

FORWARD, ALONG THE WHOLE LINE. Every Democratic voter of Cumberland county will be expected to do his duty on Tuesday next. Now that the smoke of the October contest has cleared away, we can see that victory was even then almost within our grasp. We'reduced the Radical majority of 17,000 in this State in 1866 to a petty 9,000 in 1868. We reduced their majority in Ohio from 43,000 to 17,000, and in Indiana from 15,000 to less than 1,000. Such another "Radical victory" will give us each of these great States. Just think of it, a change of but five thousand votes, in a poll of 643,000 votes, will give us a victory in Pennsylvania, and this figure can be reached by a change of but two votes in every election district. A change of five hundred votes will give us the great State of Indiana, and with Pennsylvania and Indiana on our side, the election of Seymour and Blair is as certain as that the sun will rise on next Tuesday morning. It is certain, even though the Radical party poll as many votes as they did in the late election. This they cannot do .-They can gain nothing from our ranks. Every one who could be intimidated or bought, they secured in October. Their immense corruption fund is nearly exhausted. The thousands of voters from New York, whom they colonized in the Northern tier of counties and in Philadelphia, must go home to vote in November. We feel confident that the Democra cy of the United States, who have won so many victories in the past, whose record is one of triumphant achievement, will not shrink from the November contest. They will stand firmly at their position. They will rally around their chosen standard-bearer, resolved to deserve success and to hurl back from their solid columns the foes of constitutional liberty and free government.-Close up the ranks, then. Let traitors and cowards go to the rear, before the fight begins; and then Democrats, let the brave and the true hearted

ONCE MORE.

Democrats of Cumberland, once more gird on your armor for the contest. We must meet the Radicals again on Tuesday. We must fight as long as there is hope of saving our country, which, under their administration, is rapidly becoming monarchical, rapidly sinking into hopeless bankruptcy.

Let us rally once more for a final struggle, a death grapple with the ene mies of freedom and constitutional government. We owe that much to the fathers who founded our free institu tions; we owe it to ourselves and to our posterity.

Letdefeatgive us courage and strength instead of cowardice and weakness. Who knows but another effort will be crowned with success, will bring us vic-confidence, and you will win. One effort more for freedom and con stitutional government.

One more battle for white supremacy. Keep up your courage, Democrats, and charge upon the Radical line with a firm determination to conquer.

The Republicans, reeling and staggering under the tremendous blow dealt them in Hon. Alexander Delmar's official report, showing that, notwithstanding the crushing taxation to which the people are subjected, the public debt will this year be increased over one hundred and fifty million dollars, have induced somebody to say that he has made a mistake in his calculation. He replies that he is ready to prove the correctness of his statements whenever they shall be assailed. So in this quarter there is no hope for the official thieves and plunderers who want to keep con trol of the Government. Seymour and the reduction of the standing army; Grant and a large military establishment, and the arming of the Southern negroes.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

As if in very mockery, Radical speakers as well as the "little blockheads' who edit Radical papers, are constantly quoting Grant's silly words "let us have peace." What do these fools mean? What did the poor imbecil Grant mean when he used these words? Who but Radical conspirators, aided by Southern negroes, are disturbing the peace? As well might the worf with his vellow teeth in the throat of the lamb, cry out to his helpless victima 'let us have peace." The Radical Jacobins have tempered with and trampled upon the Constitution, and their recognised party leader, "old Thad," acknowledged this in a speech in the House of Representatives.

They dismembered Virginia, a sovereign State, against the protest and wishes of its people.

They have passed laws exempting one portion of our people from taxation, and imposing heavy burthens upon another portion.

They have, in violation of the very letter of the Constitution, deprived the President of the command of the army and navy, and have transferred this uthority to Grant.

The decisions of the Supreme Court have been disregarded, contemned and ridiculed, and military satraps have been eulogised for acting "outside of the Constitution," and defying the highest judicial authority. A standing army of sixty thousand men-twothirds of them negroes-is quartered in the Southern States for no other purposes under heaven than to insult and harrass the people, and to carry elections by the power of the bayonet.

A Freedmen's Bureau which is costing more money than was formerly required to carry on the Government, is maintained in the South so that vagabond negroes may be fed and encouraged in idleness, and instructed how to

Negro outrages in the South are deended and encouraged by New Engand carpet-baggers and by the Radical press, and at this very hour arms and batteries are being shipped to the negroes of the South to be used against he whites. Negroes occupy seats on the bench, n the Legislature, and in Conventions o form Constitutions, to the exclusion of the best talent in the South. The Radicals are now having the neroes drilled and formed into companies, and a general massacre of the whites is the aim and object.

And in the midst of these unlawful and unconstitutional acts; in the midst of these infamous outrages, ignoramus Grant and a press! conducted by "little lockheads," as Greely termed them. are constantly yelping out "let us have peace." What mockery! The very scoundrels who are keeping up strife and turmoil, forcing States out of the Union, and doing everything in their ower to create bad blood, want "peace," do they? Not a bit of it. Peace is just what they don't want and will not have. Their infamous, rotten, ignorant, thieving party could not live an hour in peace and good government. Radicalism feeds on turmoil: its adherents are enabled to plunder most when he people are most distressed. Peace. indeed! Give us peace and Radicalism will die the death of the wicked. Democrats desire peace; Radicals desire irritation, contention and brutality. AN INTERESTING MEMERICA -Whilst in Harris AN INTERESTING MEMERTO.—Whilst In Harrisaburg has week, we were shown, by Gen. Wm. H. Miller, a very interesting memonto. It is one of the identical sher dollars paid by Simon Cumeron to Manier, one of the three Democratic members bought by Comeron to procure his elec-

A silver dollar! Would that we could see one, just to remind us that the Democrats held power in this country at one time, and that Radical traitors and shin plasters were nowhere then.

We have no gold and silver now—no lawful currency—nothing but depreciated rags. Men who use money for bribery purposes, as well as those who use it for paying their pastor's salary, deal in the same currency-a currency that stamps disgrace upon the character of our country. It is good enough for the double-distilled scoundrel who is to receive pay for bartering away the wishes and rights of his people, but it is not good enough for the man who has to sustain life by the sweat of his brow.-No-the man who earns money should count. But he who, as a member of vention, or as a private individual, receives bribery money in consideration of his vote or his influence, should have green-back stamped or burned into his brazen brow, that honest men might

TICKETS.—The Presidential tickets are now printed, and our friends from the adjoining townships will please call and supply themselves as speedily as possible.

John Quincy Adams, of Massahusetts, has been making a tour thro the South, and has delivered speeches at several points. At Greensboro', N. C., he remarked that he had learned more of the Southern people, and their feelings and sentiments during the last few days, than he could have learned in Massachusetts in a lifetime. He was astonished at the condition of the Southern people, and their wasted and negleeted fields. If the North could see it as he had done, all our trials would be at an end. He was pleased to know that amicable relations existed between the whites and blacks, and that no animosity existed among the whites. He said he felt justified in branding as a falsehood that the Democratic party wanted to re-establish slavery in the South: and he expressed the strong conviction that the constitutional party, headed by Seymour and Blair, would triumph. If so intelligent a citizen as Mr. Adams has been compelled to confess that he had no proper conception of the condition and feelings of the South till he went there, it is not to be wondered at that so many of the Northern people are misled. GEN. GRANT'S PEACE .-- We may infer what kind of peace Gen. Grant proposes to give the country by declarations of prominent Radicals, and of Gen Grant himself.

Henry Ward Beecher said in a recent speech at Brooklyn: "The people of the South want to feel that ther sits in the Presidential chair at Washington, man that knows how to drive."

Ben Wade, who was himself anxious to be President, said at Cincinnati, Oc-"I tell you, sir, he will have peace. You know, a, that if necessary he will light for peace."

Senator Sherman, at the same time and place, said: And finally, General Grant speaks for himself. In one of his official letters he "Believing it to be the province and duty of every good government to afford protection to the lives, liberty and proping of her keje ett-zens, I would 'econome's the declaration of martial law in Texas for seen others ends," This, we think, is conclusive as to the kind of peace Gen. Grant desires and the Radicals propose to give the country. The people are to be overawed by the army-scared, intimidated, forced

HOW THEY LIE. After the election the Republicans claimed Pennsylvania by 20,000. Their official majority is 9,677. They claimed Ohio by 30,000, and their official majority is 17,372. They claimed Indiana by 10,000, and their official majority is less than 1,000. They lied about their majorities to make the Democrats believe they were badly beaten. Any one who looks at the figures will see how near we came to carrying all these great States. Push on the column, let every man do his duty, and we shall carry them all for Seymour next Tuesday.

167 Democrats, keep up and extend your local organizations, and prepare for the grand contest on Tuesday .-Shame upon croakers! Do your duty on Tuesday, and the victory is ours. Attend your club meetings, and keep the issues of the campaign before the people. The tax-payers of the United States cannot afford to pay for four years more of Radical rule, and as soon as they all know this fact, the reign of Radicalism will be over. The Democrats can carry the State on Tuesday, if they will do their duty. Let us do it!

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMEN.—The Democrats gain members of Congress in all the great States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana. Ashley, one of the worst of the Radicals, is defeated in have money-lawful money-gold Ohio, and nobody ought to be sorry and silver, not rags at 40 per cent, dis- that he has received his quietus. Democrats, remember that a change of one vote in every one hundred polled at the last election, will give us the State by over three thousand majority. Is there a township in this county that cannot increase its Democratic majority one vote, or reduce the majority of the Radicals one?

At New Orleans, on Sunday night last, a band of negroes, after gorging themselves at the Freedmen's Bueau, procee, ed in a body to the house of a baker, and, having helped themselves to everything they wanted, killed the proprietor and his son. Republican gain of two votes.

No VOTER should forget that if he votes the Radical ticket, he votes to esablish a co-equal political partnership with the negroes for the purpose of running the United States Government in the future.

No Voter should forget that if h votes the Radical ticket, he votes to change the white basis of the United States Government to the mongred hasis of Mexico. Mr. H. T. Helmbold, of New

These children, who have often, in their fond recollections for the loved in the grave, amid blinding tears, whispered that sweet name in their prayers, now are commanded to forget the treasures of the tomb. This, he tells us, is a "statement of the facts which have been so outrageously perverted." and he reiterates, at the close of it, that it is a "statement of everything connected with my (his) neglect to furnish official copies of the premium list to the VOLUNTEER." That the public may see exactly how "oulrageously" the facts "have been perverted" by us, we give. our version of the facts in full, as it appeared in the article alluded to:

It has been customary for the Society to furnish official copies of the premium list to the mewspapers of the town for publication. Under the efficient and orderly management of the present Secretary, however, nothing of the kind has been done, at least as far as the Volumerses is concerned. We called upon that officer and found a lim assisting another generating, who we are informed was to be partially paid for his labor out of the funds of the Society. In preparing a report for be partially paid for his labor out of the funds of the Society, in preparing a report for the Herald, and were informed by the Secretary that he had no time to prepare a list of premiums for us; and it was afterward intimuted that for a small consideration we might get the use of the list that had been prepared. As we could not see the justice of paying the Cumberland county Agricultural Society or any one in its employ for the privilege of publishing its list of premiums, we declined doing so, and obtained the reports of the several committees and made from them as accurate a list as we could."

If there is one single aspect in which the facts which Mr. Sadler claims to "have been so outrageously perverted," are denied, or refuted, or even explained away, in his statement, we should like to know where it is. On the contrary, we leave an intelligent public to determine whether our statement of facts, in regard to Mr. Sadler's "neglect to furnish official copies of the premium list,' has not been fully corroborated by his own testimony. Of course the Herald claims that Mr. Sadler's card is "a most ample refutation of the Volunteerslan lers." But we have charity enough to emember that Mr. Dunbar's compre ension is just about on a level with Mr. Sadler's logic. Just here we beg to sugrest that if Mr. Sadler furnished the committee books "to Mr. Kennedy of the cult matter to furnish the same books at the same time to "Mr. Elliott, of the Mercantile Advertiser " "It is asserted," again says Mr. Sadler, "that the Society paid partially a person to make a report for the Hcrald, and that when Mr. Kennedy called at my office, I was assisting this person in getting up said report. This is not the case, and the statement is a deliberate lie.' With his usual dishonesty of purpose, it suited Mr. Sadier better to pervert our language than to report it correctly. We did not say that "the Society paid partially a person to make a report for the Herald," but we did say, as any one will see by referring to the extract we have given, that we found Mr. Sadler "assisting another gentleman, who we are informed was to be partially paid out of the funds of the Society, in preparing a report for the Horald." Our informant was one of the officers of the Society, who stated that Mr. Gillelen called upon him, announced that he was preparing lengthy report of the Fair, and asked that the Society should compensate him in part for his labor. He told Mr. G. to go ahead, and he would see that the Society paid him, or words to that effect; and he also informed us that while he knew the general report was being prepared for the Ucrald, he was fully under the impression that the premium list was to be prepared for both papers. Whilst we were at Mr. Sadler's office, he and Mr. Gillelen were sitting at the same desk, with the

We had the petrefied man, the fat woman, the double-barreled calf, the man who swallowed the sword, the snake charmer and a host of others. The man who cured tooth ache and the man who cured head ache were both here, as well as the fellows who sold a marvelous panacea which cured" all the ills flesh is heir to." And last but not least, the man with the white mice was here with his cage of performing animals.

PROPOSED RAILROAD.—When at Lisurn, some two weeks since, we met a party of civil engineers surveying the route for a proposed rail road from New Cumberland, through Lisburn, to York Springs in Adams Co. We trust the proact may be successful, as the proposed road would be of considerable advantage to those sections of Cumberland, York and Adams Countles.

MR. EDITOR:-Several of your correpondents, very old and respectable no doubt, seem to be wonderfully exercised as to the origin of our PLANTATION BIT-ERS. So fong as these Bitters are all that we can represent them to be, we do not know that it makes any difference rom whom they come, or whence they originated; but for the information of the public generally, and old Capt. Wentz in particular, we will say that he told the truth, and that these Bitters originated in the West India Islands-that many of the ingredients have been favorably used for over a century, but our combination of Calisaya is entirely new, and our own. The rum and other materials are the same, and as your corremondent says, a better Bitters and Tonic is not made. We recommend them particularly for dyspeptics, fever and ague, debility, loss of appetite, and all cases where a tonic and stimulant is re-

CASUALTIES. - York seems to be as ter. ribly cursed with incendiarism as we used to be. In addition to several fires previously noticed, one night last week, the stables of George Owen, William Wilt, Joseph Smyser and Joseph Worley were entirely consumed by fire. On Sunday morning, 11th inst, the dry goods store of F. Hildebraud, of East Berlin, Adams county, was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered about four o'clock in the morning, and had made such headway before the alarm was given that it was impossible to save either the iwelling or goods. On Tuesday last, Israel Dall, of Dover township, York county, went to the woods to shoot pigeons. While alighting from his buggy, the hammer of his gun struck the wheel, discharging the contents into his left breast. All medical skill seemed to be of no avail. He died a few hours after the accident, and was about twenty two years old. On Wednesday, 7th inst, Jacob Hilde. brand of Logansville, York county, met with an accident at Smysers station on the Northern Central Rail Road, which caused his death shortly after the rad occurrence took place. He had left his horse stand in the street, and noticing an approaching train, started to run across the street and secure the heast when he was struck by the engine and mortally injured.

they can. Many good people, however, who look at the question unbiased by party prejudice, will regard this very fact as an additional argument in support of our position. In this connection, it may not be out of place to state that we have reason to believe that the premium list issued before the fair, was printed at the Herald office, at the expense of the Society, and circulated amongst its Republican subscribers, while no such information was furnished to the Democratic subscribers of the Volunteer. Of course there was nothing partisan in this, and of course there is nothing partisan in uniformly engaging some Radical politician like Horace Greeley or A. K. M'-Clure to deliver the annual address.

Mr. Sadler has the shamelessness to charge us with falsehood in stating that "in nearly every instance, a majority of ever committee were Republicans, when an examination of the records shows that in 1866 the committees on premiums consisted of thirty-eight Republicans and nineteen Democrats; in 1867, of fifty-six Republicans and twentyone Democrats; and in 1868, of fifty-six Republicans and twenty-four Democrats. It is scarcely possible that in a county with such a heavy Democratic prepop tlerance, such a large majority of Republicans should every year happen to get upon the Committees by mere chance .-Is this man Sadler lost to all sense of shame that he will lie with such brazen impudence, when the facts which prove

If under the honest and efficient management of Mr. Sadler, "the Society has been prosperous in every respect," we beg to suggest that he place an exhibit of his affairs before two gentlemen, one to be named by himself and the other by us, and unless we are mistaken, there will be some revelations which will open the eyes of the public, and induce the Society, however reluctantly, to consent to Mr. Sadler's retirement. In our humble judgment, the Secretary himself is a "carpet-bagger" in our midst, having only located here permanently the government during the war, and organizing bogus Virginia lumber companies.

In addition to his other admirable qualities, Sadler exhibits his unmistakeable littleness by alluding to the fact that we visited the Fair on a complimentary ticket. Notwithstanding we had given the Agricultural Society gratuitous notices at various times, at the request of the officers, which, if charged at our regular rates, would have been worth several dollars—we never asked any of them for a emplimentary ticket, and visited the exhibition only once, and then in the capacity of a reporter. That there may be no mistake about this matter, we consider ourself indebted to the Cumberland County Agricultural Society in the sum of twenty-five cents, which amount we shall deduct from their bill when it is paid. In view of this exhibition of smallness, and of Mr. Sadler's well known character and instincts, no one in this community is likely to be misled by "the
