PERSONAL LIABILITY .--- A New Engand Court has awarded $1,000 damages o a man who slipped on the ice in front of a private residence. The court held that a person who allowed ice to lay on his sidewalks, and thereby caused injury to pedestrians, was as much liable as one who leaves a trap door or other dangerous place open for travellers to fall through. Perhaps a suit or two for dumages against persons who allow snow and ice to remain on their sidewalks, would cause cleaner walks in our town.
