In the meantime, those samtickets with those containing the names and city corner bits, "marked Grant," of candidates for State offices, and be of whom Summer spoke, are still on hand.

> Grant's supporters are sadly dejected over the manifest demoralization of the Radical party in the South. In Texas, the Senators are making war upon Gov. Davis. In Arkansas Clayton is trying to oust McDonald from his scat in the Senate. In South Carolina, Scott, the Governor, is at open war with the entire Congressional delegation from that State. THE POSTAL REPORM BILL Passed the House finally on Wednesprivilege heretofore enjoyed by members of Congress and heads of departments is prohibited after July 1, 1871. An amendment offered by Mr. Welker. allowing newspapers to be sent fre e of charge to actual subscribers within the county where they are published, and between publishers, was adopted aftersome debate for and against. The press and the public at large owe Mr. Welker a debt of gratitude four insisting upon his amendment. The Bill as it passed is an important one, and its friends contend that it will effect a saving to the government of several hundred thousand dollars annually. The vote on the final possage of the bill, after Mr. Welker's amendment had been adopted, was as follows:

The Harrisburg Patriot.

As our State Legislature will soon convene, we take occasion to say that this is a favorable time to subscribe for the Harrisburg Patriot. The next session will be one of unusual interest. The State will be re-districted for menibers, and there will be other measures. of great importance, considered and acted upon. The "Patriot" will report the proceedings of importance, and thus keep its readers posted on the action of our law makers. JOURNALISM.—The Easton 'Weekly Argus" and the Easton "Correspondent and Democrat" will hereafter, be issued from the same office by the new firm of .Cole, Morwitz & Co., both journals to be under the editorial management of Mr. James F. Shunk. This concentration of time, labor and capital upon the ommon object of making these two beneficial results, that the separate proprietors with divided means could not attempt. The Argus has always been an able and influential Democratic paper, and we believe that under the new arrangement the sphere of its usefulness will be much enlarged, Specie Resumption.—The bill offered by Mr. Lynch, of Maine, will be considered at an early day in the House Committee on Banking and Currency, though it is the opinion of most members that it would be unwise to in any way disturb existing conditions at this session. Resumption, however, under Mr. Lynch's plan, would, it is conceded. be gradual and sure. Hence the measure regarded with interest. All greenbacks received at the Treasury are to be destroyed, and gold-bearing notes, payable in twelve months, issued in their place. Banks are to redeem their cur-rency in legal tender, which, wher paid into the Treasury, is to be destroyed and replaced, under stipulated conditions, by the gold-bearing notes.

THE Republican newspapers expected so little in the Message of Grant that most of them seem to be satisfied with among the negroes in the South, and it is a period in which they give themselves up to all sorts of dissipation and extravagant frolicking. At this time and in this mood, the darkies are expected to vote enthusiastically and frequently.

"Equal rights in the schools," was one of the inscriptions on the banners carried by the negroes in their parade at Pittsburgh, a few days since. Get your children ready to sit by the side of the old proverb, which says: "Blessed are they which expect nothing, for the picaninnies."
