

American Volunteer

CARLISLE, PA. Thursday Evening, July 26, 1871.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKETS. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL. GEN. WM. MCANDLESS.

FOR SUPERVISOR GENERAL. CAPT. JAMES H. COOPER.

The Volunteer for the Campaign.

FOUR MONTHS FOR FIFTY CENTS IN ADVANCE.

In view of the importance of the approaching political campaign in this State, we have determined to offer the VOLUNTEER at a reduced price during the campaign to all new subscribers...

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY MEETINGS.

CARLISLE, July 13, 1871. In accordance with the provisions of the Crawford County System, the Democratic voters of Cumberland county will be held in every District of said county...

THE CRAWFORD COUNTY SYSTEM. The members of the Crawford County System, as adopted by the Democratic party of Cumberland county, are hereby published for the benefit of the voters...

THE CANVASS IN OHIO. In Ohio the Democrats are preparing for a vigorous campaign against Radicalism. Hon. A. G. Thurman, one of the most able and experienced statesmen in the country, is chairman of the State Central Committee.

IT IS a notorious fact that at the close of the late rebellion numerous war supplies, including horses, mules, &c., were stored in the different government warehouses, and that they have all been disposed of since.

THE RIGHT DOCTRINE.—The late Democratic Convention of Kentucky, which represented nearly all the white people of that State, adopted a declaration of principles, which declares, among other Democratic doctrines, that the Democratic party of the State pledges itself to put down all infractions of the law, whether Ku klux or otherwise, by the power of the State courts and the stern administration of the State laws.

Not a Candidate.—At his own request we withdraw the name of Mr. Henry Manning, of Newton township, as a candidate for Assembly. Mr. M. in a letter to us, says that he finds that his business engagements render it impossible for him to canvass the county, and he is satisfied that the support he would receive, if he were to retire from the field, and at the same time return his thanks to those who had expressed a preference for him.

PAID REBELLION.

A hiring correspondent of Forney's Press, writing from Columbia, South Carolina, under date of July 5, thus speaks of the doings of the Ku klux in that State:

Words of Ku klux outrages come in thick and fast. The city is filled with refugees driven from their homes, and with wives and children of murdered husbands, and the names of the authors of the crime are everywhere. From what I have learned in the last day or two, I venture to add that the Ku klux are not only the authors of these heinous crimes, but also the authors of the outrages which are occurring every day.

It will be seen that this whiff of correspondence mentions no particular instance, no particular locality, where the "outrages" of which he speaks occurred. This is the invariable style of the paid correspondents down South. Most of them are office-holders—carpet baggers—who are working for their bread and butter.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives. Had it not been for these forged certificates, of course Mrs. Bowen No. 3 would never have consented to become his wife.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

BIGAMY BOWEN PARDONED!

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

General Grant has pardoned the notorious Bowen, who had been convicted of bigamy by a jury of the District of Columbia. On the trial it was shown that Bowen has now three living wives. Forged certificates prepared, going to show that he had been divorced from his two former wives.

A VOICE FROM McCLILLAN.

The letter from Gen. McClellan, read at the Tammany celebration of 'the glorious Fourth,' deserves more than a passing notice. The general begins by clearing away the decayed rubbish of dead issues. He then enters upon the consideration of the living future.

Most persons seem to think that a good General is necessarily a bad politician. This notion is absurd and contradictory. Julius Caesar, Napoleon I., Washington, the Duke of Wellington, Jackson, and Nelson were all as distinguished in civil careers as on a court martial, or in the field. Indeed, a good head is the same everywhere. McClellan is no exception to the rule, as his most excellent letter shows.

Passing from defunct questions, the general, first of all, recommends a return to specie payments. Even Lowe, the English Chancellor of the Exchequer, has, in introducing his budget, dwelt upon the folly of our retaining an unconvertible currency. This is one of the points, however, on which the Republican conversion seems to be out of the question.

The general next goes for the maintenance of the national credit, and the terms of the debt, though not all at once. Expenditures should be reduced. Taxation should be confined to present wants, and the principal of the debt should be left to be paid off by a larger and richer population. We are not sufficiently recovered from the effects of the war to pursue the course so acceptable to the monopolists of paying the debt off at once. Universal amnesty and a return to specie payments are the first things to be done.

Among the other electioneering documents being circulated by the Radical managers, is a pamphlet in favor of annexation to the Dominion. When Grant discovered that his pet scheme was about to be ignominiously defeated, he took the back track, and tried to lay all the responsibility upon 'the people.' This was only a ruse to blind the eyes of the voting community.

Gen. McCandless performed his military services on the battle field—Col. Stanton performed his as a medical director of an Ohio hospital. General McCandless was promoted because of his brave deeds as a soldier—Col. Stanton because he was the 'nephew of his uncle,' the Secretary of War.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

CHANGE THE PLACE.

The Ku klux investigation has thus far been a fizzle most lamentable to the Republican party. A mountain of testimony has been taken, and nothing larger than a mouse discovered.

This investigation establishes beyond question the correctness of the position taken against the passage of that outrageous and despotic law by the Democratic press throughout the country. We respectfully submit, then, that it is proper now that the President should call off the dogs and let the Southern people alone.

The order of Police Superintendent Keefe, forbidding the Orange party from having been revoked by Gov. Hoffman, who had come from New York, and protection having been promised to the procession by the Mayor, and also by Gov. Randolph, of New Jersey, in regard to his own State, the parade came off accordingly.

When Thomas Jefferson delivered his first inaugural address, he laid down what he conceived to be the principles of government. They form the best platform of the Republic, and the fullest extent possible by the military and police authorities. A military and police escort will be furnished to the body of men desiring it, on application to me at my headquarters (which will be at Police Headquarters) by this city, at any time during the day.

Gen. McCandless performed his military services on the battle field—Col. Stanton performed his as a medical director of an Ohio hospital. General McCandless was promoted because of his brave deeds as a soldier—Col. Stanton because he was the 'nephew of his uncle,' the Secretary of War.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

General Sherman, at the recent Commencement exercises of the College at Georgetown, made a speech to the students, in which he expressed his regret that the Union had been divided, and that it would always fall, and it would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as the South.

New York Riots!

Severe Fighting in the Streets. Many Persons Killed or Wounded. Wednesday last, 12th inst., was the day for the annual parade of the Orange party, or Protestant Irishmen, in New York and elsewhere.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

The Orange procession ended in Fourth Street, where it was broken up by the police. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed. The rioters were broken up, and the Orange party were dispersed.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY, R. R. EXCURSION. THE THIRD ANNUAL CAMP MEETING FOR THE CARLISLE DISTRICT. Methodist Episcopal Church.

NEAR OAKVILLE STATION, COMMENCING WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, AND CONTINUING THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1871. The Cumberland Valley Railroad Company will issue.

ROUND TRIP TICKETS. During the continuance of the Meeting, we will give round trip tickets for $2.00, leaving Carlisle Station on Wednesday, August 2, and returning on Thursday, August 3, 1871.

EXTRA TRAINS. From Chambersburg and Newville. ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1871. From Chambersburg and Carlisle. ON WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1871.

PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE IT. One bottle of Rosadalis will cure more than ten bottles of other medicine.

THE UNDERSIGNED PHYSICIAN. DR. J. J. BOYKIN, of Baltimore, Md., has used Rosadalis in his practice for the past five years, and all cases of it, as a reliable Alternative and Blood Purifier.

APPROVED. Approved the Resolutions of the Convention of the Constitution of Pennsylvania. J. W. GEARY, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

ARIY VIEW ACADEMY. PERRYVILLE, JUNIATA COUNTY, PA. For Male and Female Pupils.

DR. CLEMENTS & CO. BALTIMORE, Md. Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists, and is a certain cure for Scrophulous, Syphilitic, Rheumatic, Rheumatism, Scurvy, Liver Complaint, and all cases of it, as a reliable Alternative and Blood Purifier.