THE TAX-PAYERS' REVOLUTION. All over the length and breadth of this

All over the length and breadth of this broad land we see and hear of changes—changes from bad to good, from Radicalism to Democracy.

Everywhere the tax-payers, the people are leaving the ranks of the destructive party, are withdrawing from under the black flag of the Jacobin pirates, and marshaling themselves under the protecting folds of the Democratic standard.

Everywhere you go, and the more you travel the more you see, you will become convinced of this most important fact—The people do not talk so much Radicalconvinced of this most important fact.— The people do not talk so much Radical-ism as they did; they do not talk so much about "rebel" and "traitor," and use such shallow arguments in an effort to controvert the straightforward charges made by the Democracy, of corruption, fraud and villainy in the Radical admin-istration of affairs. stration of affairs.

The people have become disgusted with these weak, senseless tirades, and have left them solely to the leaders of Jacobinsm—the petty editors and orators of the stration of affairs.

Tariffs— Negro Burcau— Standing armies— Radical Thicves—

Radical injustice and dishonesty gener These are the questions that now engage the attention of the people of the United States, and from East to West, from North to South, throughout the length and breadth of this land, upon the

With the advent of Radicalism they suspected nothing wrong, but they now see much that is not right. They have openetheir eyes to much within the past year or two, and they have discovered Radicalism in all its corruption and rascality.
They have discovered that while they were busy in the field with the plow, Radical officials were engaged in stealing the money they had paid into the treaury in the shape of taxes and tariffs.
They discovered that while they were working from twelve to eighteen hours each day in order to meet the demands of the relentless tax-gatherer, the Radical He stoppe He stopped the stopped that while they were had not not the treaury in the shape of taxes and tariffs.

Blair saved Missouri from secession in 1861, and he and Seymour will save the country from the Radicals in 1868. Colfax, in 1864, said that he would not vote for a foreigner or a catholic. Will the foreigners or catholic vote for Colfax in 1868?

The country cannot afford to elect a deaf and dumb President, said Greeley, in 1867. The people in 1808 say the same Temperence, soberness and chastily is the policy of Seymour. Grant has "no policy" of that kind.

Two Hundred Dollars per Day.— We see it stated that the government is paying about two hundred dollars per day for keeping up telegraphic communica-tions between Grant and the War Detions between Grant and the War Department. The no policy candidate, it is well known, is simply hidden away in the obscure town of Galena, in the Northwestern part of Illinois. Why is he there in charge of Washburne? Simply because they dare not trust him in Washington. they dare not trust him in Washington. He might say something, or his old infirmity might manifest itself. Hence it is deemed best by his Radical keepers, to exile him till within a few days of the election. All business pertaining to the army, and that is very heavy, must pass through his hands, therefore, the oppressed tax-payers are compelled to pay two hundred dollars per day to keep up telegraphic communications with him, when he should be at his office transacting his business there. His headquarters are fixed in Washington by special act of Congress—when were they changed? But Radicalism cares nothing about expenditure of public funds. It is their delight to squander the hard earnings of the people—to push the government to the verge of bankruptcy.

What a sorry figure their dumb, no policy, candidate cuts alongside the eloquent orator and statesman, Seymour.—

The latter mingles with the people, speaks to them freely and expresses his sentiments without reserve; the other hides away like a criminal in an obscure village, afraid to face the people or to speak to them upon any of the great questions of the day, and, in order to transact his official business, for which he is paid the magnificent salary of twen-

BULL FIGHTS.—It is asserted that the passion forbull-fighting is by no means on the decline in Spa'n. The following figures will show that the art is flourishing, if not actually on the increase. In 1866 there were 101 buil rings; of these 36 belonged to the capitol towns of provinces and the remaining 55 in places of less importance. The finest buil ring in Spain is that of Valencia, which possesses 16. 826 seats; next comes that of Barcelona, which has 11,802 seats; and then the chief buill ring of Madrid, which has 9. 766 seats.

**ED** "Father, I think you told a fib in the pulpit to-day," said a little son of a clergyman. "Why, what do you mean?" You said, "one word more, and I have done." Then went on and said a great many more words. The people expected that you'd'leave off 'cause you'd promised them. But you didn't and kept on preaching a long while after the time was up.

**ED** A minister traveling through the provinces some years ago, asked the old lady on whom he called what she thought of the dectrine of total depravity. "Oh, I think it a good doctrine if people would live up to it."
