The American Volunteer.

BLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

BRATTON & KENNEDY OFFICE-ROUTH HARHET SQUARE. NMS:—Two Dollars per year if paid strictly ivance; Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if paid in three months; after which Three Dollars hin three more terms will be rigidly ad libe charged. These terms will be rigidly ad red to in every instance. No sub-cription dis tinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at ion of the Editor.

Professional Cards.

NITED STATES CLAIM EAL ESTATE AGENCY. WM. B. BUTLER, ATTORNET AT LAW, in Franklin House, South Hanover Street
le, Cumberland county, Penna, ilications by muil, will receive immediate ention articular attention given to the selling or rent-of Real Estate, in town or country. In all let-sof inquiry, please enclose postage stamp, uty it, 1870—ti

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, CARLISLE, PA.

TUMRICH & PARKER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Dec. 2 1868— EO. S. EMIG ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, East Main Street, CARLISLE, PA.

T KENNEDY, ATTORNEY AT LAW

R. GEORGE S. SEARIGHT, DEN-7. Office at the Faltimore College of his couther Street, three doors below 1

Wats and Caps

RESH A RRIVAL OF ALL THE NEW STYLES

HATS AND CAPS. The subscriber has just opened at No. 16 North anouer Street, a few doors North of the Carlisle epoatt Bank, one of the largest and best Stocks HATS and QAPS ever offered in Carlisle, slik Hats, Cassimere of all styles and qualities, iff Brims, different colors, and every desorip-ac CSO. Hats row most, of Sof. Hats now made, the Punkurit and Old Fashioned Brush, con ally or hand and made to order, all warrant to give satisfaction. A full assortment of

GENTS, BOY'S, AND CHILDREN'S, HATS. ve also added to my Stock, notions of differ kinds, consisting of ADJES' AND GENTLEMEN'S STOCKINGS

RIME SEGARS AND TOBACCO ALWAYS ON HAND. Give me a call, and examine my stock as I fee outdent of pleasing all, besides saving you mo JOHN A. KELLER, Agent, No. 16 North Hanover Street.

LIATS AND CAPSI

DO YOU WANT A NICE HAT OR CAP? IF SO, DON'T FAIL TO CALL ON
J. G. CALLIO,
NO. 29. WEST MAIN STREET, can be seen the fleet assortment o
HATS AND CAPS ever brought to Carliele. He takes great p bere in inviting his old friends and custom and all new ones, to his splendid x-ook just flived from New York and Philadelphia, of sixthing in part of flire.

silved from New York and Philadelphia, consisting in part of fine sisting in part of fine seldes an endless variety of Hata and Caps of the latest style, all of which he will sell at the latest style, all of which he will sell at the latest style, all of which he will sell at the latest style, all of which he will sell at the latest style, all of which he will sell at the Hata sha NURAJURENT for contaring Hat HATS HAN NURAJURENT for contaring Hat he shortest notice (as he colors every week), and will the unost reasonable terms. Also, a fine lot of dollars and sof

TOBACCO AND CIGARS
on hand. He desires to call the att atways on hand, He quote to persons who have COUNTRYFURS oll, as he pays the high isame.
Give him a call, at the above number, his ald stand, as he feels confident of giving entire satis-

Plumbers, &c.

HAMES CAMPBELL, I W. F. HENWOOD. CAMPBELL & HENWOOD,

PLUMBERS.

GAS AND STEAM FITTERS

No. 18 North Hanover St., CARLIBLE, PA.

BATH TUBS,
WATER CLOSETS,
WASH BASINS,
HYDRANTS,
LIFT AND FORCE PUMPS,
GISTERN AND DEEP WELL PUMPS,
GAS SHADES AND GLOSES &c., &c.

Lead, Iron and Terra Cotta Pipe

CHIMNEY TOPS and FLUES, or Steam and Water constantly on hand. WORK IN TOWN OR COUNTRY

BRASS WORK

Sep. 1, 70-1v

daving special advantages we are prepared

MOTIONS WHOLESALE AT CITY PRICES. GLOVES, CONSUMPENDERS, NECK TIES and NECK TI

SHIRT FRONTS, Cambric and Linen Handker-chiefs, L2nen and Paper Collars and Cuffs, Trimmings Braids, Spool Cotton. Walletts Combs, Stationary, Wrapping Paper and Paper Bags, Drugs, Soaps and Paramery, Shoe Black, Stove Polish, Indigo, Segars, &c., &c. COYLE BROTHERS, No. 24 South Hanover street, March 30, 1871—9m. Carlisle, Pa.

L. STERNER & BRO.. LIVERY AND SALE STABLE, BETWEEN HANOVER AND BEDFORF STS IN THE REAR OF BENTZ HOUSE,

CARLISLE, PA. Having fitted up the Stable with new Carriages, &c., I am prepared to furnian first-class turn-onts, at reusonable rates. Parties taken to and from the springs April 25, 1897,—29

Carlisle Deposit Bank, Carliste Deposit Bank, Carliste PA., May 2, 1871.
The Board of Directors have this day declared a Dividend of five per cent. for the past six months, on the Capital Stock, free from State and National Taxes, payable on demand.

May 4, 1871—3m

J. P. HASSLER, May 4, 1871-3m

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the IN undersigned, are hereby notified to call and settle the same before October 1, 1871, or the same will be given into the hands of a collector for collector. Aug. 8, 1871-tf

TOR SALE OR RENT.—A good two-story Brick House, No. 63 East North street, Apply to HENRY SNY! ER, or GEO WEIZEL, Carliele, Pa.

The American

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1871.

Poetical.

THE THREE LITTLE CHAIRS.

BY BRATTON & KENNEDY:

Medical.

ONE MILLION OF LIVES SAVED

A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC.

ne other than
Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Would you know more of the merits of this wonderful medicine than can be learned from the experience of others? Try ithyourself, and when it has falled to fulfil the assurance of its efficacy given by the proprietor, then abandon faith in it.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED.

BENEFICIAL ONLY

THEY PURIFY THE BLOOD.

Now, there are certain classes of persons where extreme there are not only unpaint to be the the the classifier of the the classifier persons of the classifier persons of the classifier person of the classifier of the classifier or his invaluable Tonic. He has prepared an other medicine, woich is rapidly winning it way to popular favor because of its intrinsi merits. This is ACIS DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER, stimulating its functions and causing it to mak its billiary secretions in regular and prope quantities. The injurious results which invarably follow the use of mercury is entirel avoided by their use, But it is not upon the Liver only that their powers are exerted. The extract of Mandrake contained in them is skil fully combined with four other extracts, one which acts upon the stomach, one upon the uper bowels, one upon the lower bowels, and on prevents any griping effect, thus producing a pithat inflences the digestive and alimentary system, ir an equal and harmonious manner, and its action entirely free from nauses, vomiting of griping pains common to all other purgatives. Possessing these much desirable qualities, the Podophyllin becomes invaluable as a FAMILY MEDICINE.

GERMAN BITTERS.

No household should be without them. The

No household should be without them. The are perfectly safe, require but two for an ordinary dose, are prompt and efficient in action, when used in connection with Dr. Hoodand German Bitters, or Toulo, may be regarded a certain specifics in all cases of Liver Complain Dyspepsia, or any of the disorders to which it system is ordinarily subject. The podophyllin Pilis.

act upon the stomach and bowels, carrying off improper obstractions, while the Bitters or Tonic purify the blood, strengthen and invigorate the irame, give tone and appetite to the stomach, and thus build up the invalid anew. Dr. Hoofland, having provided internal remedies for diseases, has given the world one main; ly for external application, in the wonderin preparation known as properties of the properties of the thing of the properties of the thing of the properties of is astonishing and they are increasing every day.

Taken internally, it is a oure for Heart-burns, Kidney Diseases, Blok Headaches, Collo, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pams in the Stomach, Colda, Asthma, &c.

The Greek Oil is composed entirely of healing gums and essential oils, The principal engrediship an oily substance, procured in the Southern part of Greece. Its effects as a destroyer of p. in are traly magacai. Thousands have been entitled and the principal engredians skepted will thoroughly convince them of the content will thoroughly convince them of the content of the principal office, at the German Medicine Store, No. 631 Arch St., Philadelphia.

##These remedies are for asie by dinguist orekeepers and medicine dealers everywher

Chas. M. Evans.

ACTS DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER.

HOOFLAND'S PODOPHYLLIN PILLS. a perfect substitute for mercury, without any of mercury's evil qualities. These wonderful Pills, which are intended to act upon the Liver, are maluly composed of Podophyllin, or the most generally prevalent discovery ed disease, Dyspepsia, THEY STAND UNRIVALED.

hey sat by the bright wood fire, The gray haired dame and the aged sire, Dreaming of days gone by;
The tear drops fell on each wrinkled cheek.
They both had thoughts they could not speak
And each heart uttered a sigh. For their sad and tearful eyes descried

It is one of the remarkable facts of this remarkable age, not merely that so many persons are the victims of dyspepsia or indigestion, but the victims of the victims with have of each of the victims of victims of the Against the sitting room wall;
Old fashloned enough as there they stood,
Their seats of flag and their frames of wood
With their backs so straight and tall. Then the sire shook his silvery head. And with trembling voice he gently said:
"Mother, these empty chairs;
They bring us Such sad, sad thoughs to-nigh
We'll put them forever out of sight, In the small, dark room up stairs."

A CONFIRMED DYSPEPPIC.
But it is not our intention to discont on the horrors of Dyspepsia. To describe them truthfully is shiply an impossibility, but it is possibly to point out a remedy. We have said that dyspepsia is perhaps the most universal of human discount of the said. This is emphatically the case in the United States. Whether this general provations of the the character of the food, the intention of the hasty manner to the food the proparation, or the hasty manner to the food the said of the s But she answered: "Father, no, not yet. For 1 look at them and I forget That the children are away; The boys come back, and our Mary, too. With her apron on, of checkered blue, And sit there every day. Johnny still whittles a ship's tall masts almost universality.

DYSPEPSIA PREVAILS

Nearly every other person you meet is a victim, an apparently willing one, for were this not the case, why so many sufferers, when a certain, speedy and safe remedy is within the easy reach of all who desire to avail themselves of it? But the majority will not. Blinded by prejudice, or deterred by some other unexplained influence, they refuse to accept the relief profered them. They turn a denfear to the testimony of the thousands whose suferings have been alleviated, and with strange infatuation, appear to cling with desperate determination to their ruthiess tormontor. But says a dyspeptic: What is this remedy? to which we reply: This great alleviated, almost as widely known as the English language. It has allayed the agonies of thousands, and is to-day carrying comfort and encouragement to thousands of others. This acknowledged panacea is none other than And Willie his leaden bullets costs, ... While Mary her patchwork sews; At evening the three childish prayers So up to God from these little chairs. So softly that no one knows, Johnny comes back from the billow deep, To say good night to me ;

Mary's a wife and mother no more

But a tired child whose playtime is o'er, And comes to rest at my knee. So let them stand there, though empty now and every time when alone we bow At the Father's throne to pray, We'll ask to meet the children above, In our Saviour's home of rest and love, Where no child goeth away."

Miscellaneous.

LOTTERY TICKET 3060. We were a party of six, a West African we were a party of six, a West African governor and his wife, a commissary general and his wife, a chief justice, and your humblesservant. A fever-stricken lot were we, and had just escaped with our lives from an epidemic, to recruit health and strength in the salubrious climate of Teneriffe, that beautiful island province of Old Spain.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED,
first of all, that Hoofland's Gorman Bitters is not a rum beverage.
They are not alcoholic in any sense of the term. They are composed wholly of the pure juice or vital principle of roots. This is not a mere assertion. The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the ablest German chomists. Unlike any other ablest German chomists. Unlike any other spirituous ingredients.
The objections which hold with so much force against preparatious of this class, namely—that a desire for intextcaling drinks is stimulated by their use, are not valid in the cose of the German Bitters. So far from encouraging or inculating a taste or desire for inobriating beverages, it may be confidently asserted that their tendency is in a diametrically opposite direction. Their efforts can be Teneritie, that beautiful island province of Old Spain.

We had money to spend; as why should we not, coming from the Gold and Ivory Coast? and only required health to enjoy it. We had great animal spirits, too, notice the spain of the province of the pr BENEFICIAL ONLY in all cases of the bilary system. Hoofland's German Bitters stand without an equal, acting promptly and vigorously upon the Liver, they remove its torpidity and cause healthful secretion of bile-thereby supplying the stomach with the most indispensable elements of sound digestion in proper proportions. They give tone to the stomach-stimulating its functions, and enabling it to perform its duties as nature designed it should do. They impart vigor and strength to the entire system, causing the patient to feel like another being—in fact, giving him a new lease of life.

THEY PIRITY THE BLOOD withstanding a manifest attenuation of our material persons, and were thoroughly determined, not a day should pass without its excitement, some excursion, or plenic, or supper party, or semething. We waited on the governor general, and were received with a flourish of trumpets, rather inconsistent with his excellency's occupation, as we came upon blm, coat off, lopping the dead leaves of his favorate tree camellia. Then his excellency and suite returned our call, when we happened to be out; which was better luck, I must say, than a repetition of the painful interview that had taken place in the saloon of the Government House, where broken English, and worse attempts at Spanish, had almost vithstanding a manifest attenuation of worse attempts at Spanish, had almos confounded and angered us into some confounded and angered us into something desperate.

Still, this was insufficient excitement, for emancipated coast officials. We required a fresh stimulant, something novel and startling and extravagant.

'I have it!' said the governor one morning, to our great relief, as we sat at breakfast, silent and moody around the table-d'hote of the only English hotel in Santa Cruz, 'just the very thing! What can be more wildly intensely delightful than—gambling?'

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIO has been specially prepared. It is intended for use where a slight alchobol stimulant is required in connection with the well-known Tonic ed in connection with the well-known Tonic that so flavored as to remove the extreme bitterness. This preparation is not only palatable, but combines, in modified form, all the virtues of the German Bitters. The solid extracts of some of Nature's choicest restoratives are held in solution by a spirituous agent of the puret quality. In cases of languor or excessive dobility, where the system appears to have become exchausted of its enemgies. exhausted of 118 enengies.

ROSTLAND'S TONIO

acts with almost marvelous effect. It not only stimulates the flagging and wasting energies, but invigorates and permanelly atrengthens its action upon the Liver and Stomach thorough perhaps less prompt than the Bitters, when the same quantity is taken is none the less certain. Indigestion, Billiousness, Physical or Nervous Prostrotion, yield readily to its potentinfluence. It gives the invalid a new and stronger hold upon life, removes depression of spirits, and inspires cheerfuldess, it supplants the pain of disease with the ease and comfort of perfect health. It gives strength to weakness, throw despondency to the winds, and starts the restored invalid upon a new and gladsome career. But Dr. Hoofmud's benefactions to the human race are not confined to his celebrated The ladies shuddered and looked disnayed. 'T don't mean that we should drop into the casino next door, and stake our sovereigns on the montetable; but why should we not go in for the lottery?'

'What lottery?' we all asked in a breath What lottery; we an assect in breath.
Why, the Madrid great prize lottery; see here is all about it.
And then he read aloud an English translation of a circular, setting forth the advantages and inducements of a ticket in the great lottery of the year; highest prize £20,000 sterling, and 150 other prizes ranging downwards so low as £10, but nothing short of that amount, the ticket itself costing the moderate sum of £7.

'Now, there are six of us,' he went on; 'and if I can induce Mr. Robinson, our landlord, to take the seventh share, it will only come to a pound, each, not much to lose but so much to gain. What say you all?'

Podophyllin, or the
VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE MANDRAKE
ROOT. Of course we agreed; and our chief Of course we agreed; and our chief sallied forth to confer with our host and to purchase the ticket.

'It's all right, I have it, very well, I went in time, for it was the very last left; how lucky we are!' exclaimed the governor on his return, a few hours later; and he flourished the lottery ticket before our eyes.

'I hope it will stick to us.' remarked the judge, doubtingly.
'It is sure to be a prize.' propheised our sanguine Irlsh friend, the commissary general.

'At all events, 'never venture, never ROOT.

Now we desire the reader to distinctly understand that this extract of the Mandrake is many times more powerful than the Mandrake itself it is the medicinal virtues of this heath-giving plant in a perfectly pure and highly concentrated form. Hence it is that two of the Podophylin Pills constitute a full dose, while anywhere six to eight or a handral of other preparations of the Mandrake are required. The Phodophylin

'At all events, 'never venture, never have,' I added, hopefully; but the ladies remained silent.

remained silent.

'And now,' continued the governor, since we cannot possibly learn the result for some weeks, suppose we pass the time elsewhere than in this hot city. We have seen all that is to be seen; and, for my part, I am sick of the cathedral, and crowded plazza, and the mole, and Nelson's wound.* We want rest and refreshing breezes in the highlands; let us betake ourselves to the mountain brow, to Oratava, the Villa of the Peak.'

The proposition was bailed with the to Oratava, the Villa of the Peak.'
The proposition was bailed with the delight of people who had nothing better to suggest; but a difficulty presented itself at the outset, in the fact that none of us except the chief justice, understood a word of the language; and in a Spanish hotel we should be all adrift.

However, in our distress and perplexity, always a mathematical itself in the a deus ex machina presented itself in the person of an English speaking Spanish gehtleman, who came to call upon us; and, on the case being stated to him, he informed us that he was himself desirous of visiting Oratava, and would gladly do

Accordingly next day saw us wending our way across the island, in an omnibus Accordingly next day saw us wending our way across the Island, in an omnibus drawn by a triangular arrangement, of first a mule, as leader, then two mules, and then two horses in the shafts. The day was bright, warm and exhilerating, the pace rapid, and the scenery exquisite and sublime; more especially when we reached an elevated plateau that commanded a full view of the far famed Peak, and the iron-bound coast line far as the eye could reach washed by mightlest breakers. But I have no intention of baing descriptive, abler peus than mine leat breakers. But I have no mental to being descriptive, abler pens than mine have failed in the attempt, to word-paint this garden of the Hesperides; I am only lingering en route in a tantalizing mood, to pile up your agony as regards 'No. 3060.'

'No. 3060.'

Our days passed pleasantly at Oratava. There were gardens to visit, ferns to collect, and an antiddiluvian tree to gaze wonderfully at in its grand decay. We took long rides, too, in the neighborhood; and actually handled the lava that in days of yore, had swept down the sides of the great mountain. We descended into the sultry lowlands, and we climbed the snow capped Peak, thus diversifying our temperature within the hour.

For there may be snow on the mountain top. days of yore, had swept down the sides of the great mountain. We descended into the sultry lowlands, and we climbed the snow capped Peak, thus diversifying our temperature within the hour.

"For there may be snow on the mountain top," while there's heat in the valley below."

Time passed unnoticed by all except by two of us, myself and our worthy friend a Lord Nelson lost his right arm at the assault on Santa Cruz, Tenerino, 1798.

But the ball had been set a rolling down hill now, and for the life of me I could not stop it. I could not find the words to tell them it was all a cruel, wretched, merches imposture. I became for the once a speechless hypocrite, and kept up the farce with a nervous eagerness, that must have been quickly detected had they been in their sober senses.

All I could do was to jump about and clap my hands like a driveling idlot, but on Santa Cruz, Tenerino, 1798.

But the ball had been set a rolling down in the tragedy commenced. Some good people never oredit a thing entirely, until they see it in black and white. In mean, base, deceitful words, the members of the so-tell them it was all a cruel, wretched, merches for the fire mean, base, deceitful words, the members of the section will they see it in black and white. It was the straw that broke the camel's back.

It wouldn't have played such a trick on a cat,' sighed the governor, as the flush of inciplent fever mounted to his of a treat, and on his return reminded of a treat, and on his return reminded to find the words to be undone; the first the doctor, detending and violation of the straw that broke the camel's back.

It wouldn't have played such a trick on a cat,' sighed the governor, as the flush of inciplent fever mounted to his of a treat, and on his return reminded of a treat, and on his return reminded to the source of a treat, and on his return reminded to a treat, and on h iar, and, as all the initiated know, such individuals are yelept Rock Scorpions; as a Rock Scorpion therefore, I shall speak of him henceforth.

With him I concocted an abominable of him henceforth.

With him I concocted an abominable scheme. It was the day that the news of the lottery might arrive from Madrid, and why should we not anticipate it?

It was a yile, unfeeling, disgraceful undertaking, as you should see; but once the devil-took possession of us (and in no other way can I account for it), we entered heart and soul into carrying out the details of the plot, as completely as our means would permit of.

Imprimis, we required official paper, and in the ill-supplied shops of Oratava, none was to be had; no paper was, in fact procurable, except 'gold edged post,' quite unfit for our purpose. However, we made the best of it. I snipped the edges with a pair of scissors, and, when folded length-wise, the document assumed a formidable shape. But even this fictitious resemblance to an official' was denied us as the largest envelope in the stationary establishment was not so large as some I had myself, and they were small enough. On the subject matter and etyle of composition we were, therefore, compelled to rely, and in this respect we are not mistaken.

I was aware that it had been arranged by the governor, with Mr. Robinson, of the English hotel in Santa Cruz, that should the steamer arrive at any unusual thour so as to prevent him sending the the English hotel in Santa Cruz, that should the steamer arrive at any unusual hour so as to prevent him sending the news by the ordinary post, and should our ticket, No. 3060, be the winner of a prize, a special messeenger should be despatched with the happy intelligence.

Accordingly, the Rock Scorpion and I invested in a small boy mounted on a mule, and we instructed the imp in what manner he was to act.

manner he was to act.

These preparations, made to our entire satisfaction, we joined our party, and sat down composedly to the de la podrida set before us.

"Good granders II this is not well with a later of the satisfaction of the satisfaction

'Good gracious!' this is actually the 1st of April ? exclaimed the governor, as he helped the dish, 'the day the steamer from Lisbon is due; I wonder shall we hear anything? I don't think Robinson will disappoint us if we have had any luck.'

'You are too sanguine, dear; do be less hopeful, and we may win something, noperul, and we may win something, said his wife.

'For my part I have never given the thing a second thought, boasted the chief justice; 'the chances are a thousand to one against us; besides, I put little faith in these government managed lotteries. Indeed, I disapprove of such gambling sources of revenue for any respectable country.'

'Thank you for your opinion of us,' returned the Rock Scorpion, sarcastically; but still, I don't suppose you would object to win a prize from us, would you?'
'I shouldn't, at any rate, put in the commission general. 'I shouldn't, at any rate, put in the commissary general.'
'Nor I, dear,' whispered his better half; 'for I should know what to do with such a godsend.'
'O, don't descerate the name; remember this is a gambling transaction,' ried the governor's wife, who caught the expression. I really believe I should tremble to touch money won so easily. I agree with the judge, it cannot be right or proper, it's nae canny.'
'Halloa! what's the row below?' I oried, on recognizing the clatter of a oried, on recognizing the clatter of a mule's hoofs entering the paved patio of the establishment. An unintelligible shout now resounded in the quadraugular courtyard, and involuntarily we all started to our feet, then, impelled by interests and courty and involuntarily we all started to our feet, then, impelled by interests and courty and all the court started to our feet, then, impelled by iroverlooking the yard, and craned our necks to catch sight of the indubitible 'special messenger.' But almost immediately; dignity and decorum returned to us, and we resumed our seats silently at the table.

I noticed that we all closed our lips very glosely (I did so. I suppose, from to pervade our faces.

It certainly seemed an age until our
It certainly seemed an age until our
It certainly seemed the room, and banded a broadly sealed letter lugubrious waiter slowly sealed letter to the governor.

'El Gobernador de—y los estrangerous Ingleses,' he read aloud; 'yes, there is no mistaking the Pillars of Hercules,' his Excellency went on glancing at the dollar impressed seal; and here in the corner is is a memo. from Robinson—'Please pay the messenger a dollar and a half.' Certainly, certainly; here, Juan' money for the messenger, feed him, too; and he placed a handful of silver in the waiter's hand. 'And now I think I have earned the right to open this official from the lottery office at Santa Cruz; but I am sorry to say that I cannot read it; however, it is certain that we have won a prize, and, great or small, it is entirely my doing. I shall, therefore, claim you all as my guests for another month, and we shall spend it in Maderia. Do you consent?'

consent?'
'O yes, yes!' we all cried; but do open the letter.'

locution, pausing for a moment as he came to the figures. It was merely a stiff and formal announcement from the stiff and formal announcement from the secretary, to inform his excellency and the other English strangers sojourning in the island, that their ticket in the Madrid lottery, 3060, was the successful holder of a prize which, reduced to England currency, amounted to the round sum of £9,000 sterling. Stunned we were at first and utterly confounded; then, as the Irish commis-sary general found his voice and uttered a wharhoop of Joy, we all joined in a jubilant shout, and madness ruled the hour.

Of course I was bound to be especially extravagant. 'Well, say what one will, the love of pelf is only human nature after all,' remarked, the chief justice sententiously marked the chief justice sententiously.

'I must congratulate you, my dear friends, on our exceeding great good fortune.'
And the judge gravely stretched forth his hand to grasp us all in turn. 'It isn't every day that you and I. (addressing me) come in for £1,285, 143 34d.; that is our share and Mr. Robinson's you know,' (for he had made a rapid mental calculation, while some of us were going through the slow process of pencil and paper. Of course you married folks are entitled to double shares.'

'What!' exclaimed Mrs. husband, the commissary general,' can it indeed be possible that we are actually in possession of—of, let me see of—O, delightful! £2571 8s. 4d.? Now, John, you must promise the one thing at once,' and she drew her head down lovingly, so as to impart her proposition whisperingly, 'you must put one thousand in the Bank of England, for Tommy, and let the interest accumulate until he comes of age. Won't you promise deer?' you promise, dear ?'

you promise, dear?"

The words reached me, and for the first time, strange as it may appear, the villainy of the trick I was playing, struck me as with its open palmon, the cheek, and I felt the very roots of my hair grow red. Tommy was their little boy, eight years, old, at school in England. But the ball had been set a rolling down and interpreter, the Spaniard. Properly speaking, this gentleman was not a Spaniard, although he wished to be considered one, nor even was he a native of Teneriffe. He was a settler from Gibral-teneriffe. He was a settler from Gibral-teneriffe and the interpreters and as of course, no one could be settled to his room, followed silently by his wife.

The commissary general advanced a step and clutched his blackthorn menactant of the course, and as of course, no one could be settled to his gentle wife, he In their present state of delirum, any passionate excess was unheeded.

It was soon felt by all, that the dinner table was no place to discuss private intentions, and as of course, no one could eat, we separated into natural groups.—
The governor and his wife entered the big sitting room, and seated themselves in close conference on a sofa in a remote corner. The commissary general and his spouse relired to their rooms, to talk of little Tommy and that bargain about the the housand pounds, while the chief justice, who had at length caught the prevailing enthusiasm, salzed me closely by the arm and muttered, gutturally:

"Come out and wolk, I want air! Hang it, man!" he went on, as we gained the it, man! he went on, as we gained the street; 'I despise wealth, and only regard money for the comfort it brings; but to give away a pound haphazzard, and to get back £1,225 14s. 33d., all for nothing! come, step out!'

He was tall, and I was short, and his come, step out!'

He was tall, and I was short, and his strides were long. I tell you I had to keep at a run by his side during that six mile walk, up hill and down dale.
He spoke not again until we reached the hotel; no doubt his thoughts were give up to the contemplation of our wonderful luck, and he was mentally reviewing the thing at the table.
Suddenly we encountered the waiter.
'I wish I had seen that messenger, where is he? Did you give him the money?' asked the judge, in Spanish.
'No, senor,' was Juan's reply; 'the muchacho had disappeared, he (Juan) had returned the dinero to his excellency, and the latter had allowed him to keep so much,' and the lugubrious creature displayed to our view five bright shillings.
'Very extraordinary!' murmured the judge, appealing to me, and his face fell in a fearfully portentous manner. I felt I a cold shiver run down my back and a strange huskiness in my throat, but I was not obliged to say anything, so we hurried up stairs.

strange huskiness in my throat, but I was not obliged to say anything, so we hurried up stairs.

The messenger has gone back to Santa Cruz without his douceur,' said the governor, in a reassuring tone, advancing to us. 'Poor boy! he could not of course read Robinson's memo., and perhaps thought he was not to be pald until his return. It don't matter much, but let me tell you what does. I have just been relating to my wife a circumstance that happened to me in Spain, years ago.—This is not the first time, I should tell, that I have dabbled in lotteries, and on one occasion when my brother and I were staying at Madrid, we took a ticket in a small lottery. The ticket was only a couple of dollars, and the highest prize was one hundred pounds. We won it! This is perhaps why my ambilious thoughts made me imagine that we had a chance of the twenty thousand pounds now. But we have done well, and I should not grumble. When we went into the office next day to be paid, what do you think they offered us? Coppers, sir, coppers! 'Gold and silver have we none,' they told us, 'take the coppers or leave them.' They were piled up in bags in a corner, ready counted for us, and what were we to do? Of course we took them; but gracious, what a job it was!— I had first to 20 to the alcalde to obtain what were we to do? Of course we took them; but gracious, what a job it was!— I had first to go to the alcalde to obtain from him a guard of soldiers, then we bired men and wheelbarrows, and in this way conveyed our hundred pounds of coppers to our hotel. Now think of it for a moment, if thoy played us the same trick here, nine thousand pounds of coppers! Gold, as you are aware, is at a high premium; so are bills of exchange; no chance of our being paid by either medium. My belief, then, is that they pay us in silver, and my idea is this: As the Secretary directs us to attend at the office to-morrow, to present our ticket and refered and in the control of th (addressing me) fidence to 15 and 15 and Cruz by moonlight. It is only 27 miles, and we'll take our time and be ready after breakfast to attend when the lottery ticket office opens at 10 o'clock.— Then, we ascertain their method of pay—ing us we can make our arrangements. I shall ask my friend, the governor, for a of silver up here for distribution. Now go out and hire two strong and sure footed ponies, and direct them to be sent here for us after supper.

Naturally I had to comply, but my heart misgave me as I passed out to notice that the ladies were in close consultation, and that the secretary's letter was in one of that bords.

of their hands.

All this while the Rock Scorpion was All this while the Rock Scorplon was disregarded and forgotten by everybody. He had felt himself to his chamber, but I now passed him in the verunda, on his way to the sitting room, as I hurried out. I hurried out indeed, but not upon the errand I had undertaken, but to think. My head ached with the thoughts of the wrong I was inflicting, with the miserable dread of discovery before I could explain matters, and with the innumerable plans that I had formed and rejected, to break the killing, unpardonable news, that No. 3060 was a delusion and a snare.

When I returned to the sitting room I found our party in confusion, and a very Babel of voices in hot dispute concerning the letter.

the letter.'

He broke the seal rudely, abstracted the documents within, and flung the envelope under the table. Our excitement became intense.

'Well, what is it?' asked one of the ladies, impatiently.

'I cannot make it out, the figures are many, but the amount is stated in fuertes, dollars; do read the letter, judge.' And his excellency handed the missive across to the imperturbable chief justice, who translated it slowly with all his circumlocution, pausing for a moment as he of gold edge at a corner of the anominative production.

"That, coupled with the disappearance of the messenger, is conclusive in my opinion," assented the chief justice.

"O! I have explained his absence, I thought," said the governor, who still hoped against hope.

'If I thought it was a trick played us by any garlic eating Spaniard, growled the Irish commissary general, looking ominiously across at the trembling Black Scorpion, and elevating his voice as he went along, 'I would grip my blackthorn by this"—and he grasped it in the middle—and I would clutch the fellow tight round the throat so,'—and he performed the mimic gesture—and I would thrash him within an inch of his miserable life. I would, by heavenst.

I would, by heavens!'
His wife, meantime; had disappeared from the room, and returned as he finished with that flerce vow of vengeance. Irrepressible tears coursed down hoseheeks as she advanced to the group with an envelope in her hand.

'A Manchester envelope never came out of a Spanish lottery office,' she sobbed forth. 'See there, there is the trade mark! O, poor little Tommy, how hard it is to bear this cruel disappointment!' and she leaned against her big augry husband. 'Why don't you suggest something?' asked the judge, suddenly turning sharp towards poor, silent shivering me. 'Do you think it a hoax, a contemptible and unfeeling practical joke at our expense, or what do you think?'

'I can't think,' I returned, sadly,' and it was certainly the best answer I could have made, for we were evidently suspensed in the law returned to the same of th have made, for we were evident pected, under the circumstances. pected, under the circumstances.

Shortly afterwards the Rock Scorpion and I left the room, and I made him, on pain of an immediate sound heating from that awful black thorn, indite another letter, setting forth that the secretary was sorry to inform the English strangers that 3000 was not the number of the winning there that the right flours was 3001. It ticket, that the right figure was 3061. I ticket, that the right figure was 3061. It was a poor, lame attempt at getting out of the scrape, a sort of hysterical won't you forgive me style of thing, and I was thoroughly ashamed of it. But it was transmitted to the governor in due course, and when he opened it the farce was at an end, the tragedy commenced.

Some good people never credit a thing entirely, until they see it in black and white, in mean, base, deceitful words, that wemed to shrink from showing themselves in patent black and white. It was the straw that broke the camel's silently by his wife.

The commissary general advanced a step and clutched his blackthorn menacingly, but yielding to his gentle wife, he too, quietly withdrew.
For an instant the chief justice besitated roran instant theories device assistant and glared with frenzied eye at the two miserable culprits on the sofa; and then seizing his hat, he planted it firmly on the back of his head, and stalked out of the house into the noiseless streets, and on, over mountain and plain, seyen and the protection of the forms.

How I passed that night I cannot tell; it was not in bed; a stupor overcame me, and I suppose I remained on that horse; hair sofa. The sight of the Rock Scorpion I loathed, and I told him so. As therefore, he had no friend left among us, he departed at daylight; and I have not since set eyes upon him.

A physician was summoned the next morning to attend the governor, and he recommended change to the mild warmth of Santa Cruz. as soon as his excellency

How I passed that night I cannot tell;

of Santa Cruz, as soon as his excellency recommended change to the mild warmth of Santa Cruz, as soon as his excellency could be safely moved.

There was, therefore, good excuse for them to remain in their rooms; but so did the commissary general and his wife, without excuse. It was evident I was to be 'out;' and I sat down to a sorrowful meal all alone, and choking with mingled remorse and pain.

So passed that day and another. On the third, the governor was to leave, and he was resting in the big sitting room, awaiting his conveyance, when I chanced to enter.

The sight of him as he lay there, pale and dejected, oppressed me greatly; I think tears filled my eyes, for, noticing my emotion, he held out his hand and pardoned me.

'I feel sure you had no idea of the length you were going to,' he said, very simply; 'but, my boy, remember that auri sacra fames is universal, and that you hurt a man to the quick when you touch his pocket. That money was ours to all intents and purposes; as we had determined what to do with it, you have deprived us of that pleasure. It was the most dangerous of practical jokes.'

deprived us of that pleasure. It was the most dangerous of practical jokes. He spoke truly, but the reproof was unneeded; the crime carried its own punisbment.
Little further passed at our interview, and he left shortly after for Santa Cruz, while I, relieved beyond measure by our reconciliation, sailed out for a good day's excursion.

I returned late in the evening and was engaged in my solitary supper, when suddenly my Irish friend opened his door and came forward. suddenly my frish friend opened his door and came forward.

'The governor has made up with you, I understand,' he said, almost gruffly, 'and so will I. Tip us your fist, old boy. I can't bear to see you all alone, and yet I hate you, for you have nearly killed me and my poor wife;—and he squeezed my hand unmercifully—but you are not out of the woods yet, let me tell you; you forget that the judge wasn't such an old friend of yours, and he is not so weak as to make up in a hurry, not without satisfaction, you understand? Remember, you are in a foreign country; and I am sorry to say, he has written to me to the effect that he will have you out.'

It was not a comforting reflection that instantly occurred to my mind: Have

It was not a comforting reflection that instantly occurred to my mind: Have you escaped the perils of pestilential Africa, to fall now by the bullet of a judicious duelist?

'I am fully aware of the consequences of my unwarrantable liberty,' I replied; 'and am bound to give him the satisfaction he requires, and arrange it when and where you like.'

'I'll see what I can do,' he returned, carelessly; 'meantime we will remain on the act of narrating, with embelishment, and in his own quaint and irresistible manner, the lottery trick and its consequences. I stood in the doorway. 'And there he is, the villain! cried hi excellency, pointing at me with a theat-rical flourish. 'There stands the horrid contriver of this detestable practical joke; gave us nine thousand pounds, gentle-men; and then 'robbed us of that which not enriches him, and makes us poor,

I was received with cheers, long and loud; and, amid it all, the chief justice, who was present, held out the hand of good fellowship, and there was peace once more in the land.

CHEAP BUT HONEST.—Many years ago when Judge Robert M. Charlton, of Savannah, Georgia, was quite a young man, he, in company with his father, the Hon. U. P. Charlton, spent every summer in the delightful little village of Clarksville, northeast Georgia. One day Robert was passing along the street in Clarksville, and it happened to be the election day, (members of Congress were then elected by what was called the general ticket system, and not by districts, as they now are) when he was met by a verdant but honest voter of the mountains, who accosted him thus: costed him thus:

costed him thus:

'Mr. Charlton, are you the man that is running for Congress?'

'No. sir, I am no candidate—my father is, however. But may I ask you why this inquiry?'
'Nothing, only I haven't voted yit.'

'If it is consistent with your feelings, I would like if you would vote for my 'I would just as soon vote for him as anybody.'
Mr. C. thanked him, and thinking, perhaps, his friend was seeking a treat, invited him into a neighboring tavern. 'What will you take?'

'I never drink anything, but I see they take one of them with you as not.'

'Very well. Give us a cake.'

'My brother is in town with me.'

'All right. Take him a cake with my respects.'

Another cake was purchased and paid for, and the two friends parted, 'Greeny to find his brother, and Mr. Chariton to to find his brother, and Mr. Chariton to join in the merry dance with his young friends in a parlor hard by. 'The golden hours on angels' wings' passed rapidly away with Mr. Charlton. His friend was soon forgotten. Late in the evening, when there was a pause in the dance, our verdant friend, very much to the surprise of every one, stalked into the parlor and inquired for Mr. Charlton. Of course all eyes were directed to our friend as he approached Mr. Charlton. Drawing from his bosom a four by six inch cake, he said: 'Mr. Charlton, here's your cake. My brother had voted afore I seed him.' My brother had voted afore I seed him.

THE LUXURY OF LAZINESS.—Some few years ago a "Lazy Man's Society" was organized in London, England, and one of the articles required that no member should ever be in a hurry. If he violated this article he was to stand treat to the other members. Now it happened on a time that a member, a cotor, was seen driving post hasts through the streets to visit a patient; see members of the society saw him and chuckled over the idea of a treat, and on his return reminded Polunteer.

VOL. 58.--NO. 10.

Poor Daffodil blossom! what's that to thee? Thou hast no part in its golden glow— Thy time of blooming was long ago; Thou hast no share in its silver dew— It will not wake thee to life anew, What sadder fate can the Autumn bring han Summer does to a flower of Spring

It is midsummer, my life's midsummer— My sorrowing Heart! what's that to thee ts joys are things that I can not share— Tis not for me that it's days are fair ; Whose beauty went with the passing hou.
What sadder fate can the Autumn bring. Than Summer does to a flower of Spring?

DUKE AND SENTINEL.

The late Duke of Brunswick used to relate the following anecdote with great

On a certain occasion, one of the heav-On a certain occasion, one of the heaviest of German soldiers had the duty of mounting guard at one of the ducal hunting seats; and, not to perplex the poor fellow, with more ideas than he could conveniently carry, and a single 'notion' was with some difficulty, rammed into his noddle—viz, that he must present arms to the Duke should his Highness arms to the Duke, should his Highness pass that way. He was left to his cogitations, which, we need hardly say were of that class described by the renowned author of "Knickerbocker's History of New York" as appertaining to the pilot of the Good Vrow, who, we were informed, sat at the helm, thinking of nothing either past, present, or to come. Tired at last of this transcendental monotony, our santing had recourse to the universe. our sentinel had recourse to the universal our sentine; had recourse to the universe, German solace—his sausage and schnapps. While thus agreeably employed, he saw an unpretending-looking person approach the place where he was scated, dressed in the common German hunting-dress—a sort of queer smook-frook, leather breeches, and continuations.

'Good appetite to you!' said the new-comer. 'What is that you're eating?'

'Guess!' gruffly answered the peasant 'Oh! perhaps rothwurst,' said the Duke,
'Oh! perhaps rothwurst,' said the Duke,
for it was no less a personage.
'No; something better than that,'
'Then I suppose that it is lebberwurst?'
'No; something better than that,'
'Probably then it is metterwurst?'

(The three terms, rothwurst, lebber-wurst, and metterwurst, are the positive, comparative, and superlative degrees of the German sausage.)

'And now that you know all about my usage, pray who are you?'

'Guess,' said the Duke. 'Oh I perhaps you're one of the Duke's

'Oh! pernaps you're one of the Duke's pages?'
'No; something better than that,'
'Then you're probably one of the Duke's alds-de-camp?'
'No; something better than that,'
'Perhaps you're the Duke himself?'
'Yes,'
'Der teufel! Hold that sausage, for my orders are to present arms to you!'

rders are to present arms to you!' A SHORT COURTSHIP.—A Cincinnati paper relates an incident which develops a new feature in railroad traveling, and shows that courting can be done at thirty miles an hour. It occurred on the Little Miami railroad. A lady, somewhat past that period of life, which the world would term young was on her way to that city. that period of life, which the world would term young, was on her way to that city. At a point on the road a traveler took the train. After walking up and down where you like.'

'I'll see what I can do,' he returned, acrelessly; 'meantime we will remain on her equietly. And now come and make your peace with my wife.'

Trainged to return to Santa Cruz, with the idea of having the duel over at once, one way or the other, and I rode across the country all alone, arriving at night-fall at the hotel.

The English mall steamer had come into port, and, anxious for letters, I went at once to Mr. Robinson's office.

Your peace with my wife.'

The English mall steamer had come into port, and, anxious for letters, I went at once to Mr. Robinson's office.

Your peace with my wife.'

The English mall steamer had come into port, and, anxious for letters, I went at once to Mr. Robinson's office.

Your peace with my wife.'

The English mall steamer had come into port, and, anxious for letters, I went at once to Mr. Robinson's office.

Your peace with my wife.'

The pendicular that period of life, which the world would term young, was on her way to that city. At a point on the road a traveler took the train. After walking up and down between the seats, the gentleman found her upon which the lady had placed her precious self and crinoline. As the train item at one the requires, and arranged to return to Santa Cruz, with the lide walong at express speed, the strain gent email to muccupied seat, except the one-half of that upon which the lady had placed her precious self and crinoline. As the train item would term young, was on her way to that city.

At a point on the road a traveler took the train. After walking up and down between the seats, the gentleman found her uncocupied seat, except the one-half of that upon which the lady had placed her precious self and crinoline. As the train item would train item your peace when the seats, the gentleman was to wen the read a crinoline. As the train item would train item your peace with into port, and, anxious for letters, I went at once to Mr. Robinson's office.

'You are still in time for dinner, if you you hurry, sir,' he said, 'a large number of passengers came ashore to dine here, and you may know some of them.'

I hastened to the table, but as I was advancing along the corridor to the door of the dining room, I was arrested by hearing my own name mingled with shouts of laughter from the company, and one voice clear above the others, as though causing the mirth by some witty recttal.

It was the governor's, and he was in the act of narrating, with embellishment, and in his own quaint and irresistible manner, the lottery trick and its conse-

COURT GOSSIP.—The marriage of the young Princess Louise with the Marquis of Lorne was not, according to English gossip, by any means the love match it has popularly been supposed to be, and the wedded pair are now far from happy together. The story is, that the Princess inherits her mother's quick and imperious temper, and the two women had such frequent quarrels that the peace of the royal domestic circle was quite destroyed. The marriage of the Princess and her residence elsewhere being then the only resource in the emergency, a number of young noblemen were selected and invited to Windsor Castle, and the Princess required to chose a husband from among vited to Windsor Castle, and the Princess required to chose a husband from among them. She obeyed, and her choice fell on the young Marquis, but there was no more love between them than usually attends such business-like arrangements. The result has been, that the Princess's emper is as bad as ever, only it is now txercised on a new object. The exclusion of the Marquis from the royal circle, and the consequent separation of him from his wife on state occasions, is said to be nis whe on state occasions, is said to be owing to these conjugal differences, and not to any law of etiquette. It is even reported that not long ago the Queen was sent for, and went down to Claremont, the residence of the young couple, to prevent a complete rupture. All this prevent a complete rupture. All this accords so well with what is known of the relations between Victoria and Albert that it is probably true.

A Wonderful Clock.—R. D. Munson s a persistent Yankee, and a native of Williston, Vermont, who has devoted ten Williston, Vermont, who has devoted ten of his fourscore years to the achievement of making a clock that is much more complicatedly ingenious than the famed Strausourg time piece, and vastly more serviceable. It runs eight days, and the dial marks the second, minute, hour and day of the week, month and year; a thermometer rests against its pendulum, giving the state of temperature; the ball of the pendulum contains a miniature time piece, which derives its motive powtime piece, which derives its motive power solely from its vibrating position, and keeps accurate time; with this there is a delightful musical apparatus, which plays an air at the end of each hour, and it is piously precontrived so as to play only sacred tunes on Sunday, beginning and ending with the 'Doxology.' On national holidays the airs are diversified with such tunes as "Yankee Doodle," &c. This wonderful clock presents a black walnut front, ten feet high, twenty inches wide, and ten deep, and is embellished with profuse shell-work and national designs.

ABOUT MONKEYS.—Reugger observed ABOUT MONKEYS.—Reugger observed an American monkey carefully driving away the files which plagued her infant; and Duvancel saw a hylobates washing the faces of her young ones in a stream. So intense is the grief of female monkeys for the loss of their young, that it invariably caused the death of certain kinds kept under confinement by Brehm, in North Africa. Orphan monkeys were always adopted and carefully guarded by other monkeys, both male and female. One female baboon had so capacious a heart that she not only adopted young One female baboon had so capacious a heart that she not only adopted young monkeys of other species, but stole young dogs and cats, which she continually carried about. An adopted kitten scratched this affectionate baboon, who certainly had a sharp intellect; for she was much astonished at being scratched, and she immediately examined the kitten's feet, and without more ado bit off the claws.

—All The Year Round.

Rates for Advertising.

Advertisements should be accompanied by the Casu. When sent without any length of time specified for publication, they will be continued untilordered out and energed accordingly.

JOB PRINTING. CARDS, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, and every of a er description of Joh and Card Printing.

Ods and Ends.

A SHRILL old lady in Memphis, when she loses her selssors rouses the family with; where's them selssors appeared to? PERSONAL.—St. Clair A. Mulholland, Chief of Police of Philadelphia, gave us a call on Friday last.—Bradford Argus.

What deviltry have you been into? IT is a mistake to suppose that gold fish confined in a globe can live on the animal life they find in the water. They require food, such as small dough, pills white of an egg and flour, and an occasional angle worm, cut fine.

SPECIMEN Chicago local: 'T. J. Falls was his name. And I shall not deny. With regard to the same, That he came from Shanghai, And he put up last night at the Sherman, Considerably close to

The following item contains a large amount of what may be called spicy egotism: Kernel Carr says there is but one man in Illinois who is really able to edit a newspaper. As Widow Bedott says, it is not for him to say who that is.

A GBUMBLER who was loud in com-plaint because of the degeneracy of the times got this left-handed sympathy: 'What you say is undoutedly true, for I remember that when I was a boy, I heard my father say that, when he was a boy, he heard my grandfather say the same thing.'

ame thing. An Irishman having jumped into the water to save a man from drowning, upon receiving a quarter from the person as a reward for the service, looked first at the money and then at him, and at last exclaimed: 'I'm overpaid for the last.'

In an Ohio school celebration the su-In an Onio school celebration the superintendent announced the title to a song as 'Riding the Elephant Home.'—
When the audience found that it was 'Write me a Letter from Home,' he thought it prudent to disappear."

THE mayor of St. Joseph, Mo., gave permission to a citizen to kill two dogs which annoyed him, and the next morning the mayor found two of his own dogs dead, with his own warrant of permission for their killing pinned on their bodies. Though he hasn't exactly got the hydrophobia, that mayor is mad.

This is the way the haratogian chronicles the opening of the season: 'Our mammoth hotels were thrown open yesterday for the reception of young June, dazzling July, mature and peerless August, and partriachal September, who have all engaged suites of rooms,'

An observant young man in Portland, Maine, greatly admired a married lady of that town, and was in the habit of looking in at her window as he passed.—One day he saw her wave a handkerchief, and forthwith rang the door bell. After he was picked out of the gutter a few moments later, and his contusions dressed by the nearest surgeon, it was explained to him that the lady was merely shaking some crimbs from a newly in ome crumbs from a napkin. Sponge paper, a French novelty, is SPONGE paper, a French novelty, is said to have all the peculiarities of sponge, absorbing water readily, and remaining moist a long time. It has been used as a dressing for wounds with considerable advantage. For its fabrication, evenly and finely divided sponge is added to ordinary paper pulp, and this is worked, as in a common paper-making apparatus, into sheets of different thickness. T. K. Removered, of Elmira, said some uppleasant things about H. B. Smith, elected to Congress from Elmira district. Smith remarked to him that those statements were conspicuously inexact.—Beecher straightened back in some excitement, and exclaimed in a decided tone, 'Do you want to get up a quarrel with the Beecher family?' No, Sir,' said Smith, 'but I want to know if you intend to get up a fight with the Smith family?' An armistice was declared after that. A GENTLEMAN writing of a 'long' acquaintance, says there is among his acquaintances one at least who enjoys a 'righ' reputation, for he stands over seven feet in his stockings, and though a talented member of the bar, he is a good natured, modest citizen. He was sitting in the stall of a theatre when the curtain rose and the astors advanced to their no. in the stall of a theatre when the curtain rose and the actors advanced to their position, a cry of 'Down in front'! became general throughout the audience. Their attention was directed towards the tall B—, who, feeling himself the object of remark, thought he was required to settle a little. Looking as is he would like to settle through the floor, he proceeded to raise himself to a standing position, in such a manner, however, as to convey an impression that there was no end to him. At last he did get straightened out to his full length, when, slowly glancing around At has he du get straggeened out to his full length, when, slowly glanding around at the astenished audience, he very deliberately remarked: 'Gentlemen to satisfy you that I was sitting down, I now stand up!' A burst of laughter and applause succeeded, the audience and actors became couvulsed, the curtain descended and the warmer with heavying feet. rapidly, the manager, with beaming face, came forward, and, amidst the wildest applause, conducted the gentleman private box. The Millennium of Scoundrelism

Butler having heard how William J. Ovens, the murderer, was unanimously elected Sergeant at Arms by the Radicals elected Sergeant at Arms by the Radicals at the last session of the Legislature, and that Mann and Collis and Stokely have been nominated for our chief munfeipal offices, and that the Press of this city, the leading organ of its party, has declared that considerations of personal character do not enter into its philosophy—Butler, hearing these things, feels emboldened do not enter into its philosophy—Butler, hearing these things, feels emboldened to offer himself as a candidate for the office of Governor of Massachusetts. Everywhere there seems to be a belief that the rule of Radicalism has at last brought on a millennium of scoundrelism, and that neither the murder of a distinguished soldier, like Colonel Riddle, or of a more observe citizen like John C. Nolan, nor the most notorious implication and open complicity in frauds and theffe, form any bar to nomination to office by the Radical party. Personal character does not enter into their philosophy. The absence of it is a recommendation; for the greater the rogue, the greater the the greater the rogue, the greater the plunder for him and the "Ring" he bethe greater the rogue, the greater the plunder for him and the "Ring" he belongs to. This rule runs through every department of the government that is administered upon Radical principles.— When General Butterfield, a great personal friend of the President, was appointed sub-Treasurer in New York, he instantly embarked in a huge "gold conspiracy" with Corbin, the President's brother-in-law, and pursued it till they shook the whole Commercial world, using the name of the President of the United States as their partner and accomplice! In this city, the same game of plunder is carried on in all the public departments, unquecked, except when the culprits come under the notice of our city police, who have gained Radical emity and Radical abuse by a commendable vigilance, which often thwarts these Radical plunderers.

Last week the police arrested a Radical employee in the post office, and found his pockets, as well as his lodgings, full of opened letters. Yesterday, the newspapers all recorded how the city police arrested certain Radical officials who were selling the public property: from Fort Delaware. The scoundrels have a very poor opinion of a police that thus interrupts ousiness, and are exceedingly very poor opinion of a police that thus interrupts business, and are exceedingly interrupts ousness, and are exceedingly anxious to have the whole city administered upon a philosophy that takes no note of such matters as theft, speculation or even murder. They pant for the good time coming; the great long looked for Radical miliennium of scoundrelism, when to be a man of decent character. when to be a man or deceme onmanded shall be a reproach, and to be a thick or assassin shall be a title to public office,—.

hiladelphia Age.

47th Dividend,

ISAAC LIVINGSTON.

Formerly C. M. JACKSON & CO.