STABBING AFFAIR .- James Collins. colored, was arrested on Wednesday last, charged with stabbing Milton Lane, also colored, in the breast and arm with a pocket knife. This row resulted from the nigger butting match which occurred n the Market House a few days before

THE NEW COINAGE.-The new five cent coins from the mint in Philadelphia are the size of the present piece; the three cent and one cent pieces are somewhat smaller. The devices on all of them are alike-on one side the head of the Goddess of Liberty, surrounded by the words "Tinited States of America." on the other sids are the Roman numerals I., III., and V. This is the last change; what will be the next?

Innocent amusements, visits to town, indulgences in the dance and other popular sports, usually fill up the hours from morning until night and the shades of the latter are often appropriated to wooing and endeavoring to win the affections of those fair ones, which are ordained as our friends, our helpmates and companions. There is not, and should not be, anything wrong in these festive sports. They are in themselves innocent, and are only attended by evil, when they are associated with crime and made subservient to the baser purposes of our nature.

HOW TO CATCH RATS .-- A curious method of killing rats is recommended in a German journal as very efficient. A piece of new or unused sponge is cut into small pleces, which are smeared with butter and placed within reach of the rats, next to the dish of water. The rats eat the sponge, and becoming thirsty, drink the water, which swells the sponge, and in a short time kills the animals, which are found dead all around.

That's ail very well but we had a better arrangement in our office several years ago. A quantity of roller composition, composed of glue and molasses, was accidentally spilt on the floor. It remained soft for some time and became regular trap for vermin of all kinds. It was constructed on truly scientific principles,—the sweetness of the molasses attracted them and the glue stuck them fast. Rats, mice, flies guats and every other creeping thing that partook was stuck fast and met a sweet death. This style of trap might not do for tidy housekepers but printers are not notorious for the neatness of their chapels.

THE TWO MERCHANTS.—When trade grew slack and notes fell due the mer-chant's face grew long and blue; his dreams were troubled through the night with sheriff's bailiffs, all in sight. At last his wife unto him said, "Rise up at once, and get out of bed, and get your paper, ink and pen, and say these words unto all men: My goods I wish to sell to you, and your wives and daughters too; my prices they shall be so low, that each will buy before they go." He did as his good wife advised, and in the paper advertised. Crowds came and bought of all he had; his notes were paid his dreams made glad, and he will tell you to this day, how well did printer's ink repay. He told us this, with a knowing wink how he was saved by printer's ink. The other, in a place as tight, contented was the press to slight, and did not let the people know of what he had or where togo; a levy on his goods was made; the store was closed until the sale, and for sometime he was in jail. A bankrupt now, without a cent, at leisure he does deep repent, that very foolish and unwise, he did not freely advertise.

THE REGISTRY LAW.—The constitutionality of this law, to which we stated our objections directly after its passage by our Radical Legislature, will soon be tested in the Supreme Court. A bill in Equity was filed last week by George W. Biddle, Esq., praying the Court to grant an injunction restraining the Aldermen of the city of Philadelphia meeting to organize a Board or appoint canvasses
