THE WORKINGMAN'S PARTY.-The Democratic Party has ever been the Workingman's party of the country, and is so to-day. It is to the interest of the is so to-day. It is to the interest of the workingmen to rally to its support. It has ever been in favor of the protection, of the workingman's interests and is so' still. Workingmen can best promote their interests by giving it their support. The Democratic party has been broken down by workingmen having been mis-led and gotten away from it. These snould speedily return and help to cor-iect errors if any exist, and then it will soon again get strength. The Democratsoon again get strength. The Democrat-ic party was founded as a Workingman's Party, and such it really is and ought to be. At the coming election, working-men ought to give, it their support. In doing that they promote their best interests.

ment of pasters and folders and other useless officials, the increase in the amount of interest, and the necessities of the Trensury ring, have combined to in-crease our expenses to so great an extent as to divert these great revenues from their proper destination, and therefore the debt atill exists. Strenuous efforts were made at the close of the last session of the Legislature, to have the surplus in the Treasury applied toward the payment of the debt matur-ing, and a section was placed in the ap-propriation bill, by the united vote of all the Democrats, and a part of the Repub-licans, ordering the anticipation of the payment of about $800,000 thereof out of the surplus then in the Treasury. This would have saved the State $50,000. The bill was sent to the Treasury ing. When the bill chare sure to the Stensory. This would have saved the State $50,000. The bill was sent to the Treasury ing. When the bill dame up in the Senate, on final passage, in this form, it was voted down by a vote of 22 to 10, mainly because of the payment of the pasters and folders in the Command of the treasury ring. When the bill came up in the Genate, on final passage, in this form, it was voted down by a vote of 22 to 10, mainly because of the payment of the pasters and folders in the House. Seven Republicus voted with the Democrats and defened the bill, and affirmed the wisdom of the amend-ment. Yet, within three days four of those Republicans changed front and vo-ted with their brethren to reconsider the bill, and they passed it by a vote of 17 to 16, two Republicans voting with the Democrats, against the bill, and one Democrats, against the bill, and one Democrats, baginst the bill, and one Democrats, one was the tool of the facts disclosed on the passege of the bill. A FULL VOTE .-- A full democratic vote A FULL VOTE.—A full democratic vote this year ensures a Democratic victory.— The Republican Party is lukewarm, dis-satisfied and apathetic. Underthese cir-cumstances a full democratic vote is al-most certain to carry with it success.— Up then, democrats, make a strong ef-fort, and a Democratic Governor will again be elected. Let us have on the second Tuesday of October a full vote.— A full vote carries the day. A full vote carries the day.

13 A young gentleman, not distin-guished either for good looks, riches or wit, having met a severe rebuil from one of our pretriest and most distinguised actresses, and wishing to punish her for her disdain, consulted a friend as to the best means for, his purpose. "Do you wish to be very severe upon her?" "Very." "Then go aud see her."

EARLY RISING.—A gentleman from Nevada, being asked by an old lady in relation to the welfare of a fayorite scaperelation to the wehnere of a havorite scape-grace of a nephew who had gone to that State, informed her "that he had died from early rising." This puzzled the old lady very much until, by dint of in-quiry, she learned that "early rising" is the Nevada term for hanging.
