[Correspondence N. Y. World,] WASHINGTON, June 23. Edman Spangler, who was tried and sentenced by a military commission in May, 1865, on a charge of being engaged in the piot to assassinate President Lut-coln, and pardoned by President Junt-coln, and pardoned by President Junt-coln and the prisoners before and after conviction. Spangler was a scene shifter at Pord's Theatre, and was on the stage when John Wilkes Booth shot Mr. Lun-coln and jumpel from the box. He also at times took care of Booth's horse. The evidence against him was of the filmslest character, not being even circumstantiat, for it did not appeal in the trial, or in the subsequent civil triat of Surratt, that Spangler had any connection whatever with any of the other so-called coupjira tors. Most everybody believed him in-nocent then, and the Military Commis-sion doubted his guilt by sentencing him to six years at the Dry Toitugas, and giving the others a life term. The Mili-tary Commission was organized to con-vic, and it convicted. Abundant testi-mony is now at hand to snow the vast amount of perjury of that trial -perjury exact d by fear and dictated by mance. Spangler's allusion to the witness Wench man being in the abduction plot is in portant. Weichman's testimony, it will be remembered, hung Mrs. Surratt. Clemancy. Rest A phenomenou of a most extraordi-nary nature has lately been witnessed up the inhabitants of the borders of the Caspian Nea. This huge salt lake is dot-ted with numerous isla .ds which produce yearly a large guantity of naptha, and it is no uncommon occurrence for fire- to break out the second of the second of the second wardy days before they can be extinguish-ted. Early last month, owing to some subterraneous disturbances, enormous quantities of this inflamable substance were prejected from the maptha wells, and spread over the entire surface of the water, and becoming ignited, notwith-standing every precaution, converted the whole sea into the semblance of a gigan-f is flaming punch bowl, many thousands of square miles in extent. The fire burnt itself out in about forty-eight hours, leav-ing the sorface strewed with the dead bodies of injume rable files.
