GIT OUT THE VOTE.

DEMOCRATS OF CUMBERLAND COUN-TY, the time for argument is past-now is the time for work. The men who are so willfully blind as not to b convinced by the condition of the coun try that national peace and safety demand a change of administration, are not likely to be convinced between this and election day. They are joined to | their idols and should be left alone. The duty devolving upon us now is to concentrate our own forces and prepare for the contest. If every Democratic vote in Cumberland county is polled, we will have a thousand majority. If the full vote is not out, we will have none but ourselves to blame. We do hope, for the credit of the party, that after the election we will not hear of and the election we with not hear of Last fall we carried the State but by nine hundred majority, and with our entire vote out we will have none to spare. Our breth-ren in other States are watching for the result in Pennsylvania with breathless anxiety. Upon it not only hangs the issue of good government within the borders of our own Commonwealth, but the very existence of constitutional libcriy throughout the country. The result in Pennsylvania will wield a powerful influence in the Presidential election. It is an old saying, "As Pennsylvania goes, so goes the Union."
