TIRNS:-Two Dollars per year if paid stric radiance: The Dollars and Fifty Conts of Dollars in advance: The Dollars and Fifty Conts of Dollars with the trace much a strice the the the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the trace of the string of the the trace of the trace of the trace of the trace of the string of the trace of the tr		, C,	erica	•.•	olunt		Rates for Advert ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted a per line for the first insertion, and per line for each, subsequent insert erly half-yearly, and yearly adverts serted at a liberal reduction on the s Advortisements should be accompan CASII. When sent without any leng specified for publication, they will be until ordered out and emerged accord JOB PRINTING.
theoption of the rates	BY BRATTON & KENNI	EDY.	CARLISLE, PA., THU	URSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1870.		VOL. 57NO. 10.	CARDS, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, and er description of Jon and CARD Prin professional Cards.	Dry Goods.	Portical.	that household, for the husband and wife really loved each other devotedly, and	cost thirty cents. He could play two games of billiards less, and be the abso	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Points of Etiquette.	Gems of Literatu
C. F. HUMRICH. WM. B. PARKER.	CHEAP DRY GOODS,	DEAD.	 were at heart kind and forbearing. When Albert came to his supper, Kate greeted 	inte gainer of ten cents by the pleasant operation.	1. The man who is jealous of every lik-	Don't fildget with the hands or fee Let alone the watch chain and necktie Quiet ease, without stiffness indicate	VALENTINE FROM A BADI
Office on Main Street, in Marlon Hall, Ca.	CHEAP DRY GOODS,	"She is dead I' they said to him. "Come away; Kiss her and leave her, thy love is clay !"	him with a kies, and in a moment sun- shine came back; and had the lesson ended there, the husband might have	A few mornings after this, as Albert rose from the breakfast table he detected an uneasy, wistful look upon his wife's	other fellow, you will phind, after yu are	Don't speak of persons, with whom	Dear old papa, I dot 'eer letter, My old mammy, she ditten bette
Inste, Pit- Dec. 2 1863-	- AT THE	They smoothed her tresses of dark brown hair	funcied that he had done nothing wrong and that the cloud had been nothing but	face. : 'Kate, what is it?'	married tow bim, he luvs himself more than he duz yu, and what you took for solissitude yu will discover, has changed	their first name.	She every day little bit stronger, Don't mean to be sick very much
UNITED STATES CLAIM	NEW STORE	On her forchead of stone they laid it fair ;	the exhalation of a domestic ferment, for which no one was particularly re-		into indifference. Jealousy isn't a harte disease, it iz a liver complaint.	bands on the hips or the arms folded. I Irritability is a breach of good morals	Dear little baby lind a bad colic, Had to take tree drops nasty para
REAL ESTATE AGENCY	NEW STORE	• Over her eyes which gazed too much, They drew the lids with tender touch;	sponsible, and might have banished the couvictions that women's fashious were a nuisance and a humbug, as well as a	money was handed over with a warm,	2. A mustach iz not indispensible; it iz only a little more hair, and iz a good	as well as good manners. General cour- tesy we owe to all.	Took a dose of tatnip, felt worse t Shan't take no more tatnip, never
M. B. BUTLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW,	D. A. SAWYER,	W ith a tender touch they closed up will The sweet, thin lips that had see ets to tell;	trightful draft ubon a husbaud's pockets.		deal like moss and other excressences- often duz the best sile that won't raze	be kept waiting and often a serious det-	Wind on stomit, felt pooty bad, Worst fit of sickness I ever had ;
office in 2d Story of Luboff's Building, No. 3 Sout Banover Street, Carlisle, Comberland count Penna.	\mathbf{D} D A SAWYER	About her brows and beautiful face They tied her vall and her marriage-lace.	around the house and then light a cigar and walked out. He had gone but a short	on his part that so simple an act of lov- ing kindness thus affected her.		riment to one's business. "Answer a civil question pleasantly and kindly, even if you are in a hurry.	Ever had belly ate, dear Papa Dill Tain't no fun, say what 'oo will.
Pensions, Lounties, Back Pay, &c., promptl collected, Applications by mail, will receive immediat	у	And drew on her white feet her white silk shoe	distance when he had met Lizzie. In her right hand she dragged an old hoop,	required to secure such satisfaction as	admire, in a husband after, and a mustash will be a very weak diet after a	Jokes are dangerous things, to be used like gunpowder, with extreme caution.	I'm growing fat—twenty inches ro Only tink o' dat, gained most two stiention. Portioniar attention given to the selling or rent	Irvine's Corner. Irvine's Corner	Which were the whitest no eye could choose !	which she had taken from a dilapidated flour barrel, while with her left she was rubbing her red, swo len eyes. She was		time. 3. If husbands could be took on trial,	If possible, always be at a station a few minutes before the cars start. Get-	Only tink o' dat, gained most two Little flannel blankets was too bi Nurse can't pin me in 'em no mor
July 11, 1867-tf	LAWNS, Bargains in	And over her bosom they crossed her hands- "Come away," they said, "God understands!"	in deep grief, and was sobbing painfully. He stopped his child and asked what was	how many may gain lasting profit by	as Irish cooks are, tew thirds ov them would probably be returned, but there don't seem to be enny law for this.—	ting abroad a train while it is in motion is not favorable to bodily safety, nor to	Skirts so small, baby so stout,
F. E. BELTZHOOVER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,	GRENADINES, HERNANIS, * BEREGES.	And there was silence, and nothing there But silence, and scents of eglantere.	the matter. She answered, as well as her sobs would	Bread Upon the Waters-An Affecting	Therefore, girls, yu will see that after yn git a man yu have got to keep him, even	that calmness of mind which leads us to act wisely. Don't be disturbed if you find the best	Had to let the plaits in 'em all ou Got a head o' hair jess as black as And big blo eyes, yat look very br
CARLISLE, PA.	LACE POINTS, SUMMER SHAWLS, LACE CUEIAINS	And jasmine, and roses, and rosemary, And they said, "As a lady should lie, lies she."	let her, that the other girls had laughed at her, and made fun of her old hoop.	Story.	if you do lose on him. Consequently, if you have got enny cold victuals in the	seats taken. As no one knew you ware coming, of course they did not reserve	My mamma says, never did see
13° Office on South Hanover Street, opposite Builz's dry goods store.	PARASOLS, FANS, &c.	And they held their breatheas they left the room	They had nice, pretty hoops, while her's was ugly and homely. 'Never mind,' said Albert, patting the	'Please, sir, will you buy my chostnuts?' 'Chestnuts! No!'' returned Ralph Moore, looking carlessly down on the	bouse, try him on them, once in a while, during the season, and if he swallers them	one. Should you purchase your ticket at	Any ozzer baby half so sweet as m Can't yite no more, so dood byo
WM. J. SHEARER, ATTORNEY AND	Piques,	With a shudder, to glance at its stillness and gloom.	grief touched him;) perhaps we'll have	upturned face whose large, brown eyes, shadowed by tangled curls of flaxen hair,	well, and sez he will take some more, he is a man who, when blue Mondays cum, will wash well.	the office a small saving is the result, be- sides avoiding the hinderence of making change which many conductors dislike	Jolly old papa, wiz a gray eye.
W COUNSELLOR AT LAW; has removed his file to the hithert, unoccupied room in the orth East corner of the Court House.	Marsailles,	But he who loved her too well to dread The sweet, the starely, and the beautiful dead.	a new hoop sometime.' 'Mayn't I have one now? Mr. Grant's	were appealing so pitifully to his own. What do I want with chestnuts?	4. Don't marry a pheller who is always a telling how his mother duz thiogs. It	to do. Have your ticket in your hand. Con-	THE prettier the foot and an easier it gets up stairs.
Jan. 25, '69-1V	CALICOES. 614. 8. 10. 1214	He lit his lamp, and took his key	got one left—oh such a pretty one !' The sobbing had ceased, as the child caught her father's hand eagerly.	'But, please sir, buy em,' pleaded the little one, reassured by the rough kind- ness of his tone. 'No body seems to care	is as hard tew suit these men az it is to wean a young one.	ductors havn't always time to wait till the portmonie pocket and traveling bag	CAN a maternal parent of a can be called a dogma ?
W. Carlisle, Penna. Office same as that of he "American Volunteer." Dec. 1 1866	MU LINS, 627, 8, 10, 1257 GINGHAMS, 1252, 14, 15, 17, TICKINGS, 14, 18, 22, 25,	And turned it. Alone again—he and she. He and she; but she would not speak.		or them, and—and—'	109 on the planer, and kan't bear a fish l	are searched, before receiving it. We once saw a lady, when the conductor de-	THE first Eve-angelical al Adam's marriage in Eden.
TAMES H. GRAHAM, JR.,	Cheapest Pants Stuff Cheapest Cloths and Cassimers in the town	Though he kissed, in the old place, the quiet cheek.	towards home, dragging the old hoop	who had been on the point of brushing	horn playing in their street without a back somerset on account of the musick that iz in him. I say ship him : he might	monded her ticket, dive to the lower- most depth of her traveling bag, where she clutched something frantically, and	GROCERS should remember the est ten is the best policy.
ATTORNEY AT LAW,	Cheapest Hosiery Cheapest Gloves and Handk's, Cheapest Notions, all kinds in the town in the town	He and she; but she would not smile. Though he called her the name she loved ere-	after her. At one of the stores, Albert Landman	'Are you very much in want of the money?'	answer tew tend the babe, but if you put	in blind haste, handed the waiting offi- cial a fine tooth comb, supposing it to be	THE sweetest of strains—trying pretty girl on a horse.
NO. 14 SOTUH HANOVER ST., CARLISLE, PA. OFFICE—Adjoining Judge Graham's.	DRESSGOODS, Cheapest DeLaines in the town	white,	met some of his friends. 'Heilo, Albert! What's up?' 'Nothing in particular.'	"nother sent me out, and	find that you will have to du it yourself. A man whose heft lies in music (and not very hefty in that) aln't no better for a	her ticket, which she alterwards found in the folds of her garments.	For singers, only: What is twine for the voice? Canary.
March 31, 1870-tf	Cheapest Poplins in the town Cheapest Alpaceas black a col d in the town Cheapest Black a Fancy Silks in the town	He and she; still she did not move To any one passionate whisper of love.	'What do you say to a game of billiar is, Albert ?'	heart-broken way,' said Balph, smooth-	husband than a sedlitz powder, but if he luves to listen while yu sing some gentle	When a car is crowded don't fill a seat with your bundles. True politeness is not amiss, even amid the confusion and	THIS is a good year for crops,
Peace. Office No 3, Irvin's Row, Carlis.e.	Cneapest Japanese In the town	Then he said. "Cold lips, and breast without	'Good, I'm in for that.' And away went Albert fo the billiard	'I don't want your chestnuts, but	ballad, you will find him mellow and so	bustle in a public conveyance. If an	fly crop discounts all the rest. CODFISH as a dish is good ; bu
R. GEORGE S. SEARIGHT, DEN- TIST, From the Baltimure College of Dental mergy. Office at the residence of his mother	WHITE GOODS.	Is there no volce? no language of death? "Dumb to the car and still to the sense.	hall, where he had a glorious time with his friends. He liked billiards, it was a healthy, pretty game, and the keeper of	you any good. ³ He did not stay to here the delighted	one virtue any quicker than yu would flap a man for only gist one fault.	another you will close it. Whispering in church is impolite Be-	THE man who would keep.l
invery. Office at the residence of his mother ist Louther Street, three doors below Bedford grible, Penna.		But to heart and to soul distinct, intense?	I the hall allowed no rough seruffs on his "	incoherent thanks the child poured out through a rainbow of smiles and tears,		sides showing disrespect to the speaker, it is extremely anuoying to those who	cool shouldn't put a stove pipe of CHINAMEN eat with chopstic
Dec. I 1885.	Cheapest Piques Fig, striped in the town. Cheapest Maisailles in the town. Cheapest Percales in the town.	"See now; I will listen with soul not ear; What was the secret of dying dear?	They had played four games. Albert had won two, and his opponent had won	his feeth-	made a bad job of it. Everybody seems to look on old maids just as they do on dried	wish to hear. Coughing should be avoid- ed as much as possible. Sleeping, with	use no spoons. Butler is down of
W. Graduate of HAHNEMANN MEDICAL COL-	Cheapest Chintzes in the town Cheap st Enuroideries & Laces in the town Cheapest Collars & Cuffs in the town	"Was it the infinite worder of all That you ever could let life's flower fall ?	'That's two and two ' cried Tom Piper.	the next twenty-four hours. I don't care l	and therefor write it out to mistuke that	had better be done at home. Violent perfumes, especially those	An indolent f-llow declares he rolls in bed to rolls at breakfast.
EGE, Philadelphia. Office, 23 West Louther St., at residence of his other, Carlisle.	Cheapest Table Linen in the town Cheapest Napkins, &c. in the town A spiendid article Pique 25 cb. All other	'Or was it a greater marvel to feel	Albert !	though; the brown eyed object did cry as if it had nt a friend in the world Hang it I wish I was rich enough to help	oph, with sum true fellow for a true hus-	containing musk, are offensive to many people, and to some positively distress-	DOES it change the complex colored base ball club to be white
June 9, 70-3m*	goods in proportion. Come and examine for yourselves, No trouble to show goods. Our notto is small profits and quick sales.	The perfect calm o'er the agony steal? "Was the miracle greater to find how deep.	So they played the fifth game, and he	every poor creature out of the slough of the		ing. Don't scent yourself when going to any crowded assembly. When the postmaster hands your mail	A PENNSYLVANIA school ma cently 'struck ite.' But it was a detan, has tocated in Carlisle, Office next ar to St. Paul's Evanglical Church, West ather Street. Patients from a distance please	The surroute buye heavy purchase of far each of	Beyond all dreams, sank downward that sleep?	who lost was to pay for the five games, It was an exciting contest. Both made	these very natural reflections, the dark i	ter be an old maid for 4 thousand years,	to you dou't ask him if 'that is all.' When he says there is no mail for you	A GREAT benefactress of Egy ll in the forencon. March 17, 1870—6m*	charge you for old goods at other stores. D. A. SAWYER. June 2, 1570.	'Did life roll back its record, dear? And show, as they say it does, past things clear?	beatten by three points and with a little l	eyed little damsel whom he had comfort- ed was dashing down the street with quick, elastic footsteps, utterly regardless	ever made this trade who didn't get	don't reply tartly 'there ought to be,' nor ask him to look again.	A great blessing in this country- A VERY clever distinction-A
DWARD SHILLING, M. D.	DRY GOODS! DRY GOODS!!	"And was it the innermost heart of the bliss To find out to what a wisdom love is?	games, twenty cents a game-just one dollar. Not much for such sport: and	of the basket of unsold nuts that shill dangled upon her arm. Down an obscure	band. 7 In diaging down into this subject I	If you have a box, don't stand drum- ming on it till the post-master hands you the contents. Such manifestations of	a suer an heiress-hunter a purse SHE who can compose a cross
* PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, No. 26 East Pomfret Street, CARLISLE.	\boldsymbol{D}	"O, perfect dead ! O, dead most dear. I hold the breath of my soul to hear!	never once seemed to feel that he could	rows of houses, and up a narrow wooden	find the digging grows harder the further 1 get. It is much easier to inform you	impatience are unpleasant, especially if he is waiting on somebody else.	greater than she who composes b A NURSERY must be a great r
or, Shilling was associated with Dr. Zlizer, in splace, for a year or so, and has been practic- g in Dickinson township, for three years. All	ATTRACTIVE SPECIALTIES	"I listen, as deep as to horrible hell,	not afford it. 'Have a cigar !' said Tom. 'Yes.'		reason there iz more ov them.	Finally, at all times and in all places, 'Whatsoever ye would that others should	dancing—it is generally a regul room.
fir Distributions promptly attended to. April 7, 1870—3m	AT	As high as to heaven, and you do not tell! "There must be pleasure in dying, sweet,	They lighted their cigars, and then sauntered down the hall to watch others	the breath of life depended upon every stitch, and two little ones were content-	if I give it; and therefore I will keep it,	do to you, do you even so to them,' for these simple words are the basis of all true courteau	THE young lady who 'took the everybody' has been arrested for s
WES. B. HIRONS, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT 1.4W.	HARPER'S	To make you so plucid from head to feet!	play. Albert soon found himself seated over	edly playing in the sunshine, that tem- porarily supplied the place of the fire.	-a mean dose to give and a mean dose to take.	true courtesy.	Is it any evidence because a
FIFTH STREEF, BELOW CHESTNUT, Cor. Library. PHILADELPHIA.		"I would tell you, darling if I were dead, And 'twere your hot tears up on my brow shed.	against a table on which some of his friends were playing, and close by stood two gentlemen, strangers to him, one of	'Mary I back already? Surely you have not sold your cleatnuts so soon?' 'Ob, mother, mother! see,' ejaculated	But I must say one thing, girls don't spile. If you can find a bright-eyed, healthy and wall bullested how who	Didn't Caten the Train: The most difficult thing, says a cynical	has a mobile face that she is a ne Alabama ?
Oct 4, 1869-1y	POPULAR DRY GOODS STORE.	"I would say, though the angel of death hath hath	whom was explaining to the other the mysteries of the game.	the breathless child, 'a gentleman gave me a whole quarter. Only think, mother,	healthy and well-ballasted boy, who looks upon poverty ez sassy ez a child looks upon wealth, who had rather set	old bach, in the world for a woman to do is to get ready to go anywhere. And	CHANDLER is to have a bust Virginia sculptor. He has the Pars and Caps.	Purc insed during the greatest depression in the market, and to be sold at correspondingly	His sword on my lips to keep it unsaid, "You should not ask valuy, with streaming	1 'It is a healthy pastime,' said he who had been making the explanation : 'and	a whole quarter!' If Ralph Moore could only have seen	down on the curbstone in front of the 5th avenue hotel and eat a ham sand-	there is nothing a woman will resent quicker or more flercely than an intima-	kind every week. MILKMEN are happy fellows.
RESH SUMMERARRIVAL OF ALL THE	the market, and to be sold at correspondingly low prices.	eyes, Which of all death's was the chiefest surprise;		the rapture which his tiny silver gift di- ffused around it in the poor widow's 1 ov-	wich than go inside and run in debt for his dinner and toothpick-1 that is arm-	tion that she may possibly miss the train. Our friends, Brayfogle, gives us an in- stance of this. Mr. Brayfogle was sup-	enjoy themselves at the watering all the year round.
	DRESS GOODS,	"The very strangest and suddenest thing	Albert heard the remarks very plainly and he had a curiosity to hear what the other, who seemed to be unacquainted	still less the temporary privation of ci-	defeat for violary my advice is to take	posed to take the ten o'clock train on the Bee line, to visit some relative in an	LIFE sometimes hangs by a thread-but not long. Hemp
NEW STYLES			intervented to be unacquantien i	with the state with Bonothand, nur and foot	ma obry and sole-share nin at once	interior town. Having suffered on pre-	teen minutes does the business.
HATS AND CAPS.	comprising all the novelties of the season.	Of all the surprises that dying must bring." Ab. foolish world! Ob, most kind dead!	with billiards, would say.	ed him. * * * * * * * * *	for he iz a stray trout, of a breed very scarse in our waters.	vious occasions from injudicious sugges-
OF HATS AND CAPS.		Ab. foolish world ! Ob. most kind dead ! Though he told me, who will believe it wassaid ?	with billiards, would say. 'I cannot, of course, assert that any game which calls for skill and judgment, and which is free from the atlendant of		scarse in our waters. Take him, I say, and bild onto him as hornets bild onto a tree.	vious occasions from injudicious sugges- tions, Bray thought for once he would let things take their own course. So he	the dandles proved that he is worm that never dyes.
OF HATSAND CAPS.	comprising all the novelties of the season.	A h. faoilish world ! Oh, most kind dead ! Though he told me, who will believe it wassaid ? Who will believe what he heard her say, With the sweet, soft voice, in the dear old way :	with billiards, would say. 'I cannot, of course, assert that any game which calls for skill and judgment; and which is free from the attendant of gaming, is of self an evil,' remarked the second gentleman. ' Such things are only.	* * * * * * * * * Years came and went. The little chestnut girl passed as entirely out of Ralph Moore's memory as if pleading eyes had never touched the soft spot in	scarse in our waters. Take him, I say, and bild onto him as hornets bild onto a tree.	vious occasions from injudicious sugges- tions, Bray thought for once he would let things take their own course. So he sipped his coffee and ate his eggs on toast, while madame curled and powder-	the dandles proved that he is i worm that never dyes. WHEN a man is sleepy, what transformation does he desire
OF HATS AND CAPS. the subscriber has just opened at No. 15 North warer Street, a few duors North of the Carlisle pasti Bank, one of the largest and best Stocks hars and CAPS ever offered in Carlisle. its Hats. Cassimere of fail styles and qualities,	comprising all the novelties of the season.	Ah. faoilish world ! Oh, most kind dead ! Though he told me, who will believe it wassaid? Who will believe what he heard her say,	with billiards, would say. 'I cannot, of course, assert that any game which calls for skill and judgment, and which is tree from the attendant of gaming, is of self an evil,' remarked the second gentleman. ' Such things are only. evil so far as they stimulate men beyond	* * * * * * * * Years came and went. The little chestnut girl passed as entirely out of Ralph Moore's memory as if pleading	scarse in our waters. Take him, I say, and bild onto him as hornets bild onto a tree. The Needle Gan,	vious occasions from injudicious sugges- tions, Bray thought for once he would let things take their own courses. So he sipped his coffee and ate his eggs on	WHEN a man is sleepy, what transformation does he desire wishes he were a hed. WHAT do we seek redress for

Rates for Advertising.

Gems of Literature.

on of Soft Hats now made.	SECOND MOORNING GOODS,	"The utmost wonder is this I hear,	evils o far as they stimulate men beyond	his heart, but Mary Lee never forgot the	The Needle Gun,	ed and danced attendance on the looking glass and tied her hair on the back of her	wishes he were a bed.
The Dunkard and Old Fushtoned Brush, con- antly on hand and made to order, all warrant-	BLACK SILKS, BLACK SATIN TAMISES,	And see you, and love you, and kiss you deer;	the hounds of healthy recreation.' 'That result can scarcely follow such a	stranger who had given her the silver piece.	A writer in the Chicago Tribune gives	bead.	WHAT do we seek redress for when logive satisfaction. A full assortment of	in extra quality. Pure Mohairs, Black Alpaccas (Specialty.)	"And am your angel, who was your bride, And know, that though dead, I never died."	game,' said the first speaker. But the other shook his head.	* * * * * * * *	this description of the Prussian needle gun, which will probably play an impor-	reading the morning paper, while the	we go to law ?'Injuries.' Where do we find it? 'In juries.'
MEN'S, BOY'S, AND CHILDREN'S, HATS,	WHITE GOODS.		'You are wrong here. The result can	The crimson window curtains were close- ly drawn to shut out the storm and temp-	tant part in the coming battles of Eu-	madame still continued to get ready. At last, just as he had reached the final	The sending of negro troops to fight have also added to my Stock, notions of differ-		SGI & weall was a water	follow in two ways : First, it can lead men away from their business; it can	est of the black December night-the fire	1. The range of the needle gun is	paragraph, madame tied her bounet	the Indians on the plains may be called the new game of rouge et noir.
tkinds, consisting of ADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S STOCKINGS,	Piques in great variety and latest styles.— French Muslius, Nansooks, Cambrics, Bishop	Miscellancous.	lead men to spend money, who have not	was glowing cheerily in the well-filled grate, and the dinner table in a glitter	1200 to 1400 yards. 2. The movements of loading are per-	strings under her chin, took one long, lingering, loving look at the image re-	THE most direct method of determin-adies' AND GENTLEMEN'S STOCKINGS, sk ins. Suspenders,	and Victoria Lawns, Tafletons, &c., &c.		money to spend. You will understand me. I would not cry down the game of	with cut glass, rare china and polished	formed with the right hand as follows:	flected in the glass, and announced : 'Weli, my dear. I'm ready.'	ing horse power. Stand behind and tick-
Oollars, Gloves, Pencils, Thread, Sciving Silk, Umbrellas, &o	HOSIERY AND GLOVES in great variety.	A MIRROR.	billiards, for if I understood it I should certainly try you a game now ; but when-	of Mt. Audley.	an upward stroke with the palm of the right hand against the chamber knob	'Ready for what ?' asked Bray, in well	le his hind legs with a briar. It is an interesting sight to see a young
		ONE IN WHICH MANY PERSONS MAY SUE THEM- SELVES REFLECTED.	ever I visit a place of this kind I am led	'What can it be that detains papa?'	opens the breech, the cartridge is inserted into the cavity of the bairel, a push for-		lady with both hands in soft dough and
PRIME SEGARS AND TOBACCO	Guipure Laces-best and cheapest stock in town. Real Valenciennes. Thread Laces, In- sertings, Hamburg Embroideries and Lace	· · · · · · ·	to reflect upon a most strange and promi- nent weakness of humanity as developed	tron of about thirty, as she glanced at	ward and a downward stroke of the	Mrs. Brayfogle, tartly.	a mosquito on the end of her nose.
ALWAYS ON HAND. Sive me a call, and examine my stock as I feel	Collars.	'Albert, I wish you would let me have seventy-five cents.'	in our sex. For instance observe that		chamber knob with the right hand closes the breech, and another push on the		THE boot heels and the bonnets of the ladies grow smaller and smaller, though fident of pleasing all, besides saving you mo-	LINEN GOODS.	Kate Landman spoke very carefully, for she knew that her hus band had 1 ot	young man who is just settling his bill at the desk. He looks like a mechanic,	pearance !'	needle chamber (with its spiral springs,)	watch, that train has been gone thirteen	they represent opposite extremes.
JOHN A. KELLER, Agent, No. 15 North Hanover Street.		much money to spare; yet she spoke	and I should say from his manner, and from the fact that he felt it his duty to go	mamma-come on business,' said Robert	completes the loading, and the rifle is ready for 'Fire.' During the movement	you'll be ready for the train to-morrow	A young gentleman who does not ad- mire blonde, says that the foolish vir-
alay, 1869.	Linen for sults, Linen Ducks and Dritts,	earnestry, and there was a world of en- treaty in her look.	home at this hour, that he has a wife and	Audley, a pretty boy, eleven years old, who was reading by the fire.	the gun is held with the left hand at a 'ready.'	We draw a veil over what followed.—	gins are the red-haired girls that use no
ATS AND CAPSI	Pillow Case Linens, Linen Sheetings,	'What do you want seventy-five cents	children. I see by his face that be is kind hearted and generous, and I should	' I'll call him again,' said Mrs. Audley,	3. The gun is never loaded or reload-	We ere assured, however, that the next
DO YOU WANT A NICE HAT OR CAP?	Whits Holland for Blinds, Table Linens and Napkins,	for " asked Albert. 'I want to get some braid for my new	judge that he means to do as near right	stepping to the door. But, as she opened it, the brilliant gas	ed while at 'aim,' simply because it is impossible to do so.	morning Mrs. B. was ready an hour ahead of time.	AN old Greenland seaman said he could really believe that crocodiles shed
IF 50, DON'T FAIL TO CALL ON	Doylie Towels, White Spreads, &c., &c.	dress ' 'I thought you had all the material on	as he can. He has been beaten, and he pays one dollar and forty cents for the	light fell full on the face of an humble looking man, in worn and threadbare	4. The powder is not ignited at the rear end of the cartridge, but next to the		tears, for he had often seen whales blub-
J. G. CALLIÖ,	BOYS' CASSIMERES AND MEN'S WEAR,	hand for that."	recreation of some two hours' duration. If you observe you will see that he pays	garments, who was leaving the house.	ball, where the igniting matter is placed	SAL AND JAKE.—'Git cout, yew nasty puppy! Let me alone, or I'll tell your	A GOOD excuse for married ladies to in-
NO. 29. WEST MAIN STREET, Derecan be seen the finest assortment of	BOIS CASSIMERES AND MEN'S WEAR,	'So I thought I had; but Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Thompson both have a trim-	it freely, and nockets the loss with a	while her husband stood in the doorway of his study, apparently relieved to be	this is what gives more power to the bal,	ma!' cried out Sally to her lover Jake, who sat about ten feet from her pulling	dulge in tight lacing is, that in a good
HATS AND CAPS	newest styles, less than regular rates.	min	smile. Happy faculty I But how do you suppose it is in the young man's home?	rid of his visitor.	the powder burning from the front to the rear.	dirt from the chimney jam.	housekeeper there should be 'no waste.' An Irishman was challenged to fight erbrought to Carlisle. He takes great pleas-		it certainly adds much to the beauty of a	Suppose his wife had come to him this morning and asked him for a dollar to	cheek had paled and flushed, 'who	5. The cartridge is made up-ball in	'I ain't touchin' on you Sal.' respond- ed Jake.	a duel, but declined on the plea that he
in inviting his old friends and customers. I all new ones, to his spiendid stock just re- ved from New York and Philadelphia, con-	SPECIAL NOTICE!	'Plague take these women's fashions!	spend for some trifling thing, some	is that man, and what doos he want ?? 'His name is Moore, I believe, and he	front, ball socket with igniting matter, powder. The shape of the ball resem-	'Well, yerhaps you don't mean to;	did not wish to leave his mother an or- phan.
ung in part of fine	_ Opening of	Your endless trimming s and thing a ma- iigs cost more than the dress is worth.	household ornaments, or soule bib of jew- elay to adorn her person—and suppose		bles the share of a cucumber and is call-	nuther—do yer ?' 'No, I don't.'	Some one says if the night air is as un-
SILK AND CASSIMERE HATS, sides an endless variety of Hats and Caps of	LLAMA LACE POINTS, LLAMA LACE SOCKS.	It's nothing but shell out money, when	his little child had put in a plea for forty cents to buy a paper and picture books	'And will you?'	6 The recoil of the gun is felt only	'Cause you're tarnal scary ! you long- legged, lantera-jawed, slab-sided, pigeon-	healthy as the doctors say it is, how do they then account for the longevity of tates an endiess variety of finits and caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the thest Cush Prices . Also, his own manufacture flats always on hand, and	BEDOUIN MANTLES, SHETLAND SUAWLS	once a woman thinks of a new dress.' 'I don't have many new dresses. I do	with what do you think he would have	'I don't know, Mary, I must think about it.'	when it becomes very much heated, and the air chamber filled with the refuse of	eyed, gaugle owl, you! you havn't got a	owls?
Hats always on hand, and	THUS. A. HARPER. Cor. of Hanover and Pomiret Sts.	certainly try to be as economical as I can.'	answered? Of fifty men just like him, would not forty and fifty have declared	'Charles, give him the situation.'	powder. When clean no recoil is felt at	bit o' sense! git along home with you.' 'Now Sal, I love you, and can't help	MRS. PARTINGTON says that because
HATS MANUFACTURED TO ORDER.	June 23, 187 .	'It is funny kind of economy, at all events. But if you must have it I sup-	that they had not money to supre for any	'Why, my love?' 'Because I ask it of you as a favor, and	7. In case the needle should bend or	it, and if you don't let me stay and court you my pop will sue your'n for that cow	dancing girls are stars, it is no reason why they should be regarded as Heayen-
He has the best arrangement for coloring Hats d all kinds of Woolen Goods, Overcoats, &c., al eshortest notice (as he colors every week, and	GREAT COMMOTION	pose you must.' And Albert Landman took out his	such purpose? And moreover, they would have said so, feeling that they	you have said a thousand times you would never deny me anything.'	break or otherwise become useless, a new one can be inserted in less than five sec-	he sold him 'tother day. By jingo, he	ly bodies.'
the most reasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of old brands of	•	wallet and counted out the seventy-five	were telling the truth. Am I not right?" 'Upon my soul," responded the man	'And I will keep my word, Mary,' said	onds. Each soldier carries an extra sup-	said he'd do it.' 'Well, look here, Jake, if you want to	WHY does the ocean commerce of America remind one of the railings of a TOBACCO AND CIGARS	IN	cents; but he gave it grudgingly; and when he put the wallet back into 'is	who understood billiards, 'You speak to	the lover husband, with an affectionate kiss. 'I'll write the fellow a note this	ply of about six needles. It is not so much the superiority of	court me you'd better do it as a white	gallery? Because, just now, it is simply vays on hand. He desires to call the attention		pocket he did it with an emphasis which	the point. I know that young man who has just paid his bill, and you have not		the needle gun over other breech load- ers which has secured and in all proba-	I us it you thought I was pizet.	ballast trade.
COUNTRYFURS	DRY GOODS,	seemed to say that he would not take it out again for a week.	misjudged him a single particular. And	An hour or two latter, when Bobbie,	bility will in the present strugle secure		THE absurd whisky meter having just been abolished, all our drinking songs sell, as he pays the highest cash prices for the		When Albert reached the outer door, on his way to his work, he found the	what is more. I happen to have a fact at hand to illustrate your charge. We have	Frank and Eugene were snugly tucked in bed in the soacious nursery above stairs,	success to the Prussian army, as it is the thourough education of each individual	kiss me, as if you had some of the bone and sinner of a man about you. Do you	will probably be set in future to 'com- mon meter.'
dive him a call, at the above number, his old above number, his old and, as he feels confident of giving entire sa .is-	On account of the reduction in Gold, the Dry	weather so threatening that he conclu- ded to go back and get his umbrella; and	a club for an excellent litera y paper in our village, and last year that man was	Mrs. Audley told her husband why she was so interested in the fate of a man	soldier and his familiarity with his	suppose a woman's only made to look at,	THARE iz a great deal of magnificent ction. May 1869.	Goods Merchants who understand their business and the certain signs of the times, have reduced the price of their goods correspondingly. The sub-	upon re-entering the sitting room he	one of our subscribers. This year he felt obliged to discontinue it. His wife was	whom she had not seen for twenty years.	The needle gun was first used in	you fool you ?' 'Well,' said Jake, drawing a long	poverty in our big citys—people who eat klam soup out ov a tin basin -with a gold scribers have just received from the cities a large and full assortment of all µinds of	found his wife in tears. She tried to hide the fact she had been weeping, but he	very anxious to take it, for it had become	her husband, folding her fondly to his	Prussia in 1848 and in 1849, in Baden and Schelswig, and not having been	breath, 'if I must, I 'spose I must, for I love you Sal!' and so Jake commenced	spoon.
Boots and Shoes.		had caught her in the act.' and asked	a genial companion in leisure moments, but he could not afford it. The club rate	breast, when the simple tale was conclu- ded, 'never forgetone who has been kind	deemed effective without an entire	sliding up to her. Laying his arm grace-	Turz entire police force of a Pennsyl-
1 martin and a second s		what it meant					vente town regioned in a body the other
TROHM & SPONSLER,	FOREIGN & STAPLE GOODS,	what it meant. 'Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.'	to you in the days when you needed	mish instruction, was almost condemned.	fully upon Sal's shoulder, and placing himself in a theatrical attitude, we	vania town resigned in a body the other day, from lonesomeness. It was a man
TROHM & SPONSLER,		'Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other rentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may	to you in the days when you needed kindness most.	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones.
	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1801.	Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said.	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes.' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she bod her upper to reak, while be is paying	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car-	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss !	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim-
No 13, South Hanover Street,		Good gracious ? cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluciant to grant me the	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how similarly he does it. Ab!	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan: 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakee!' said Jake, drawing the back of	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A swimming school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a tencher of
No 13, South Hanover Street,	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom	'Good gracious!' cried the husband. 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his ailing wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc-	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh ! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A swithting school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom buzines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines.	Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluciant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many litle things I have to perplex me-	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' Aye, and so it goes.' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paying almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging beside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan: 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sai!' Here their	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A swimiting school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks ber and that when he is your drunk the
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines.	"Good gracious ? cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?" 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think" 'Pshaw!what do you want to be	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' Aye, and so it goes.' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paying almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging beside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan: 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report That followed was like pulling a horse's hoof	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A womAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton	'Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Lundman a	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its fall price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their busbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's slok bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as his read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant slitution.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sum goes down in	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan: 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sai!' Here their	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A womAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluciant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think—'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was met by his	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' ' Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. ' Well, that man's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full price for a year-for whst? And how smilingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mile is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his ailing wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. •' Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as há read the brief words. • 'We shall not starveMr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' •'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' suid Mrs. Moore, pointing	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler vory forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up-Amateur gar- deners are the most generous of the is
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EM BROIDERIE	"Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?" 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think—" 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Lundman a second time, but he was not to eccape ro easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy-	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full prive for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his ailing wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as ha'read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a sitp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sum goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap.jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee was one even her' 'scatted in a bar-room of	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up-Amateur gar- deners are the most generous of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EM BROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety,	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluciant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think—" 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten years. 'O, pop, give me fifteen cents?'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its fall price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab ! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouts often darken upon them from the brows of their busbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they de not know more the money all goes.'	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. 'Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as he read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to allp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to, recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hor out of the mire. 'A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee was one evening' seated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem-	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woMAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—Amateur gar- deners are the most geuerous of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS	'Good gracious ?' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouts often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mile is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah 1 it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table.	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant sluation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a slip of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a sliver	much instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes !' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buck wheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. '' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evening seated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va- rious matters connected with the pomp	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up-Amateur gar- deners are the most generous of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend,
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. Thankful for the patronago extended them record, do now announce, their usual large rec of spitting, structs of BOOTS AND SHOES	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EM BROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety,	 'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluciant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me—then to think—" 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy-checked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full prive for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money ail goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- bert Landman arose from his seat and heft the house.	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr, Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' • You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a slip of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written : In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed	much instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes !' sold Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buck wheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. '' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one e-going seated in a bar-room of a country tayern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Enclishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woMAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—Amateur gar- deners are the most geuerous of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. Thaukful for the patronago extended them relative, do now announce, their usual large per of SPRING STYLES of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom buzines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me- then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cherked girl of ten years. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for triffing sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- bert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thoughts as now possessed him; he	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr, Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' • You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a slip of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written : In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed	much instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh ! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes !' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee was one evoning keated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whitting with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A switkuing school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsinsays that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—Armateur gar- deners are the most geuerous of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' Fish remains in the Cabinet—so he
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. Thankful for the patronago extended them record, do now announce, their usual large rec of spitting, structs of BOOTS AND SHOES	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS,	'Good gracious?' cried the husband. 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cherked girl of ten years. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they ohanging school books	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ali' those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- vert Landman arose from his seat and left the homse. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Bertha! he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cat situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a'slip of paper on the floor. Moore stopped 'o tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a sliver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND MIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i' that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap.jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. 'A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee was one econiqu' scatted in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A womAN in Wisconsinsays that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops upAmateur gar- deners are the most generous of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.'
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. Thankful for the patronage extended them relever of spring structure, their usual; large BOOTS AND SHOES FOR ADIESTAND MISSES'! GERTS' AND BOYF! GERTS' AND BOYF! YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', UCH are unrivaled for comfort and tenuts	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Dispers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Calleces, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLOTLIS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS,	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluciant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me- then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape ro ensily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they changing school books again?' 'No; I want to buy-a hoop. Ellen Smith hus got one, and so hes Mary	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ali' those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money al goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- vert Landman arose from his seat and left the homse. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, ialtiful, loving wife had been sad and heart.eick because he had harshiv and	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Bertha!' he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cat situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a silp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped 'to tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of, bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him.	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun des not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evoluty seated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There wero assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen. The	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most generous of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I an unuch fonder,' he replied, 'of the says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. Thaukful for the patronago extended them retofore, do now announce their usual harge bet of SPRING STVLES, of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR LADIESTIAND MISSES'. GENTS' AND BOYR'. GENTS' AND BOYR'. GENTS' AND BOYR'. Souther and the univaled for comfort and beauty to TRUNKS AND VALISSES,	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoce, Muslins, by the piece or yard; Grain bags, CLOTLIS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting'	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape to easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they ohanging school books again?' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full prive for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had inlished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- bert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouwhts as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, faithful, loving wife had been sad and heat her request for a small	to you in the days when you needed kinduess most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. * Good news, Bertha! he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a slip of paper on the floor. Mbore stopped to tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In graieful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Raiph Moore had thrown his morsel of, bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was	much instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The oun reach- es the horizon; you can see the whole	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh I Jerusalem an-d pan- cakes !' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee was one evening weated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seea. The Yankee would not let such a base save-	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gar- deners are the most generõus of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I an unuch fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin-nt men sacrifice themselves for their country. Ir is said that all Japanese women can
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. Thaukful for the patronago extended them redored do now announce their usual large out of SPRING STYLES of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR "ADIESTAND MISSES, GENNES' AND FOYS', WEN AND VALISSES, MEN AND BOYS', HATS,	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoos, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLOTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me- then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape to easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they ohanging school books again?' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Al' those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money al goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- vert Landman arose from his seat and left the honse. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, laithful, loving wife had been sad and unktukly met her request for a small vum of money. And his sweet Lizzle had cent and so the homes al hoot	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was slitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as hd read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a silp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeaily surprised the other day to flud a piump turkey served up for dinner,	much instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun masses around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness tho phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The an reach- es the horizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be- pins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 der, the sun does not go down for sev-	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. 'A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one econing 'keated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whitting with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gavo the dimensions of one he had seen. Tho Yankee would not let such a base asser- tion gast ucontradicted. 'Poh ! genite- men,' said he; 'I won't deny that it is a fair-sized cannon ; but you are a leetle mistaken in Suprosine it is to be named	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most generofild of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I an much fonder,' he replied, 'of the source of their country. FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLIELE, PA. CARLIELE, PA. CARLIELE, PA. CARLIELE, PA. CARLIELE, PA. CARLIELE, PA. CARLIELE, PA. CARLIES, AND SHOES FOR CARLIESTIAND MISSES, GENTS' AND HOYS', GENTS' AND HOYS', CARLIEST, AND CHILDS', Net are unrivated for comfort and beauty CARLIEST, MEN AND BOYS', HATS, MEN AND BOYS', HATS,	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1801. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the place or yard; Grain bugs, CLOTILS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOFHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladles and Childrens	'Good gracious?' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten yens. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?'' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they changing school books again?' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. IMr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?' 'No want a hoop go	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouts often darken upon them from the brows of their busbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- hert Landman arcse from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he shud never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, taithful, loving wife had been sad and unkinkly met her request for a small containty in the ter more and and the that because he had harshiy and unkinkly met her request for a small was the the order of the two to a simple	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' suid Mrs. Moore, pointing to a silp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fitty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to find a piump turkey served up for dinner,	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND MIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The an meath face of it, and in five minutes more it be- gins to rise. At the North Cape, Initude 72 degi, the sun does not go down for ev-	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap.jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. '' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evening 'seated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen. The Yankee would not let such a base asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh i gentle- men,' said he; 'I won't deny that' it is a fair-sized cannon ; but you are a leetle mistakeu in supposing it is to be named	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up-Amateur gar- deners are the most generõus of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he fasys-to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin-nt men sacrifice themselves for their country. It is said that all Japanese women can read, write and olpher. An exchange says. 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for'
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. Thaukful for the patronago extended them redored do now announce their usual large out of SPRING STYLES of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR "ADIESTAND MISSES, GENNES' AND FOYS', WEN AND VALISSES, MEN AND BOYS', HATS,	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLQTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OLL CLOFHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, Including Ladies and Childrens Hate and Sandowns, and the best assortment und bed unlity of the Hibbons in the county Kud Gloves, (best make), Jewelry, Fancy Goods and Souther variety and Southy-	'Gond gracious!' cried the husband.'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think—'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'Not at to hey a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't have one?' 'Nonseuse! If you want a hoop go and get one off some old barrel. I can't afford to be buying hoops for you to trud-	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its full prive for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken opon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- iert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouwhs as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, taithful, loving wife had been sad and hyart-kick breause he had harshiy and unklinkly met her request for a small sum of .money. And his sweet Lizzle had crept away to her home almost broken-hearted for the wants amount-	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as he read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to allp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flud a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo,	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun cach- es the horizon; you can see to read the face of it, and in five minutes more it be- gins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg., the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg. above the borizon at midnight.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report that's followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' ' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evoluty seated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gavo the dimensions of one he had seeo. The Yankee would not let such a base anser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh ! gentle- men,' said he; 'f won't deny that it is a fair-sized cannon; but you are a leetle mistakeu in Supposing it is to be named the sum minute with one of our Yankee guns which I saw in Charleston has	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMIING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops upAmateur gar- deners are the most generous of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet-so he rays-to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin-nt men sacrifice themselves for their country. It is said that all Japanese women can read, write and ether. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh!
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLIBLE, PA. CARLIBLE, PA. CARLIBLE, PA. CARLIBLE, PA. CARLIBLE, PA. CARLIBLE, PA. CARLIBLE, PA. COMPARIANCE AND SHOES FOR CONTS AND SHOES FOR CADIESTAND MISSES, GENTS' AND HOYS', I GENTS' AND HOYS', I COUTHS' AND CHILDS', COUTHS' AND CHILDS', COUTHS' AND CHILDS', COUTHS' AND CHILDS', COUTHS' AND CHILDS', COUTHS' AND CHILDS', COUNTS' AND VALISSES, MEN AND BOYS', HATS, All of which will be sold at small profits. Call cues, April, 13 1870-19	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: Whito Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLQTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladles and Childrens that and Sundowns, and the best assortment ind host junity of the Ribbons in the county Kil Gloves, (best mate.) Jewelry, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think" 'Pshaw !-wbat do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to encape vo ensily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'What?' 'No; I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'No; I want for you want with it? Are they ohanging school books again?' 'No; I want to huy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. !M. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?' 'No and some old harrel. I can't afford to be huying hoops for you to trud- die about the streets.' 'Please, papa.'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their busbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly, the mile is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money al goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- bert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouwhts as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, taithful, loving wife had been sai and uwa chept away to her home almost broken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billiard playing.	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as he read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to allp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flud a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo,	much instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm for the purpose of conveying these who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one night. The sun reach- es the horizon, you can see to read at midnight, the North Cape, latitude 72 deg, the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the horizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks : then it comes, and	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' 'A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evoluty' seated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assen- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen. The Yankee would not let such a base asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh! gentle- men,' said he; 'I won't deny that it is a fair-sized cannon; but you are a leetle mistakeu in supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guns which I saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldiers were obliged to employ a yoke	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gar- deners are the most generõus of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country. It is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says : 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh!
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. Thaukful for the patronage extended them redored, and wannounce, their usual large bes of SPRING, STYLES, of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR ADJESTIAND MISSES'. SEXTS' AND BOYS'. SEXTS' AND BOYS'. SEXTS' AND BOYS'. SUUTHS' AND CHILDS', Net are unrivaled for comfort and beauty bo TRUNKS AND VALISSES, MEN AND BOYS'. HATS. All of which will be sold at small profils. Call read at using at s full equivalents, for your oney. APHI, IS 1870-19 TANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF!	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLOTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Bhades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladles and Childrens that and Sandowns, and the best assortment and Solows, float the Ribbons in the county Kid Gloves, (best mate), Jewelry, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think" 'Pshaw !-wbat do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to eccape vo ensily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'What?' 'No, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'No, i want for you want with it? Are they ohanging school books again?' 'No, i want to huy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. !M. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?' 'No sit want a hoop go and get one off some old harrel. I can't afford to be huying hoops for you to trud- die about the streets.' 'Please, papa.' 'No, I told you.' The bright blue eyes filled with tears.'	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- nert Landman arose from his seat and left the honse. Never before had he such thouwhts as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, laithful, loving wife had been sad and heart.eld because he had harshiy and unklukly met her request for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle had cept away to her home almost broken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billiard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon-	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging beside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as hé read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to allp of paper on the floor. • Moore stopped to recover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Raiph Moore had thrown his morsel of bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. • A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flud a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seize him for de rent ob de fonce.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The state monta goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying these who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- es the horizon; you can see to read the horizon; you can see the about 22 deg, the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the borizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' A LARGE CANNON.—A smart Yankee was one evening weated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seea. The Yankee would not let such a base are. 'I won't deny that it is a fair-sized cannon ; but you are a leetle mistaken in supposing it is to be named the soulders with one of our Yankee guns which 1 saw in Charleston hast year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldlers were obliged to employ a yoke yof oxen to draw in the ball!' And pray,' exclaimed one of his hearers with a	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A switkuing school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swim- ming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsinsays that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—Armateur gar- deners are the most generous of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' Fish remains in the Cabinet—so he rays—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin-in then sacrifice themselves for their country. It is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says i'n civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBANDaIn the city, who inter- viewed his wite, says she is right on the leading questions of the day, but wrong on the leading strings.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. Thaukful for the patronage extended them redored, and wannounce, their usual large set of SPRING, STYLES, of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR ADJESTAND MISSES'. SEENTS' AND BOYS'. YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', MEN AND BOYS'. HATS. All of white will be sold at small profils. Call sead at small small sead small profils. Sead at small sead small sead small profils. Sead at small sead sead small sead sead sead sead sead sead sead sead	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bags, CLQTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOFHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, Including Ladies and Childrens Hats and Sandowns, and the best assortment ind bed unlity of the Hibbons in the county Kid Gloves, (best make), Jewelry, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a, prices that dely competition, and all we ask in the dest that dely competition, and all we ask	'Good gracious !' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work; I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape vo ensily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten years. 'O, popa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?' 'No, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'No, i want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?' 'No, serve.' 'No, some off some old barrel. I can't afford to be buying hoops for you to trud- die about the streets.' 'Please, papa.' 'No, I toid you.' The bright blue eyes filled with tears,' and the child's sobbing broke upon his	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often durken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given! What perfect floods of joy that doltar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- left the house. Never before had he such thouwbts as now possessed him; he had never dwelt upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, lathful, loving wife had been sad and heart-sick because he hid harshiy and unklikly met her request for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle torken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billiard playing. Aluert Landman wanted to be an hon- ert hueband and faber, and the lesson	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as he read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cast situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to allp of paper on the floor. • Moore stopped to, tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, ou which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. • A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flund a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seizo him for de rent ob de fonce.' A. JURYMAN was asked whether he had heap obvered by the ludge. 'Well ' said	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm as little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The stamboat goes up from Stockholm for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one night. The sun reach- es the horizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be- gins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg, the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the horizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a cricel round	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss i that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap.jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. '' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one econter, 'keated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seea. The Yankee would not let such a base asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh ! gentle- men,' said he; 'I won't deny that' it is a fair-sized cannon ; but you are a leetle mistakeu in Supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guns which I saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the solders were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the ball !' And pray.' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph,' can you tell us how	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWimming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—Amateur gardeners are the most generous of me—it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to ber masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he rays—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin—nt men sacrifice themselves for their country. It is said that all Japanese women can read, write and etpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND in the city, who interviewed his wite, says she is right on the leading strings.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. COMMENDED COMPANIES IN COMPANIES OF COMPANIE	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoos, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLOTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladles and Childrens Hats and Sundowns, and the best assortment and hest quality, Jowerry, Fancy Goods and Notines in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a, prices that dely competition, and all we eask is a listy the public that this is the place to buy and soure mouse.	'Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape go easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten years. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?'' 'O. I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'Not in the world do you want with it? Are they obanging school books again?' 'No is want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. IM. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Cau't if have one?' 'Nonseuse ! If you want a hoop go and get one off some old tarrel. I can't afford to be buying hoops i'or you to trud- die auout the streets.' 'No, i told you,' The bright blue eyes filled with tears,' and the child's sobbing broke upon his ear. Albert Landman hurried from the house with some very in patient words	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its fall price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly, the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money al goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- bert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, takithal, loving wife had been sad and upert-dweit upon the hane stable. The two gentlemen math harshiy and makinkly met her request for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle had crept away to her home almost broken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon- est husband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way home he stopped at Mr. Grant's and pur-	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as ha read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' suid Mrs. Moore, pointing to a sitp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped 'to tecover the estray. It was a fity dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flud a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been 'roosting' on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seize him for de rent ob de fonce.' A JURYMAN was asked whether he had been charged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little fellow that sits up in the pulpid and spirange over the grave us	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND MIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night. There is a great illumination of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The stamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness tho phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- sins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg, the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the borizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem an-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sai!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evening keated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen. The Yankee would not let such n base asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh i gentle- mistaken in Supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guns which I saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldiers were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the ball'' And pray,' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph, 'can you tell us how they got the öxen out again ?' Of course it can,' returned the Yankee; 'they un-	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsinsays that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most geuerfous of me—it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' I'r is said that all Japanese women can read, write and elpher. An exchange says : 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND in the city, who interviewed his wite, says she is right on the leading strings. I'r was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. COMPACT OF COMPACT	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bags, CLQTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOFHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladies and Childrens Hats and Sandowns, and the best assortment ind bed unlity of the Hibbons in the county K dGloves, (best make), Jewelry, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a, prices that dely competition, and all we ask is utify the public that this is the place to by and ave mousy. LADIES' UNDER WEAR,	'Good gracious!' cried the husband, 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said, Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to encape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- checked girl of ten yens. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?'' O. I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'No; I want to huy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. IMr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't inford to be buying hoops i'or you to trud- dle about the streets.' 'No to id you.' The bright blue eyes filled with tears, and the child's sobbling broke upon his ear. Albert Landman hurried from the house with some very in patient words upon his lips. The was in the morning. At noon	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often durken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trifling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that doltar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- lert Landman arose from his seat and left the honse. Never before had he such thouvbis as now possessed him; he had never dwelt upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, faithful, loving wife had been sad and heart-sick because he had harshiy and unklivity met her request for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle toy, such as her mates possessed. And heart-sick because he had harshiy and unklikity met her meases for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle toy, such as her mates possessed. And heart-sick because he had harshiy and unklikity met her meases for a small sum of billiard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon- est hueband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way hoome hestopped at Mr. Grant's and pur- chused the best and pretiest hoop to be found with deiting attick pantied red.	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as he read the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cast situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to allp of paper on the floor. • Moor stopped to, tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. • A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to find a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seizo him for de rent ob de fonce.' • A JURYMAN was asked whether he had been ch urged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little felow that sits up in the pulpit and stares over the crowd gave us	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sum goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sum does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness tho phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sum reach- ers the horizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be- pins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 degi, the sun doesnot go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the horizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes file those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap.jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. '' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evening 'scatted in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Enclishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seea. The Yankee would not let such a base asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh ! gentle- men,' said he; 'I won't deny that' it is a fair-sized cannon; but you are a leetle mistaken in Supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guns which I saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldiers were obliged to employ a yoke sof oxen to draw in the ball!' 'And pray,' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph, 'can you tell us how they got the öxen out again ?' 'Of course I can,' returned the Yankee; 'they un- yoked 'em and drove 'em through the touch-hole!'	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops upAmateur gar- deners are the most generõus of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet-so he says-to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin-nt men sacrifice themselves for their country. IT is said that all Japanese women can read, write and elpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND1 in the city, who inter- viewed his wile, says she is right on the leading questions of the day, but wrong on the leading strings. IT was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss Blagrove, he was answered. 'He couldn't master her, so he missed her.' A Nadwoente having hadan.
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CONTS AND SHOES FOR CARLESTAND MISSES'. CHART AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', CHART, AND BOYS'. HATS, MEN AND BOYS'. HATS, All of which will be sold at small profils. Call ead at and get 2 full equivalents, for your oney. April 12 1870-19 CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF! The undersigned is always open for smar, fa- s and will have my objection while the request them and at the for the off the too motion of the parts of the coun- ties of the parts of the count of the street. Carlies of the coun- ter should be a single too and at the for the off the count of stay at home and attend to his a business, it will be impossible for thm to a business, it will be mapossible for thm to a business, it will be mapossible for thm to a business, it will be mapossible for thm to a business it will be mapossible for thm to a business it will be interest. Carlisie, where it parts of the coun- ter the too the street. Carlisie, where it is official.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: Whito Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLQTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OLL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladies and Childrens that sand Sundowns, and the best assortment in Gloves, (best mate.) Jewelry, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a, prices that dety competition, and all we ask is using the public that this is the place to buy and saye mouey. LADIES' UNDER WEAR, A slice assortment of Ladies' Under Clothing very handsoniely sitched und trimmed at	 'Good gracious!' cried the husband. 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me—then to think'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' 'And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy-checked girl of ten yens. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?'' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they ohanging school books argin?'' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. IMr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Cau't I have one?'' 'Nouseuse! If you want a hoop go and get one off some old tarrel. I can't afford to be buying hoops i'or you to truddle about the streets.'' 'Ne loid you.'' The bright blue eyes filled with tears, and the child's sobbing broke upon his ear. Albert Landman hurried from the house with some very in patient words upon his Hips.'' 	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ab ! those poor sympathizing wives ! How many clouts often darken upon them from the brows of their busbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and torty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! It is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had inished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- hert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouwhts as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, iaithful, loving wife had been said and hyart-slok because he had harshiy and unkinkiy met her request for a small broken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billiard playing. Alvert Landman wanted to be an hon- est hueband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way home he stopped at Mr. Grant's and pur- chased the best and pretiest hoop to be found, with driving stick painted red, white and blue, and in the morning.	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as he read the brief words. 'We shall not starveMr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a sitp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped 'to recover the estray. It was a fify dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of, bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to find a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seize him for de rent ob de fence.' A JURYMAN was asked whether he had been ch urged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little fellow that sits up in the pulpit and stares over the crowi gave us a lecture, but I don't know whether he oharged anything or not.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night fur Sweden strike the traveler vory forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sum goes down in Stockholm as little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the bead of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sum does not appear to go down at all. The stamboat goes up from Stockholm for eurious to witness tho phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- es the horizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be and in five minutes more it be the borizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be and so the pare to go down for sev- eral weaks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the horizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens.	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sal !' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. '' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evening 'scatted in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seea. Tho Yankee would not let such a base save- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh ! gentle- men,' said he; 'I won't deny that' it is a fair-sized cannon; but you are a lettle mistaken in supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guos which I saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldiers were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the bail!' 'And pray,' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph, 'can you the us how they got the öxen out again ?' 'Of course I can,' returned the Yankee ; 'they un- yoked 'em and drove 'em through the touch-hole!'	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsinsays that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most generõuis of me-it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am nuch fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country. IT is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sightfor' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND1 the eity, who interviewed his wife, says she is right on the leading questions of the day, but wrong on the leading strings. IT was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss Blagrove, he was answered. 'He couldn't master her, 'An advocate having lately gained a source in the say and the says did not marry Miss
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CONTS AND SHOES FOR CARLESTAND MISSES'. CHART AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', CHART, AND BOYS'. HATS, MEN AND BOYS'. HATS, All of which will be sold at small profils. Call ead at and get 2 fall equivalents, for your oney. April 12 1870-19 CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF! The undersigned is always open for smar, fa- s and will have my objection while the request them and at the for the open the contents of the strength of the source of the standard of the share and attend to his a business, it will be impossible for thim to a business it will be impossible for thim to a business it will be impossible for thim to a business it will be intered. Carlisle, where a he possible for thim to a business it will be intered. Carlisle, where a he possible for thim to a business it will be intered. Carlisle, where a he possible for thim to a business it will be intered. Carlisle, where a he possible for thim to a business it will be intered. Carlisle, where a he possible for thim to a business it will be intered. Carlisle, where a business it will be intered.	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Dispers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoce, Muslins, by the piece or yard; Grain bags, CLOTLIS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Bhades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladles and Childrens that and Sundows, and the best assortment and Soutows, and the best assortment and Soutows, and the best assortment and Soutows, and the best assortment and Soutows in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a, prices that dety competition, and all we ask is a lair examination by good Judges of goods in a save mouley. LADIES' UNDER WEAR, A nice assortment of Ladles' Under Clothing very handsonnely stitched and trimmed at reabonable prices.	 'Good gracious!' cried the husband. 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?'' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me—then to think'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' 'And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy-checked girl of ten yens. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What?'' 'O, I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me?' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they ohanging school books again?'' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. IMr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Cau't finize one?'' 'Nouseuse! If you want a hoop go'and get one off some old tarrel. I can't afford to be buying hoops ifor you to truddle about the streets.'' 'Please, papa.'' 'No, I told you.'' The bright blue eyes filled with tears, and the child's sobbing broke upon his ear. Albert Landman hurried from the house with some very in patient words upon his Hips. Thus was in the morning. At noon when he came home to his filmer, there was a cloud over the household. His wife was sober, and even his lithe Lizzle. 	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its fall price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly, the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money al goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- iert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, taithful, loving wife had been sad and upert-dweit upon the home almost broken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon- est husband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way home he stopped at Mr. Grant's and pur- chased the best and prettiest hoop to be found, with driving stick planted red, white and blue, and in the morning, when he beheld his child's delight, aud had received her grateful, happy kiss, the	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • 'Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as haread the brief words. 'We shall not starve-Mr. Audley promises me the va- cant situation.' • 'You have dropped something from the note, Ralph,' suid Mrs. Moore, pointing to a sitp of paper on the floor. Moore stopped to tecover the estray. It was a fity dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: 'In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flud a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been 'roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seize him for de rent ob de fonce.' A JURYMAN was asked whether he had been charged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little fellow that sits up in the puipit and stares over the crowd gave us a lecture, but I don't know whether he charged anything or not.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND MIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night. as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The staemboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- sins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg, the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the borizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens.	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem an-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of his hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sai!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' A LARGE CANNSON.—A smart Yankee was one evoning keated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whitting with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen. The Yankee would not let such a bas asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh i gentle- mistaken in Supposing it is to be named the solders were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the ball!' And pray,' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph' can you tell us how they got the öxen out again ?' Of course i can,' returned the Yankee; 'they un- yoked 'em and drove 'em through the touch-hole !'	day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMIING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'SWim- ming instructions given by a tencher of both sexes.' A woman in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops upAmateur gar- deners are the most generõus of me- it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I an much fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet-so he says-to accommodate Grant. It is thus that promin-nt men sacrifice themselves for their country. It is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sigh-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND_in the city, who inter- viewed his wile, says she is right on the leading questions of the day, but wrong on the leading strings. It was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss Blagrove, he was answered. 'He couldn't master her, so he missed her.' A N advocate having lately gained a suit for a poor young lad, who was, ugly, remarked. 'I have nothing to pay you
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, JPA. CARLISLE, JPA. Thankful for the patronage extended them revolves, dr. now announce, their usual large lex of sPRING, STYLES, of BOOTS AND SHOES FOR ADIESTAND MISSES'! GENTS' AND BOYS! YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDS', WICH are unrivaled for comfort and beauty So TRUNKS AND VALISSES, MEN AND BOYS! HATS. Allof which will be sold at small profits. Call end which the sold at small profits. Call end which the sold at small profits. Call end which by a bome and atter for be addidue for Shortf, It ins benow: atter to be short be addidue for Shortf, It ins benow: atter the short be addidue for Shortf, It ins benow for the other base addidue for Shortf, It ins benow for the base of the out of the short work when the mater at the house of the out county if it is the mater when the short be addidue for Shortf be based of the short be short be addidue for Shortf be based of the short be	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool De Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Diapers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callcoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bugs, CLQTLS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOFHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladies and Childrens Hats and Sundowns, and the best assortment ind bots huffer a variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a prices that day competition, and all we ask and Notions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a prices that day competition, and all we ask and sotions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a price sthat day competition, and all we ask and sotions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a price sthat day competition, and all we ask as the public that this is the place to buy and save mousy. LADIES' UNDER WEAR, A slice assortment of Ladies' Under Clothing very handsonicity stitched und trimmed at reasonable prices. WOOL taken in exchange for goods.	 'Gond gracious!' cried the husband.' I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think—'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they changing school books again?' 'No; I want for to have a books again?' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?' 'No, I told you.' 'The bright blue eyes filled with tears, and the child's sobbing broke upon his ear. Athert Landman burried from the house with some very in patient words upon his lips. Thes was in the morning. At noon when he came home to his dinner, there was a cloud over the household. His wife was sober, and even his little Lizzle, 	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that doltar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- hert Landman arose from his seat and left the honse. Never before had he such thouwhis as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, laithful, loving wife had been sad and heart-isle because he had harshiy and unklukly met her request for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billiard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon- est hueband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way home he stopped at Mr. Grant's and pur- chused the best and prettiest hoop to be found, with driving stick painted red, white and blue, and in the morning, when he beheld his child's delight, and had recived ber grateful, hapy kiss, the question came to his nind : which was	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as hé read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' • You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to altp of paper on the floor. • Moore stopped to, tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: • In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flund a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seizo him for de rent ob de fence.' A. JURYMAN was asked whether he had been charged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little fellow that sits up in the pulpit and stares over the crowd gave us a lecture, but I don't know whether ho charged anything or not.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler vory forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a great illumination all night. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- es the horizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be- gins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg., the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the borizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then It comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens. 'HERE, Alfred, is an apple; divide it politely with your little sister.' 'How shall I divide it politely, mamma?' Give the large part to the other person, my child.' Alfred handed the apple to his little sister, saving: 'Here, esis, you di-	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' ' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evoluty weathed in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seeo. Tho Yankee would not let such a base anser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh i gentle- men,' said he; 'f won't deny that it is a fair-sized cannon; but you are a leetle mistakeu in supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guns which 1 saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldlers were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the ball !' And pray.' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph, 'can you tell us how they got the öxen out again ?' 'Of course I can,' returned the Yankee; 'they un- yoked 'em and drove 'em through the touch-hole!'	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woMAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most generõus of me it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am nuch fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country. I' is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sight-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND in the city, who interviewed his wite, says she is right on the leading strings. I'T was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss Blagrove, he was answered. 'He couldn't master her, so he missed her.' An advocate having lately gained a suit for a poor young lately, who eleast, ' Handi tover to my elerty,' if you lease.'
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. THE COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMPACT OF COMPACT. OF COMP	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Serges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Dispers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line: White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Callecoes, Muslins, by the plece or yard; Grain bags, CLOTLIS, CASSIMERS, &c., CARPETS, OIL CLOFHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, incitaling Ladles and Childrens Hats and Sundows, and the best assortment and best quality of fine Ribbons in the county-, Kid Gloves, (best matc.) Jevery, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a prices that dely competition, and all we ask is this the public that this is the place to buy and save mouey. LADIES' UNDER WEAR, A sice assortment of Ladles' Under Clothing very handsoniely stitched und timmed at reasonatole prices.	 'Gond gracious!' cried the husband.' I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me— then to think—'' 'Pshaw!-what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy- cheeked girl of ten years. 'O, pupa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they changing school books again?' 'No; I want for to have a books again?' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen Smith has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't I have one?' 'No, I told you.' 'The bright blue eyes filled with tears, and the child's sobbing broke upon his ear. Athert Landman burried from the house with some very in patient words upon his lips. Thes was in the morning. At noon when he came home to his dinner, there was a cloud over the household. His wife was sober, and even his little Lizzle, 	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wisbing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while he is paving almost its fall price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly, the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that dollar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money al goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- iert Landman arose from his seat and left the house. Never before had he such thouvits as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, taithful, loving wife had been sad and upert-dweit upon the home almost broken-hearted for the want of a simple toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon- est husband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way home he stopped at Mr. Grant's and pur- chased the best and prettiest hoop to be found, with driving stick planted red, white and blue, and in the morning, when he beheld his child's delight, aud had received her grateful, happy kiss, the	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as hé read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' • You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to altp of paper on the floor. • Moore stopped to, tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: • In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flund a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seizo him for de rent ob de fence.' A. JURYMAN was asked whether he had been charged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little fellow that sits up in the pulpit and stares over the crowd gave us a lecture, but I don't know whether ho charged anything or not.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND MIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night. as the sun passes around the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The staemboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- sins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg, the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the borizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then it comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens.	himself in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem an-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of his hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sai!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' A LARGE CANNSON.—A smart Yankee was one evoning keated in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whitting with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen. The Yankee would not let such a bas asser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh i gentle- mistaken in Supposing it is to be named the solders were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the ball!' And pray,' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph' can you tell us how they got the öxen out again ?' Of course i can,' returned the Yankee; 'they un- yoked 'em and drove 'em through the touch-hole !'	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woMAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most generõus of me it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am nuch fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country. I' is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sight-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND in the city, who interviewed his wite, says she is right on the leading strings. I'T was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss Blagrove, he was answered. 'He couldn't master her, so he missed her.' An advocate having lately gained a suit for a poor young lately, who eleast, ' Handi tover to my elerty,' if you lease.'
No 13, South Hanover Street, CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CARLISLE, PA. CONTS AND SHOES FOR ADIESTAND MISSES'. CONTS AND SHOES FOR ADIESTAND MISSES'. CONTS' AND CHILDS', CONTS' AND CONS', CONTS' AND CONS', CONTS' AND CONS', CONTS', CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONTS', CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONTS', CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONTS', CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, CONSTANT, C	which they will sell lower than they have done since 1861. SILKS, Wool Do Laines, Alpacas, Poplins, Sorges, Bom bazines, Tamise Cloth, Grenadines. FLANNELS OF ALL KINDS, Plain and Fancy, Linen Table Dispers, Cotton do., Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Counterpanes EMBROIDERIE a full line; White Goods in great variety, HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS and a full stock DOMESTIC GOODS, Calicoos, Muslins, by the place or yard; Grain bags, CLOTLIS, CASSIMERS, &e., CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, Druggets, Window Shades, Matting' MILINERY GOODS of all kinds, including Ladles and Childrens Hats and Sondowns, and the best assortment and best quality of fine Ribbons in the county-, Ki Gloves, (best matc.) Jevelry, Fancy Goods and Notions in great variety. This MAMMOTH SIOCK OF GOODS the largest in this section of country, is offered a, prices that day competition, and all we ask is the examination by good Judges of goods to satisfy the public that this is the place to buy and save mousey. LADIES' UNDER WEAR, A slice assortment of Ladles' Under Clothing very handsonnely stitched and trimmed at reasonable prices. WOOL taken in exchange for goods. BENTZ & CO. A the old Dry Geeds stand established Feb- ruary is Isli	 'Good gracious!' cried the husband. 'I should like to know if you are crying at what I said about the dress?'' 'I was not crying at what you said. Albert,' replied Kate tremulously; 'but you were so reluctant to grant me the favor. I was thinking how hard I had to work : I am tied to the house; how many little things I have to perplex me—then to think'' 'Pshaw!what do you want to be foolish for?' And away started Albert Landman a second time, but he was not to escape so easily. In the hall he was met by his daughter Lizzie, a bright-eyed rosy-checked girl of ten yens. 'O, papa, give me fifteen cents?' 'What in the world do you want with it? 'O. I want fifteen cents. Do please give it to me.' 'What in the world do you want with it? Are they obanging school books again?' 'No; I want to buy a hoop. Ellen 'Mr. Grant has got one, and so has Mary Ruck and Sarah El en. 'Mr. Grant has got some real pretty ones to sell. Can't afford to be buying hoops i'or you to truddle about the streets.' 'Please, papa.' 'No, i told you.' The bright blue eyes filled with tears,' and the child's sobbing broke upon his ear. Albert Landman hurried from the house with some very in patient words upon his dinner, there was a cloud over the household. His wife was sober, and even his little Lizzle, usually gay and bitthsorne, * was sad and silent. 	was one dollar and fifty cents a year.' 'Aye, and so it goes,' said the other gentleman. 'Well, that mun's wife may be wishing at this very moment that she had her paper to read, while be is paving almost its full price for a year-for what? And how smillingly he does it. Ah! those poor sympathizing wives! How many clouds often darken upon them from the brows of their husbands when they ask for trilling sums of money, and how grudgingly the mite is handed over when it is given ! What perfect floods of joy that doltar and forty cents might have poured upon the children of that unsuccessful billiard player. Ah ! it is well for such wives and children that they do not know where the money all goes.' They had finished at the nearest table. The two gentlemen moved on, and Al- hert Landman arose from his seat and left the honse. Never before had he such thouwhis as now possessed him; he had never dweit upon the same grouping ideas. That very morning his own true, laithful, loving wife had been sad and heart-isle because he had harshiy and unklukly met her request for a small sum of money. And his sweet Lizzle toy, such as her mates possessed. And yet the sum of both their wants amount- ed to not as much he had paid away that evening for billiard playing. Albert Landman wanted to be an hon- est hueband and father, and the lesson was not lost upon him. On his way home he stopped at Mr. Grant's and pur- chused the beet and prettiest hoop to be found, with driving stick painted red, white and blue, and in the morning, when he beheld his child's delight, and had recived ber grateful, hapy kiss, the question came to his nind : which was	to you in the days when you needed kindness most. * * * * * * * * Ralph Moore was sitting in his poor lodging heside his alling wife's sick bed, when a liv-ried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank direc- tor Charles Audley. • Good news, Berthal' he exclaimed as hé read the brief words. 'We shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the va- caat situation.' • You have dropped something from the note, Raiph,' said Mrs. Moore, pointing to altp of paper on the floor. • Moore stopped to, tecover the estray. It was a fifty dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper, on which was written: • In grateful remembrance of a silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a little chestnut girl over twenty years ago.' Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of. bread on the waters, and after many days it had returned to him. A GENTLEMAN in New Orleans was agreeably surprised the other day to flund a piump turkey served up for dinner, and enquired of his servant how it was obtained. 'Why, sir,' replied Sambo, 'dat turkey has been roosting on our fence tree nights, so dis morning I seizo him for de rent ob de fence.' A. JURYMAN was asked whether he had been charged by the judge. 'Well,' said he, 'the little fellow that sits up in the pulpit and stares over the crowd gave us a lecture, but I don't know whether ho charged anything or not.'	mish instruction, was almost condemned. The Prussian army has but one calible for all small arms, so that infantry or sharp shooters can be supplied with car- tridges from any cavalry, pistol or car- tridge wagons. DAY AND NIGHT IN SWEDENThe peculiarities of the day and night in Sweden strike the traveler vory forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zone. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a. little before ten o'clock There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passesaround the earth toward the North Pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light. There is a great illumination all night. There is a mountain at the head of Both- nia where on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm, for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only on one uight. The sun reach- es the horizon; you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it be- gins to rise. At the North Cape, latitude 72 deg., the sun does not go down for sev- eral weeks. In June it would be about 25 deg, above the borizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears, and is not seen for weeks; then It comes, and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle round the heavens. 'HERE, Alfred, is an apple; divide it politely with your little sister.' 'How shall I divide it politely, mamma?' Give the large part to the other person, my child.' Alfred handed the apple to his little sister, saving: 'Here, esis, you di-	himsolf in a theatrical attitude, we thought we heard Sal exclaim in sweet silvery notes fike those of a dying swan : 'That's the way to do it, old hoss ! that's it. 'Oh! Jerusalem a-n-d pan- cakes!' said Jake, drawing the back of bis hand across his mouth, 'Buckwheat cakes, slap-jacks and lasses ain't no whar, long side o' you, Sat!' Here their lips came together, and the report that' followed was like pulling a horse's hoof out of the mire. ' ' A LARGE CANNONA smart Yankee was one evoluty weathed in a bar-room of a country tavern in Canada, whittling with a jack knife. There were assem- bled several Englishmen, discussing va rious matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks, one of them stated that the British government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seeo. Tho Yankee would not let such a base anser- tion pass uncontradicted. 'Poh i gentle- men,' said he; 'f won't deny that it is a fair-sized cannon; but you are a leetle mistakeu in supposing it is to be named the same minute with one of our Yankee guns which 1 saw in Charleston last year. Why, sir, it was so large that the soldlers were obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to draw in the ball !' And pray.' exclaimed one of his hearers with a smile of triumph, 'can you tell us how they got the öxen out again ?' Of course I can,' returned the Yankee; 'they un- yoked 'em and drove 'em through the touch-hole!'	 day, from lonesomeness. It was a man named Jones. A SWIMMING school in Frankfort on the Main announced in English : 'Swimming instructions given by a teacher of both sexes.' A woMAN in Wisconsin says that when her husband is a little drunk he kicks her, and that when he is very drunk she kicks him; and she adds that she does most of the kicking. A GREAT fact crops up—A mateur gardeners are the most generõus of me it is a pleasure with them to 'fork over' their grounds. 'I HAVE a great love for old hymns,' said a pretty girl to her masculine friend, 'I am nuch fonder,' he replied, 'of the young hers.' FISH remains in the Cabinet—so he says—to accommodate Grant. It is thus that prominent men sacrifice themselves for their country. I' is said that all Japanese womén can read, write and elpher. An exchange says: 'In civilized nations men 'sight-for' them.' Oh! A HUSBAND in the city, who interviewed his wite, says she is right on the leading strings. I'T was asked by a scholar, why master Thomas Hawking did not marry Miss Blagrove, he was answered. 'He couldn't master her, so he missed her.' An advocate having lately gained a suit for a poor young lately, who eleast, ' Handi tover to my elerty,' if you lease.'