THE RADICALS GOING BACK ON THE "MAN AND BROTHER."

There is a disappointed darkey in Philadelphia-a darkey who, from reading Forney's Press and other Radical journals, had been led to believe that the Radicals were sincere when Brother," who was entitled to all the men. The evening after the arrival of the tickets was fifty dollars each-a little steep, that-and most of the managers of the ball were leading Radical formerly of Harrisburg, and from whose off in this world's goods, and has frequently been spoken of as a "states! editor," &c., &c., by the Radical jourblack as his daddy before him, "old the world the gigantic schemes of a Chester." Well, as we have said, Chester wanted to attend the Alexis ball, and he made haste to the ticket office. Up went his fifty dollar bill to the "loyal" gentleman who had the selling of the tickets. "Who is to use this ticket:"' was the inquiry addressed to the sable "brother." "I intend to use it myself; I intend to attend the the discussion of the resolution to a ball," answered Chester. "You want to Republican caucus. The motion was attend the ball! you! no, no, we will not permit that," was the response .-Chester demanded the reason. "The reason is," replied the "loyal" dispose of tickets, "because no niggers are

TO BE ADMITTED !" Talk about a nigger showing the white of his eyes-the eyes of Chester at that particular moment presented the appearance of an approaching snow storm. He was a cross darkey, Chester was, and as he turned away he was heard to mutter to himself threats against those who, when negro votes are wanted, use honied words of blandishment, talk flippantly about "col ored brethren," "equality of races," &c., but who give the lie to their professions when put to the test. No wonder this respectable "colored brother" favor of "equality of the races," he had a right to expect them to live up to their professions. That committee was composed of the following well-known gentlemen—Gen C. H. T. Collis, Gen. R. C. Drum, Jas. H. Heverin, J. C. Knox, Jr., Richard Ludlow, John Cochran, F. Oden Horstman, N. H. Eisenbrey, Col. Jas. Forney, Col. R. P. Dechert, C. Stuart Paterson, S. B. Wylle Mitchell, Joseph I. Doran, Wm. P. lie Mitchell, Joseph I. Doran, Wm. P. Messick, Theodore L. Harrison, Alfred Devereaux and J. Duval. Many of these men, before the election, had dined and drank and smoked and talked about "equality of races" in company with Chester, but now when this same colored brother-this "statesman," "scholar,"" professor," "editor," &c., wanted to attend a ball and dance with the wives and daughters of these pampered Radical flunkeys, they not only denied him, but said to him, "get out, you nigger!" Too bad. Chester is a wiser if not a better darkey now than he was before the Alexis ball. He must be convinced now if he never was before. that Radical professions are made to be broken. " White men and negroes cannot and should not mix in the same company, and the Radicals know and feel this just as sensibly as Democrats do. But the Radicals, about election times, lie to the negroes, and make them believe that color is not a barrier to society, and the negroes only find out, as Chester did, that they have been deceived when they presume to

ONE of the most ridiculous stories yet heard is that told in court at Columbia yesterday during the trial of the Bouth Carolina marauders. A witness admits lie is a member of the Ku-kinx, and says the plan was formed in 1868 for self defence and to prevent incendiarism, self defence and to prevent incendiarism, but has nothing to say concerning the wholesale murders committed in the several counties of South Carolina.—Forward Park push themselves into white company.

Not so ridiculous a story, after all .-The witness, we doubt not, told the naked truth; the same kind of testimony has been given by every witness who admitted being a member of the Kuklux Klan. This K. K. organization was started when the negroes of the Southern States were burning ginhouses, barns and private dwellings with impunity. Not only were they burning but they were stealing every thing they could lay hands on. It was right, then, perfectly right, for white men to band together to save their familles and their properties from destruction. Several negroes caught in the very act of firing properties, were shot down in their tracks, and this was right, too. And these are the "murders committed;" about which Forney prates so much. Any man seeing a negro placing the torch to his property would be justified in taking that

THE BACKERS OF THE THIEVAS They Quail when Light is asked For

"For every one that DOETH EVIL hateth ight, neither cometh to the light, lest his d hould be reproved," In the United States Senate, a few days since, Senator Trumbull, a Republican, but an honest man, and consequently no supporter of Grant and his ring of thieves, offered a resolution. for creating a joint committee of retrenchment and reform, clothed with full power to summon and examine all witnesses, and order before them all books, papers, and accounts, which night tend to bring into clear light the hidden things of darkness which it is our approbation when we played the the interest of dishonest officials to conceal. "Well, of course the resolution was favorably received, and adopted by a unanimous vote," will be the remark of every honest man. Not so, however. The administration Senators, conscious of their own guilt, quailed before the resolution and looked at each other in mute consternation. The resolution of the Illinois Senator was something they were not prepared for. They have like the New York Tammany ring, been so long engaged in covering up the doings of defalters, they spoke of the negro as a " Man and | that they felt as secure as well-fed rats in a corn-crib. They never supposed rights, privileges and amenities of white that any "loyal" Senator would dare propose an insertion of the probe into the Grand Duke Alexis in Philadelphia the gangrened sore of the administraa magnificent ball was tendered him, tion; and they had no fears of the and of course accepted. The price of Democratic Senators, for it is understood that every resolution or proposition they may offer is to be promptly voted down. They were astounded, we say, and they all put their wits to A highfalutin negro named Chester, work to prevent the asked-for investigation. At first they tried to persuade hand we have often received oysters Mr. Trumbull to withdraw his resoluand most excellent turtle soup-for he | tion; they reminded him that to stir knew how to make turtle soup-con- up the festering corruption of the adceived the idea of attending the Alexis | ministration would certainly injure the ball. Why not? He is comfortably "great Republican party, and endanger Grant's re-election!" But these arguments, it seems, had no influence on man," "scholar," "professor," "able Mr. Trumbull; he insisted that investigation was called for and must be had, nals. Chester is "some pumpkins" as even if it did bring to light damaging a politician, is tall, straight, and as revelations and expose to the gaze of > speculators in the funds of the government. Mr. Trumbull was obdurate. Finding that they could neither persuade nor intimidate the author of the resolution, the usual Radical tactics were next resorted to to circumvent the seekers after corruption, by transferring made, and the friends of Grant and corruption being in a majority in the Senate, it prevailed. This was a substantial triumph for the thieves, and was followed by a clapping of hands in the galleries. A caucus was accord-large and influential set of robbers and ingly ordered. The following Republicans voted for the Trumbull resolution-Messrs. Alcore, Fenton, Patterson, Robertson, Schnrz, Logan, Sumner, Tipton, Trumbull, West and Wilson. The debate on the resolution was very personal at times. Mr. Tipton said the administration was festering in corruption. His speech was the most violent of the day. Beyond question the Radical party is about to fall to pieces, and when the fall takes place a stench will ascend to felt aggrieved. When he read the the beavens. Pending the consideration names of the "committee in charge of of the Trumbull resolution a Washing-> seem that an open party rupture is imminent unless both sides yield and agree upon some compromise measure." Thanks to the eleven Radical Senators who stood up manfully, in the face of the threats of a corrupt and imbecile administration, in favor of investigating the fraudulent transactions of the thousands of thieves who have. with daring effrontery, thrust their arms, elbow-deep, into the coffers of the treasury. The Grant ring may be strong enough to thwart the efforts of these eleven Senators, but the peoplethe tax-payers of our country-will thank them in their prayers. The very fact that the administration senators opposed Mr. Trumbull's resolution, is proof position that corruption is wide-spread, and that exposure is dreaded by Grant. But this exposure will be made in some way or other, and we warn the people to be prepared for the worst.

GRANT'S THIEVES.

When the Trumbull resolution was before the U.S.Senatea few days since, the administration Senators cut a sorry figure. In their attempts to defend Grant and excuse the thousands of defaulters who surround him, they made assertions which were so supremely ridiculous and so notoriously false, that even those who feel disposed to stick to Grant have to laugh outright. For instance, Mr. Edmund's, who is more than suspected of being one of the Grant ring of speculators, had the effrontery to assert that : frontery to assert that:

"This administration will compare favorably (in the way of honesty) with any administration that ever preceded it from the duys of Wushington to this day. There have been embezzlements, I admit, but there have been embezzlements under all administrations," &c. No wonder "laughter in the galleries" followed this burst of unadulterated falsehood. Mr. Schurz, (Republican,) answered Edmunds promptly and triumphantly. Said Mr. Schurz: "Nay, sir, if you search the history of "Nay, sir, if you search the history of this country you cannot point out to me four consecutive years during which so many embezzlements and defalcations have come to light as have been laid bare to the public eye during the last three or four months. If I am mistaken, I shall be glad to be corrected. A great many of these frauds, embezzlements and defalcations were not discovered by diligent inquiry or investigation, but by something like accident; we simply stumbled over them and there they are. It cannot, will not dent; we simply stumbled over them, and there they are. It cannot, will not be denied, that under this administration more defalcations have taken place than have taken place during all other administrations, from Washington down. We had better confess this alarming fact at once, and then go to work to stop the abuse and choke off leeches who are clinging to the

PLAIN TALK

The New York World, in speaking of the course of the administration Senstors on the Trumbull resolution ises this strong language:

"If General Grant's friends in the Senate were not convinced in their conconsciences, and with their means of knowledge, that his administration is corrupt, they would not thus squelch and stifle honest inquiry. Administrative purity would rejoice in such an opportunity to remove suspicions, silence slanders, brighten its reputation, and establish its claim to public confidence. It is thieves that skulk; it is the doers of evil deeds that dread the light. The President has certified, under his own hand, to the admirable honesty of Tom Murphy's administration of the Custom-house. If he has not certified to a lie, why should his friends shrink with dread from having the evidence of Murphy's unimpeachable honesty laid before the public?—Boutwell's friends boast and glory in the Syndicate; why then should not an impartial committee be permitted to reveal the see et history of that dark manœuvre? Treasurer Spinner, less than two weeks ago, solemnly averred, in his annual report, as a matter within his personal knowledge, that the Treasury Department is administered with the most entire purity, and since the publication of his pharisaic report "If General Grant's friends in the with the most entire purity, and since the publication of his pharisaic report two scandalous cases of embezzlement have been brought to light in his own bureau, in which the frauds were going on under his own nose and at the very time he was certifying to the spotless purity of every branch of the Treasury purity of every branch of the Treasury Department. Two or three months ago, there was an astounding disclosure of the embezzlement of $400,000 in the Paymaster's Department; and the disclaimers of responsibility in the recent official reports remind us of one of Nast's striking Tammany carieatures, in which everybody points to some other body with the exculpatory exclamation, "Fe did it." Then there is the Seneca Stone Company and the is the Seneca Stone Company, and the Emma Silver Mine, and a host of similar things that have brought scandal upon high officers, about which the public has a right to demand authentic information. If all those officers have been mallened, a committee of investi-

information. If all those officers have been maligned, a committee of investigation would clear their characters and establish their innocence; a vindication which they and all their friends ought to covet. It is only because the administration Senators have reason to believe in their guilt, that they imitate the factics of the Tammany rogues and try to ward off inquiry into their conduct. THE GRANITE STATE.

The Democrats of New Hampshire met in State Convention at Concord on the 13th inst. The attendance was large and the enthusiasm unbounded. Gov. Weston was re-nominated for Governor by acclamation, after which the following platform of principles was unanimously adopted.

First.—That the party is pledged to the perpetuity of the Union, a strict obedience to the Constitution, and an honest enforcement of the laws Second—The protection of the rights fevery citizen in accordance with the fundamental law.

Third—Opposition to every species of corruption in all the departments of municipal, State, and national govern—

Fourth-No privileged classes, and no privileged capital.

Fifth—A tariff that raises money for the necessary expenses of the Federal government, not for the benefit of monopolists.

The resolutions further denounce the establishment of martial law at the South as unconstitutional and atrocious advocate reforms in the civil service of the government, and reaffirm the confidence of the party in Governor Weston, pledging him its support for re-election.

GOVENOR WESTON'S ACCEPTANCE.

The committee appointed to wait upon Govenor Weston appeared with the gentleman. As he ascended the platform he was greeted with hearty phatform he was greefed with hearty and prolonged cheers. Governor Wes-ton said: "Gentl-men of the convention, permit me to tender my sincere thanks for the renomination to the office of Chief Magistrate of this State which you have unanimously given me, and which I gratefully accept. I shall look to the foes of bribery, fraud and corruption and the friends of economy and reform for a triumphant re-election." (Great cheers.)

SOUTH CAROLINA ROBBED.

A telegram from Charleston to the Philadelphia Inquirer, (Republican paper,) dated December 16, says : per.) dated December 10, says:

"A report was presented to the South Carolina House of Representatives on last Thursday by the Committee of Investigation, headed by C. C. Bowen, to the effect that the State has been defrauded by an over-issue of $0.314-000, and recommending that the House take the necessary stops to hold those persons who violated the law and unined the credit of the State."

DR. C. M. EVANS

Dear Sir: In the year 1857 I wattacked with Dyspepsia. From that time unitate year 1801 I coathned grawing worse, and was reduced from a firong and healthy man to be used to be used. The property of the most celebrated physicians in New York, Philadelphia and Balamore I also visited the watering places, and tried every rem dy I could hear of for the cure of Dyspepsia, with out experiencing any r lief whatever, and I finally in despair gave up all hope of being cared, and returned nome with the feeling that death slone could alleviate my sufferings. In this externity, at the urgent solicitation of my wife, I and returned nome with the feeting that death alone could alleviate my sufferings. In this extremity, at the urgent solicitation of my wife, it began the use of "Hooflands Garman Bitters," although with no more faith in its efficacy than I had in preparations proviously tried.

After using four bottles of the Bitters, to my surprise I felt I was improving. My food taste well, and there was a very marked change fo the better. I continued the use of the Bitters until I had taken sixteen bottles, and then, to my inexpressible gratification I found myself perfectly cured.

Since that happy termination of my affliction I may not bought fifty cents worth of medicine of any kind, and to-day I weigh two nundred and two pounds.

I make this statement voluntarily, and hundreds of the residents of the Cumberland Valley who knew my condition will vouch for it. I am satisfied I was thoroughly and permanently cured by the use of HOUFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, and I take especial pleasure in recommending it to all who may be suffering from Dyspepsia.

My position pecuniarily is so well known to differ the wonderful cure performed in my case I honestly believe; had it not been for 1100FLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, J would have gone to my grave long ago.

With the hope that I may be the means of bringing those filters to the notice of all who may be suffering as I did, I give this certificate Gratefully. Yours.

C. W. AHL.
