

American Volunteer.

CARLISLE, PA.,
Charley Morning, August 13, 1869.
DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

HON. ASA PACKER,
FOR GOVERNOR,
OF COMMONWEALTH.
FOR SUPREME JUDGE,
HON. CYRUS L. PERSHING,
OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.

Democratic County Ticket.
FOR ASSEMBLY,
JOHN B. LEIDIG,
of Silver Spring Township.

FOR PROTHONOTARY,
W. V. CAVANAUGH,
of Penn Township.
FOR CLERK OF THE COURTS,
GEORGE C. SHEAFFER,
of Silver Spring Township.

FOR JUSTICE,
JOSEPH NEELY,
of Carlisle.
FOR COUNTY TREASURER,
GEORGE WETZEL,
of Carlisle.

FOR COMMISSIONER,
JACOB RHOADS,
of West Pennboro' Township.
FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR,
JOHN UMBERGER,
of Lower Allen Township.

FOR AUDITOR,
C. V. KELLY,
of Neuton Township.

REMOVAL!
The Volunteer Office has been removed to the second floor of Westop Hall, on Church Alley, directly West of the Franklin House. Entrance on Church Alley.

1869. 1869.
THE VOLUNTEER
FOR THE CAMPAIGN!

Great Reduction in Price!
We will furnish the VOLUNTEER from the 15th of August until the 25th of December—50% more—at the remarkably low price of...

FIFTY CENTS PER COPY.
We design that our friends shall have the opportunity of placing a sound, reliable Democratic paper in every household, and save the price so low that it scarcely more than pays for the paper used. We have this done our part, now let our friends in the country do theirs. There is no better way to insure success than to scatter Democratic truth broadcast among the people. Political meetings and great demonstrations may serve a purpose, but it is the newspaper, the quiet of a man's house, which makes converts. For clubs we make a further deduction.

CLUB RATES:
Three Copies, $1.25
Five Copies, 1.75
Ten Copies, 3.00
Twenty Copies, 5.00
All campaign subscribers will be discontinued on December 25, unless subscriptions are renewed. In case the cash must accompany the order. Address: BRATTON & KENNEDY, Carlisle, Pa.

THE COUNTY TICKET.
The Democratic County Ticket, placed in nomination by the PEOPLE on Saturday night last, will be found at the head of our columns. In every respect it is unexceptionable, and deserves and should receive the cordial support of every Democrat in our county. Where there were so many candidates for Treasurer and other offices, of course there are many who feel sadly disappointed. Let us hope, however, that the welfare of the country and the Democratic party may induce all good Democrats to yield to the ticket the support it should receive. Hereafter it will be our province to refer to each candidate, and to commend them to the people's confidence. A want of space and time prevent us making any extended remarks this week.

THE NEGRO VOTE NOT AS LARGE AS WAS EXPECTED.
This is the stereotyped excuse the Radicals use when they fail to carry an election in a Southern State. Their whole strength is embraced in carpet-baggers and negroes. The carpet-baggers—long-legged jail birds from Massachusetts and other New England States—of course can be relied upon, but a large portion of the better class of negroes have got their eyes open, and many of them vote squarely against the Radical scoundrels, and others remain at work and refuse to attend the election. "The negro vote was not as large as was expected" Ah, that's what's the matter. That's what knocks Radicals.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE acknowledges "the respectable abilities and good character of Judge Packer," the Philadelphia Press admits that he "would make an honest Governor." The Evening Bulletin takes pains to announce his public benefactions, and the Pittsburg Chronicle declares, that the chances are in favor of his election. These Radical journals are as completely nonplussed in seeing an objection to Judge Packer as they are in trying to find something in favor of Geary.

ASA PACKER gave nearly a million dollars, in money and real estate, to endow the Lehigh University, for the education of the youth of Pennsylvania. JOHN W. GEARY entered into a bargain with certain relatives of Stephen Girard to bring suits against the city of Philadelphia, for the recovery of the fund which now maintains some five hundred orphans in Girard College. This is a fair index to the general difference in character between the two men. Choose ye between them.

OUR Democratic friends should carefully examine the registration lists and see that their names are on them. If not there they should be registered as early as possible. Let no vote be lost in this connection.

PAISON MOODY bossed a camp meeting in Ohio, and introduced Rev. Cramer, with "The brother-in-law of President Grant will now lead us in prayer."

It seems like a joke for such a man as Geary to be a candidate in opposition to Judge Packer. It will prove a serious joke, however, to the hero of Snickersville.

The Pittsburg Chronicle (Radical) concedes that Judge Packer will be elected. It declares that the chances are in favor of the Democrats carrying the State.

All campaign subscriptions will expire on December 25. The sooner you send in your names, the more you will get for your money.

TENNESSEE CONSERVATIVE.

At this rate, the whole South will soon become as reliably Democratic as Kentucky and New York City. First Virginia, then Alabama, now Tennessee. Victories are as frequent as contests, and nominations are equivalent to elections. It has only needed a maximum of Radical folly and tyranny and a minimum of Democratic wisdom and liberality to assure this. Let no man be deceived. Though Walker and Senter sailed in under the paradoxical name of Conservative Republicans, the cognomen delugs no one—Democrats supported, elected, and will advise them. Decency in their section necessitates Democracy, and the time between them and the Radical party is as marked as the difference between any conceivable opposites—between Mr. Greeley and free trade, for instance. And Tennessee rightly leads off. The first to be reconstructed, she is the earliest of the Southern States to repudiate the disfranchising and peddlers in savage suffrage who have brought her credit to ruin and given her history the only blot it wears. The scoundrels and carpet-baggers may as well engrave on their foreheads the words "tyrants and oppressors" hereafter will rule Tennessee. The State belongs to herself. We congratulate the commonwealth. We congratulate the country. We congratulate the progressive, indomitable Democracy. Now for the abolition of all disabilities. Now for an honest, aggressive State administration. Now for a true man to be in the Senate of the United States, to be ex-President Andrew Johnson or any other capable statesman, whom the Radicals have no lack. This is no doubtful triumph. Congress dare not even usurp the supervision of the righteous verdict. Tennessee, which reentered the Union in humiliation, at last retaliates upon the conspirators who have played fast and loose with her honor. A mighty present struggle has saved the State till time shall end. Future success will be easy, and the Democracy are once more free and victorious in the home of the brave and the hearts that follow his counsel.

THE NATIONAL DEAD-HEAD.—That walking bill advertisement, government dead-head, and gift enterprise swindler, Ulysses S. Grant, came over from Long Branch yesterday. He came over at an early hour, but before he started had arranged for some little private affairs. He was in the city for a few days, and he had to attend to his people and improve the business condition of the South. Tennessee has also raised her voice against further encroachments upon the liberties and rights of the people. Senter has defeated Stokes, although the latter was endorsed by two members of General Grant's Cabinet—Boutwell and Cresswell. The people of Tennessee, like those of the nation, are tired of political humbug. They want repose and freedom from political agitation in order to cultivate the soil, sell goods, bring back the days of plenty, peace and contentment. There is also some conservative movement in Mississippi and Texas, headed by men of standing and ability, and from the notions of Virginia, Alabama and Tennessee, it is fair to conclude that in these States the tide will also turn and leave the black flag ship of Radicalism stranded on the beach.

The important question is, how can we, in Pennsylvania take this tide in such a manner as to lead on to fortune? The answer is by flying the flag of principle always at the mast-head, and choosing as captains and leaders the best men of the State. The people are tired of Geary and the "Ring" which has ruled him and the State. Throwing out of moderate men who, through the way, drifted from their original intentions into opposition to the Democratic party, are now prepared to return. They can no longer act in concert with a party which, in a time of peace, keeps the national and State expenses up to war figures. Farmers are beginning to feel the pressure of the times. They are no longer getting war prices for wheat, corn, oats and other products, and still the tax-gatherer comes to collect money for a corrupt and disolute Congress to waste upon its pets and favorites. Mechanics and workmen also feel the pinch of the times. Get what they may for their work, still expenses take the last dollar, and leave nothing for sickness or want of employment. Men are beginning to see the real causes of this unendurable state of affairs, and they are prepared to act with the Democratic party at this turning of the tide. All things are propitious. We have on the State ticket men above and beyond reproach. Asa Packer is just the man for the crisis. Honest, calm, clear-headed, able to grasp all business questions and settle them in a proper manner, he will manage the affairs of the State as he has his own and with a like happy result. Mr. Pershing, our candidate for the Supreme Court, is entitled to the fullest confidence of the people. His elevation to the bench will be a proper rebuke to the Radical party for their effort to place a repudiator on the bench of the supreme judicial tribunal of this Commonwealth. All that is needed, then, to put Pennsylvania in the full drift of the turning tide is fidelity and earnestness on the part of the Democracy to party at this crisis, and these elements of success we invoke at this time.—Age.

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION.—Johnson's powder mill, about one and a half miles south of our town, exploded on Saturday evening last about seven o'clock. The dry house, which was a stone building, was blown to atoms, and the powder mill blown off. About two tons of powder was in the dry house at the time, and the largest portion of it was in the air. The explosion was occasioned by some fire from the stove, in the dry house, communicating with the powder mill, which was in the chimney, which, lighting, dropped their sparks on the pulverized charcoal on the floor below. This seems to be apparent from the fact that Mr. James Johnson, who had charge of the mill, had just been proceeding from the roof near the chimney, and going into the dry house discovered the cause of the explosion. The powder mill was ignited by the flames from the exploding dry house and was only extinguished by the firemen who were already notified.—York True Democrat.

THE PITTSBURGH CHRONICLE (Radical) concedes that Judge Packer will be elected. It declares that the chances are in favor of the Democrats carrying the State.

All campaign subscriptions will expire on December 25. The sooner you send in your names, the more you will get for your money.

WANTED.—1,000 subscribers for the campaign Volunteer.

THE TIDE TURNING.

For the past six or seven years the tide of political fortune has set steadily against the Democratic party in the country. War, and the wild passions aroused and stimulated by the conflict between the sections, prevented men from examining questions presented in the clear light of history, reason and precedent. Passion and prejudice ruled the hour and the country. Demagogues, charlatans and pretenders grasped the helm and steered the ship of State to suit their own interested purposes. The teachings of the fathers and founders of the Republic were forgotten, or if remembered—disregarded. The men raised to power by the ways of national expediency did not consult the Constitution, that great chart of the people's rights and liberties, nor foster kindly relations between the sections, as the most certain and reliable bond of union and prosperity. The drift of the current was in favor of Radicalism and disintegration, and the effects of such a condition of public sentiment can be seen in States unrepresented, the civil law overshadowed by military authority, the nation ruled by a small band of corrupt and reckless dictators, business depressed for the want of peace and security and the whole nation rendered agitated and feverish by the dread of what is threatened in the future.

But recent events show that the tide is turning. In all sections of the Union, men are abandoning the ultra Radical party and looking for safer ground to which to stand. They are afraid to follow Boutwell and Butler any longer. They see where the teaching of the Radicals will end—where the government will be changed if their notions are adopted instead of the plain letter and spirit of the Constitution. These considerations have borne good fruit in the North, and are now operating in the Southwest and South in a like cheering manner. Virginia defeated Geary, and elected a Legislature which will strike the shackles from the necks of white men, and rebuild the broken fortunes of that old State. In Alabama, the Conservatives have inflicted a death blow upon the party of proscription, and elected to Congress some of the best men in the State. These representatives will place before the body of which they are members, and the whole country, the true condition of affairs in that section of the Union, and plead for the adoption of a policy which will benefit the people and improve the business condition of the South. Tennessee has also raised her voice against further encroachments upon the liberties and rights of the people. Senter has defeated Stokes, although the latter was endorsed by two members of General Grant's Cabinet—Boutwell and Cresswell. The people of Tennessee, like those of the nation, are tired of political humbug. They want repose and freedom from political agitation in order to cultivate the soil, sell goods, bring back the days of plenty, peace and contentment. There is also some conservative movement in Mississippi and Texas, headed by men of standing and ability, and from the notions of Virginia, Alabama and Tennessee, it is fair to conclude that in these States the tide will also turn and leave the black flag ship of Radicalism stranded on the beach.

The important question is, how can we, in Pennsylvania take this tide in such a manner as to lead on to fortune? The answer is by flying the flag of principle always at the mast-head, and choosing as captains and leaders the best men of the State. The people are tired of Geary and the "Ring" which has ruled him and the State. Throwing out of moderate men who, through the way, drifted from their original intentions into opposition to the Democratic party, are now prepared to return. They can no longer act in concert with a party which, in a time of peace, keeps the national and State expenses up to war figures. Farmers are beginning to feel the pressure of the times. They are no longer getting war prices for wheat, corn, oats and other products, and still the tax-gatherer comes to collect money for a corrupt and disolute Congress to waste upon its pets and favorites. Mechanics and workmen also feel the pinch of the times. Get what they may for their work, still expenses take the last dollar, and leave nothing for sickness or want of employment. Men are beginning to see the real causes of this unendurable state of affairs, and they are prepared to act with the Democratic party at this turning of the tide. All things are propitious. We have on the State ticket men above and beyond reproach. Asa Packer is just the man for the crisis. Honest, calm, clear-headed, able to grasp all business questions and settle them in a proper manner, he will manage the affairs of the State as he has his own and with a like happy result. Mr. Pershing, our candidate for the Supreme Court, is entitled to the fullest confidence of the people. His elevation to the bench will be a proper rebuke to the Radical party for their effort to place a repudiator on the bench of the supreme judicial tribunal of this Commonwealth. All that is needed, then, to put Pennsylvania in the full drift of the turning tide is fidelity and earnestness on the part of the Democracy to party at this crisis, and these elements of success we invoke at this time.—Age.

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION.—Johnson's powder mill, about one and a half miles south of our town, exploded on Saturday evening last about seven o'clock. The dry house, which was a stone building, was blown to atoms, and the powder mill blown off. About two tons of powder was in the dry house at the time, and the largest portion of it was in the air. The explosion was occasioned by some fire from the stove, in the dry house, communicating with the powder mill, which was in the chimney, which, lighting, dropped their sparks on the pulverized charcoal on the floor below. This seems to be apparent from the fact that Mr. James Johnson, who had charge of the mill, had just been proceeding from the roof near the chimney, and going into the dry house discovered the cause of the explosion. The powder mill was ignited by the flames from the exploding dry house and was only extinguished by the firemen who were already notified.—York True Democrat.

THE PITTSBURGH CHRONICLE (Radical) concedes that Judge Packer will be elected. It declares that the chances are in favor of the Democrats carrying the State.

All campaign subscriptions will expire on December 25. The sooner you send in your names, the more you will get for your money.

WANTED.—1,000 subscribers for the campaign Volunteer.

THE DEMOCRATIC EAGLE IN THE SKIES!

Tennessee Redeemed.
SENTER ELECTED BY 50,000 MAJORITY!

Legislature two-thirds Democratic.
COMMENTS OF THE PRESS, &c.

A glorious victory has been achieved by the friends of the Constitutional Liberty of Tennessee. The day of enfranchisement for the enslaved people that oppressed and ruled Commonwealth has come at last. Tennessee is disenthralled! Tennessee is free! How proudly erect she stands in the glory of her resorted liberties.

A special to the New York Times from Knoxville says:
The returns received to-night show a sweeping Democratic victory. Senter is elected by 50,000 majority. The Legislature is two-thirds Democratic. Johnson's return to the Senate is almost certain. Stokes carries nearly the full Republican vote in East Tennessee. The blacks are much divided, and for several local offices voted Democratic. Knoxville gives Senter 4,000 majority, a Democratic gain of 500. Knox county gives Senter 600 majority; Fleming, Cannel and Mt. Bath are sent from Knox county to the Legislature. Johnson's return to the Senate is a large majority. His own precinct voted for Young; the colored people nearly four to one against him. Granger, Hamilton, Sullivan and Green, East Tennessee counties, sent Johnson now to the Legislature. Johnson gives 400 Senter majority. Granger 300 majority; Sullivan, 1,500 majority; Greene, 500 majority; Maury, 1,000 majority; Robertson, 2,000 majority; Gill, 2,000 majority; Shelby, 2,000 majority; Madison, 1,000 majority; Jefferson, 900 majority; Cooke, 500 majority; Sevier, 500 majority; Blount, 300 majority. Stokes will go out of East Tennessee. Several persons were seriously injured.

FROM ALABAMA.
A Democratic Victory—Four Democrats in the Alabama Legislature.
SHELBY, Ala., August 4.—The returns from the election in Alabama, held on the 2nd inst., show a Democratic gain of 400 in that county. The returns from the Alabama election result in a Democratic gain of 400 in that county. The choice of four Democrats and two radicals to Congress. The delegation from Alabama to Congress will be entirely Democratic. The new delegation to Congress will stand as follows:
Districts. Members of Congress elected.
1.—Wm. D. Mann, Democrat—gain.
2.—C. W. Buckley, radical—re-elected.
3.—Thos. D. Senter, Democrat—gain.
4.—Charles Hayes, radical.
5.—Peter M. Cox, Democrat—gain.
6.—Wm. C. Sherrod, Democrat—gain.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—Since seven o'clock this evening an immense fire has been raging in the United States Hotel, a building situated on the street near the wharf. The building contained thirty thousand barrels of whiskey, which was totally destroyed. The loss will reach to one and a half million dollars. The fire was caused by the explosion of the boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA.

Immense Conflagration.
Destruction of a Bonded Warehouse—Forty Thousand Barrels of Whiskey—Killed by the Falling Buildings.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—Since seven o'clock this evening an immense fire has been raging in the United States Hotel, a building situated on the street near the wharf. The building contained thirty thousand barrels of whiskey, which was totally destroyed. The loss will reach to one and a half million dollars. The fire was caused by the explosion of the boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA.

Immense Conflagration.
Destruction of a Bonded Warehouse—Forty Thousand Barrels of Whiskey—Killed by the Falling Buildings.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—Since seven o'clock this evening an immense fire has been raging in the United States Hotel, a building situated on the street near the wharf. The building contained thirty thousand barrels of whiskey, which was totally destroyed. The loss will reach to one and a half million dollars. The fire was caused by the explosion of the boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA.

Immense Conflagration.
Destruction of a Bonded Warehouse—Forty Thousand Barrels of Whiskey—Killed by the Falling Buildings.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—Since seven o'clock this evening an immense fire has been raging in the United States Hotel, a building situated on the street near the wharf. The building contained thirty thousand barrels of whiskey, which was totally destroyed. The loss will reach to one and a half million dollars. The fire was caused by the explosion of the boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA.

Immense Conflagration.
Destruction of a Bonded Warehouse—Forty Thousand Barrels of Whiskey—Killed by the Falling Buildings.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—Since seven o'clock this evening an immense fire has been raging in the United States Hotel, a building situated on the street near the wharf. The building contained thirty thousand barrels of whiskey, which was totally destroyed. The loss will reach to one and a half million dollars. The fire was caused by the explosion of the boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.—I o'clock A. M. The United States Hotel, a building known as Patterson's store house, a six story brick building two hundred feet by one hundred feet, and containing 40,000 barrels of whiskey and other goods, valued at ten or eleven million dollars, took fire at seven o'clock this evening. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. The engineer and watchman were killed. Further particulars will be furnished as soon as they can be obtained. The fire is now spreading frightfully.