JUDGE BLACK CONVALESCENT.~We are happy to announce that Hon. Jere. S. Black, who lately received a severe injury, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, is much better, although still confined to his bed at the St. Joseph infirmary in this city. The character of the injury is such that his convalescence is necessarily slow, but there are no doubts of his ultimate restoration to health, Dr. D. W. Yandel deserves high praise for his skillful treatment of this difficult case. - Loui ville Lx, ress,

A SINGULAR OCCURRENCE. -The Lancaster Inquirer states that a most singular occurrence recently took place at the house of Cooper Stubbs, who lives near Peach bottom, in Fulton twp., that county. Mr. Stubbs was from home and his Suddenly Ars. Stubbs heard the child give a startling scream, and looking around, beheld, to her astquishmen, a grey squ rrel, which had entered the room unobserved, perched upon the child's back biting its neck and shoulder in a most fearful manner. Mrs. Stubbs seized the savage intruder with her hands and relieved the could, but "bunny" then turned his attention to her, and be fore he could be secured he had bitten her repeated y. A brother of Mr. Stubbs who was about the premises now came to the rescue an t-succeeded in capturing the squirrei, but not before he had been somewhat damaged in the encounter. The wounds inflicted on the mother and child were not serious, but painful in the extreme, and the little lellow, who sufiered most, was literally covered with TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. Opod. After the animal was secured be supposition that he was a pet ed, however, to be a mistake, as the pet he again exhibited a disposition to bite, when capital punishment was promptly infli ted upon him.

The singular part of the affair is that a few days before, a squirrel, supposed to be the same one, entered a house a short distance from Mr. Scubbs, and bit one of the occupants, after which he escaped,
