THE COUNTY FAIR.-If the bustle o preparation around the Fair Ground any indication of what we may expect in the coming fair, we shall look for a most successful exhibition. Workmen are now busily engaged in putting the finishing touches on the handsome twostory building which has been erected for the exhibition of ladies work and ncy articles. This will doubtless prompt this department as full as possible. The years.

building formerly used for that purpose will be devoted exclusively to agricultural produce, stoves and articles of that kind. It will doubtless be a source of gratification to the geese, turkeys and chickens of the county to know that improved and suitable quarters have been prepared for their reception. Instead of the unsightly "coops" of yore, they will now have a regular chicken house, with a passage way through the centre, and cages on either side—such a house as the most aristocratic brahma or the biggest turkey may well feel proud to dwell in. We understand that a large portion of the space devoted to fruits and vegetables, will be taken up by the Cumberland County Horticultural Society .-Their display in the State fair was greatly admired. The Scranton Republican says. "The largest exhibitors were the Cumberland County Horticultural Society. The most attractive feature is their apples, which arrested the attention of maturity of intellects as well as of the fruits of the earth, of a preparation for eternity as well as for the blasts of earth-ly winter. Every season has its glotles, and autumn is not lacking in them.—Where the grapes grow most luxuriantly, there the earth is vocal with the sounds of rejoicing, and, among the ancients, honors were paid to Bacchus, the deity who presided over the vineyard and the wine vat. With us the cider mill takes the place of the wine press, and rorulsh boys, with sureptitious straws, delight in making forays-upon the fermenting Juice of the apple. But with shortening days and chilly nights, we shall stand at the door of winter, and by blazing fires or heated cast iron, shall look back with mingled love and regret at the seasons which come and go with endless round, each bringing its offerings to the feet, and each in turn fleeing to the darkness; if not the forgetfulness, of eternity.

Coroner's Duties.—Much difference of opinion is expressed as to what is the duty of Coroners, and we give the published opinion of Judge Stowe asto what are the duties and powers of the Coroner's inquest are cases of sudden and violent deaths, whether they take place by the visitation of God, by misfortune, as if sudden death ensue in consequence or by accident, and also of all those who die in prison. But he ought not when a death occurs by a visitation of God, as by apoplexy or the like, nor in any case, unless a very doubtful one, unnecessarily obtrude himself into private families for the parts. In Harrisburg sends to the editors of the State Journal the following receipe for making Cawtaba or Isabella grape wine: Mash the grapes in a tub or other clean vessel, into a perfect mass of pulp. Strain the juice carefully through a fine wire seive, or clean piece of canynas. Add to seive, or clean piece of canvans. Add to each pint of pure grape juice, a quart of water; mix with the juice two pounds of white sugar (cheapest article will answer) and then carefully put into a clean cask, demijohn or bottles, taking care that the vessel is kept full, so that the process of fermentation may be watched. Save a portion of the liquid, to pour into the vessels to keep them full as the impure matters work off. When done working, (which will be in about twelve days,) it may be racked, corked tightly days,) it may be racked, corked tightly and sealed, and placed in a cool cellar.—
Wine made in this way is free from drugs or spirits, and often found superior to imported table wines.

TION.—There was an interesting reuniou of the Herman family, at the residence of Martin Herman, near New Kingston, on Tuesday the 20th ult. The occasion was the Centennial Anniversary of the Settlement of Martin Horman, in Cumberland County. Martin Herman, a native of Germany, landed in Philadelphia, in July, 1752, and settled in Cumberland county, on the 15th of April, 1771, on the tract of land called "St. Martin's," in Silver Spring township, which he then purchased, and which has been in the possession and ownership of himself and the ladies to renewed efforts to make his lineal descendants for one hundred

Some time since, a committee of arrangements was organized, with J. Hernan Boster, Esq., as Chairman, and Mi C. Herman, Esq., as Sceretary, and the following gentlemen:—Martin-Herman, Peter Y. Herman, E. M. Herman, Manasseb Herman, Joseph L. Herman, J. W. Bosler, P. W. Herman, Walter Herman Lilly, C. Herman Myers, Benjamin Filbert, David Herman, D. B. Herman, George M. Bosler, John A. Herman, Jno. M. Herman.

On Tuesday, one hundred and fifty persons assembled at the residence of Mr. Herman-two of them of the third generation and one of the sixth generationall theothers of the fourth and fifth. The occasion was a most delightful one, as will be seen from a report of the celebration, kindly furnished us by Rev. R. H. Fletcher, of Lock Haven.

Carlisle District Sabbath School Institute. On Monday evening, Oct. 2nd, a meeting was held in the Lecture Room of the Lutheran church for the purpose of organizing a District Sabbath School Institute. The meeting was presided over by H. S. Ritter.

Rev. W. M. Frysinger, chairman of committee on constitution, reported a homestead was enlivened on the day referred to by a general gathering of the families descended through Christian Herman, in all about one hundred and fifty persons. The number now living and comprising the other branches of the criginal family is supposed to be over one thousand persons. At the allotted time, the company present was seated in the yard, immediately in front of the house, presenting an interesting group, from the gray-headed sires, down to the prattling babe of two summers—the representatives of four generations.

THE MELLOW AUTUMN.—The season of fruits and flowers has passed away and we have entered on the second of the Autumn mouths. The harvest has been gathered, and the well filled barns and granaries show how bountiful nature has been and how the worker is rewarded.—And now with solemn sedateness, steps in sober autumn, a season suggestive of mellow ripeuess, of rest after labor, of honest comfort and indulgence, of the maturity of intellects as well as of the froits of the earth, of a preparation for eternity as well as for the blasts of earth-

WE call the attention of our readers to the folowing remarkable cure of Mr. C W. Ahl of Carlisle, Pa., by the use of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN MEDICINES. His certificate is vouched for by the Editors of the Carlisle Volunteer, one of the most influential newspapers in the State.

Dr. C. M. EVANS

Dear Sir: In the year 1857 I was attacked with Dyspepsia. From that time until the year 1861 I continued gr wing worse, and was reduced from a strong and heathy man to a mere living skeleton, weighing but 119 pounds, During those four years, I had the attention of the most celebrated physicians in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore I also visited the watering places, and tried every remedy I could hear of for the cure of Dyspepsia, without experiencing any relief whatever, and I finally in despair gave up all hope of being circed, and returned home with the feeling that death alone could alleviate my suferings. In his extremity, at the urgent solicitation of my wife, I began the use of "Hopfands German Billera,"—sithough with no more futth in its efficacy than I had in preparations previously tried.

Atterusing four bottles of the Bitters, to my surprise I felt I was improving. My food taste well, and there was a yery marked change for the better. I continued the use of the Bitters until I had taken sixteen bottles, and then, to my inexpressible gratification I found myself perfectly cured.

My only motive is to inform all who may be suffering as I did of the wonderful cure performed in my case. I honestly believe; had it not been for HOOF-LAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, I would have gone to my grave long ago.

With the hope that I may be the means of bringing those ditters to the notice of all who may be suffering as I did, I give this certificate.
