THE RADICALS THREATEN WAR.

There is no doubt that we will follow the election of Seymour and Blair. Radical change. We have seen a Radical expressed by several prominent Republican papers. What does this mean? Who will inaugurate the war that will follow the election of Seymour and Blair? Will it be the Radicals of the North, or the negroes of the South? It will have to be one or the other, or both united, as the Democracy can hardly be suspected of any intention of making war upon a government of their own choosing.

ANOTHER RADICAL SCHEME.

How Grant is to be elected—A Warning to Scallawags and White Niggers. Another trick of tyranny, another swindle, is about to be perpetrated not only upon the people of the South, but upon the Northern masses. The scallawags and thieves are determined, if they can accomplish it, to carry the Southern States for the Unreformed Grant next November.

ANSWER, HYPOCRISY!

The Democrats of the Third Congressional District of Ohio have nominated Hon. O. L. Vallandigham for Congress. We are glad of this. Mr. V. was one of the men who was persecuted by the low and infamous Lincoln administration, and we are always pleased to see those men cared for by the Democracy. More than this, Mr. Vallandigham is among the able men of the country.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

By Telegraph to Forney's Press. The Legislature. Columbia, Aug. 17.—The House passed the bill to elect the State on an equal footing with the whites. The negro members demanded the right to hold tables, beds, and all licensed places. Several white Republicans went against the bill, and the tax law was passed without a dissenting vote.

The above telegram appeared in Forney's Press of the 18th inst. and it follows citizens of all parties, and as you do so remember that South Carolina, one of the richest States in the Union, has been brought to her present condition by the Radical "reconstruction policy." "The negro members demand the right to hold tables, beds and all licensed places." "The tax law passed without opposition," but "a majority of the members are too ignorant to understand or discuss it." "The State is bankrupt." "What a confusion is this! The South Carolina Legislature is composed of a majority of negroes, who demand the right to occupy beds and tables in common with white men and "white niggers," most of them from Massachusetts. It is surprising that South Carolina should sink and become bankrupt, under the load of degradation that has been placed upon her shoulders? Such Radical "reconstruction." Before next November this reconstruction business will be a stench in the nostrils of the people, and there will be no peace in the land until it is laid to rest in March, 1869.

It is well for the Democratic party that these Congressional nominations should have time to ripen their fruits before the Presidential election. A very outrage of which they are the origin, every crime of which they are the source, will be so many electioneering agents for Seymour and Blair. The known opposition of our Presidential candidates to the selfish policy of reconstruction will be in itself sufficient to secure the success of the Democratic ticket. The people of the United States will never tolerate such a crime against nature as placing white men under the heel of negroes, and when they see the working of that villainous scheme in its full iniquitous perfection, they will turn their backs upon the scoundrels who are plotting its execution.

And the Radical journals have the nerve to say that these Reconstruction acts must stand. Why? Because they are part and parcel of an inviolable Constitution that was rent in twain to make an opening for them! Must stand! What! Shall men who scorned to be bound by laws made by the patriots of the Revolution, claim perpetuity for their trumpet legislation? The tyranny of a North Carolina, California, says a political writer and deep thinker, "would be more tolerable than an irrevocable law. Mark, without reference in the slightest degree to its spirit or utility. Simply because it is irrevocable." What would he have thought of "irrevocable laws" framed by men drunk with passion and crazy with fanaticism?

CONGRESS—OUR CANDIDATE.

In our last we published the official proceedings of the Conference representing the Democracy of this Congressional District, by which it was seen that R. J. Haldean, Esq., of this county, was unanimously nominated as Congress- man. Democratic candidates for Congress— Of course he will be triumphantly elected, and we feel satisfied he will do all in his power to represent this District in a manner creditable to himself and to the advantage of our people.

Whatever influence we can exercise in his behalf, personally or through our columns, shall be cheerfully and freely given. It is too late now, and worse than useless, to refer to the dereliction of certain delegates in the late County Convention. Mr. Haldean has been declared the nominee of the party, and as such he is entitled to its support. As we said in a former article, he is eminently qualified, both by education and experience, for this very responsible position. For many years he has been a zealous defender of Democratic principles, and now that the party is to confer upon him an honor and a responsibility, we feel satisfied he will not abuse the trust that will be committed to his hands. From our Democratic contemporaries of the District we select the following extracts, as an evidence of Mr. Haldean's popularity as a candidate.

From the Valley Democrat, Mechanicsburg. The Conference appointed by the various counties comprising this District, met at the Public School in Carlisle, on the 17th of August, 1868, and nominated Richard J. Haldean for Congress. This completes the ticket, and we think it can be safely said that the ticket named is the best that could be named for the Democracy of this County. Mr. Haldean is a man of high character, and we think it can be safely said that the ticket named is the best that could be named for the Democracy of this County.

A CLINCH.

When Mr. Randolph was nominated for Governor of New Jersey, the other day, he appeared before the Convention and made a short address. The following extract is what he called a clincher, and we commend it to the careful perusal of our Radical friends:

As to the financial question, if any Republican doubts the ability of the State to pay the national debt, I have in the Treasury, in the hands of the people, and in the hands of the Government, more than enough to pay the national debt. THE VOICE OF INDUSTRY.

Letter From Donald McKay, the Great Ship-builder, in Favor of Equal Taxation.

BOSTON, Aug. 18, 1868. DEAR SIR: As you well know, the bill for the relief of the shipbuilders of the United States, which was introduced into the Senate on the 11th of July, and which was passed by the Senate on the 11th of August, is a bill which will do more for the shipbuilders of the United States than any other bill that has ever been introduced into the Senate.

LINCOLN AGAINST GRANT AND THE LOCAL ITEMS.

ROBBERY IN MECHANICSBURG.—On Saturday night the store of Messrs. Ed. & Son, in Mechanicsburg, was burglariously entered and robbed of five silk goods and other articles to the value of about five hundred dollars.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—Gov. Geary has appointed our townsmen, Capt. J. Zug, notary public at Carlisle, in place of the late Notary Public, J. A. Noble, on the 21st inst. A very good selection.

LOCAL NEWS.—We will be thankful to our friends in the various parts of the county, to send us accounts of political meetings, club organizations, or interesting news of a local character that may transpire in their neighborhood. It is not particular whether an article be written on the subject, only send us the items and we will put them in shape.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—Mr. John Light, the well known "Ironout," will make an ascension in his large balloon "Flying Cloud," from Market Square, Carlisle, on Saturday, September 5th. This will be Mr. Light's 89th ascension. A balloon ascension is not to be seen often in these parts, and we advise all to be present.

WISMAN'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY and Grace's Celebrated Salve have stood the test of long experience, and have come into general use. These articles are a no quack nostrum, but genuine preparations, skillfully compounded, and well adapted to the class of diseases for which they are recommended. Seth W. Fowle & Son, Boston, Mass., are the proprietors.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC STANDING COMMITTEE.—The Democratic Standing Committee met, pursuant to call, in the Committee Rooms, in Carlisle, on Monday, the 24th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M. The election for permanent officers of the Committee resulted as follows: Chairman—F. E. Balthozer, Esq. Secretary—John H. Gwisler. Treasurer—M. W. H. Gwisler.

IF our friends will use preparation or restoring hair they should use the best in the market. Our attention has lately been called to an article which has an extensive sale and a very high reputation, known as Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, and we are inclined to think that it possesses more desirable and less objectionable qualities than any other in the market. It restores gray hair, and gives it its original color in a most remarkable manner, and by its invigorating and soothing properties removes all dandruff and humors from the scalp. Give it a fair trial and you cannot fail to like it. Aug. 6, 1868.—4t

FOR THE VOLUNTEER. Mrs. Estlin's—A large picnic was gotten up by the citizens of Carlisle, on the 24th inst. It was held at the residence of Mr. J. A. Noble, and was a most successful one. The picnic was held on the 24th inst. It was held at the residence of Mr. J. A. Noble, and was a most successful one.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE FAIR.—The Pennsylvania State Fair will be held at Harrisburg, commencing September 29th, 1868, and will continue four days. It promises to be one of the largest ever held in the State. The locality is very central, and accessible from all parts of the State by Railroads. We are informed by the Secretary that a large number of exhibitors are being made up by exhibitors with great promises of an exhibition of their articles. The grounds contain sixty acres and are located on the banks of the Susquehanna, within a convenient distance of the City of Harrisburg, and about one-half mile from the city. The place is large and the locality should insure a large and most interesting fair.

AN UNBECOMING FASHION.—The fashions upon the promenade in dresses, with some of our fair friends, are unbecomingly. If you wish to appear clean dress dragged upon the side-walk until it accumulates a heap of grimy stumps, old quills of tobacco, and dilapidated tooth-picks beneath its trail; and when some poor wretch treads thereupon to find his feet rolled suddenly from under him, and he falls headlong, it is not "fashions," but "fashions," his ideas concerning "angels," "Madonnas," "Hebe-like forms," etc., change suddenly. It would be a good thing to cut off these trails, and out of them furnish several destitute families with dresses for the winter.

SEYMOUR & BLAIR.—A meeting of the Democrats of Newville, Newton, Milfin, West Pennsborough and Frankfort townships will assemble in Literary Hall, Newville, on Saturday evening, August 29th, 1868, for the purpose of forming a Democratic District Club. Let an order of the meeting be had. By order of the Committee, J. S. DOUGHERTY, W. B. MORROW, JOHN J. DAVIDSON, THOS. GILBERT, DANIEL WEAVER, JOHN GRAHAM, ROBT. M'CAIGHER, Committee.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—On Monday afternoon last, Mr. John C. Rupp, residing about 2 miles West of town went into the field for the purpose of bridling one of his horses which was grazing. He approached the horse in an ordinary manner, and he suddenly wheeled around and kicked him with both feet on the stomach, knocking him insensible. He came to after some time, and beckoned to his father—our townsmen, Mr. John G. Rupp—who was in another part of the field, who came to his assistance and helped him to the house, when Dr. Geo. Fuller was sent for, who administered remedies for his relief, and Mr. Rupp, when he detected the intention of the animal, had him by the head, and he endeavored to escape, though he thus avoided the full force of the blow, which must otherwise have proven fatal. The horse is not a vicious one, and is supposed to have kicked in play merely, which should be a warning to approach horses cautiously on all occasions.—Mechanicsburg Journal.

CARLISLE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

We learn that the Charter of the above named association was granted by the Court of Common Pleas on Tuesday last week. A temporary organization has been effected by electing the following officers:

Henry Saxton, President; C. Blair McCombs, Vice President; Theodore Corman, Treasurer; C. P. Humrich, Secretary. Directors—George S. Beaten; Jas. L. Storer; C. E. McLaughlin; Theodore U. Smith; John Plank; Chas. W. Weaver; W. F. Sandler; S. J. Shopp.

A transparency in a Grant-and-ain procession in Cleveland, the other night, bore the following legend: "Give us peace." "If the Radicals want peace, what are they arming the negroes for?" "Is the Union restored? Not according to the Grant Reconstruction platform."

THE hope of mongrelism lies in "G. A. R."—Grant and run.

Goods constantly receiving fresh from the factories, and arriving weekly from the West.
