THIS Summer has been very prolific of equalled by anything in this localityaccidents on land and water; of murders, suicides, robbery and arson. The public has scarcely recovered from the shock caused by one catastrophe before it has been again startled by the news of another, if not a series of disasters. It would | sustained than in the Cumberland Valbe impossible to chronicle a tithe of these catastrophies in the columns of a weekly journal, and we can give but a brief outline of the most startling, some of which will be found upon our first page.

POTATOES.-It is said that the potato | citing considerable attention in legal as crop of this county is decidedly the finest well as in clerical minds. There seems our farmers have had for many years, to be about an equal division of both. and is a full compensation for the scarcity of that crop last season. From present indications, this important esculent will | tract, and that as legal civil contracts are not command more than from thirty to fifty cents a bushel this fall, unless some if made on this day. An interesting test case is now pending in Rochester, New York. A millionaire died there recently, untoward disaster should overtake them while in the ground, which is now not and willed all his property to the children likely to happen. With a good crop of corn, and plenty of "murphys," there of his second wife, disinheriting two of his own children. The marriage was need be no fear of starvation.

FINE GRAPES.-We are indebted to our friend, Mr. Solomon Grissinger, of North the decision be against Sunday marriages, Middleton township, for a half-dozen bunches of his beautiful and luscious Concord grapes. Some of the bunches weighed three quarters of a pound, strong.-The Concord is the grape for the tableis no doubt many more interesting and large, juicy and vinous.
