SENATOR DECEMBE.

The Philadelphia Isiquirer, a very hile Republican organ, in speaking of Colonel Dechert's election to the State Senate, says:

Senate, says:

'We believe that he (Col. Dechert), will prove an able and honest legislator,
and there is no doubt that Pennsylvania as at present in very pressing need of just such men in her begislature. Out of this political revolution in the First District
Livat good may inure to the State. mien and men of character, in our State

True enough, we are in need of honest Legislature. For many years-ever since the Radicals have, through the workings of an infamous apportionment gerrymander-been in the majority in the Legislature, we have had bribery and corruption in that body. It has become so notorious that no bill, the its merits or demerits what they may,) can pass without the aid of corcuption money, that no one pretends to such legislation without first sounding to. It has been a political lazar-house, a sink of iniquity from the hour the Radicals obtained the majority. To be elected U.S. Senator or State Treasurer, easts from fifty to a hundred thousand dollars. Fitness for the office is not thought of. The man who bids the most is sure of success. Perhaps this is what our Radical friends would call progress," but it is a progress that saps the foundation of the republic and eauses demoralization and debauchery among the people. It was not formerly lainy in Pennsylvania, It would really seem as if Providence had interfered to protect the people of this Commonwealth from further outrages, by the removal of Mr. Watt from the sent which he obtained by one of the grossest frauds on record. The Democratic members of the coming Legislature will

During the recent debate in the U.S. Senate on Grant's "job" for the purchase of an Domings. Mr. Summer pounced upon the President and literally demoralized him. He boldly charged that the President's anxiety for the acquisition of San Domingo was to Mr Summer, (and there is no man in the country who will doubt the truth of every assertion he makes in regard this matter.) the first treaty illegitmate origin with three political jockeys, lawtess violence had already been gom-Baeyz, Fabens and Cazeneau, who as sociated with them General Babcock who went under the high sounding tithe of " Aid-de camp to U. S Grant President of the United States, and his special agent to the Republic of Dominlea." Babcock entered into a negotiation for the purchase of the entire territory of the Republic of Dominica from Baevz. Mr. Summer proves very con clusively that Babcock had no authoriby to make such agreement, and that Pacyz had neither the right por the power to effect the proposed transfer. He shows that Bacyz has been and still. is maintained in temporary power by United States ships of war, which have been kept on the coast of San Doming by Grant, at an enormous cost, for a year post then the people do not de -iro to be annexed to the United States. and that the project which is being so strongly pushed by Grant is bare-faced robbery.

The truth is, there are between ten included in this sun Domingo Job, and Grant is determined to secure his portion of it, and to help his confederates in their share of the plunder. This is the real reason for the extreme anxiety he has manifested, and for the obstinacy with strongly pushed by Grant is bare-faced. reason for the extreme anxiety he has manifested, and for the obstinacy with which he adheres to the scheme. Beaten in the attempt to force the illegitimate treaty concected by Babcock through the Sanate he has resorted to an illegal. the Senate, he has resorted to an illegal method of accomplishing the proposed robbery. He has shown that he has gower enough to control a unjority of the Senate, and it is not likely that there will be more virtue found in the House. He is jubilant over the passage of the resolution which authorized him to send out a committee, packed for the express purpose of bringing back a favorable report, but the end is not yet. There will be another desperate fight before the proposed outrage is finally consummated, and the whole country will be made to ring louder with other speeches from houest Republican Congressmen. Grant may force his paljob through, but it will be at the sacrifice of his own honor and over the grave of the Republican purty. The ablest Republican consumer dispersion of the dispersion of the figure of the figure of the dispersion of the d express purpose of bringing back a nosition to this corrupt job.

Corruption in our Legislature is of late years—a hadieal spawn. The Inquirer is quite right then, when it admits that the election of the upright man and unflinehing Democrat, Col. Dechert, may bring great good to the State. The Senate is now Democratic, and in that branch at least the "roosteys" and "pinchers" will be in the minority. The election of Col. Dechert struck the death-knell of political villaling in Pennsylvania. The Fire at Franklin.

Franklin, Pa., Dec. 30.—A fire broke out in the Marshall House, at the foot of Tenth street, about 11:30 this A. M. It destroyed the Marshall House, the toll house, and heated the guy cables to the wire bridge, so that it fell into the river. About twenty persons were on the bridge at the time, and several supposed to have been killed. One man was brought to the shore alive but there are no hopes of his recovery. No other bodies have been found yet, but probably will be as soon as any way can be found to cross the river. The following are the names of the

The first floor was occupied by Sellers & Suloulf, dealers in dry goods, hardware, paint, & They had in store a very large stock of oils and other inflamable matter. The second floor, which was on a level with the rising street, was occupied by Gravbill & Shelby, with dry goods and notions. They had a very large stock of goods amounting to at least $40,000, and lost everything. Adjoining, in the same building, was the hardware firm of Wearam & Co., with a very extensive stock of goods in their line. Everything in their store was destroyed, amounting to several thousand dollars. The third story was occupied by Troquois Tribe No 42, L.O. R.
