National Democratic Nominations. FOR PRESIDENT,

HÔN. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT. MAJ. GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR

OF MISSOURI. ELECTORS.

FORWARD, FOR THE RIGHT.

The Radicals are in great glee over what they term the panic in the Democratic party, and are indulging in all sorts of surmises about the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair, and the nomination of Chase, Hancock or Hendricks in their stead. But they may as well cease to trouble themselves, for the Democracy have no intention of giving up will have established the negro govthe fight, or abandoning their principles, or changing their candidates. | unalterable as the laws of the Medes They are defeated but not dismayed .-With men fighting for the right, there standing army and military despotism is no such word as fail-there can be no honorable surrender. We ask no quarter, and we intend to give none when that the entire national debt is to be the victory shall be ours. Right may paid in gold and thus increased in volbe overthrown, but truth crushed to earth will rise again so surely as the that the members of Congress elected eternal years of God move on. It by the negroes of the South shall have would be indeed a sad day for the coun- more power in the national councils try if the Democrats should surrender their principles and abandon the contest, for that day would see the end of free government in America. No-the Democracy never surrenders. We are the uncompromising foe of Radicalism in every shape, and will never lay down our arms until the victory is won .-There is but a short distance between the last defeat and the first victory, and think you that the hundreds of thousands of brave men who have been true to themselves, the country and to cy, we shall bow to their decision, for principle, during all the dark sours of Radical despotism, will new be driven into cowardly submission when success is almost within their grasp? Let the cowards fall out of line if they will. We want none but the true hearted and courageous in the ranks now. We want men who know how to give blow for blow, and not faint-hearted cowards who cry out for quarter at every temporary success of the enemy. Ours is a contest that has been waged with varying fortunes ever since human government was first instituted among men-

"Freedom's battle once begun Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son, Though builled oft' is ever won."

Give up the fight? No, not while there is a principle of human liberty worth fighting for. Give up the fight? and compel white men to take an oath No, not while the flag of a whole Union floats over our heads, and we have a million of brave hearts "who know tive franchise, we give over the finest their rights, and knowing dare main ism and treason most effectually at th late election. They elected their candidate for Mayor, (Fox.) as well as all the other city officers by handsome majorities, and thus placed the city in the hands of honest Democrats. The city Radicals are rampant at this turn of affairs, and their editors scold and fume like madmen. Forney of the Press, in his rage, actually advises resistance to the new authorities, and wants the election "treated as though it had never been held!" This is the same suggestion that Thad Stevens made to his par ty when it was defeated in 1838, and for which Forney, at that time, thought he deserved banishment from the State .-Let this desperate political gambler, Forney, beware! Should he and his reckless followers attempt to put their threats into execution, they may not be as fortunate as were the conspirators of 1838. A "back window" may not afford them the means of escape a second time, nor will an outraged people again permit them to baffle justice. The people of Philadelphia having rescued their city from the hands of its enemies, they will hold it at all hazards. Nay, not only will they hold it, but they will place their feet upon the necks of the rile men who dare to recommend revolution. It has been a sad sight to see a great city like Philadelphia in the keeping of a set of men whose sole objects appeared to be to enrich themselves and to use their authority for political purposes. The rejection of these political freebooters, and substituting in their places intelligent men of character, is worth millions to the city. Trade will order enforced. Let the city Radicals. if they are wise, walk out of the place they have so long abused and disgraced and let them give no heed to the ravings of the shameless Forney, if they value their necks.

He is an ignorant, intolerant and corrupt man, who made his election two years ago by colonizing hundreds of voters and by resorting to frauds that no man of honor would be guilty of. He was one of the conspira tors who worked night and day to have the President impeached. He failed in that, and now the people of his Distric impeach him. Good!

Some imprudent fellow has let the cat out of the bag that one hundred and fifty thousand dollars were sent to the Radical State Committee from New England to buy up the votes of white freemen of Pennsylvania. Can it be that poor men will sell their birthright for a miserable mess of New England | Some tried it on and let up in the hospottage:

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF PENNSYLVANIA: You have fought a good fight. You have polled a larger, vote than ev er before; have reduced the Radical majority of 1868 by nearly one-half, and have proven the immortality of your principles and the vitality of your organ-

Radicalism has carried the State by means of the grossest outrages; by open ly and corruptly buying thousands of vpters; by driving from the polls foreignborn citizens, naturalized many years since; by rejecting the votes of thousands who were legally made citizens inthe Court of Nisi Prius; by violating and trampling upon the scal of that Court-a recognized symbol of the law; by deterring legal voters from approaching the polls through threatened penalties for imaginary offences; and by the despotic and unscrupulous use of power by election officers in Radical Districts.

Under the specious charge of fraud up on your part, Radicalism has perpetrated the vilest frauds. Thousands of voters have been colonized, paupers assessed and voted, repeaters hired and voted five times in Radical precincts, returns of election altered and manipulated to suit their own purposes, and fraudulent naturalization papers issued by the ream.

In the contest just closed you have learned their capacity for violence and wrong, you have tested the strength of their organization and discovered the weak points in your own. With the experience thus gained in the school of adversity, we will go forward to victory.

Among the finest displays in the miscellaneous department were those of Henry Saxton, Miller & Bowers, L. T. Greenfield, A. B. Ewing, Thomas Conlyn and William Blair & Son. The display of flowers from the nursery of Luther A. Line was beautiful, and deserves special commendation. The display of needle-work was much more extensive than usual and the most noteworthy pieces will be found mentioned in the > ent and orderly management of the present Secretary, however, nothing of the kind has been done, at least as far as the Volunteer was concerned. We called upon that officer and found him assisting another gentleman, who we are informed was to be partially paid for his labor out of the funds of the Society, in preparing a report for the Herald, and were informed by the Secretary that he had no time to prepare a list of premiums for us; and it was afterward intimated that for a mall consideration we might get the use of the list that had been prepared. As we could not see the justice of paying the Cumberland County Agricultural Society or any one in its employ for the privilege of publishing its list of premiums we declined doing so, and obtained the reports of the several committees and made from them as accurate a list as we could. The reports of the committee are so imperfectly and carlessly prepared that it is next to impossible to make an acurate list from them. We trust what we have done will prove satisfactory. It s the best we can do under the circumstances, and we shall have to refer our readers to the columns of our cotemporary over the way, as the Agricultural Society seems to be run entirely in the interests of the Radical party and the Carlisle Herald.

In this connection, we desire to suggest to our Democratic friends that it is about time to change the management of the Cumberland County Agricultural Socie-With the exception of Mr. Saxton whose admirably business qualifications and uniformly courteous demeanor are acknowledged by all, the management has been notoriously inefficient and grossly partisan in its character. While a large ajority of the contributors and the stockholders are Democrats, strange say, in nearly every instance, a majority of every committee were Republican and the testimony before us will not per mit us to doubt that in very many instances the awards of premiums have been ontrolled by a like partisan consideration. In fact the conduct of the Secretary, in regard to the premium list, is just about in keeping with the whole policy of the society, and we simply express the general voice of the community when we demand that before another annual exhibition that office shall be filled by some one who has a little system and order in
