DEATH OF JOHN NOBLE.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. JOHN NOBLE, a well known and much respected citizen of our town. He died at his residence in Pitt street, on Wednesday last week (July 18). Mr. N. was sixty-seven years of age, and had been active as a business man for some forty-six years. He was known to every man, to every man in Cumberland county, and was noted for his hospitality and cleverness. Like his father before him, he was the contractor for supplying the Carlisle Garrison with beef, and we have heard it said that notwithstanding his many settlements with the government, he never had a dispute concerning his bills. Mr. N. was a man of warm and generous impulses, and his name has been mentioned in connection with the late war. In all his dealings John Noble was a fair and upright man, and his heart was in his hand and his hand open to the poor and needy. He leaves a very large estate, real and personal, to be divided between three heirs. Mr. N.'s funeral (on Friday last) was attended by an immense concourse of people, most of them, but many from the country.

DEATH OF A NATIVE OF CARLISLE.—Mrs. Jane T. Gerhart, wife of David Gerhart, died at Belleville, Ohio, on the 10th inst., in the 50th year of her age. She was born in Carlisle, June 9th, 1813, and went to Ohio in 1838, where she has resided ever since.

THOOPS BEST OFF.—Thursday last witnessed the departure of the last installment of troops from the Carlisle Barracks, under command of Capt. Peel. The company consisted of nearly one hundred men, and quite a number of women and children. The Carlisle Garrison has been "farewell" long farewell, to all its greatness. We will long look anxiously for that artillery company promised us by Senator Cameron.

LOOKING UP.—The editor of the Shippenburg News visited us on last week, and from some of his articles, we have viewed things through a pair of rose-colored spectacles. As to the nail factory and pudding furnaces, we trust his pretension may prove true. With our usual indignation, we Carlisle folks had again to think ourselves not half such good fellows as friend Wagner seems to think we are. Here is his complimentary notice:

While in Carlisle one day last week, in conversation with several of its enterprising and public-spirited citizens we were reliably informed that a project was on foot in that place for the erection, in a distant day, of a large manufacturing establishment, most probably a nail factory and pudding furnace. The plans are not all being fully matured, but as the preliminary arrangements have been made, the contemplated enterprise is met with ample encouragement. In fact, every citizen of Carlisle is in the midst of substantial improvement is manifest—new and beautiful dwellings, substantial business houses, and large and lighted streets, and heretofore, a residential town, are not excelled anywhere. From the interest manifested business circles, we think Carlisle will, in a few years, rank with any town in the State, in point of enterprise.

By the recent act of Congress, on and after July 19, the Post Office Department prohibited from printing the business and advertising notices of parties ordering their stamped envelopes. Under the old law, and the former regulations of the department, purchasers could have their stamps card or other advertisements printed upon stamped envelopes, with a request that the letter might be returned unopened. Against this regulation, we are endeavoring to have the law repealed, and Congress enacted that hereafter the printing should be confined to a simple request for a return of the letter to the sender.

Tax law gives a man the right to settle property on his wife to provide against her financial embarrassments, subject to certain conditions. He must be solvent at the time the conveyance is made, and able to pay all his outstanding liabilities without resort to the property settled to his wife. If that which he settles to his wife is necessary to satisfy the demands of his creditors, when he dies, or if the conveyance hinders his creditors in obtaining payment of their just claims, it will be set aside as fraudulent and void. This applies to all cases.

BARRS BURNED.—The lightning has done much damage this Summer in the State, some of which we chronicle in the number of our paper. Cumberland City, thus far, however, has been singularly exempt from destructive electrical storms.

WHEAT OF THE CROP OF 1871 IS BEING TAKEN UP.—Some of our mills and presses are busy.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.—The School Directors of South Middleton township have just built a handsome school house, adjoining the house at Pleasant Grove. It is intended to be used for a graded school. The house was built under contract by John C. Comfort, Esq., for about $1000. It is one of the most complete and comfortable looking buildings of the kind we have ever seen. The ceiling is high and vaulted—the windows are long and come down within two feet of the floor—and the four walls are covered with wainscoting to the height of two or three feet above the floor. A black and white covers one entire end of the building—at either side of the door is a retiring room, where the scholars can leave their overcoats and lunch baskets. As soon as the buildings are done, the house will be furnished with all the latest educational appliances, rendering it in all respects the most complete school house in Cumberland county. The carpenter work was done by Mr. James Coyle, of South Middleton, and the plastering by the Messrs. Thompson, of Carlisle, and speaks well for the workmen. If a little of the enterprise manifested by the South Middleton School Board was exhibited in other townships, it would be of immense advantage to the cause of education.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday afternoon, the workmen engaged in erecting the building for the Shoe Factory, on the corner of Main and Bedford streets, were lifting a heavy iron column into position, by means of a derrick. When the column was elevated some distance, one of the ropes suddenly parted, and the column fell over a pile of bricks, and the bricks partly broke the fall of the heavy mass of iron. As it was, he was severely bruised about the hip and back, but fortunately no bones were broken. Had the column fallen fairly upon him he would undoubtedly have been crushed to death. He will doubtless be confined to the house for some time, but may consider himself fortunate in getting off so easily—for it was a most miraculous escape.

POLICE ITEMS.—Margaret Ross, (col'd) was arrested on Friday last, by Officer Sanna, for being on battery on a boy named Blakey, and committed to jail by Justice Shryock.

A German, (name unknown), was arrested by the same officer, on Saturday night, on the corner of North and East streets, for being drunk and disorderly, and committed.

The same officer arrested Daniel Fisher, (col'd), for the larceny of a pocket book, containing three or four dollars. He was arrested at his appearance at the August Quarter Sessions.

A HORSE, wagon and harness were stolen from the residence of David Mitchell, in Middleburg, on Sunday night last. Mr. M. offers a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the thief. Several other farm houses were robbed on the same night. Any person having any information as to who the parties were who committed the thefts, can address Charles P. Sanna, Carlisle, or John Strickler, Middleburg, t.w.p.

THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY RAILROAD COMPANY.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad held in Warren, Va., on Tuesday the 10th inst., the following resolutions were adopted for the mortgage of the road, and the issuing of the bonds of the Company, based upon that mortgage, to the extent of $200,000 per mile immediately upon the whole line of the road from Hagerstown, in the State of Maryland, to the Tennessee line. Hon. J. Edgar Thompson, the President of the Company, was appointed to execute the mortgage, and the President of the Company, by the resolution of the meeting, has the appointment of the others.

THE MIRAMOR EXTENSION.—Captain Joseph M. Hill, Engineer of the Miramor Railroad, with an efficient corps of assistants, is now engaged in surveying the route for the extension of that road from Cleverburg, via Fayetteville, to Waynesboro, in Franklin County. The route is said to be entirely practicable, and much interest is manifested in its early completion by the citizens along the line of the road.—Broad Ax.

MRS ANN DUNBAR, only daughter of Augustus Dunbar, Esq., one of the proprietors of the Chesapeake Valley Spirit, died at Gettysburg on the 17th inst., of typhoid fever. She had gone on a visit only a few weeks before. She was a sweet and interesting young lady, and accompanied the editorial correspondence of the Spirit, winning many friends on the way.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Mellinger, of Penn township, one day last week, while riding on the bank of a hay wagon, received a severe blow on the head from the galloping of the wagon which fell on him. He was knocked senseless, and bled profusely, but has been able to resume work.

A DISEASE PREVALS IN THIS TOWN known as "high dry-phobia." When a young man gets it right he is seized with a desire for somebody to pay for his beer.

A UNION PIC-NIC of Shippenburg, Chambersburg, Fayetteville and Greenfield, on Wednesday, August 21st, will be held on Friday, the 21st inst., at the grove of Mr. Wm. Dice, near Scotland. It is expected there will be a brilliant shower of meteors between the 29th and 30th of this month, and everybody should get ready to watch the skies.

THE SOLDIER'S MONUMENT.—A meeting of the members of the Council of the Soldiers Monument Association of Cumberland County, was held on the 20th inst. The contractor, Mr. Richard Owen, reported that the monument was now nearly completed that day might be fixed for public celebration of the event.

The Council, therefore, resolved, that in commemoration of the patriotism and heroism of the Soldiers of Cumberland County, in whose honor this monument had been erected, the occasion should be marked by a military and civic parade, to be followed by the formal unveiling of the monument, and the delivering of an oration and other appropriate exercises.

On motion, Saturday the 19th of August, was fixed as the day. On motion, Gen. LEONARD TODD was elected Chief Marshal, with power to appoint Aid and Assistant Marshals, and to arrange all the details of the parade. The oration, it is confidently expected, will be pronounced by His Excellency GEN. JOHN W. GEARY, Governor of Pennsylvania.

On motion, Messrs. A. L. Spooner, D. P. W. Dale and John Campbell were appointed a Committee on Invitations. The procession will be composed of honorably discharged Soldiers of the war, Volunteer Military companies, the Masonic Order, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the various other Fraternities, and the various companies. It is specially requested that all returned Soldiers from the various boroughs and townships will appear in the procession, and thus honor the memory of their fallen comrades. It is suggested that the returned Soldiers of each place form companies, and wear a distinctive badge.

CONGRATULATING THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE MONUMENT.—The completion of this Monument, so eminently due to the gallant soldiers of Cumberland county, whose names are inscribed on its tablets in connection with the glorious battle-fields on which they fell, is a fitting memorial to the Monument Association would now ask the further co-operation of all classes of the community in making the ceremonies of the 19th of August as brilliant and imposing as possible.

A more detailed programme will be made public in due time.
