RADICAL PROTECTION.

That the Radical protectionists are hypocritical and insincere in their profession of attachment to the interests of the mechanic and working-man, their every movement shows.

To show the duplicity of the Radicals, and to convince the workmen how strongly they are giving protection to American labor.

The death of radicalism. The political signs of the times are written in letters so plain that the way-faring man, though a Radical, cannot mistake their meaning.

Radicalism dies as Whiggery died in the nominal possession of power. In 1848 a puzzled party, hungry for spoils, sought the aid of the State.

This would not be an inappropriate time for the revival of the question that the African or the Indian? which has the greatest right to complain, the African or the Indian?

So corrupt, wasteful and extravagant became the government of South Carolina that John C. Calhoun might be returned as Senator from Kentucky.

A BILL is now before Congress to increase the banking circulation fifty-five millions of dollars, to redeem forty-five millions of dollars in greenbacks, and to relinquish the right which the Federal Government now possesses of taxing the United States bonds.

THE Ohio Democratic Convention met on Wednesday, at Columbus. Resolutions were made as follows: Secretary of State, Wm. Holsley; Supreme Judge, R. O. Harrison; Comptroller, John H. Henton; Member of the Board of Public Works, William Spencer.

THE CITY IN STILL, THEY COME.

The guns of victory have scarcely ceased over the New York election, when the telegraph announces another glorious Democratic victory in Oregon.

But probably the most bitter pill the Radicals had to swallow was the result of the Washington municipal election, which took place last week.

THE Boston Post declares that "with New York for a banner, the National Democratic party will be able to overturn the mountain of corruption which now oppresses the land, restore the government to honest hands, relieve the people from burdens imposed by an usurping and tyrannical party, and once more give all the States what the Constitution promises."

SYMPATHY FOR CARPET-BAGGERS.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, one of the most intensely "loil" papers in the country, and a Radical among Radicals, sympathizes with its friends, the carpet-baggers of the South, in the following peculiar strain.

But probably the most bitter pill the Radicals had to swallow was the result of the Washington municipal election, which took place last week.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY DOUBTFUL. A Compromise Ticket Elected in Omaha.

It has been remarked that the elections all go one way since the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment.

At the municipal election in Norfolk, Virginia, on Monday, the Democratic candidate for Mayor was elected by a 258 majority.

At the municipal election in Hartford, Connecticut, on Monday, the Democratic ticket, supported by the Democrats, was elected over the regular Republican ticket.

Demise of Charles Dickens, the Great Author. LONDON, June 10—2 P. M.—Chas. Dickens, the great novelist, is dead.

THE ENGLISH TRAGEDY. THE SEVEN-FOLD MURDER NEAR BRIDGE-A-LEIGH. (From the Daily News, 22.)

One of the most extraordinary tragedies which has taken place for many years, occurred on the evening of the 11th of June, at Denham, about two miles from Uxbridge.
