ANOTHER RAILROAD.-We learn that engineers are now at work surveying a rallroad route from Pine Grove through Franklin county, to the southern part of on the first count. the State. We believe the South Mountain Iron Company propose to build this road, on condition that the people along the route will take a certain proportion of the bonds of the Company. As a general thing the people speak favorably of of all the railroad lines now in contemplation, this one would probably be of more immediate benefit to Carlisle than any other, as it would make the trade of that entire section tributary to our town. It is a section of country, too, sich in iron ore and agricultural produce, and its traffic ought to pay a handsome interest on the cost of the construction of the road. Washington township, in Franklin country, contains probably the finest grain-producing land in the Cumberland Valley, and is peculad with a possible of the case was fully argued, and the cumberland Valley, and is peculad with a solicitation to briber, and out of the trade of that entire section tributary to cover the original contract for both woodwork and stonework, and out of the proceeds he was to give Harris $50. DR. SWARTZ'S FAREWELL. - On Sab bath morning last, Rev. Joel Swartz, D. D., pastor of the Lutheran Church. preached his farewell sermon to an audience which crowded all the available space in the church. He took for his text the words: " Finally, brethren, farewell! Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of peace shall be with you." He said that in our English tongue there was no sadder word than "farewell," but our version did not do justice to the words used in the original. There was no sadness in Paul's farewell. The word he used signified "be joyous," and it was right that those who claimed to be Christians should follow the injunction of the scriptures and always rejoice, for their farewell could never be a final one-they might say "finally farewell," but never "farewell finally." Their separation on this earth. he trusted, would not be a final one. Seas or continents would not intervene, and he hoped often to stand in that sacred desk and preach the gospel to those endeared to him by so many ties. After enforcing the injunction of the text, reminding his hearers that the standard. set up for their invitation was a perfect standard, and that it was their duty to approach as near to it as went humanity might do-reminding them of the duty on all vital questions to be of one mind, and to live in peace, he gave a brief review of his pastoral labors, covering a period of a little over three years, and the simple recital of some of the scenes of his ministry brought tears to the eyes of many of his hearers.

In the evening, at the urgent solicitation of the Young Men's Christian Association. Dr. Swartz preached a sermon to young men. He took for his text the costs. Mr. Wagoner was the prosecutor. He that winneth souls to Christ at the highest end, and used the best wisdom was very different from that costs of prosecution. adopted by men. The soul was of priceless value-we are told that it transcends the value of the whole world. What a noble work, then to save souls! But we must win souls to Christ, not attempt to drive them by the terrors of the law .-The discourse was listened to with breathless attention by a crowded house.

Dr. Swartz and his family left for Williamsport, on Tuesday morning, accom panied to the denot by a large number of his parishioners, who seemed deeply distressed at the loss of their beloved pastor.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.-We learn from the Valley Independent that Mr. Isaac Breniser, an old resident of Silver Spring township, met with an accident a few days ago. Mr. Breniser purchased a threshing machine and horse power several years ago, at Mt. Joy, Lancaster. county, and the machine having lately gotten out of order, he was obliged to convey it to Mt. Joy for repairs, and after. remaining there three or four days, until the work was completed, re-loaded it upon his wagon, and started for home. By the time he arrived at a point within two miles of Harrisburg, where the turnpike and canal run very close together, it was night, and not being able to see the road distinctly, got to the one side, and the wagon upset, throwing Mr. Breniser to the edge of the canal with the horse power on top of him, from which position he was unable to extricate himself. His calls for help were soon heard, and several men ran to his assistance, and with great effort raised the machinery, lifted him out, and conveyed him to a house near by where he was cared for until morning. and then taken to his home. His injuries, though not dangerous, are very painful requiring him to be in one position constantly.

THE GREAT COMBINATION SHOW!-On Friday the 15th inst., will be exhibited in Carlisle one of the largest, most attractive and complete Combined Menageries and Circuses that ever visited this section of country. Handenburgh & Co.'s Monster Menageries and Circuses have been so much praised of late that we hardly know how to approach the subject, but, as journalists, we must not pass by unnoticed unquestionably the largest and best show in the whole world. In making this assertion we are backed by the whole press of the country, where this Show has traveled, and it is conceded by all professional showmen to be superior to any similar concern now traveling. The Menagerie contains all the rare animals of the known world, and the Circuses (which are the best upon this continent) have attached to them the most eminent acrobats in the world.

We shall watch with much interest the sensation that the Consolidation will create when it comes to our town. It will, no doubt, draw the largest crowds of any show of the season.

Remember, this great "Mammoth Consolidated Menageries and Circuses" will exhibit in CARLISLE, afternoon and evening, on FRIDAY, September 15th. A LODGE of Red Men is to be organized at Mt. Holly.

COURT PROCEEDINGS,-In the case of John Harris, on trial for misdomeanor in office, the indictment contained two charges-1st. That the defendant had. been interested in certain contracts with the Continental Bridge Company, and second that he proposed to bribe John Gracey to put in certain bids above their value and then give Harris $50 out of the proceeds. Lt was shown that Henszey. the agent of the Bridge Company, after the bridge was completed, had handed James Armstrong, clerk to the commissioners, a package of money, and out of the court reserved it decision until the argument court on the 14th inst.

There may be some force in this plea, but some persons will regard it as a pretty good loke on justice that the court and jury and several eminent counsel should be engaged for two whole days in convicting an unsophisticated old gentleman of an offence which did not exist upon the statue book.

Com. vs. Samuel Herman .- False Preence—Defendant sold a sewing machine o prosecutor, and took in payment thereof a judgment waiver note, alleging that it was a simple promissory note. Prosecutor returned the machine, and subsequently defendant entered the judgment note and issued execution upon it. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty; a motion was made for a new trial, and defendant was held to answer at November Court.

Com. vs. Edward Everbard. Burglary and Larceny.-Guilty on second count sentenced is jail for ten days, to pay a fine of six cents and costs of prosecution. Com. vs. Samuel D. Walker. Burglary -Entering a house in Mechanicsburg. during the absence of family. A number of the neighbors, discovering a light in the house, quietly surrounded it, and caught the thief. He was found guilty, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for two years. Com. vs. John Ruggles. Assault with intent to kill, assault and battery, upon W. D. Walker. A difficulty occurred in Walker's saloon, under Rheem's Hall, and when Walker subsequently was on his way home, a struggle ensued, when he was stabbed in the abdomen by Rugto comfort one another-exhorting them | gles. Com. vs. Jacob Rhoads-Misdemed in office, as Commissioner of Cumberland county-The indictment laid that defendant charged for services as commissione on certain days when he was not in the office. It was shown that defendant received compensation for one or two days' service, when he was absent from the office; but it was alleged in defense that the time book was kept by the clerk, and there could have been no intention on Rhoads' part to defraud the county. The jury acquitted defendant, and directed the county to pay the costs.

John Smith and Wm. Smith, Indicted for unlawfully taking fruit, were tried an I acquitted.

The case of Geo. C. Dallum, for burning the stable attached to Thompson's rail road hotel at Mechanicsburg was continned. In the case of Samuel Skelly, indicted or burning a stable near Newburg, the grand jury ignored the bill. This case excited considerable interest in the upper end of the county, and attracted quite s number of witnesses and spectators to the DEATH OF A FORMER CITIZEN.-The Bucyrus (Ohio) journals aunounce the leath of Hon. James Stewart, a brother of the late Hon. John Stuart, of South Middleton township-who grew to manhood in this county, but removed to the West many years ago. The paper from which we quote says:

Hon. James Stewart, born March 12, 1795, in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, departed this life at his residence east of Bucyrus, in Crawford Co., Ohio, of old age and consumption, last Sabbath afternoon, August 6th, 1871, at the advanced age of 76 years, 3 months and 26 days. His remains were interred at the Stewart burying ground, on Tuesday af-sloners, a package of money, and out of that Harris received $195,00. But it was alleged in defence that this was a mere present, and that there was no contract or arrangement by which Harris was to get any percentage on the contract from the bridge company. The commonwealth failing to show any such contract or arrangement, the jury acquitted defendant on the first count.

On the second charge, it was shown that John Gracy had the contract for the stone work and wood work of a bridge at Myer's mill; that Harris went to him and proposed that they should annuit that portion of the contract relating to the wood work; that Gracy should present a bill for the stone work large enough to cover the original contract for both

How To DWARF A TOWN.-Horace

Greeley presents the following as a sure means of destroying the prosperity of the most prosperous town. There can be no doubt of its efficacy:—If you wish to keep a town from thriving, don't put up any more buildings than you can convenient ly occupy yourselves; and if you should accidentally have an empty dwelling and any one should want to rent it, ask three times the actual value of it. Demand Shylock price for every spot of ground that God has given you the stewardship over. Turn a cold shoulder to every me chanic or business man seeking a home among you. Look at every new comer with a scowl. Run down the work of every new workman. Go abroad for wares, rather than deal with those who seek to do business in your midst. Fail to advertise, or in any other way to support your paper, so people abroad may not know whether any business is going on in your town or not. Wrap yourselves up within yourselves, and cover yourselves with a coat of imperious selfishness. There is no more effectual way to retard the growth of a town than actions like those enumerated, and there are people in every town who are pursuing the above course every day of their lives and to whom the above remarks are most respectfully offered for their careful attention. TAKE your local paper, for it contains something every week that you want to

THE MIRAMAR RAILROAD.

The commencement of the work upon this new enterprise in our valley was fully inaugurated by "breaking ground" on the farm of Michael G. Brandt, in Monroe township, Tuesday afternoon, August 29th. The occasion was one that called together a large number of the farmers residing along the line, and friends of the road, to witness this much friends of the road, to witness this much looked for event. The first pick was struck by the President of the Company, Daniel V. Ahl, Esq., and the first shovel used by the contractor, Patrick Reihl, senior partner of the firm of Reihl, McFague & Co. After this formal introduction of the necessary implements of railroad construction by the President and contractor, many of the spectators present "tried their hand" at work. The corps of engineers, under the direction of Capt. Jos. Mifflin, are now busily engaged in locating the road from its connection with the Cumberland Valley Railroad at or near White Hill westward. The long and well established reputation of the contractors. Messrs Reihl, McFague & Co., give every assurance of the positive of the contractors, Messrs Reim, Message & Co., give every assurance of the positive completion of this road by the first of September, 1872—the time agreed upon in the contract.

Dear Sir: In the year 1857 I was attacked with Dysepsia. From that time until the year 1861 I coathued grawing worse, and was reduced from a strong and healthy man to a mere living skeleton, weighing but 119 pounds. During those four years, I had the attention of the most celebrated physicians in New York, Philadelphia and Raltimore I also visited the watering places, and tried every remedy I could hear of for the cure of Dysepsia, without experiencing any relief whatever, and Innally in despair gave up all hope of being cured, and returned nome with the feeling that death alone could alleviate my sufferings. Carlisle, Pa. Aug. 17, 1871-3m. HEAPEST COAL! The undersigned agrees to furnish coal to all parties, either for family or limeburners' use, at cheap rates, provided, they accept the following:

1. To order all coal in Company cars.

2. To charge mine weight, irrespective of any loss in shipment by leaky cars, &c.

3. To deliver your coal as it comes; to hand, without re-sereening, ditt and all.

4. That in the above-mentioned mode of business you will fose 10 per-cent., send when 20 tons are brought all paular dealers will testify.

To the series of the coal of the coal, send when 20 tons are brought all paular dealers will testify.

To the latter of the coal from any breaker you may desire, but as we have to receive what is sent, be it Summit Branch, Big Hick, or Short Mountain from Lykens Valley, some of these being not so desirable, the same applying to the hard coal breakers also. You take it as it is sent to us.

5. As this kind of business is done on the Rallroad Company's sidings, do not ask to see a sample of coal. They do not allow more than twenty-four hours' use of siding, we therefore cannot show what we can furnish you.

Should you wish to purchase coal where it can be seen at all times, kept in the dry, re-served and weighed before delivery, call at either yard of the subscriber, where your orders will be promptly filled, and promise to save you the loss and vexation caused by using dryly and inferior coal, thereby giving your supply for less money than any one can do by furnishing the run of mine.
