WHO LET THAT WHISKEY RUN ?-On Saturday night last some evil minded individual, not having the fear of the police force before his eyes, entered the cellar of Mr. Philip Pritsch, at the Farmers and Drovers Hotel, on South Hanover street, and opened the spigot of a barrel of whiskey. It is supposed that the parties helped themselves and became too drunk to stop the flow o the liquor. But little of it was saved. This proceeding may perhaps be accounted for by the scarcity of water in that end of the town for the last few days. The company having failed to supply that section on account of burst-

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree: but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy meeting exists to a remarkable degree in

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchilis, Whooping Enugh, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affections, and Incipient Consumption is inestimable. STRONG TESTIMONY.

From Benjamin Wheeler, Esq., Depot Master of South Royalston, Mass.

"In the spring of 1884 I was most soverely affileted with a nard, dry cough, with legisland accompantiments of night sweate, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health that, after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon through the influence of a neighbor to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and, before using two bottles, the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely loft me, the night sweats descreted mehope once more cluted my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor. Thus has this Bussain, as has often been remarked by persons conversain with the above facts, literally snatched mo from the yawning grave, You are at Decryt ouse this for the bentlit of the afflicted.

BITTERS.—In the medical world, nowa-days. Bitters are all the rage. In one form or a-days, Bitters are all the rage. In one form or mother, under one name or another, they and their starling advertisements are everywhere to be found, professing to cure all the Ills flesh is heir to, from a bump on the head to the small pox. Of their efficacy in general we know noth-ing, but there is one variety concerning which we hear pruise from all. We refer to Hoofland's German Bitters. This is not a more preparation German Bitters. This is not a mere prepare of some sort of liquor and bitter herbs and bark but a Medicine designed for Diseases of the Stomach and Bowls, and of great power and usefulness. We have not made these assertions without consulting those who know, and are competent to judge, and they all fully endorse

The above remarks are repied from the Editoriat solums of the "EAGLE," Pounthequite, N. Y. You will recollect that HOUSIAND'S HERMAN BIT-TERS is entirely free from any alcoholic ingredients. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bit-ters with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some Alcoholle Stimulant is necessary, and makes a preparation delibghtfully ant and agreeable
