MISSOURI GIRLS are sweet—they are Mo. lasses. How to lay a good fire.—Contradict your wife. The best kind of servants for hotels—

PRIDE—What is pride my son?—'Walking with a cane when you ain't got one,' replies the intelligent boy. 'Pepper, mustard, salt and vinegar—them's what makes seasons with.'

INSURANCE agent, urging a citizen to get a life insurance policy. 'Get your life insured for ten thousand dollars, and then, if you die, the widder's heart will be comforted.'

NOTICE of a recent steamboat explosion. In a Western paper, ends as follows: 'The chambermaid, who was insured for fifteen thousand dollars, and loaded with...

CONSIDERING the fringes, tassels, cords and braids now used in making up ladies' dresses, it is suggested to any of them elegant enough to get a new dress. 'In the absence of any other messenger, a colored sent word to the band, by the drum-major, to get a new dress for the drum-major. 'No even at all,' said the doctor; 'blow away the party of wind in an empty stomach.'

JOSEPH BILLINGS says: 'Menny people spend their time in trying to find the right way to get on in the world. Two men break through the ice into a wild pond, they had better hunt for some other way out, than to get into a wild argument about the hole they fell in.'

THE fact is, said an elderly wife, 'a man loses not know how to straighten things out for himself, though he may commence. I don't wonder, she remarked in conclusion, 'that when God sends a man a wife, he sends her a woman to tell him what to do.'

A PRUDENT master advised his servant to put by his money for a rainy day. In a few weeks his master inquired how the servant was getting on. 'I'm all right, sir,' said the man, 'but I've got to put by my money for a rainy day.'
