A DAY IN THE MOUNTAINS.

Excursion Over the South Mountain Railroad...

On invitation of Col. F. C. Arms, the Southern Mountain Railroad...

When the South Mountain Company were negotiating for the purchase of the seventeen hundred acres now owned by Mr. H. P. Lesley...

When the South Mountain Railroad was first started, it was a small affair...

The first station, after leaving town, is Craighead's, at which point a commodious warehouse has been erected...

The excursion was a delightful and instructive one, and although the air was raw and the ground covered with snow...

The HUNTINGDON MURDER.—The following is the confession of Bohner, one of the murderers of the Peightal family...

I was born in Wurttemberg, in May, 1827, and was married in 1850 to a woman named Maria...

I was never acquainted with the family of John Peightal; but passed there and asked for work...

I first became acquainted with Oliver [Albert] Bordenbourer at his boarding house in Huntingdon...

THE CASE OF DR. SCHEPPPE.—A Philadelphia dispatch contains the following: A large number of German citizens were held here last evening at Concordia hall to take action in behalf of their fellow-countryman, Dr. Paul Schepppe...

A COURSE OF LECTURES.—We take great pleasure in announcing that a number of young gentlemen of our town have undertaken to secure a course of lectures...

A CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.—On Monday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, Maggie, a little daughter of Henry Ginter, about five years old, reading on the Wagner's Gap road, was burned to death...

PAY UP.—Large numbers of persons—all of them, we have reason to believe, perfectly honest people—are indebted to us for printing handbills, cards and notices...

EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICES.—Ladies' Kid Gloves, 25c.; Ladies' and Children's Hoods, 25c.; Swiss Edgings and Insertings 10c. per yd.; Lace and Collar, 10c. per yd. at half price at W. C. SAWYER & CO.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IN ADVERTISING.—The man who "doesn't believe in advertising" is unconsciously all the while doing just what he deprecates...

A CURE FOR LOCKJAW.—A correspondent of the "Detroit American" recommends turpentine as a certain cure for lockjaw...

WINNING WOMEN.—Keep your eyes open, boys, when you are after a woman. If the little dear is cross and scolds her mother in the back room...

A LUCKY FELLOW.—A young man named Henry Stewart, arrived in Harrisburg a few weeks since from Idaho, where all of his relatives had died...

TOO POOR TO TAKE A NEWSPAPER.—The poorest man to be met with, especially in these stirring times, is the man who is "too poor to take a newspaper."

HEALTH OF APPLES.—Apples, if eaten at breakfast, with coarse bread and butter, without meat or bread, remove cutaneous eruptions and cool the system...

CHICKEN THIEVES.—On Tuesday night the police made a descent upon a party of chicken thieves, near Beeton's warehouse. The thieves escaped, but were so sorely pressed that they threw aside their plunder...
