

dig, then is the true time-better than all others-to select the seed for a future erop. Nature usually indicates which specimens are designated for seed. Oc-casionally a very fair, smooth and ex-cellent tuber will roll out, which attracts particular attention. That is designed by nature for seed. Let it be saved, for the product of such a potato will far ex--usued, the yield of very large or the smallest specimens.-N. Y. Observer. Hept. 9, 1869-3t.
