a good joke, without at all vouching for its authenticity: Inquiring Republican (to Gen. Grant)
—Well, General, what do you think will be the effect of negro suffrage, fairly carried out?

General Grant—Have you seen Marshal Brown's pups? They are the fluest in the district. [Exit inquirer, quite satisfied with the certinence of the answer, and leaving the General smoking.]

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistari's Balsan of Wills Cheriky—Hardised seemed to be in a decline, and little lopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent flaisam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition because there is a good dead of spurious Wista's Balsam of Will Cherry affoot the valuable from the country.
