Cowar's fate; and further, that the Re-publican party has been, in days gone by, triumphant, when Mr. Scot's pow-erful aid was with the Demografs, and Il still be triumphant after he returns to his first love " Now, what political sin has our Radical Senator committed that he should be so severely handled by members of his own party? Why, he refuses to support two or three of the nominees on the Radical ticket of Huntingdon county. A portion of that ticket is, in the opinion of Mr. Scorr, composed of rotten and corrupt men-men who are a disgrace to any party. He (Scott) will not vote for them, and he says so boldly. For his independence he is denounced by the leaders of the corrupt ring who formed the ticket. Scott, however, appears to care very little for the venal whiffets who are barking at his heels, and we must say we admire his independence.

JOHN SCOTT has only been a Radical a few years. He has not the full confidence of his party, for he still has some regard for honor and honesty, and no Radical in full standing can possess either of these qualities. A full-blooded Radical must be unscrupulous, selpractice. fish, dishonest and shameless. The more ignorant he is the better. He must dive into corruption as often as opportunity offers to his very elbows, and wink at villing on all occasions .-He must go for "his party" even if by so doing he disgraces himself and ruins his country. He must, if necessary, change his political sentiments as rap_ idly as the chameleon changes its color. He must swear against negro-suffrage one year and favor negro-suffrage and negro-equality the next. He must affect to be "intensely loil," but steal by bringing in the Chinese and the from the Government all he can. In Southern negroes to compete for it, they will have found their paradise. The fine, he must be a political hyena-a wolf in sheep's clothing-an adept at labor, and the workingmen must look villainy and chicanery. GEN. MEADE'S TOAST .- At a banquet recently given by Asa Packer at his accordance with recommendation in one ome in Mauch Chunk, Gen. Geo. G. Meade, the hero of Gettysburg, proposed the following toast:

"Asa Packer: may his success in the past be lipsed by his triumphs in the future The people respond to Gen. Meade's oast, Yea, and Amen!

GOVERNOR GEARY, in his recent speech at Troy, Bradford county, September 4, admitted that he could "not stop special legislation." Let the people rebuke this weak and cowardly admission, by placing in Geary's position Asa Packer, who will smite to the death corrupt special legislation and break the power of the "theiving Ring."
