A couple of servant girls at a hotel, recently, broke the head of a male of those who did favor his nomination there. At this juncture the Commissioners consulted counsel, and Judge Packer also consulted counsel of the highest standing, viz: Furman Sheppard, Esg., now Dis-trict Attorney of Phihadelphia, and Hon. W. A. Porter, lately one of the judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Both these gentlemen advised Judge Packer that he was not legally bound to pay the taxes assessed in Mauch Chunk on his personal property; that he had the same right that all citizens have to choose his place of residence and that having chosen it he could be assessed for taxes only on his real estate there. After re-ceiving this opinion Judge Packer stated to the counsel of the Commissioners and of the Borough that he proposed to pay the taxes rather than endure the samoy-ance of a law-suit, even c'though his coun-sel advised hint that no difficulty would arise in the future from this cause, Judi the atther than the second that if he counsel for the Commissioners and yield to pay. Money is scarce for many, legitimate and useful investments; our investion is in many research uncound legitimate and useful investments; our taxation is in many respects unequal, and upon some objects oppressive, the rates of interest upon public loans are improvident; the expenses of govern-ment (both State and Federal) are ex-cessive, if not profligate, and the relations between capital and habor are uneasy and disturbed; and then there is unquestiona-bly a general lowering of the moral tone of public life below the level of former times.

es with that understanding and upon that agreement. It is indeed strange that Judge Packer, rich as the Radical papers represent him to be, should not have the same right that the poorest man in the State has, to decide whether Mauch Chunk shall be his residence or some other place. The true secret of all this fuss is that Judge Packer paid such impanse faxes, us the Packer paid such immense taxes, as the following statement will show, that the Mauch Chunk authorities were loth to ose him:
