SCHOOL EXAMINATION. Tuesday last was an interesting day at the White Hall Soldiers' Orphaus' School. It was the occasion of their annual examination, and, in honor of the occasion, the boys and girls were arrayed in their best bib and tucker: "About 'nine o'clock. Mr. Cornforth and Mrs. Hutter, inspec tors of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, ac-companied by Hon. Wither Worthing ton and one or two others, reached the Rehool. The examination is spoken of as highly creditable both to students and preceptors! - 'A number of appropriate eches and essays were pronounced and the board of examiners returned t their homes delighted with the day's entertainment.

The following is a list of the teachers and employes of the Institution : Principal-Captain J. A. Moore.

In connection with the School there is alittle farm of ten acres, on which an abundance of fresh vegetables is raised. A view of the School, roll shows 185 pupils-106 boys and 79 girls. Last year there were 199 scholars, and this gradud decrease shows that we may, from this time forth, expect a steady reduction of the expenses of these Schools. Messrs. Moore and Smith are the owners of the property at White Hall, having purchased it two years ago, when the buildings were decaying, and the reputation of the School had become bad They deserve marked aredit for their real estate improvements, and for the prompt manner in which they repaired all the errors of their predecessor, and made the School one now widely known s among the best. They have stood the test of numerous and unexpected visitfor two years, to the general satisfaction of the visitors.' Of all the Soldiers' Or-phans' institutions in the State, this one has undoubtedly been visited most by strangers. Situated in close proximity to the Capital, state officials, members of the Legislature, philanthropic individuals, and people of all classes, whose busi ness has taken them to Harrisburg have made pop visits to White Hall, and the School has always stood the brunt of iu-

Pic Nics.—The first Lutheran Church holds a pic-nic at Hunter's Run, to-day, (Wednesday). The Union pic-nic of the Presbyterian Churches will be held at the same place, on Friday of the present week. The Methodist Subbuth School of Mechanicsburg also intend holding a plonic at Hunter's Run.

VALUABLE ADDITION.—It is gratify ing to notice that our estimable county fathers evince an appreciation of sculpt ure as well as painting. The Cardiff Giant formed a valuable addition to the gallery of fine arts, during the early part of the present week

THE COMING CIRCUS. -Dr. James L. n this place on Wednesday, August 3 is good thing. Judging from what our exchanges say of this show, it is now at tists as Stickney, La Belle Loyal, Naylor, Miss Sheridan and others of like talent, the show will undoubetly draw large audiences in every quarter that it may isit. From the commencement to the close, there is not an act presented which s not of much more than ordinary merit, while a large proportion of the feats are of the most thrilling and daring character: "The riding is really magnificent, being executed as it is on their spirited and swift running animals of great beauty. The gymonstic exercises are singularly varied in character, and exhibit re markable ingenuity as well as the perfection of physical culture, while a series of of very pleasing performances by horses, dogs and mules, add to the interest of the representations. The wagons and fixtres are all new, the horses fresh, and the tent is of a capacity to comfortably accommodate large audiences in any wea ber The clown, Billy Pastor, is said to be one of those comical fellows whose very appearance excites the resibilities o those who have an eye to the grotesque and when he speaks guffaws of irrepress ible laughter invariable follow. The there are Hovle and Burdeay, the acro bats, Dick Sands, the great cloggist, the Bensley Brothers, Master Johnny Book er, the boy gymnast, as well as others, whose performances will add charm to the entertainment. A splended band of music also accompanies, to enliven the scene, which alone, to many, is worth the price of admission. Dr. Thayer will himself, introduce his comic mules, Uncle Sam" and "Shoo Fly," whose intelligen e at once astounds and amuses, Tuke it altogether, this, from all accounts is one of the few traveling shows that are worth patronizing. TO THE YOUNG DEMOCRACY.-In every district of the county there are some young Democrats of superior intelligence who might, if they choose, send us occasional communications on the leading events in their localities. The remarks of an exchange upon this subject are so appropriate that we transfer them to our probably, have often thought of corresponding for our paper, but have been de terred by the fear that their letters would not be acceptable. We feel like encouraging this class of our readers, and now xtend to them a cordial invitation to contribute to the columns of our paper. Never mind, if your letters are not exactv in ship-shape; all writers have to practice long and patiently before they become perfect, and, besides, we will take are that they are put in proper trim, if necessary, before they appear in print.-The exercise will be a good one for your hind; you will be acquiring a correct idea of the use of words: it will afford you pleasure to see your productions in ype, and be helping, at the same time, o increase the interest of your county paper. Many of the best editors of the country commenced their careers by just uch contributions to their home paper as we propose. Democratic fathers who have boys with a taste for writing cannot lo a better thing than to encourage them in the practice of writing occasion ally for the columns of the local papers. A CHEERFUL FACE.—There is no great r every-day virtue than cheerfulness. This quality in man among men is like sunshine in the day, or gentle, renewing moisture to parched herbs. The light of a cheerful face diffuses itself, and comunicates the happy spirit that inspire The sourest temper must sweeten in the atmosphere of continuous good humor. As well might fog, and cloud, and apor hope to cling to the sun-illumined andscape, as the blues and moroseness to combat jovial speech and exhibitarating laughter. Be cheerful, always. There is no path but will be easier traveled, no load but will be lighter, no shadow on heart or brain but will lift sooner in presence of a determined cheerfulness. PRESERVATION OF EGGS .- Among the umerous receipts for the preservation of egs one highly recommended consists n simply rubbing them over with lineed oil. Immersion in salt water or lime water gives to the eggs a disagreeaole taste, the water penetrating the shell after a time and spoiling them; while if gent in asies, sawdust or bran they dry op. It is said that eggs kept three or four months after being coated with lin seed oil retain their original weight very nearly, and are of excellent flavor.

LUSUS NATURE, - Pue York True Democrat'says: We are told that a few weeks ago, there was a child born in Bottstown, this county, with a head and face like a tame rabbit and the rest of the body like a human being. The head of the child is covered with snow-white hair, and its eyes are a beautiful pink.— It was living at last accounts.

DEATH OF A VALUABLE HORSE.-The well known: horse, "Wagner Sam," owned by S. W. Sharp, Esq., died suddenly on Friday of last week. The animul was a model of grace and metal and has done some good running at our county fairs. Star. EXCURSION.-The First City Zouaves of Harrisburg, have changed the time for their excursion to Mount Holly Springs. They have made final arrangements to picuic on Tuesday, August 9.

The inhabitants of many tropical countries are accustomed to keep water cool without the use of ice the head of all those traveling, and as at all. The means employed are very it has connected with it such popular are simple. The water is kept in a porous earthen jar, which is surrounded with a wet cloth, and the whole apparatus is suspended in a draught of air, away from the direct rays of the sun. The evaporation of water through the pores of and from the outside of the jar keeps the interior cool. If water preserved in this nanner is not quite cool enough to sult the taste of modern teetotallers, who, like veriest old topers, like to feel, what they drink "all the way down," it will at least be much cooler than that which is drawn from the hydrant, and much more healthy than pure ice water. The experiment is simple, and it will cost but a little to try it.

NEW OATS .- Mr. J. P. Grove, of Lurgan township, delivered the first load of new oats at Lawton & Co's, warehous last week. He represented the vield to be very good, and the purchasers pronounced the grain an excellent quality. PAINFUL ACCIDENT -A man named Stendenroth, an employee at Donnelly's Foundry, had his foot very severely burned on Wednesday afternoon last, by accidentally throwing a small quantity of melted metal on it. The burn produced was very painful, but not of a serious character.

STILL IMPROVING .- The good work . that was begun by our Council some time ince, still goes bravely on. Elevated portions of Orange street are being graded. and other uneven ground on different streets will receive the necessary atten tion in a short time. On every side use ful and valuable improvements are being made both by council and by the citizens and we have much reason to be proud of the progress our borough has made during the last six months.

PERSONAL .- John B. Bratton, Esq., of Carlisle, Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, was in town on Thursday evening last. In the evening he was tendered a serenade at McNulty's hotel, by the new band, through the instrumentality of his numerous friends here, to which he responded by a brief address. Referring to the occasion, the News says: "After the band had per formed several airs, Mr. Bratton made h is appearance and addressed the enthu siastic audience in a few pertinent and courteous remarks," and in conclusion aptly adds that "the Democracy in this place appear to be a unit for Bratton." Hon. R. J. Haldeman and lady were in town on Monday evening, and were also serenaded at the Sentinel office. Mr Haldeman responded in a neat speech thanking his friends for their kindness.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE TO THE HEAT. -We omitted last week to notice the death of Mr. William Meredith, a resi ient of Southampton township, which occurred on Monday morning of that veek near his home, south of town. He had been in town during the day and evidently imbibling too freely of unhealthy whiskey. Nothing unusual was noiced until when near his home a passerv observing him to be acting rather singularly, went to him, but before reaching is position Meredith fell insensible.-Before any medical assistance could be produced he expired. The unnecessary xposure to excessive heat led to his death.

SAD CASUALTY .- On Wednesday last, Mr. Daniel Clippinger, residing near M owersyille, met with a serious accident which may yet result in his death. He was, by a sudden movement of the horses, thrown from the load of, hay on which he was standing, his head striking the ground. He was rendered entirely sensible by the fall for a considerable length of time but is now able to speak; though his body is entirely paralyzed he not being able to make the slighest movenent since he received the injury, At this writing be seems to be in a better condition than at any previous time, but, yet very little hopes of his recovery can be entertained.
