

American Volunteer. CARLISLE, PA. Thursday Morning, Nov. 10, 1870. THE SOBER SECOND THOUGHT.

Judging from present indications, we may conclude that the people are no longer desirous in this country. The Radicals themselves are disorganized and demoralized in nearly every State, and the better portion of them are forsaking the "fool party" by thousands. Until recently this false and unreasonable "adhesive power of public plunder."

It is time that this party or faction should be repudiated by a decided, betrayed and outraged people. It is time that the junketing Grant should be made to understand that pleasure seeking and debauchery are not duties belonging to the office of President of the United States.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

In eleven States elections have been held for members of the Forty-second Congress, exclusive of South Carolina, where Governor Scott is still counting up the returns. The Democrats have gained five members in Pennsylvania, four in North Carolina, two in West Virginia, and one in Indiana—a total of twelve. Last year members of the Forty-first and Forty-second Congress were chosen at the same election in Mississippi, under one of the ingenious reconstruction frauds, and the gentle persuasion of the bayonets of Ames.

One of the important results of this great victory of the people, is that Senator Morton does not go abroad as Minister to England. When that appointment was made, Grant and Mor on the one hand, and the radical chieftains on the other, were hatched. Indiana before must stay at home in order to prevent the will of the people of Indiana from finding expression in the election of Thomas A. Hendricks, or some other Democrat, to the Senate of the United States.

Bloody Riot at Norfolk.—On Wednesday last, a bloody riot took place between blacks and whites at a meeting in Norfolk, convened to listen to radical speeches from a delegation from Washington. The row commenced while "Professor" Langston, negro, was making his speech. Fire arms were freely used, when General disorder ensued. A number of men were severely injured, and next day a negro was found dead in an adjoining alley badly cut.

Negro Victim, in many places has sorely plagued the inventors. In the township of Radnor, Delaware last year was 35. This year they polled eleven negro votes, and the Democratic majority is 70—a change of 101!

AN ELECTION AT THE SOUTH.

We alluded last week to the splendid Radical victory in South Carolina, whereby Scott was elected Governor and two or three negroes sent to Congress. How this victory was gained may be ascertained from the following extract from a letter written at Columbia, in that State:

"The result is the actual subversion and overthrow of the Government of South Carolina. On the seaboard and islands the negroes, in savage crowds, held the whites in terror, and with arms in hand their brutal mobs attacked, beat, and drove the whites from their homes. In the middle counties the negro militia did the same service, and by using force they were seen to vote, while many voters were not allowed to vote at all. Not only voters, but felons, well known convicts for burglary, grand larceny, &c., voted, and received their ballots from five to ten votes each. The conservative negroes only exhibited their sentiments by their votes, and were not allowed to vote at all. In the upper counties, where the white population is in the ascendency, the people were betrayed by Grant's agents in addition to Scott's negro militia. The law of violence and intimidation controlled the electoral process. Negroes of the seaboard, negro militia of the middle counties, and negro militia of the lower counties in the upper country. It is ridiculous to call this an election."

On the second Monday 11 December next the people of Georgia, one of the original thirteen States, will exercise their rights as voters of the Revolution, and have been generously permitted, by a Radical Congress, to hold an election under a new law, which enacts three days voting, so as to rotate the negroes from poll to poll, forbids all challenges, authorizes Governor Bullock to appoint as he pleases, and to make and like no higher penalty than $100 on the withholding of any county record, which will enable all the Democratic majorities to be thrown out cheap.

It is made the duty of the United States to guarantee to every State a republican government, but Congress seems to have interpreted it to mean that it should establish by force, fair or foul, the Radical party in power. The annals of the United States, or of any other nation, do not furnish so rascally a contrivance to defeat the will of the people as the above. We never saw before such an open and unblushing premium paid to fraud and rascality, such an extension of the franchise, and such a violation of the rights of the citizen. It would have been more honest for Congress to have directly authorized Governor Bullock to appoint his officers to all positions than to do it in this flagitious, indirect manner.

THE INDIANA ELECTION.

The Harrisburg Patriot says that the Radical newspapers have been giving themselves much trouble to make a middle of the election of Indiana. But with all the efforts of the State, it is found impossible to carry the State. The results of the Democratic victory are thus summed up: The Democratic candidate for Secretary of State is elected by 2,458 majority on the official count. Four Democrats chosen to the bench of the Supreme Court. On the Congress of Indiana the Democratic majority is 7,255, and the Radicals have a majority of one in the delegation to Congress. These figures prove that under a just apportionment the majority of one would be on the Democratic side. The State Legislature is Democratic on joint ballot. This is the verdict of the people of Indiana on the fraud by which that State was counted for the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment.

One of the important results of this great victory of the people, is that Senator Morton does not go abroad as Minister to England. When that appointment was made, Grant and Mor on the one hand, and the radical chieftains on the other, were hatched. Indiana before must stay at home in order to prevent the will of the people of Indiana from finding expression in the election of Thomas A. Hendricks, or some other Democrat, to the Senate of the United States.

SECRETARY COX.

The resignation of Secretary Cox is another of the movements on the part of the leading men of the Radical party which indicates their rapacious thirst for plunder. Mr. Cox, in his letter of resignation addressed to the President, says:

"The removal of the Indian service from the sphere of ordinary political patronage, has been peculiarly distasteful to many individual men in both houses, and it is not surprising that they have passed out successfully. I am satisfied that you might not be embarrassed by any other cause of irritation in your department. My views of the necessity of reform in the civil service have been expressed in some of our private political managers, and my sense of duty has obliged me to oppose some of their motives of action through the department."

It is the matter of a nutshell. Secretary Cox we believe to be an honest and conscientious man, who in the discharge of his official duties was actuated solely by a desire to promote the public interest, and save the Treasury from the enormous waste which is continually crowding around it, ever eager to thrust in their heads, and never satisfied unless engaged in the work of plundering it. To these rapacious individuals President Grant dared not oppose himself; but, with characteristic weakness, he winked at the driving from his Cabinet of a faithful and efficient officer. The "active political managers" of which Mr. Cox speaks were too persistent in their demands to allow the President to exercise his discretion in this important matter. He yielded to their importunities, and thereby deprived the Department of the Interior of an able and certainly conscientious head. Such movements may suit the present purposes of the leaders of the party, but they will not prove advantageous to them in the end. We congratulate Secretary Cox upon his retirement from a position which could not but have been distasteful to a gentleman whose desires, like his, were to serve the people honestly.

Is "THE WAR TO GO ON?"—A few days ago, when it was announced that Blunt and Thiers had settled upon an armistice of twenty-five days, it was hoped that the war itself was at an end. But little doubt was entertained as to the armistice itself, as some such thing is a vital necessity for France, and the granting it (if it had been granted) was regarded by anxious men as a piece of sound policy on the part of the President. So happened, however, that the world had scarcely expended its first felicitations upon this promising event, before we received the less welcome news that the conditions of the armistice were not acceptable to some of the French authorities, that negotiations were broken off, and the war is to go on. It is not yet clear what were the precise conditions demanded on either side, except by anonymous rumor; nor is it accurately known what conditions were accepted or refused by either the French or the Prussians. And indeed one of the latest phases of the news from the other side is that there is still some chance that the negotiations may possibly be resumed. But at the hour when this is written the chances seem to be against the armistice.

STATS ITEMS.

The census Marshals give the population of Harrisburg at a little over 25,000. Bedford county papers are in ecstasies over a new brass band. The population of Philadelphia is 57,170—an increase since 1860 of 61,050. A colored woman named Julia Ann Cunniff, died in Meade recently, whose age was supposed to be 100 years. A boy named Morrissey, at Briar Hill, Erie county, had both his legs cut off while trying to jump on a moving train. A girl named Shepley, aged about 14 years, fell into the canal lock at Milltown, on Monday, while crossing on a plank, and was drowned. Joseph Morrison, late proprietor of the Morrison House, of Huntington, died on Wednesday night about 9 o'clock, from injuries received on the railroad on Monday evening last. A few days ago Mr. Catharine Spitzer, of East Buffalo, near Lewistown, was pecked upon the face of the hand by a chicken, causing a slight abrasion of the skin. The wound caused erysipelas, which increased until death ensued on Monday evening last. Two fatal accidents occurred in Snyder county last week. William Hummel, aged ten years, was killed in the throat by a horse, and died in the hospital of Edward Row, of Penn township, was run over by a wagon, and died from the effects of his injuries. On the 16th ult., Benjamin Shuman, of Lurgan township, Franklin county, committed suicide by hanging himself to a pine tree in the woods of Mr. Samuel Mowry, near Roxbury. He was 72 years of age. A disastrous fire occurred at the borough of Parkersburg, on Thursday of last week, consuming a large portion of the city, and resulting in the loss of $1,000,000. The fire started on a trip to Europe, extending to be absent about a year. Red Cloud, the Sioux Chief, says he is in the hands of the Great Father Grant, at Washington; wherein several of the leading Radical papers think that God's hand is evident.

PERSONAL.

Pullman, of "Palace Car" fame, is to have a $100,000 house in Chicago. The Herald wants Napoleon to come to New York and spend his money. Senator Morrill is very low. He is suffering from complete nervous prostration. Jefferson Davis was at Bethlehem last week on a visit to his niece, the widow of John Bull, and the wife of Edward Row, of Penn township, was run over by a wagon, and died from the effects of his injuries. Napoleon's latest achievement at Wilhelmshafen was the ordering of seventy silk hats for himself and suite. In consequence of the death of his wife, the Countess of Chester, the Count started on a trip to Europe, extending to be absent about a year. Red Cloud, the Sioux Chief, says he is in the hands of the Great Father Grant, at Washington; wherein several of the leading Radical papers think that God's hand is evident.
