WELL DONE, KENTUCKY .- The Dem ocratic majority, it is stated, will reach near fifty thousand, and as a consequence, the Radicals are beginning to Radical ticket.

GOVERNOR GEARY has appointed Dr. John H. Gihon, the editor of the Topic, to the office of Quarantine Master of the Port of Philadelphia, made vacant by the death of its late occupant, Robert Gartside, who fell a victim to vellow fever.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN, of North Carolina, is the man who once offered a re ward of $5000 for the assassination of President Lincoln. He became "loil" when he saw the South losing ground, and he is now backed by Grant in his his State. "Let us have peace!"

THE elections held since ast fall give the Democrats a gain of two Governors, two United States Senators and four Members of Congress. Elections for Congressmen have been held in but two States, Oregon and North Carolina. Brightly breaks the morning!

THE response to the Washington clerks to the den and of the radical campaign committee for money is by no means a cheering one. Thus far the receipts are said to be exceedingly mea gre. The money should have been raised before the North Carolina election, unless the radicals ment to carry that State merely by bayonets.

THE N. Y. Journal of Commerce 'says the income tax was inflicted for no other purpose in the world than to perpetuate the horde of office-holders, and keep the grip of that party on the throats of the people; but we mistake if the people do not take the party by the throat at the next congressional elections.

THERE is now 2,423 soldiers of 1812 and widows of soldiers of 1812 in Pennsylvania, receiving pensions from the State under the act of 1868-at least there are that many names on the pension books in the Auditor General's office, but two or three hundred of these old people have died during the past year.

THE shoemakers in and around North Adams, Massachusetts, now see for themselves on which side their bread is buttered, and openly declare almost to a man their design to vote the Democratic ticket hereafter. . The time is not far distant when all the laboring men and mechanics of the land will get their eyes open the same as the shoemakers of New England.

THE nomination of P. Gray Meek, Esq., editor of the Bellefonte Watchman, for the Legislature by the sterling democrats of Centre county will be received with pleasure by his friends throughout the State. Mr. Meck has already served two terms in the House, and this nomination shows the estimate which his constituents have placed on his public labors.

EVERYWHERE Radicalism is going under. Beaten in Connecticut, New York, Oregon, Montana, District of Columbia, Kentucky, North Carolina, &c., &c., now comes the news of another defeat. The judicial election in Tennessee has gone for the Conservatives, and hereafter the Supreme Bench will be managed in the interest of justice instead of to bolster up rascality.

THE NEGRO VOTE.

The Carlisle Herald of last week, in an article relative to our primary election, gives expression to the following infounded assertion:

"We venture the assertion that there is not a bemocrat on the county ticket who would no secure his election, if it becomes necessary, by walking arm and arm to the polls with the darkest colored man in the county, nor is there one of them who would not chuckle more over the gaining of the colored vote, to the Demortacy than they would over the conversion of an equal numier of white men." The above statement is, to say the least, as gratuitous as it is idle, and its author knew it to be false when he indited the article. None of our candidates have or will solicit any negro for his vote, and the man who should do so would at once receive the merited re buke of the whole Democratic party of the county. If any negro choses to vote our ticket, or any part of it, he has a perfect right to do so, but as for SOLICIT-ING his vote the idea is preposterous, and we trust none of our candidates will so far forget what is due to himself and to the Democracy as to be guilty of such meanness. From the earliest agitation of the question whether the African should receive the ballot, the Democratic party with great unanimity, has been opposed to it. Without going into an explana tion of the reasons why we espoused the negative of this question, it is sufficient for our purpose to state briefly, that our party has always believed that it was ntended by its founders that this should be a white man's government, and that it was not for the interest of either race, that they should be joined in its adminstration. While holding this doctrine the party, at the same time, has believed that the negro should be secured in all his personal rights, treated with respect and kindness, but in no manner made the political or social equal of the white man. This, we repeat, was a cardinal principle of the Democratic party, and in its advocacy we were not moved by any hostility to, or hatred of, the negro. All the antagonisms engendered were caused by those, who, holding opposite views, attempted to force the colored man out of his natural position into one of perfect equality with the white race. In the great struggle over this question we have been worsted, and the opposite party, by means the most dastardlyfederal bayonets, despotic exercise of power, and an entire disregard of constitutional provisions and the will of the people, have been successful. The majority has been overridden and the negro declared a voter. It matters not that the Fifteenth Amendment is in curse the negroes for not all voting the reality no amendment at all, it matters not that if judged by the test of justice, or the constitution itself, it could not stand a moment, we must now view it as an accomplished fact, and consider the negro a voter. As forcible resistance is out of the question, and must not be thought of for a moment, we must make up our minds to meet, and outvote, the

> And this must be our only policy in this matter. Can we turn round like a weather vane in a storm and give the lie direct to all our previous professions, by courting the negro vote? They know as well as we that they are not indebted suffrage. If we were to ask them for their votes we should not get them, and vere we to thus demean ourselves we should receive their contempt as well as our own, and we would besides be the laughing stock of our political enemies. Then, the only course left us to pursue, to be consistent with our principles, ten thousand times proclaimed, to impore the negro vote entirely disclaim any intention of seeking to control it, and appeal solely to the white men of the country for support. We would not have a straw laid in the way of the black man exercising the right of suffrage in the fullest and freest manner ossible. The negroes are not to blame that the ballot has been put into their hands. They did not ask for it, if we except a few ambitious ones, such as Revels and Fred. Douglas, and now that they have got it, they have as many loubts as ever about their ability to ex-

negro and his Radical allies at the bal-

We, then, advise the Democratic party of this county to appeal to the white voter for support. As heretofore we will remain the white man's party, and unless we are greatly mistaken the appeal will not be made in vain. The Fifteenth Amendment came upon the country so suddenly that the people cannot yet realize the full effect of it. It does not stop at voting merely, for if it did the evil effect would not be so great, but it will be felt far beyond that. Equality at the ballot box means political equality in every sense of the word. Negroes will not be satisfied with simply voting they must hold office in Pennsylvania. Then they will be commissioned in the Army and Navy and white men's sons in these branches of the public service must be made subject to them. All disinction in the public schools must be proken down, and in every other place the negro will claim there shall be no difference made between him and the white man. Are the white men of this country willing to have this thing of negro suffrage carried out to its legitimate conclusion? We do not think they will be when they come to view it in all its naked deformity, but we believe they will repudiate it and maintain the onor of their race. As to the negroes, the mass of them are innocent of all wrong in this matter; they will be the heaviest sufferers. In the contest that must take p'ace they will be ground to powder between the upper and nether

How it Works .-- Kentucky, before he enfranchisement of the negroes, us ually gave from fifty to sixty thousand Democratic majority. The negro vote in that state is upwards of sixty thou sand, and was almost as an unit cast THE SIEGE OF PARIS for the Radical candidates at the election a week ago. Notwithstanding all this the Democratic majority is over fifty thousand. The feeling among the white Republicans against their party would have been just the same if there had been but ten thousand negro votes in the state, and in consequence the Democratic majority would have been over one hundred thousand. Tens and hundreds of thousands of honest, rightminded republicans are so disgusted with their party on account of its nigger business, that they will never again vote with it. They will either join the Democracy at once and outright, or ally themselves with the third party, or Conservative republican movement, already so popular in many states. In either case the Democracy win.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL FARRAGUT.-Admiral David Glascoe Farragut, of the United States Navy, died at Portsouth, New Hampshire, at 12 o'clock, on Sunday, Aug. 14th, in thesixty-ninth year of his age. He was born near Knoxville, Tennessee, on the 5th of July, 1801; made his first cruise in the famous frigate Essex; saw service on the South American coast; in September, 1855, was promoted to the rank of Captain, took charge of the squadron for the capture of New Orleans; was made Rear Admiral July 11, 1862, and in 1864 was made Vice Admiral, and subsequentty was promoted to the rank of Admiral. He was in every respect a staunch, true and noble man, honored ooth at home and abroad.

WHEN the Radicals prate about the conomy of the present Administration. and quote Secretary Boutwell's month v statement to prove that the public debt is being reduced, just ask them how? It certainly cannot be fairly claimed that the debt is extinguished because all the United States bonds so ought are not lying in the United States Treasury uncancelled, subject to be stolen by these Radicals, whose integrity and honesty is now so much questioned. Lately there was $20,000 in greenbacks stolen from the Treasury in broad daylight. If such a thing can be done, why not steal uncancelled bonds as well. They have recently reinstated the odious income tax, to filch the last cent from the over-burden taxpayers, that they may make the paying of the debt a hobby. Cancel these bonds effectually, so there can be no further fear of their being stolen.

TWO MORE THIEVING RADICAL CON GRESSMEN CAUGHT.—Two more of the Radical Congressional thieves have been detected in their crimes. Roderick Random Butler, of Tennessee, and fellow elected from Georgia, who rejoices in the title of Judge Wimley, have been caught stealing money be longing to the widows of deceased solliers. The pension officers are said to have the proof dead on the rascals, and they are to be arrested party of great moral ideas" composed. A IFAVY negro vote was polled in Louisville, Newport and Covington, Kentucky, at the elections in those places the other day, yet the democratic majorities in all of them has been increased. Newport and Covington have heretofore voted radi al. Louisville goes democratic by a larger vote than ever before. The negroes uniformly voted the radical ticket, but the white republicans didn't. The story of Connectiont. New Yor's and Oregon, is repeated in Kentucky.

THE following is a list of the coming fall elections and the dat s on which they occur:

nothing was select of King White attack Marshal Bazaine, and if possible, to drive him from his position into Metz, or use him up and put him of light towards Verdun and C alons,

This movement was promptly initiated, and hence the bloody, desperate, and continuous fighting near Mirs-le-Tour, Rezonville, and Gravelotte, three little villages west of Metz on the night road to villages west of Metz on the nighroad to Verdun. In order to get a paper understanding it is necessary to refer to maps, and to bear in mind that it was not one battle, but a series of battles which have been fought, and in which, while both sides claim success, actually no decisive victory, with far-reaching results, has been won by either side.

King William of Prussia, from the headquarters of the Prussian army upon the battle field, has telegraphed the following account of the battle of Rezonville, to Queen. Augusta, which was received Queen Augusta, which was receive

These battles, when the full details shall have teached us, will be found to have been bloody and fearful in the extreme, literally a butchery of the flower of two great nations and leaving the situation of affairs almost unchanged, for it is then that Marshal Bazaine has been able tion of affairs almost unchanged, for it is clear that Marshal Bazaine has been able orbold his position, and has not been beaten like MacMahon into a retreat, and is still threatening, and preventing a lurther advance of the Crown Prince towards, Chalons, and Paris; and King William, in order to be able to move on will have to attack Marshal Bazine again and again, for there is now nothing left to him but complete victory or retreat.

He has his heal-quarters at Point-a, Mousson, where, according to the latest news, the Crown Prince has joined him. Thus we find all the German commanders met in a council of war, on the line of the Moselle, south of Metz; and we repeat that, taking into consideration the enormous losses which both sides have suffered—and particularly the Germans—that, therefore, it is very possible that active operations in the field will have to cease for some few days, may be weeks, in order to fill up the shattered ranks of both armies and to replace the exhausted supplies.
