The members of the Democratic Standing Committee of Cumberland county, are requested to meet in the committee room, at Carlisle, on Saturday, September 23d, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

A full attendance is requested. S. C. WAGNER, Chairman.

J. L. HENRY, Secretary,

FUN AHEAD!-We understand that the lecture committee have secured the services of the celebrated Quintette Club, of Boston, for one evening's entertainment, during the course. The series will therefore embrace five lectures and a concert. The Quintette Club is spoken of as the first concert troupe in America .-Last winter, they gave an entertainment in the Academy of Music, in Philadelphia, in connection with Mr. Pugh's Star Course of Lectures, and that immense building was crowded from parquet to dome with a delighted audience. Some idea of the popularity of the troupe may be formed from the fact that they are already engaged for nearly every night this winter at $250 a night. On the occasion of their visit here, we expect to see the hall crowded with lovers of fine music, not only from Carlisle, but from the entire county. We are informed that if a sufficient number of course tickets are sold in Mechanicsburg, Newville and Shippensburg, extra trains will be run on the Cumber land Valley railroad, at excursion rates. As these entertainments will cost the lecture committee an average of nearly two hundred dollars a night, the neighboring towns can have the privilege of attending, at less cost than if they employed the lecturers themselves. The course will embrace lectures by Wendell Phillips, Anna Dickinson, Petroleum V. Nasby, Mark Twain, A. V. Parsons (the Irish Orator), and the concert by the Quintette Club. The order in which they will appear will be announced as soon as the dates of all are definitely determined on. Tickets for the course only $3.00.

CHMBERLAND COUNTY HORTICULTU-RAL SOCIETY.-The fall exhibition by this well known Society, in "Franklin Hall," Mechanicsburg, on the last four days of last week, was a most creditable affair to the officers and contributors.-Such an exhibition of various varieties of apples, pears, peaches, grapes, quinces, wheat, corn, beets, pumpkins, potatoes, ioney, needle-work, &c., &c., has never been witnessed in this section of country Indeed, it is wonderful to see the perfection to which our farmers and trucksters of the lower end of the county have brought their vegetables, fruits, grains, &c. Their success is evidence of the benoficial tendency of a good Horticultural Society. We are glad to add that the Cumberland County Horticultural Society is in a highly prosperous condition, and is increasing in usefulness every year. It has a stimulating effect upon the whole lower end of our farming and trucking community, and should, and we doubt not will, in the course of time, receive encouragement and support from all parts of our county. Its officers are men of energy and enterprise, who are well entitled to the thanks of our people for the zeal they have shown in the praiseworthy work in which they are

A CHILD BURNED .- On Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Hetty Ross, a colored woman, residing in East Chapel alley, left her youngest child up stairs, and went down into the kitchen to get dinner. Presently she heard the child crying out in an alarmed manner; and running up stairs, found the table, cloth on fire and the child almost enveloped in flames. Mrs. Ross succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but, in doing so, burned her own hands and arms severely. The child was so severely burned that it died on Monday evening. It is supposed the child kindled the fire from some matches which were lying on the table. This is another warning to parents not to let matches lie around where children can get them.

Horse Stolen .-- On Saturday night last, a fine black mare, belonging to Mr. Benjamin M. Jones, residing near Shermanadate, was stolen from the stable of Hall's hotel, and was subsequently discovered in Major Bretz's stable. The low prices of grain. We therefore urge harness which was on the horse at the time he was taken, was found in an adjoining stable. Suspicion pointed to a colored man as the thief, and it was supposed he had concealed the horse until he could take him out of town with safety, and had secreted the gears to avoid suspicion. We have not learned whether the suspected party has been arrested.

CHURCH DEDICATION.-The Central Presbyterian Church of Chambersburg will be dedicated on Thursday the 21st inst. The sermon will be preached at 11 o'clock, A. M., by Rev. John L. Witherow, of Philadelphia, assisted by Drs. Erskine, Strong and Hays, of Washington, Pa., and after a short address by the pastor, the Dedicatory Prayer will be offered by Dr. Creigh. Interesting and appropriate exercises will be held in the church in the evening, in which eminent ministers from abroad are expected to participate. Excursion tickets will be sold from this place.

COMMISSIONER APPOINTED. -- On Thursday last, at a conference between the Court and the Commissioners, Moses Bricker, Esq., was appointed Commissioner in place of John Harris, removed. Mr. Bricker is the present Democratic nominee for that position, and will make an excellent officer.

ENTERTAINMENT.-A number of young ladies and gentlemen propose giving an entertainment at Rheem's Hall, in this borough, on Friday evening next, the 22d inst. The performance will consist of tableaux vivant, and music.

Price of admission, 35 cents. One ticket will admit two children under 12 years of FAIR .- The Franklin County Agricultural Society will hold its annual fair on the 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th of October, at Chambersburg. The officers of the Society are making vigorous efforts towards making this exhibition the best of the Society, and from all that we learn, they will no doubt be successful. The Franklin county Fairs have always been well encouraged. RAILROAD EXTENSION.-The work of laying the rails upon the extension of the Cumberland Valley railroad, from Hagerstown to Powell's Bend, on the Polomac river, is being vigorously executed, and workmen are preparing for the construction of the bridge across the Potomac river.

WHAT A GOOD NEWSPAPER MAY DO Show us an intelligent family of boys and girls, and we will show you a family where newspapers are plenty. Nobody who has been without these silent, private tutors can know their educating power. How important, then, to secure only those which tend to good! Anything that makes home pleasant, cheerful and chatty, thins the haunts of vice, and the thousand and one avenues of temptation, should certainly be regarded, when we consider its influence on the minds of the young, as a great moral and social

The above we copy from an exchange, and we ask public attention to it. How many families are there in Cumberland county where not even the sign of a paper is to be seen? Can such people ever expect to know what is going on in the world round about them? It is absolutely month promising a lively fall trade. It will be a shape for a father to permit his children per is to be seen? Can such people ever a shame for a father to permit his children to grow up without even reading a news paper. We will go farther and say that it is criminal. We say this, because if the habit of reading is cultivated in youth, vice has not so fair chance to make its deadly inroads upon the unsuspecting. It is idleness which begeissvice, and therefore if the youthful mind has wherewith exceptions, seek gratification in forbidden paths. Every father should have one or more newspapers in his house. The two dollars, or even five, which he expends for them, may save him in the end many a scalding tear shed over the crime of a neglected child.

THE CIRCUS.-Friday was a moist day for the Circus-or any other "cuss" who had to be out of doors. The street parade was anything but lively. The elephant looked as if he had passed the night in a mortar box, and the camels, in mud to their knees, sighed in vain for the sands of Egypt. The noble "king of beasts" had a draggled tail, and looked bored. Notwithstanding the day, however, hundreds of persons were in attendance and enjoyed the "show."

ROBBERY.-On Saturday night last some person or persons entered the house of Edward Potts, on the Harrisburg turnpike, just below town, and stole therefrom a shot gun, with shot punch and powder born, a buckskin hunting suit and a pair of boots.

RECORD YOUR DEEDS .- The attention of owners of real estate whose deeds are not recorded, is called to the following Act of Assembly on the subject. Much trouble and even loss of property may be avoided by attending to the requirements of the law, which provide that all deeds shall be recorded in the office for the recording of deeds in the county where such lands or hereditaments are lying and being, within six months after the execution of such deed and conveyances: and every such deed and conveyance that shall, at any time after the publication nereof [the act referred to] be made and executed, and which shall not be recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, unless such deed or conveyance be recorded as aforesaid, before the proving and recording of the deed or conveyance under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee shall claim."

Cor. T. A. He was accompanied by a number of other railway officials. The party returned to Philadelphia the same RURLINGTON .- Leaving the East and arriv ing at Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best Line is acknowledged to be the C., B. & Q., joined together with the B. & M Railroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington and called the BURLINGTON ROUTS.

The main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Roads, and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Mid-dle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, form ing the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles.
