The American Bolunteer. The American Volunteer. Rates for Advertising. PUBLIAITED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING WATCH WOUTH MABLET SQUARE. Training of New Dollars per year if paid strictly in dyname pTwo Dollars and Finy Cents if paid within three months; after which Three Dollars will be charged. These series which the e Dollars will be charged. These series will be rigidly ad-nered to in every instance. No subscription dis-continued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editors. JOB PRINTING. OARDS, HANDHILLS, CHECULARS, and every oth-er description of JOB and CARD Printing execu-ted in the neatest style, at low prices. BY BRATTON & KENNEDY. CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1869. VOL. 55.---NO. 30. Mr. Gaston—If there be no objection, the gentleman's desire will be acceded to. Mr. Van Nasdrand objecting, the resignations of Messra. Sawyer and Bowen were also offered, and refused on the same grounds. Mr. A. L. Bascon, of Ohio—move that the nominations now close, and that the house proceed to an election by ballot. Mr. Sawyer-Gentlemen, I protest earner, in every way, irregular and unbecoming. I must beg they be dropped at once, and that we elect a chiairman of the moeting and proper officers to assist him, and then we can go on with the business before us understandingly. Mr. Belknap, of Ohio-Gentlemen, I will wait also, to gran grinder, and a gentleman by the name of Buckminister—a poor stick of a vagabond, that wasn't any good for comparison of the business before us understandingly. Mr. Belknap, of Ohio-Gentlemen, I was that basket. Mr. Belknap, of Chio-Gentlemen, I more than seven days we have been without food. Every moment we lose in idle discussion increases our distres.-- f am satisfied with the nominations that have been made—every gentleman presting in block seven made—every gentleman presting in the biscussion increase our distres.-- f an satisfied with the nominations that have been made—every gentleman presting in block seven made—every gentleman presting in the seven made seven gent was a better. I am willing to testify: but splendid specimen? Is he imported ?" "Cock-a-doodle-doo!" yelled the hu-man biped, strutting more than ever.— "That woman has nothing to do with me.sir—nothing at all. I'm a rooster on my own account cock-a-doodle-doo!" Here the doctor gave orders aside to one of the servants, who went away grin-ning. Then turning to the rooster, who was by this time red in the face with ex-ertion, he said : Protessional Cards. Miscelaneons. Medical. Poefical. ble to support your wife in the style she "And I, sir, shall consider you a sofa ntil you revoke that decision." It was needless to add, that was the C. P. HUMRICH, WM. B. PARKER, HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. HUMRICH & PARKER, I'D DIE FOR YOU. ast of the trouble. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. AND A matter-of-fact poetical genius says :- " Office on Main Street, in Marion Hall, Car overheard a, moonstruck, silly ind, the other day remark that he loved a certain young lady well enoughh to 'die for you.'" Now I love CANNIBALISM IN THE CARS. liale, Pa. Dec. 24,1888-13 Hoofland's German Tonic. was by this time red in the face with ex-ertion, he said: "I declare it makes my mouth water to think what a capital dinner that bird would furnish. May I wring his neck, madam? It will take but a few seconds." "No you dont," cried the other; "I'm tough, I'm very tough, I'm an old bird, sir, not to be caught with chaff." "But you are a rooster; what else are you good for?" Good to crow, sir; good to crow;" af-ter which came the loudest screech of all, succeeded by a somersault and a sense of sufficiation. Another moment and the servant re-appeared with a dead fowl in his arms. ell enoughn to "die for you." Now I ic mebody vory much. I'd swenr for you, I'd tear for you. The Lord knows what I'd bear for you! I'd lefor you. BY MARK TWAIN. JOHN CORNMAN, I visited St. Louis lately, and on my Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, I visited St. Louis lately, and on my way West, after changing cars at Terre Haute, Indiana, a mild, benevolent look-ing gentleman of about forty-five, or may be fifty, came in at one of the way sta-tions and satdown beside me. We talk-ed togrether pleasantly on various sub-jects for an hour, perhaps, and I found him exceedingly interesting and enter-taining. When he learned that I was from Washington, he immediately he-gen to ask questions about various pub-lic men, and about Congressional affairs, and I saw very shortly that I was con-versing with a man who was perfectly familiar with the ins and outs of political life at the capital, even to the ways and manners and customs of procedure of Senators and Representatives in the chambers of the National Legislaiure.— Presently two women halt-ed near us for a single moment, and one said to the other: ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office in building attached to Franklin House opposite the Court House, Carlisie, Pa. June 4, 1885,-17 PHILADELPHIA, PA. I'd sigh for you-I'd drink the potomac dry for you! The Great Remedies for all Diseases I'd drink the potomae dry for you! I'd "curs" for you. Do "curs" for you. Klek up a thundering fuss for you! I'd yeep for you. I'd leap for you. I'd gwilhout my sleep for you! I'd fgilt for you. I'd ble for you. CHAS: E. MAGLAUGHLIN, ATTOR-NET AT LAW. Office in Building formerly occupied by Volunteer, a few doors South of Wet-zel's Hotel. OF 188 Jihing accellingip literating in diverging in diverging in the accelling product of the second LIVER, STOMACH, OR T E. BELTZHOOVER, ATTORNEY H. . AN COINSING AT LAW, A FLOWAND S. Guide on South Hanover street, opposite Bontz's Store. By special strangement with the Patent Office, attends to securing Fatent Rights. Dec., 1965. DIGESTIVE ORGANS. I'd bille for you-I'd walk the streets all night for you! I'd pleed for you, I'd pleed for you, I'd shoot for you, I'd shoot for you, I'd shoot for you, I'd root for you, I'd root for you. servant re-appeared with a dead lowi in his arms. "I assure you, sir, it had to be done," said the doctor, gravely; and Mr. Lundy rubbed bis face and pinched his throat. "Did you really wring my neck, sir?" the hypochondriac asked, gravely. "When you were a rooster, certainly." "Did I die game?" asked the other, with a manuer of solemn importance. "You did-particularly game," replied the doctor. · ------Hoofland's German Bitters G. HERMAN GOETZ, ATTORNEYATLAW, la composed of the pure pulces (or, as they are medici-nally termed, br. back) of Roots, Berthean Ularka, a propara-tion, then it could be a substitute a prepara-tion, the detablic NEWVILLE, PENN'A. Patents, Pensions and other claims attended to. May 28, 1868. I'd knell for you. I'd steal for you-Such is the love I feel for you! "Thank you, sir. If I should happen to turn into a rooster again, I shall know TOHN R. MILLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office in Weizel's Building, opposite the Court House, Carliste, Pa. Nov. 14, 1987. I'd slide for you, I'd ride for you-HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. I'd swim 'gainst wind and tide for you! I'd swim 'gainst wind and tide for you! I'd try for you, I'd ery for you! where to go." "I shall be most happy to—to wring your neck for you, sir, on any such inter-esting occasion." Le a combination of all the 'ngredlenis of the Bitters, with the purcet quality of Santo Crus Rum, Orange, etc. unking one of the most players and spreashe remether ever offered to the public. These prefering a Medicine free from Alcoholic ad-misture, will use M. C. HERMAN, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office in Rheem's Hall Building, in the rear of the Court House, next door to the "Her-ad" Office, Carliale, Fenna. Deo. 1, 1885. But hang me if I'd die for you N. B .- Or any other woman ! esting occasion." "Very kind, I'm sure. If you should ever get into any trouble, John Lundy will stand your friend." "Do you promise me that, sir?" "I do, and I never break my word." After that, Minnie walked into the gar-den sometimes; and Minnie was not alone--not she. W KENNEDY, ATTORNEY AT LAW Miscellaucous. Hoofland's German Bitters, American Volunteer," South side of the Pubthe Ame. lio Square. Dec. 1. 1866 THE LIVE SOFA. In cases of nervous depression, when some slouboll timulue is necessary, TINITED STATES CLAIM A DOCTOR'S STRATEGY. alone—not she 100 A MONTH can be made by male curroutly seekars, but reliable, sleady, profitable employment, for those who mean business. Ad-dress, with Sci. signap, C. L. Van Allen & Co., 48 New street, New York. Dec. IT, 1655-44 "I love violets best," said the doctor to HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC AND REAL ESTATE AGENCY! WM. B. BUTLER, should be used The Bitters or the Tonic are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues The stormsch, fram a carriety of causes, such as Indi-pestive. Is view carried of a causes, such as Indi-pestive. Is view carried of the tone of the tone deranged The result for the carried of the tone deranged the result of the tone of the ATTORNEY AT LAW, loein 28 Story of Inhoir's Building, No. 3 South nover Street, Carlisle, Cumberland county SOMETHING NEW AND USEFUL. SOMETHING NEW AND USEFUL. The Advert State of the Music, POPULAR MUNIC AT POPULAR PRICES. "Ritcheock's Haif-plane Series of Music for the Million." No. 1 now ready. Music and words of the Units Fores." "Others to follow snpilly. Price 5 cents each... "Others to follow snpilly. Price 5 cents each... "Muled on receipt to price. Address BENJ, W. HITCHCOCK, Publisher, 59 Spring street, New York. county, Penna. Pensions, Bounties, Back Pay, &c., promptly colleated. Applications by mail, will receive immediate attention. Particular attention given to the selling or rent-ing of Real Estate, in town or country. In all let-ters of inquiry, please enclose postage stamp. July 11, 1867–14. Constipation. Flatulence, Inward Piles. Fulness of Blood to the Head. Activity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disguts for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sikk-ing or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of Dots or Webs bafore the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Defi-Dull Pain in the Head, Defi-ciency of Ferspiration, Yel-iowness of the Skin and E y e s. Limbe, etc., Suit Skin and Flushes Of State Skin and Flushes, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits. JESTE S. SEARIGH'T, DEN JULIET. From the Battimore College of Dent. Surgery. Office at the residence of his mother East Louther Street, three doors below Bedford Carlisle, Penma. Dec. 17, 1868-4t To THE WORKING CLASS.-I am now prepared to furnish constant employ-ment to all classes at their homes, for their sparty moments. Business new, light and profitable.-Fity cents to 85 is ensily earned, and the boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. Great in-ducements are offered. All who see this notice plense send me their address and test the bus-ness for themselves. If not well satisfied, I will send 81 for the trouble of writing me. Full par-ticulars sent free, Sample sent by mail for len cents. Mats and Caps. FRESH ARRIVAL OF ALL THE NEW WINTER STYLES E. C. ALLEN, Augusta, Maine, Address, Dec. 17, 1868—1t OF A GENTS WANTED.-To sell a new HATS AND CAPS. A GEATES WANTED.—To sell a new Book pertaining to Agriculture and the Mo-chanito Arts, Edited by GEO. E. WARING ESG. the distinguished Author and Agricultural Eggr-neer of the New York ("entral Park: Nothing like it ever published; 200 Engravings, Sells at sight to Farmers Mechanics and Workingmon of a leases. Active men and women are coin-ing money. Send for circulars, E. B. TREAT & CU, Publishers 654 Broadway, N. Y. Dec. 17, 1868-4t ness remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, indice. Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervone Dobility, only Darintee, Discose of the Kidneys, and all covers science from a Di-ordered Liver, Stomach, or without The subscriber has just opened at No. 15 North Ramour Spreid, a fow the interpretent and best foods Deposition of the interpret and best Stocks opened and the second stock of the interpret and best Stocks Still Brins, Cassimere of all styles and qualities, Still Brins, Cassimere of all styles and qualities, Still Brins, different colors, and every descrip-tion of Soft Hais now mide. The Dankard and Old Fashioned Brush, con-stantly on hand and made to order, all warrant-ed to give satisfaction. DEBILITY, Resulting from any Gause whatever: PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severo Labor, Hard-ships, Exposure, Fevera, etc. There is on medicine extunt cipult to these remedies in such cases. A tone and there is imparted to the ships from the blood from the stonach digests prompty. The blood from the system of the com-the yellow tings is empirated from the system a bloom is given to the clarest, and the work and nervous in-stall becomes a strong and healthy being. MONEY EASILY MADE, with our Small capital required. Circulars free. STAF-FORD Manufacturing Co., 69 Fulton St., N. Y. Dec. 17, 1863-4t A full assortment of MEN'S, BOY'S, AND CHILDREN'S, HATS, I have also added to my Stock, notions of different kinds, consisting of LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S STOCKINGS, LADL Neck Ties, Oilars, Pencils, Seving Silk, Surpenders Gloves Persons Advanced in Life, PERSONS ALLEGENCE IN LIFE, and feeling the hand of time weighting heavily upon them, with all its statendant life, will find in the use of this BITTRUS, or the TONIC, an edistric that will natil naw life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up the transfer forms, and give health and happlness a basis Thread, Umbrellas, &c PRIME SEGARS AND TOBACCO ALWAYS ON HAND. to Act Congress, fit

Give me a call; and examine my stock as I feel onfident of pleasing all, besides saving you mo-JOHN A. KELLER, Agent, ney.

WE ARE COMING

NOTICE.

WHAT A CLIMATE.—Dan Marble was once strolling along the wharves of Bos-ton, when he met a tall, gaunt-looking figure, a "digger" from California, and got into conversation with him. "Healthy climate, I suppose ?" "Healthy 1 it isn't anything else.— Why, strauger, there you can choose any climate you like, hot or cold, and that to without travelin' more than fifteen min-utes. Jest think o' that the next cold mornin' when you get out o' bed.— There's a mountain there, the Sáry Ne-vady they call it, with a valley on each side of it, one hot and one cold. Well, jet on the top of that mountain with a doubled-barreled gun, and you can, with ADVERTIFICATION WILL BE INSERTED at Ten Confe per line for the first insertion, add Way Seffs-per line for each subsequent insertion. Quar-terly, half-yearly, and yearly advertisementistin-erted at a liberal reduction on the abdy's trate Advertisements should be accompanied by the CASH. When sent without any length of time specified for publication, they will be continued until ordered out and charged accordingly.

Dec. 6, 1858-1y	AND WILL PRESENT TO ANY PERSON Sending us a Club in our Great	dom in the enjoyment list of good health ; ar,	reasonable man. I am tired of it."	ed, and not quite dry yet. Do, my dear, stand at the door and tell people as they	the locomotive's reflector. One short hour sufficed to prove the	man from Virginia if it be soup we want instead of solid sustenance? if he would	doubled-barreled gun, and you can, with
HATSAND CAPS.	ONE DOLLAR SALE OF DRY AND FANOY	female portion of our domin the enjoyment to use their own ex well." They are lan	"Mrs. Lundy, will you have the good- ness to put me in your pocket? Squeeze	come in that I cannot be sat on or in any	uselessness of our efforts. The storm	delude us with shadows? if he would	out movin'kill either summer or winter
Hats, Caps and a great deal more,	GOODS,	To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the	me in your hand—anything, that I may feel safe in your protecting care. I'm	way meddled with. I'm so flimsily fas- tened together."	while we dugone way. And worse than	mock our sufferings with an Oregonian spectre? I ask him if he can look upon	" What ! have you ever tried it?"
Kept for sale at Boas' Store, Wool and Fur, both coarse and fine,	A Watch, piece of Sheeting, Silk Dress Pattern	TONIC, is especially recommended.	afloat, (singing;) I'm afloat; I'm afloat.	This was the speech that greeted Dr.	this, it was discovered that the last grand	the anxious faces around him, if he can	"Tried it! often; and should have done pretty well, but for one thing."
Silk and Brush huts in his line.	ac., ac,	WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN	Ah ! what's that?" "Nothing, Mr. Lundy, but Joe's whip.	with Minhie: Mrs. Landy was in tears.	enenty had broken the fore and aft shaft	gaze into our sad eyes, if he can listen to the beating of our expectant hearts, and	"Well, what was that?"
Beaver, Nutra, large and small, Hats to fit and suit you all,	Free of Cost.	•	I called him from the coach-house. Lay	"Doctor as soon as ever I get home	of the driving wheel! With a free track before us we should still have been help-	still thrust this famine-stricken fraud upon us? I ask him if he can think of	"I wanted a dog that would stand both climates. The last dog I had froze
Only call and let him try, Though you should not wish to buy.	Ou. inducements during the past few years have been large.	Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail	on, Joe." "But, my love, my legs."	the hospital-indeed I will," cried the	less. We entered the car wearled with	our desolate state, of our past sorrows, of	his tail off while pintin' on the summer side. He didn't get entirely out of the n - The Alignet - The Second	WE NOW DOUBLE OUR RATES OF PREMIUMS.	Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the	"Nonsense, Mr. Lundy. Lay on, Joe. Feathers haven't got legs."		about the stoves, and gravely canvassed	our dark future, and still unpityingly foist upon us this wreck, this ruin, this	winter side, you see-true as you live."
Gladly he will show you round, Through his bats till one is found,	We have many important additions to our	publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must	"True, Mrs. Lundy; but they have	"So am I, my dear," piped up her hus-	our situation. We had no provision	tottering swindle, this gnarled and blight-
To suit your taste, and fit you well, Then kindly all your neighbors tell	Winter Stocks, and have largely extended our Exchange List, and we now feel confident to	be believed.	marrow, and that's what feels. Pray beg	shouldn't wonder in the least my legs	We could not freeze for there was a good	ed and saples vagabout from Oregon's inhospitable shores! Never! [Ap-	How HE PROVED IT.—It is the cus- tom in Mexico for the Church to require
What hats you saw at Bons' store,	Bend for N. w Circular.	TESTIMONIALS.	Just then ran up little Tom, the only	feel so shaky. Pray, don't touch me	supply of wood in the tender. This was our only comfort. The discussion ended	plausel	a foreigner, wishing to marry a native,
He keeps at corner number four, In North Hanover street Carfisle,	Catalogue of Goods and Samples sent to any	TESTINONIANS.	male hope of the Lundy family, and, strange to say, in his hand a handsome	" Coller goue! your wits are gone. I	at last in accepting the dishartening de-	The amendment was put to vote, after a fiery debate, and lost. Mr. Harris was	to bring proof that he is not already a married man. An American, about to
Where you'can find him all the while,	address free, Send money by registored letter. Address all orders to J. S. HAWES & CO., 15 Federal Street, Boston, Mass,	Hon. Geo. W. Woodward.	hen-feather. A triumphant smile illu-	wish I was a man. 'I'd varnish you in	cision of the conductor, viz, that it would be death for any man to attempt to travel	substituted on the first amendment. The ballotting then began. Five ballots were	marry a senorita of very good family, was Ready to sell to great and small, Doctors, Lawyers, Preachors, all Students, Meruhants, Farmers too, And please, kind friends, likewise to you.	P. O. Box C. Wholesale Dealers in Dry and Fancy Goods, Cut*	Chief Justice of the Suprems Court of Pa., writes:	minated the face of Lundy the elder. "Now, my dear," he said, gravely, ta-	a sofa again, or any piece of furniture."	fifty miles on foot through snow like	held without a choice. On the sixth Mr.	required to furnish the proof of his being a bachelor. Not finding any of his coun-
And please, kind friends, likewise to you.	Wholesale Dealers in Dry and Fancy Goods, Cut [*] lery, Pluted Ware, Albums, Leather Goods, &c. Dec. 17, 188-12t	Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.	king the feather in his hand, "I hope you'll believe me. My child, look on	The doctor stood near gravely consider- ing.	that. We could not send for help, and even if we could, it could not come. We	Harris was elected, all voting for him but himself. It was then moved that	trymen who knew him sufficiently well to testify to this fact, he determined to
He keeps constantly on hand a large assort-		"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is in discases of the	that feather, and be thankful; that was	" My dear, you are better as you are,	must submit and await, as patiently as we might, succor or starvation ! I	his election should be ratified by accla- mation, which was lost, in consequence	supply the deficiency with the oath of a ment of Hats, latest styles of Silks, soft and stiff brim. A large assortiment of ladies and gents,		digestive organs, and of great henefit in want of nervous ac-	And little Tom, chuckling at the idea,	some out a beautiful washbowl and	think the stoutest heart there felt a mo-	of his again voting against him-elf.	when he had never seen before, our
TTURK, Values, travening Dags, Deather Gater	tiven gratis to me, energetic Agents, male or temale, in a new, light and honorable business,	tion in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."	ran up and down the piazza, repeating	pitcher. But isn't your nose a little cracked, or do I see awry? Shouldn't	mentary chill when these words were uttered	Mr. Radway moved that the House now take up the remaining candidates,	countryman proposed to him that he should swear to his being unmarried for
Ling graits Furnishing Goods, such as Collars, Bhirts, Hose &C.	paying thirty dollars per day sure. No gift en- terprise, no humbu . Address R. Mouroe Ken- neay & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.		"Pa was a hen once; dear me, how	wonder, for my head is full of brass tacks.	Within an hour conversation subsided to a low murn er here and there about	and go into election for breakfast. This	the consideration of five dollars. The se-
An extensive and carefully selected assortment of fisches Furs, also ladies Fur Hoods and Fur Trimmings and a regular line of gents, fur Caps,	Dec. 17, 188-4t	Hon, James Thompson.	funny !" Munnie Lundy was captivating : there	I think I've snuffed them up my nose.— It's worse than influenza."	the car, caught fitfully between the ris-	was carried. On the first ballot there was a tie, half	"ort, after a moment's study, told the "Gringo," "Get down on your hands
Mufflers and Gloves. Also, Umbrallas, Canes and a variety of No-	DR. BURTON'S	Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.	is no doubt about that. In pink, blue,	"Was ever any poor creature so afflic-	ing and falling of the blast; the lamps grew dum, and the majority of the casta-	the members favoring one candidate on account of his youth, and the other half	and knees and creep about." Not ex-
Thank ful for past favors, he solicitis a continu-	\boldsymbol{D} .	"I consider ' Hoofand's German Bitters' a viluable	white, or green, she looked equally char- ming. There were rich men there who	ted ?" murmured Mrs. Sofa-" I mean Mrs. Lundy."	ways settled themselves among the flick-	his superior size. The President gave	actly understanding what he was at, he obeyed, much to the detriment of his un-
• ance of the same from his numerous patrons and kindly invites the public in general to vavor him	1 OBACCO ANTIDOTE warranted to remove all desire for Tobacco. It is entire-	. medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.	would have been glad to possess her, and hice men, and silly to that extent that	"Never, my love. I protest that I	ering shadows to think—to gorget the present if they could—to sleep if they	the casting vote for the latter. This de- cission created considerable dissatisfac-	mentionables. The other party then told him he was all right; that he would
with a call before purchasing, feeling confident of his ability to suit all, both in quality and price,	Vegetable and harmless. It purifies and enriches the blood, invigorates the system, possesses great	Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."	they were fools and didn't know it. But	a sofa I am, and a poor one at that."	inight.	tion among the friends of Mr. Ferguson, the defeated candidate, and there was	swear that he had known him since the
of his ability to suit all, toth in quality and price. Dou't forget the place, No. 4, North Hanover street, opposite the Carlisle Deposit Bank.	nourishing and strengthening power, enables the stomache to sigest the heartlest food, makes	From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,	it happened that a young physician was luckier than them all, and poorer. "I	At that moment the doctor sprang for- ward and planted himself upon the pros-	to us wore its lagging hours away at last,	some talk of demanding a new ballot;	time he crawled.
The highest cash prices paid for shipping Furs. such as Muskrat, Mink, Fox, Raccon and all other turns tun.	sleep refreshing, and establishes robust health. Surveyers and Chever's for Siriy Years Cured. Frice,	•	must have that girl," he said, sotto voce,	trated body of Mr. Lundy.	and the cold gray dawn broke in the east. As the light grew stronger the	but in the mid-t of it a motion to adjoin was carried, and the meeting broke up at	A little boy seeing a drunken-man
Other for skins. J. BUAS. Oct. 8, 188-6m	Fifty Cents, post free. A treatise on the injuri- ous effects of Tobacco, with lists of references, that wanted, Advantage Agents wanted, Ad-	Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.	a dozen times a day, and then heartily wished that she had a fever. Probably	"Capital sofa, this," he said, keeping his position in spite of his victim's strug-	passengers began to stir and give signs	once.	p ostrate before the door of a grougery.
LIATS AND CAPS!	testimonials, dc., sent free. Agents wanted. Ad- dress Dr. T. R. ABBOTT, Jersey City, N. J. Hold by all draughts.	Dr. Jackson-Dear Str: I have been frequently re- quested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but reconding the prac-	he saw Minnie through the back of his	gles.	of life, one after another, and each in turn pushed his slouched hat up from	The preparation for supper diverted the attention of the Ferguson faction	opened the door, and putting in his head said to the pioprietor: "See here,
DO YOU WANT A NICE HAT OR CAP?	Bold by all druggists. Dec. 17, 1869.—12.w	tice as out of my ap	head, for he was always looking out of the window when she came in, and al-	Good beavens! you'll ruin me-you'll	his forehead, stretched his stiffened limbs, and glanced out at the windows	from the subject of their grievances for a long time, and then, when they would	siı ; your sign has fallen down ?"
Dr. Ro, DON'T FAIL TO CALL ON	$1000 PER YEAR guaranteed, and steady employment. We want a re-	tior soul of my and the source of the source	ways blushed violently. One day Minnie followed her mother	break my back! Get up till I'm proper- ly mended, for pity's sake."	upon, the cheerless prospect. It was	have taken it up again, the happy an-	tor A lady was urged by her friends and a state of the	DIUUU steady employment. We want a re- inucle agent in every county to sell our Potent	usefulness of Dr. Hootland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full	into the parlor. As usual, Dr. Stagg was	"IInon my word," said the doctor,	cheerless indeed! Not a living thing visible anywhere—not a human habita-	nouncement that Mr. Harris was ready drove all thought of it to the winds.	to marry a widower, and as an argument they spoke of his two beautiful children.
J. G. CALLIO,	White Wire Clocker Lines, (eveningting), Address White Wire Clocker Lines, (eveningting,) Address White Wire Clocker Lines, (eveningting,) Address WHITE WIRE CO., 75 William St., N. Y., or 16	for once from my usual course, to express noy full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and voluable	"My dear," cried Mrs. Lundy, who	calmly, "this piece of furniture acts as if it was alive. It kicks and wriggles, and	tion-nothing but a vast white desert;	We improvised tables by propping up	"that tan," replied the lady, " are like
NO. 29, WEST MAIN STREET.	Dearborn St. Cl'icago, Ilis. Dec. 17, 1868—it	doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer	had just come from the garden, "you	it makes me laugh at its autics. What a	uplifted sheets of snow drifting hither and thither before the wind—a world of	the backs of our seats, and sat down with hearts full of gratitude to the finest	toothpicks. A person wants her own."
Where can be seen the finest assortment of	CIARPETS-DON'T PAY THE HIGH	from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,	look excited." "O, mamma!" and her voice was so	ridiculous sofa ?" "I tell you I'm second-hand !" eried	eddying flakes shutting out the firma-	supper that had blessed our vision for	ter An Arkansas editor has been pre-
HATS AND CAPS ever brought to Carlisle. He takes great pleas-	PRICES 1 The New England Carpet (o., of	J. H. KENNARD, Eighth, below Coates St.	sweetly low, so softly agitated" we shall have to leave this place, indeed we shall.	the hypochondriac more faintly than be-	Ment above. All day we moped about the cars, say-	seven torturing days. How changed we were from what we had been a few short	section with a new hat, whereupon he
nre in inviting his old friends and customers.	century ago, in their present location, in Halls		Father is taking on terribly; some of the	fore, for one hundred and thirty pounds, dead weight, was no light infliction.—	ing little, thinking much. Another lin- gering, decary night-and hunger.	hours before! Hopeless, and-eyed misery	ohng through our veins like a young deg
and all new ones, to his splendid stock just re- ceived from New York and Philadelphia, con- sisting in just of fine	have probably furnished more houses with Car- pets than any other house in the country. In order to afford those at a distance the advanta-	From Rev. E. D. Fendall,	boarders are laughing-others are shock-	"I'm brass-tacked-old-yery o'd-tull of cracks, one roller gone. O! puty don't	Another dawning-another day of si-	hunger, feverish anxiety, desperation then—thankfulness, serenity, joy too	with an old shoe,"
SILK AND CASSIMERE HATS,	Less of the'r low noices propose to send on the	Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.	"What is the freak now, my dear?"	lean your weight on me."	lence, sadness, wasting hunger, hopeless watching for succor that could not come.	deep for utterance now. That I know was the cheeriest hour of my eventful	to A theoretically benevelent man
Diam, and Ornoriting analog	Boundary of the sector of the sector of their	I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoof-	"O! he's a rooster, and crows till he's	The doctor lifted himself cautiously havides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwards of their	land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re-	black in the face."		A night of realess slumber, filled with decomposite for a stressed	life. The winds howled, and blew the	on being asked by a friend to foan him a
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Fourt Caps Prost. Also, his own manufacture	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwards of their beautiful Costs re Carpeting, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 53 per yard, suitable for furnishing	land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are enforce from general debility or from discases arising	"A rooster! horrible! And here we	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious.	dreams of feasting - walkings distressed with the gnawings of hupger.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any	on being asked by a triend to loan him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure?" but suddenly added, "Dear me, besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest skyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowest Cuth Prices. Also, his own manufucture of Hats slways on hand, and	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwards of their	land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re-	black in the face," "A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know "" Somebody wheeled round from the	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?"	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the gnawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have	on being asked by a triend to loan him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Carl From. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER.	Feecipt of the price, 20 yards or upwinds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeing, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	land's German Bitters, and feei it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility of from discases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly,	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know "" Somebody wheeled round from the window.	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked scrious. " Are you sure you are a sofa?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy?"	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the gnowings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A sayage hunger looked out at	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out."
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Carb Froze. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kindnod Woolen Quota, Overcoate, 40, at	Feecipt of the price, 20 yards or upwinds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeing, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from discases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours train, E. D. FENDALL.	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of the_phem_need of a doctor. Excuge	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " (an you keep a secret?"	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of aw- ful import-the fore-shadowing of some-	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out."
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert CarA Fros. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and it kinds of Woolen Goods, Overcouts, 20, at the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the nost here an endless on the set of the single resonants.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Youre train, E. D. FENDALL. CAUTION.	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuse my forwardness-but I am a physician." Of course Minnie was more beautiful	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can."	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the genewings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- omment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of aw- ful import—the fore-sindowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuplug itself in	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor-	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddeuly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! Pve only one lending dollar, and that is out." 107 A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowet Cut Price. Also, his own manufacture of fats sirays on hand, and HATS. MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kindarof Woolen Goods, Overcoats, do, at the anothers notice (as he colors every week) and on he indirest notice (as he colors every week) and on he indirest notice (as he colors every week) and on he indirest solie terms. Also, a fine lot of childs birands of	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are affering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Youre tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of counterfeited. See	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — " Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion.	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I ann no longer Mr. Lundy." " (an you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I arness I do."	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of av- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shaping itself in every. heart-a something which no tourne cared yet to frame into words.	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any enore. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed but for genuine nutritiousness, and	on being asked by a triend to fonn him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! Pve only one lending dollar, and that is out." Mr A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest sixle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Carb Froze. Also, his own manufacture of flats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring flats such all kinds of Woolen Quota, Overcoats, 20, at the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the most reasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of choice brands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are adswing from general debility of from decases arising from decases arising CAUTION. CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedles are a uniterfeited. See that the signature of is on the wrapper of each bottle.	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — " Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa?" " Of course I an." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy." " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " ('an you keep a secret?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy'sdaughter?"	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the gnawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of aw- ful import—the fore-shudowing of some- thing that was vaguely shaping itself in every heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at-	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddeuly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! Pve only one lending dollar, and that is out." 107 A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Carb Fries. Also, his own manufacture of flats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring flats and all kindard Woolen Goods, Overcoats, So, at the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notive acconable terms. Also, a fine lot of oblice brands of	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subscript from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Y after tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfeited. Esse that the signature of that the signature of All others are counterfeited. The site is and the stress and collabeling Stress, or Gil ARCH Stress, at the formes Medicine Store, No. Gil ARCH Stress,	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuse my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him."	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " (an you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo."	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of aw- ful import—the fore-shadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every heart—a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and honeless a commy of men as ever shood	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it- but he way no more fitted for breakfast	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! Pve only one lending dollar, and that is out." 1977 A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?"
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lower Cut Price. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen (boods, Overcouts, 20, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the most reasonable terms. Also, a fine of of choice trands of DBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. Ho desires to call the attention of previous who have COUNTRY FURB	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subsering from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Y after tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofdand's German Remedies are counterfeited. Eco that the signature of the the signature of All others are coun Frincipal Office Liver, No. 631 ARCH Bitree, Philadelphia. (HARLIZE M. EVANS,	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad-	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I nan no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Well, I've just married her. She's my wife."	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of av- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shaping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawmed upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a company of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow-	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Mersick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a muminy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me1-and tough! Ah,	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." BOT A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, mussa, am de Lord lost?" BOT Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe: because the woman is won and the
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Curk From. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen (boods, Overcoats, 20, at the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the most reasonable terms. Also, a fine to of oblice brands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on have COUNTRY FURB	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subsetting from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Y during trainy E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoodand's German Romedles are annuterifying. Essential that the signature of the other are composed on the other of the Arthengal Office Liver, No. Gil ARCIB Street, Fhiledelphia. Off ARTIER M. EVANS, Gorman Drugzier, Proprietor, Romerly C. h. Jongros & Co.	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie.	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked scrious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I nam no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I gauess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Well, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You yillain !"	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the gnawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- omment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of av- ful import—the forestindowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pressed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a company of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. If must out now! That thing which had been grow-	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I um free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do i- but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless mel-and tough I. Ah, he was very tourn! You could not I ha-	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! Pve only one lending dollar, and that is out." 1957 A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" 1957 Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert CarA Fros. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats sud all kinds of Woolen (boods, Overcouts, 20, at the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the most reasonable terms. Also, a finel of of choice brands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. Ho destres to call the attention of persons who have COUNTRY FURB	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Land's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subsering from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Y after tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofdand's German Remedies are counterfeited. Eco that the signature of the the signature of All others are coun Frincipal Office Liver, No. 631 ARCH Bitree, Philadelphia. (HARLIZE M. EVANS,	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — " Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician? Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. " A not I arm sure we are very much	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I nan no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Weil, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost-she must yield.—	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a muminy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me!- and tough ! Ahi, he was very tough ! You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out."
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Che Froze. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen Goods, Uvercoats, do, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the indu reasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of sholde hands of WOBACCO AND CIGARS always hand. He desires to call the attention of parada who have COUNTRY FURS to still, as he pays the highest cash prices for the single the reast highest cash prices for the	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	 Iand's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subsetting from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Y durin trays, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedles are anniherfeited. Esse that the signature of the set composition of the set of the set of each to the liver. Arthingtain Office Thincipal Office CHARTIES M. EVANS, Gorman Drugets, Proprietor, Romerly C. H. Jonstow & Co. For sale by a. Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. 	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuse my forwardness-but I am a physician? Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think i've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can her him."	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " Yoo is too." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Well, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor.	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of av- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shaping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawmed upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a company of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost-she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, laif, endaycrous, and pale rose up. All pre-	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit Lean? why bless me!—and tough ! Ah, he was verry tough ! You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. "Do you mean to tell me that—"	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." SD- A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" aD- Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of othe; because the woman is won and the man, too.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Curk Prices. Also, his own manufacture of flats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has he best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen theods, Uvercoust, do., at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and on the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of the notifiest notice (as he colors every week) and of persona who have O U N T R Y F U R B to soll, as he pays the highest cash prices for the anne. Give him is call, at the above number, his old faction. Dec. 20, 1688	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	 Iand's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subseting from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Four tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedles are counterfeited. See that the signature of is on the wrapper of the derange of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the delay of the set of the set of the derange of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the derange of the set	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am ?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help him." The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I nan no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Weil, I'vo just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa lifte a gun. " What! You villain ?" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal !" " You old sofa!"	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of av- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day passed—the seventh dawmed upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, laif, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion every resemblance	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Mersick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me!- and toug! A hi, he was very tough ! You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. "Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out."
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest skyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Care Frices. Also, his own manufacture of flats sivays on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen Gooda, Overcoats, &o, at the anoriest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inder treasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of childs birhads of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always of hand. He destres to call the attention of persons who have O O U N TRY FURS to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the and, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- faction. Dec. 20, 1888	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most saturable tonic, to all who are subsering from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Y after tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedles are cumberfeited. Esse that the signature of the sup composition of the set of the set of each bott is. Arothes are composition of the set of the set of each bott is. Arothes are composition of the set of the Arothes are composition of the set of the set of each bott is. Arothes are composition of the set of the set of each bott is. Arothes are composition of the set of the set of each bott is. Arothes are composition of the set of the set of each bott is. Arothes are composition of the set of the set of the dermap Medicine Store, No. Gil ARCII Street, Foiladelphia. OFLARTIZES M. EVANS, Gorman Druggies and Dealers in Medicines. PRICEES. Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — " Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician? Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am ?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help him." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and some were here."	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I nan no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Weil, I'vo just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal !" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!"	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, laff, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion, every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numminy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me!—and tough ! Ah, he was very tough ! You could not I ma- line it—you could never Imagine any- thing like it. " Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroft, for supper. He	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." 257 A rovivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" 257 Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. 257 If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest skyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Care Proces. Also, his own manufacture of Hats singles on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and Lindard Woolen Cools, Overcoats, 20, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inder reasonable terms, Also, a fine lot of choice brands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. He destres to call the attention of persons who have COUNTRY FURB to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the same. By the him a call at the above number, his old stand, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- fields. Bive him a call at the Above number, his old stand, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- fields. COMMISSION HOUSE. FORWARDING AND COMMISSION HOUSE.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs ~ C carpeing, at 50 cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 83 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1868-44	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subseting from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Four tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of is on the wrapper of each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See that the signature of refuely a Office for each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See that the dismass of each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See that the dismass of each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See the dismass Medicine Store, No. Gil ABCH Stored, Frincipal Office for each botk i.e. CHARLIES M. EVANS, Gorman Dragets, Proprietor, For sale by a. Druggies and Dealers in Medicines. PRICEES. Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. " Hard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. " My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." " Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am ?" " On the north porch," said Minnie. " And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help bin." " The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo !" " John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " what a sad spectacle you are making of	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say ho." " Well, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villaip !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal !" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You rickety old sofa, with your head foll ot hrass tacks. I tell you." cried the	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, laff, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a calm, thoughful seriouspess appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I um free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numminy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless mel—and tough ! Ah, he was very tough ! You could not i ma- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. " Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detrolf, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wire so after- ward the was worthy of all praise. I	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dr A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dr Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dr If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dr I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Cute Price. Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen douds, Overcouts, 20, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the indiversionable terms, Also, a fine of of oboles brands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. He desires to call the attention of periods who have O O U N T R Y F U R B to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the more the field condition of giving entire sails faction. Des 20, 1968 FORWARDING AND COMMISSION HOUSE. FORW & Feed, Cool, Platter & Bull. TREFFEM & BROTHERS having purchased of Bryder & Newcomer their extensive Wareloane.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subscript from derangement of the liver. Four tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedles are counterfeited. See that the signature of the wrapper of each botk is a the wrapper of each botk is an the wrapper of each botk is an and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. Gil ARUII Sirvel, Fhiledaiphia. CHARLES M. EVANS, Gorman Dragets, Proprietor, Formerly C. N. Jacksov & Co. Tor sale by a. Druggies and Dealers in Medicines. PRICEES. Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottis	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "If you can help bim." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo ?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, "what a sad spectacle you are making of	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " U guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say uo." " Well, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal !" " You desperate young thief!" " You rickety old sofa, with your head fall ot brass tacks. I tell you," cried the doctor."	dreams of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- omment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of aw- ful import—the fore-sindowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a company of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- from every heart was ready to leap from every heart was ready to leap from every that hat! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minuesota, lail, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion, every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a calm, thoughful seriousness appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me!—and tough! Ah, he was verry tough I You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. " Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was verg good. I wrote his wile so after- ward. He was worthy of all praise. I healt any any and the rate. The was been any on the or any taker. The was worthy of all praise. I would not any the sup good. I wrote his wile so after- ward. He was worthy of all praise. I when any the or any on the present on the or an or a super. He was worthy of all praise.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dr A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dr Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dr If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dr I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Cars Prices. Also, his own manufacture of flats sivays on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen Gouds, Overcoats, 20, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the induit reasonable terms. Also, a fine of of choice brands ct TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. He destres to call the attention of performs who have COUNTRY FURB to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the sail, as he fools confident of giving entire sails faction. Defense FORWARDING AND COMMISSION HOUSS. FORW & BEOM PROS.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to re- commend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subseting from general debility of from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Four tray, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of is on the wrapper of each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See that the signature of refuely a Office for each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See that the dismass of each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See that the dismass of each botk i.e. All others are counterfeited. See the dismass Medicine Store, No. Gil ABCH Stored, Frincipal Office for each botk i.e. CHARLIES M. EVANS, Gorman Dragets, Proprietor, For sale by a. Druggies and Dealers in Medicines. PRICEES. Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician? Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am ??" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help blin." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo ?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, "what a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!" "I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " U guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say ho." " Well, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal !" " You old sofa!" " You rickety old sofa, with your head full of brass tacks. I tell you," cried the doctor, " if you had not been a feather, and a roo-ter, and a sofa, and the cat's know what you'd have looked after	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last. I have had been from every lip at last. Nature had been from every lip at last. Nature had been from every lip at last. We must determine which of us shall die to fur- hish foul fur libe treat lip.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numminy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me1-and tough ! Ah, he was very tough ! You could not I ma- ine it—you could never Imagine any- thing like it. " Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroft, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wile coafter- ward. He was worthy of all prise. I shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. A ud then in the more had Morgan of Alabama,	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate: I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dr A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dr Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dr I a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dr I never bet on the man who is at- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Cut Process Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and Lindar Colors every week and on the inder reasonable terms. Also, a fine of of other of periods, who have of 0 U N T R Y F U R B to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the more of the call, at the above number, his old itaction. Desc 20, 1968 FORWARDING AND COMMISSION HOUSE. FORWARDING AND Source Feed, Cool, Flatter & Ball. 5 BERTEM & BROTHERS having purchased or Bryder & Newcomer their extansive Warehouse.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are subsetting from dersagement of the liver. Youre truty, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfetted. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON et al. Construction of the german Drogetting Office and Manufactory at the German Drogettin, Portector, Principal Office Mediane Btore, No. 631 ARUII Bitres, Fhiladelphia. CHARTER M. EVANS, German Drogettin, Portector, Formarity C. h. JACKSON Tor sale by a. Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. IPRICEES, Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — " Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of— the-ahem-meed of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am ?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help him." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo !" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, "what a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!"	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on the old fellow if I tell wen the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal!" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You cletsely old sofa, with your head full of brass tacks. I tell you," cried the doctor, " if you had not been a feather, and a roo-ter, and a sofa, and the cat's Know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage bunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of aw- ful import—the fore-shadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart—a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawned upon as gatud, and haggard, and hopeless a compray of men as ever stood in the shadow of death. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every fip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Guston, of Minnesota, fall, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion, every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a calm, thoughful seriousness appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. " Gentjemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! "The time is at hand! We must determine which of us shall die to fur- uish food for the rest!" Mr. John J. Willings, of Hilhols rose	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicney of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— "but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me!—and tough! Ah, he was verry tough I You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. " Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wite co after- ward. He was worthy of all praise. I shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the morning, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate: I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dear A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dear Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dear If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dear I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Cut Transform, Also, his own manufacture of Hats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has he best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen (doug, overcoats, 20, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inderreasonable terms, Also, a fine of of oblide brands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. Ho destres to call the attention of persons who have O O U N T R Y FURB to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the mide, as be foul sconddent of giving entire satis- faction. Des 20, 1688 FORWARDING AND COMMISSION HOUSES. FORWARDING AND Sommission HOUSES.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from dersagement of the liver. Youre truty, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfetted. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON Service and Manufactory at the German Value Bore, No. 631 ARUH Bursel, Fhiladalphia. CHARTEES M. EVANS, German Disters, Proincip. C. M. JACKSON Tor sale by a. Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. IPRICEES, Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. " Hard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. " My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am ?" " On the north porch," said Minnie. " And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help bin." " The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo ?" " John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " winat a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!" " I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-doo !"	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " (an you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say tho." " Weil, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " You young rascal !" " You young rascal !" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You rickety old sofa, and the cat's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thak me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo-	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the gnawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the fore-shadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, laff, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion, every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a calm, thoughful seriouspess appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentjemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger ! The time is at hand! We nust determine which of us shall die to fur- uish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Hilnois rose and said: "Gentlemen I nominate the Rev Jawnes Sawyer, of Teniessee."	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any enore. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicney of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me!—and tough ! Ah, he was verry tough ! You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. " Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wile so after- ward. He was worthy of all praise. F shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the morning, we had Morgan of Alabama. for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sat down to—handsome, edu- outed rothoud socks several lanvitage.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." D' A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord ?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost ?" D' Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of othe; because the woman is won and the man, too. D' If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. D' I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling which he would have done if he had been there ; I have noticed this kind never get there .
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the covert Cute Frice. Also, his own manufacture of fats strays on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen Goods, Uvercats, &c, at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the indirect encountie terms. Also, a fine lot of choice brands of CO UN TRY FURS always on hand. Ho desires to call the attention of persons who have OO UN TRY FURS to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the mine, as he folls condident of giving entire satis- faction. Descar, 1968 MORWARDING AND COMMISSION HOUSS. Four & Feed, Coal, Flatter & Sall. 3, THEFTEM & BROTHERS having purchased of Bigger & Newcomer their extensive, Warehouse,	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from dersagement of the liver. Youre truty, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfetted. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON Service and Manufactory at the German Value Bore, No. 631 ARUH Bursel, Fhiladalphia. CHARTEES M. EVANS, German Disters, Proincip. C. M. JACKSON Tor sale by a. Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. IPRICEES, Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. " "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician." Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help him." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " what a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!" "I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-do?" "What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. "Oh, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?"	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say tho." " Weil, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " You old sofa!" " You old sofa!" " You desperate yourg thief!" " You desperate yourg thief?" " You desperate yourg thief?" " You desperate yourg the cat's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thauk me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo- chondrine againfil take good care of thatfor you see it's a nice thing to have	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestudowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last. Will be must determine which of us shall die to fur the eriosupes appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentlement, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! The time is at hand! We nust determine which of us shall die to fur- nish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said : "Gentlement I nominate the Rev James Sawyer, of Faniessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, wait. "L province Mr. Duniel Sible of	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but ne was no more fitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless me1-and tough! Ah, he was very tough ! You could not Ima- ine it—you could never Imagine any- thing like it. " Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detrolf, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wite so after- ward. He was worthy of all prise. I shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the morning, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sat down to—handsome, edu- cated, refined, spoke several languages fluently; he was a perfect gentleman.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." BD-A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" DD-Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of othe; because the woman is won and the man, too. DD-Mr a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. DD-Mr in ever bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Che Froce. Also, his own manufacture of Hats slways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen Goods, Uvercoats, do., at the shortest notice (as he colors overy week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of sholde hands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. He destres to call the attention of participation of the start of the start of a start of the start of the start of the shortest notice (as he colors over week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of sholde hands of TOBACCO AND CIGARS always on hand. He destres to call the attention of participation of the start of the start of the start of the start of the start, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- four, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- four, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- four, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- four a feed, Oca, fault & the start of the start of the start, head of Higharter, hege feeve to inform the public that will continue the portariling and Commission balances on a more and the of the start, head of Higharter, the contactantly on hand and for alle. Coal of all kinds, embracing (YERB VALLEY.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwinds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeing, abd cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 conts to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing overy part of any house. Dec. 17, 1988-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from dersagement of the liver. Youre truty, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfetted. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON Service and Manufactory at the German Value Bore, No. 631 ARUH Bursel, Fhiladalphia. CHARTEES M. EVANS, German Disters, Proincip. C. M. JACKSON Tor sale by a. Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. IPRICEES, Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. " "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician." Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help him." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " what a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!" "I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-do?" "What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. "Oh, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?"	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Not if you say tho." " Weil, I've just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " You old sofa!" " You old sofa!" " You desperate yourg thief!" " You desperate yourg thief?" " You desperate yourg thief?" " You desperate yourg the cat's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thauk me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo- chondrine againfil take good care of thatfor you see it's a nice thing to have	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestudowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now ! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last. Will be must determine which of us shall die to fur the eriosupes appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentlement, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! The time is at hand! We nust determine which of us shall die to fur- nish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said : "Gentlement I nominate the Rev James Sawyer, of Faniessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, wait. "L province Mr. Duniel Sible of	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavored; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicney of fibre, give me Harris. Messick had his good points—I will not at tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it—the to deny it, nor do I wish to do it—than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.—than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.—than a nummy the sin may any bit it. "Do you mean to tell me that—"Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wire so afterward. He was worthy of all praise. I shall always remember Walker. He was not for a labury sin the morning, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was a perfect gentieman, and singularly juley. For supper we had the Orean and the orean beak as fraud, and singularly juley.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." D' A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord ?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" D' Mr. Pewitt snys that a married couple should be called three, instead of othe; because the woman is won and the man, too. D' I a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. D' I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there , I have noticed this kind never get there .
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowert Carb Frices. Also, his own manufacture of flats siways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kinds of Woolen (boods, Overcoats, 20, at the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fine of of the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fine of of the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fine of of the abortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fine of of the other reasonable terms. Also, a fine of of the other is a share and the other terms. Also, a fine of perform who have OOUNTRY FURB to sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the many as he feels confident of giving entire satis- faction. Description who have FORWARDING AND Som KARDING AND Som KARDING AND Som KARDING AND Som K Feed, Coal, Flatter & Soll. 3. BETTEM & BROTHERS having purchased or super A Newomer their extensive Warehoused. (Hendermon's old stand,) head of High atreet, beg feave to inform the public that will continue the vorwarding and Commission business on a more extensive scale term heretofore. The highest market price will be paid for Flour Grain field Froute of all kinds. Flour and freed, Plaster, Sult and Hay, kept containing call and and for ale. Coal of all kinds, embracing inverse will contain the public that.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, and be cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing overy part of any house. Dec. 17, 1663-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from dersagement of the liver. Youre truty, E. D. FENDALL CAUTION. Hoofland's German Romedies are counterfetted. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON C. M. JACKSON Service and Manufactory at the German Value Bore, No. 631 ARUH Bursel, Fhiladalphia. CHARTEES M. EVANS, German Disters, Proincip. C. M. JACKSON Tor sale by a. Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. IPRICEES, Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help bin." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo" "Un no spectacle you are making of yourself!" "Yhm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-doo!" "What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. "Oh, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?" "The inst medam," said the young man, biting hie lips, for the eight was al-	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell won the sofa like a gun. " What! You yillain !" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You young rascal !" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief the cut's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and the cut's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thak me for curing yon. You'll never be a hypo- chondriac againfil take good care the thing to have a medical adviser in the family. Besides, you promised me once that I I was in trouble you'd help me through. Come,	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the fore-finalowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day presed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a compray of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last. Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, laff, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion, every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a calm, thoughful seriouspeas appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentjemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger ! The time is at hand! We nust determine which of us shall die to fur- uish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said: "Gentlemen I nominate the Rev Janes Sawyer, of Fenicessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, said: "I nominate Mr. Daniel Slote of New York." Mr. Charles J. Langdon—I nominate Mr Samuel & Boxen of St. Lonis."	116. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of subsfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor- ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of flire, give me Harris. Mes- sick had his good points—I will not at- tempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it— but he was no more flitted for breakfast than a nummy would be sir—not a bit.— Lean? why bless mei—and tough! Ah, he was verry tough ! You could not ima- ine it—you could never imagine any- thing like it. " Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroft, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wite ro after- ward. He was worthy of all prise. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the morning, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sat down to—handsome, edu- cated, refined, spoke several languages fluently; he was a perfect gentleman and singularly julcy. For supper we had the Oregon patriarch, and he was a fraud, there is no question about it—old scrag- ev: tough—nobody can picture the reali- sture here.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." SD- A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord 197 To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord 1987." SD- Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. SD- If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. SD- I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there ; I have noticed this kind never get there . SD- What is the difference between the entrance to a barn and an over-talka- tive person? One is a barn door and the other a darn bore.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the constitute of facts always on hand, and HATS. MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kindsoft Woolen Goods, Uvercoats, &o, al of the inder reasonable terms. Also, a fine loc of endice binding of the colors every week) and of the inder reasonable terms. Also, a fine loc of endice binding of the endice of endice binding of the endice of endice of the endit of endice of endice of the endit of endice endices of endice of the endit of endities endities and faction. Descent of the endities of the endities of endition of the endities of the endities of endities on the endities of the endities of the endities of the endit of	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeing, at bit cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a nost rainable tonic, to all who are sufficient them and the series are series are series and the series are series are series and the series are series	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. " Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. " My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." " Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" " On the north porch," said Minnie. " And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, " if you can help bin." The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo !" " John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " what a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!" " And I a we spectacle you are making of yourself!" " What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. " Oh, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?!" " Tust me, madam," said the young man, biting his lips, for the sigt was al- most too ridiculous for his gravity. " Unit mo my control of the sign was al- most too ridiculous for his gravity."	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " Uguess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Weil, I'vo just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You desperate young thief!" " You desofa!" " You desofa!" " You desofa." " Use the trian you have But come, let's be friends, and thank me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo- chondriac gain—I'll take good care for that-for you see it's a nice thing to have a medical adviser in the family. Besides, you promised me once that If I was in trouble you'd help me through. Come, come. let us be quite."	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at hast! Nature had been taxed to the utmost—she must yield.— Richard H. Gaston, of Minnesota, Ialf, cadaverous, and pale rose up. All pre- pared—every emotion, every resemblance of excitement was smothered—only a calm, thoughful serious appeared in the eyes that were hately so wild. "Gentlemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! "The time is at hand! We must determine which of us shall die to fur- nish food for the rest!" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said: "Gentlemen I nominate the Rev Jaunes Sawyer, of Tenuiessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, said: "I nominate Mr. Daniel Slote of New York." Mr. Charles J. Langdon—I nominate Mr. Samuel A. Bowen, of St_Douis."	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor-ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Messick had his good points—I will not attempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it—but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numniny would be sir—not a bit.—Lean? why bless mel—and tough! Ah, he was very tough! You could not I maine it—you could never Imagine anything like it. "Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wile so afterward. He was worthy of all prise. I shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the moring, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sut down to—handsome, educated, refined, spoke several languages fluently; he was a perfect gentieman, and singularly july. For supper we had the Oregon patriarch, and he was a fraud, there is no question about it—old sorag-fay in the moring we had hore and he was a fraud, there is no question about it—old sorage.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dear A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dear Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dear If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dear I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there. Dear What is the difference between the entrance to a barn and an over-talka- tive person? One is a barn door and the other a darn bore.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest skyle, all of which he will sell at the Lowest Case Froze. Also, his own manufacture of flate sityays on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kindsof Woolea Goods, Uvercoats, Sc., al the shortest nulte (as he colors every week) and of the indifference in the color of the short of the shortest nulte (as he colors every week) and of the indifference in the color of the short of the indifference in the color of the short of the shortest nulte (as he colors every week) and of the indifference in the state of the shortest of the indifference in the state of the shortest of the short state in the shortest of the shortest is her pays the highest cash prices for the since in the solid school of giving entire satis- ford, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- ford, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- ford in the feels confident of giving entire satis- ford in the feels confident of giving entire satis- field shortest is the all at the above sumber, his old ford, as he feels confident of giving entire satis- ford as he feels confident of giving entire satis- ford in the feels confident of giving entire satis- ford and as the feels extensive Warehouse, filederson's old stand, head of High street, beg feave to inform the public that will confinue the fourtain all Produce of all kinds. "Four and feed, Plaster, Sat and Hay, kept constantly on hand and for sale. "Coal of all kinds. "Four and feed, Plaster, Sat and Hay, kept constantly on hand and for sale. "Coal of all kinds. "Coal of all kinds.	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, at bit cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a nost rainable tonic, to all who are sufficient them and the series are series are series and the series are series are series and the series are series	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help bin." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " in no spectacle you are making of yourself?" "I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-doo?" "What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. "On, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?" "Tust me, madam," said the young man, biting his lips, for the sight was al- most too ridiculous for his gravity. "Upon my word," conlinued he, ad- dressing the deluded man, "what a mag-	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I teil you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I teil, you something ?" " Won't you gust married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " You old sofa!" " You old sofa!" " You desperate yourg thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You rickety old sofa, and the cat's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thauk me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo- chondrine again/'ll take good care for that-for you see it's a pice thing to have a medical adviser in the family. Besides, you promised me once that If I was in trouble you'd help me through. Come, come, let's be quits."	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last of the source of excitement was smothered—ouly a calm, thoughful seriosupess appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentlemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! "The time is at hand! We must determine which of us shall die to fur- nish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said : "Gentlemen I nominate the Rev Janess Sawyer, of Tenuiessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, said : "I nominate Mr. Daniel Slote of New York." Mr. Charles J. Langdon—I nominate Mr. Samuel A. Bowen, of St. Louis." Mr. Slote—"Gentlemen, I desire to deallow in for onter Mr. John A. William S.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor-ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Messick had his good points—I will not attempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it—but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numniny would be sir—not a bit.—Lean? why bless mel—and tough! Ah, he was very tough! You could not I maine it—you could never Imagine anything like it. "Do you mean to tell me that—" Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wile so afterward. He was worthy of all prise. I shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the moring, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sut down to—handsome, educated, refined, spoke several languages fluently; he was a perfect gentieman, and singularly july. For supper we had the Oregon patriarch, and he was a fraud, there is no question about it—old sorag-fay in the moring we had hore and he was a fraud, there is no question about it—old sorage.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dear A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dear Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dear If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dear I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there. Dear What is the difference between the entrance to a barn and an over-talka- tive person? One is a barn door and the other a darn bore.
besides an endices variety of Hats and Caps of the latest siyls, all of which he will sell at the Zowert Cath Froze. Also, his own manufacture of Hats slways on hand, and HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. Het has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and it kinds of Woolen (ouecoats, do., at the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fired to of oholds brands colors and it kinds of the colors of the short state and the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fired to of oholds brands colors and the inderreasonable terms. Also, a fired the inderreasonable of periods, who have a the short state of the state of the short state of periods, who have a the short state of the state of the state of periods who have a the short state of the state of the state of periods who have a the short state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state a the short state of the state of the state a the short state of the state of the state a the short state of the state of the state a the state of the	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, at bit cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a nost rainable tonic, to all who are sufficient them and the series are series are series and the series are series are series and the series are series	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help bin." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " in no spectacle you are making of yourself?" "I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-doo?" "What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. "On, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?" "Tust me, madam," said the young man, biting his lips, for the sight was al- most too ridiculous for his gravity. "Upon my word," conlinued he, ad- dressing the deluded man, "what a mag-	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " Are you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " Certainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " Uguess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something ?" " Weil, I'vo just married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " Take care or you'll break !" cried the doctor. " You desperate young thief!" " You desofa!" " You desofa!" " You desofa." " You desofa. I tell you," cried the doctor, ".if you had not been a feather, and a roo-ter, and a sofa, and the cat's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thank me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo- chondriac againfil take good care for thatfor you see it's a nice thing to have a medical adviser in the family. Besides, you promised me once that If I was in trouble you'd help me through. Come, come, let us be quite."	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last of the source of excitement was smothered—ouly a calm, thoughful seriosupess appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentlemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! "The time is at hand! We must determine which of us shall die to fur- nish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said : "Gentlemen I nominate the Rev Janess Sawyer, of Tenuiessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, said : "I nominate Mr. Daniel Slote of New York." Mr. Charles J. Langdon—I nominate Mr. Samuel A. Bowen, of St. Louis." Mr. Slote—"Gentlemen, I desire to deallow in for onter Mr. John A. William S.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor-ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Messick had his good points—I will not attempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it—but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numniny would be sir—not a bit.—Lean? why bless mel—and tough! Ah, he was very tough! You could not I maine it—you could never Imagine anything like it. "Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wile coafter ward. He was worthy of all prise. It shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the moring, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sut down to—handsome, educated, refined, spoke several languages fluently; he was a perfect gentieman, and singularly july. For supper we had the Oregon patriarch, and he was fraud, there is no question about it—old sorag-fay in the moring, we had horgan it.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dear A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dear Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dear If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dear I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there. Dear What is the difference between the entrance to a barn and an over-talka- tive person? One is a barn door and the other a darn bore.
besides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the lowest Cute Frices. Also, his own manufacture of flats singly on hand, and HATS. MANUFACTURED TO ORDER. He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats and all kindsof Woolen Goods, Uvercoats, &o, al the shortest notice (as he colors every week) and on he indirect another terms. Also, a fine lot of choice brands of choice brands of choice brands of c	receipt of the price, 20 yards or upwirds of their beautiful Costs of Carpeling, at bit cents per yard, with samples of ten sorts, varying in price from 25 cents to 85 per yard, suitable for furnishing every part of any house. Dec. 17, 1603-46	 Ind's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a nost rainable tonic, to all who are sufficient them and the series are series are series and the series are series are series and the series are series	"A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know — "" Somebody wheeled round from the window. "Madam. I heard you speaking of- the-ahem-need of a doctor. Excuge my forwardness-but I am a physician?" Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion. "My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him." "Perhaps he is a hypochondriae. I think I've seen him. Where is he, mad- am?" "On the north porch," said Minnie. "And I am sure we are very much obliged," added the mother, "if you can help bin." "The first sound that struck their ears as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous "cock-a-doodle-doo?" "John-Mr. Lundy!" cried his wife, " in no spectacle you are making of yourself?" "I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way-do you not notice the expanse of my wings?- Cock-a-doodle-doo?" "What shall we do?" cried the poor wife, to the doctor. "On, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?" "Tust me, madam," said the young man, biting his lips, for the sight was al- most too ridiculous for his gravity. "Upon my word," conlinued he, ad- dressing the deluded man, "what a mag-	The sofa gave one deep inspiration. The doctor looked serious. " A re you sure you are a sofa ?" " Of course I am." " Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy ?" " I am no longer Mr. Lundy." " Can you keep a secret ?" " Cartainly I can." " Do you know old Lundy's daughter ?" " I guess I do." " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I teil you something ?" " Won't you let on to the old fellow if I teil, you something ?" " Won't you gust married her. She's my wife." Off went the sofa like a gun. " What! You villain!" " You old sofa!" " You old sofa!" " You desperate yourg thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You desperate young thief!" " You rickety old sofa, and the cat's know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have But come, let's be friends, and thauk me for curing you. You'll never be a hypo- chondrine again/'ll take good care for that-for you see it's a pice thing to have a medical adviser in the family. Besides, you promised me once that If I was in trouble you'd help me through. Come, come, let's be quits."	dram's of feasting-walkings distressed with the grawings of hunger. The fourth day came and went-and the fifth! Five days of dreadful impris- onment! A savage hunger looked out at every eye. There was in it a sign of ax- ful import—the forestadowing of some- thing that was vaguely shuping itself in every. heart-a something which no tongue cared yet to frame into words. The sixth day pussed—the seventh dawned upon as gaunt, and haggard, and hopeless a computy of men as ever stood in the shadow of deAth. It must out now! That thing which had been grow- ing up in every heart was ready to leap from every lip at last! Nature had been from every lip at last of the source of excitement was smothered—ouly a calm, thoughful seriosupess appeared in the eyes that were lately so wild. "Gentlemen, it cannot be delayed lon- ger! "The time is at hand! We must determine which of us shall die to fur- nish food for the rest !" Mr. John J. Williams, of Illinois rose and said : "Gentlemen I nominate the Rev Janess Sawyer, of Tenuiessee." Mr. William B. Adams, of Indiana, said : "I nominate Mr. Daniel Slote of New York." Mr. Charles J. Langdon—I nominate Mr. Samuel A. Bowen, of St. Louis." Mr. Slote—"Gentlemen, I desire to deallow in for onter Mr. John A. William S.	life. The winds howled, and blew the snows wildly about our prison house, but they were powerless to distress us any more. I liked Harris. He might have been better done, perhaps, but I am free to say that no man ever agreed with me better than Harris, or afforded me so large a degree of satisfaction. Messick was very well, though rather high flavor-ed; but for genuine nutritiousness, and delicacy of fibre, give me Harris. Messick had his good points—I will not attempt to deny it, nor do I wish to do it—but he was no more fitted for breakfast than a numniny would be sir—not a bit.—Lean? why bless mel—and tough! Ah, he was very tough! You could not I maine it—you could never Imagine anything like it. "Do not interrupt me, please. After breakfast we elected a man by the name of Walker, from Detroit, for supper. He was very good. I wrote his wile coafter ward. He was worthy of all prise. It shall always remember Walker. He was a little rare, but very good. And then in the moring, we had Morgan of Alabama, for breakfast. He was one of the finest men I ever sut down to—handsome, educated, refined, spoke several languages fluently; he was a perfect gentieman, and singularly july. For supper we had the Oregon patriarch, and he was fraud, there is no question about it—old sorag-fay in the moring, we had horgan it.	on being asked by a triend to fom him a dollar, answered, brickly, "with plea- sure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out." Dear A revivalist, encountering an Af- rican; asked him: "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?" Dear Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of ohe; because the woman is won and the man, too. Dear If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good hus- band. Dear I never bet on the man who is al- ways telling what he would have done if he had been there; I have noticed this kind never get there. Dear What is the difference between the entrance to a barn and an over-talka- tive person? One is a barn door and the other a darn bore.