

Local Items

SUDDEN DEATH IN COURT.—On Friday afternoon last William Gould, court clerk, after calling the Sheriff's sales in front of the Court House, appeared in the court room for his honor took the usual proclamation as he went in good health, and from his high seat listened attentively to the opinion of the court in the Schoeppe case. The sentence of the court was pronounced, and his honor Judge Graham had just concluded the customary prayer "May God have mercy on your soul," when Mr. Gould was stricken with a stroke of apoplexy. He was carried into the arms of some of the forward into an office corner. He was carried into the arms of some of the forward into an office corner. He was carried into the arms of some of the forward into an office corner.

NICE DISHES FOR INVALIDS.—We give the following recipes to our readers, knowing them to be excellent, as we have tried them: Apple Water.—Roast three or four good apples, carefully preserving all the juice. Put them in a pitcher and pour on a quart of boiling water. Drink when cold.

Local Items (continued). Sudden Death in Court (continued). The Sheriff's sales in front of the Court House, appeared in the court room for his honor took the usual proclamation as he went in good health, and from his high seat listened attentively to the opinion of the court in the Schoeppe case. The sentence of the court was pronounced, and his honor Judge Graham had just concluded the customary prayer "May God have mercy on your soul," when Mr. Gould was stricken with a stroke of apoplexy.

When Titus left Mrs. Fry, her son and Mrs. Titus, excited themselves at the disappearance of Stahm and the conduct of Titus, started in the direction of Titus, following a by-road, which leads into a mountain, a short distance, they found the tracks of two men leading from the road into the woods. Following these tracks about 400 feet into a level place surrounded on two sides by hills, by the edge of a pond of water, on looking up the snow covered hills, and a voice called to the neighbors. A number of persons soon gathered at the place, and a shallow grave and covered 12 or 16 inches with earth and snow, at low water mark at the foot of the hill, a shallow grave was taken off and was found concealed in a pile of rails. On examining the body of the man, it was found that he had been struck on the right side of the skull about 4 inches long and the wound was about 1/2 inch deep. The wound was found on the right side of the skull about 4 inches long and the wound was about 1/2 inch deep.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL. The trial of Titus for the murder of Stahm is now in progress. The evidence is strong against him, and he is expected to be convicted. The jury has heard several days of testimony, and the case is expected to be decided soon. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence.

Real Estate Sales. ORPHAN'S COURT SALE OF THREE VALUABLE LIME STONE FARMS. The Orphan's Court of Cumberland County, Pa., has ordered the sale of three valuable limestone farms. The farms are situated in the townships of Springdale, Springdale, and Springdale. The farms are of various sizes and are well improved. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Real Estate Sales (continued). VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A large tract of land, containing about 100 acres, is offered for sale at private sale. The land is situated in the township of Springdale, Cumberland County, Pa. The land is well improved and is suitable for farming. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Financial. THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD IS FINISHED. The Great Pacific Railroad, which has been under construction for many years, is now complete. The railroad runs from the coast of California to the Rocky Mountains. The completion of the railroad will greatly benefit the people of the West.

Financial (continued). FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE UNION AND CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROADS. The Union and Central Pacific Railroad Company has issued a new issue of first mortgage bonds. The bonds are of various denominations and are offered for sale at a discount. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

HORSES IN FLY TIME.—The fly, insidious as it is in its ways, and as a pest, is one of the most annoying little pests of all. A nuisance to man, the fly is the terror of the horse, whose flesh is made to quiver whenever the foot of one touches him. It is, therefore, an act of humanity to come to the aid of the horse, and to protect him from the annoyance of the fly.

OUR NEW SIGN.—On Friday last, the new sign was unveiled at the top of the Voluntary building. The sign is a large and beautiful one, and it is expected to attract much attention. The sign is a large and beautiful one, and it is expected to attract much attention.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

Real Estate Sales (continued). VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A large tract of land, containing about 100 acres, is offered for sale at private sale. The land is situated in the township of Springdale, Cumberland County, Pa. The land is well improved and is suitable for farming. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Financial (continued). THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD IS FINISHED. The Great Pacific Railroad, which has been under construction for many years, is now complete. The railroad runs from the coast of California to the Rocky Mountains. The completion of the railroad will greatly benefit the people of the West.

DICKINSON HARVEST HOME.—The Dickinson people are celebrating their harvest home celebration on Thursday last. The tables are groaning under their load of good things. Four or five hundred persons visited the grounds, during the day, and were all heartily supplied with the best of the company could afford.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

Real Estate Sales (continued). VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A large tract of land, containing about 100 acres, is offered for sale at private sale. The land is situated in the township of Springdale, Cumberland County, Pa. The land is well improved and is suitable for farming. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Financial (continued). THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD IS FINISHED. The Great Pacific Railroad, which has been under construction for many years, is now complete. The railroad runs from the coast of California to the Rocky Mountains. The completion of the railroad will greatly benefit the people of the West.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—We learn that the contract for building the extension to the road from Hagerstown to a point on the Potomac river called Powell's Bend, near Williamsport, was given out last week to Mr. James Maro, a well known contractor of Lebanon, Pa.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

Real Estate Sales (continued). VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A large tract of land, containing about 100 acres, is offered for sale at private sale. The land is situated in the township of Springdale, Cumberland County, Pa. The land is well improved and is suitable for farming. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Financial (continued). THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD IS FINISHED. The Great Pacific Railroad, which has been under construction for many years, is now complete. The railroad runs from the coast of California to the Rocky Mountains. The completion of the railroad will greatly benefit the people of the West.

MECHANIC TROUBLE.—Our Radical friends met in Rheem's Hall, on Monday, and went through the farce of putting the following ticket in nomination, to be defeated at the October election.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

Real Estate Sales (continued). VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A large tract of land, containing about 100 acres, is offered for sale at private sale. The land is situated in the township of Springdale, Cumberland County, Pa. The land is well improved and is suitable for farming. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Financial (continued). THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD IS FINISHED. The Great Pacific Railroad, which has been under construction for many years, is now complete. The railroad runs from the coast of California to the Rocky Mountains. The completion of the railroad will greatly benefit the people of the West.

NEW PARSONAGE.—The Lutheran congregation of Bloomsburg have begun to build a parsonage. Rev. Mr. Duit is chairman, and John B. Heminger, Treasurer, of the building committee. They have also purchased an acre of ground with the intention of enlarging and otherwise improving their grave yard.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

THE TITUS MURDER TRIAL (continued). The trial continues with the presentation of more evidence. The defense has made a strong case, but the prosecution has presented overwhelming evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict soon.

Real Estate Sales (continued). VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A large tract of land, containing about 100 acres, is offered for sale at private sale. The land is situated in the township of Springdale, Cumberland County, Pa. The land is well improved and is suitable for farming. The sale will take place on the 10th day of September, 1893.

Financial (continued). THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD IS FINISHED. The Great Pacific Railroad, which has been under construction for many years, is now complete. The railroad runs from the coast of California to the Rocky Mountains. The completion of the railroad will greatly benefit the people of the West.