Its folly, the managers could not afford to lose their labor, and so determined that it should go in anyhow. This "lame and importent "doc- unert would be a disgrace to any vitilage lawyer who would present it to a county court. It shows the calibre of the conspirators, who intend to have the ornspirators, who intend to have the President voted out of his place by his political enemies.
Expectring no more patronage from the present Legislature, the Radicat press have already opened their batteries of abuse upon it. They say it is a great a failure as the preceding one, but promise better things, next time, as usual.

impeachment trial. The Freshows stat, is swer, which was read on Monday last, is been a masterly document. There considered a masterly document. There is nothing like subterfuge, evasion or is nothing like subterfuge, evasion or petifogging in it. It meets every charge boldly and openly. If it fail to be con-clusive with the Senate, it will assuredly have an effect upon fair-minded men throughout the country. The trial is fast resolving itself in the Senate, as was the case in the House, in-to a mere party question, filled with the passion and sourced on with the maligto a mere party question, filled with the passion and spurred on with the malig-nancy of Radicalism. The formidable outside pressure, solidified by the cohes-ive power of public plunder, and repre-sented on the common generalities of the politician, to lobylst and the jobber, is all for impeachment. Office seekers, the ink on whose applications for positions under President Johnson is hardly dry, are joining in the partisan crusade, and talk gliby or " President Wade." There is, though, a thorn pricking keenly into the sides of Senators Morgan, Wilson, Fesenden, Anthony, and one or two oth-Fesenden, Anthony, and one or two oth
