THE PRINCIPLE AND DESCRIPTIONS AND ADDRESS AS INSECT.

THE PRINCIPLE A Now is the time for ministers to weed out politics from their religion. The political reaction, of which we see the signs all around us, is a protest against political preaching and numerous other errors and fallacies. The reactionary feeling affects all classes of society, in all their relations. We believe that, if a show of hands were called for the churches next Sunday, a unajority of votes would be found in favor of excluding politics from the pulpit; or, if the sentiments of the church members should be equally divided, we believe that there would be an almost general acquiescence in the pastor's determination to eschew politics for the future. Pastors would be surprised to discover how cheerfully their people would now follow their lead out of the miry path of politics back to the ancient trodden ways. They must, by this time be satisfied that it is impossible to get out of radical politics by going to the end of it—for thas no end. The possible crochets of the radical mind are infinite. Political preachers never can say that their work is done, and lav off their harness. Now is the time for ministers to weed
