

CARLISLE, PA. Grant, in his annual message, offered a great desire for reform in the office of the country...

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—A special from Little Rock, Ark., to the Enquirer contains a statement from Alfred S. Bradford, brother of one of the men who was shot by the negroes in Chicago...

PHILADELPHIA has a new Mayor—Stokely—and is all the worse for it. Radical politicians are not all thieves, but all thieves are Radical politicians...

A PHYSICIAN has discovered that the night-mare, in nine cases out of ten, is produced from owing a bill to the printer.

FIFTY young widows reside in the small town of Centerville, Ind., and it is unsafe for an unprotected man to pass through there.

A FLOCK of one hundred and twenty Cashmere goats have been imported into Utah, and Cashmere shawls are to be manufactured there.

MEXICO is keeping up her reputation as the greatest revolutionary country in the world. The land is aflame with war from one end to the other.

THE President has tendered an invitation to the Grand Duke Alexis to visit Washington. The son of his father, however, has come to no conclusion.

OFFICER DEWEY has been indicted for causing the death of Lawyer Newkirk, in the Jefferson Market Prison, of New York city, by dragging him roughly down stairs and leaving him, to die from cold and exposure after the injuries had been inflicted.

THE Philadelphia Press says that Missouri is "irrevocably lost to the Republicans," for the next Presidential election. A good many other States are in the same plight—more so, according to the Press, and the friends of Grant generally, are willing to admit.

A STARTLED wren fled for protection from the hounds into the doorway of a Virginia mansion, where a beautiful girl of sixteen summers was sitting. The deer approached her with intuitive trust, and looked piteously into her mild blue eyes.

THE Chicago Times gives a recapitulation of all the missing since the fire, showing the impossibility of getting an exact estimate as to the human perils which perished in the great conflagration. It is now distinctly proved that several hundred must have been lost, while some very careful computations place the number at over 1000.

THERE are in the United States 150 cities and towns which, as appears from the recent census, have over 10,000 inhabitants. Of these cities New York State leads the list with 21—the greatest number: Pennsylvania comes next in order with 16; Massachusetts, 15; Ohio 11; and so on. Florida, Nevada and Oregon are without a single city of 10,000 inhabitants.

AT a Senatorial election in the district of San Joaquin, California, to fill the vacancy created by the election of the late Senator from that district—Hon. Romaldo Pacheco—the Democrats were victorious, and elected their candidate, James Yanness. This gives the Democracy a majority of one in the California State Senate.

GENERAL BONNELL, of the United States army, though on the retired list, was recently married at Fort Smith, Arkansas. The wedding took place on the fiftieth anniversary of his first marriage. General Bonnville served more than half a century in the army, and his exploits in the western wilds, about forty years ago, were described by Washington Irving.

THE advertisement of an "extraordinary phenomenon," exhibited in New York in 1855, a mammoth girl weighing over 400 pounds, was embellished with the then startling announcement that it took fifteen men three quarters yards to make her a dress. Now a days it takes twenty two yards to make a dress for girls who weigh only one hundred pounds.

GRANT A DEFaulTER.

Grant, in his annual message, offered a great desire for reform in the office of the country, and declared in favor of the summary punishment of defaulters.

Why is it that these turbulent and blood-thirsty negroes—these thieves, murderers and incendiaries are permitted to indulge in their favorite pastime for weeks together without attracting the attention of Scott's Kuklux Committee? Has their conscience been engaged in wickedness since these yagobond negroes have been guilty of what a howl would have gone up from Grant's office-holders and licensed thieves, and what has made it so that they have been ordered to Chicago, Arkansas? John Scott, who now, by common consent, considered the greatest falsifier and grossly dishonest man in the United States...

THE Rochester Friend behind the bars.—A telegram dated Auburn, N. Y., Jan. 6, says: The negro Howard, who committed outrage on a white girl in Rochester, few days since, arrived in this city this morning and took his place in the State prison under the name of James Scott. He was very happy to get within the walls, putting his thumb to his nose and making a sign of his fingers to the crowd outside, as he went up the steps of the main hall.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

THE Cincinnati Gazette, one of the oldest, ablest and staunchest of the "People's Journals," says: "The Republican protest against the false position in which they have been placed by Republican Senators who voted against Trumbull's resolution."

SAD ACCIDENT.—A telegram dated Harrisburg, Jan 5, says: The express train of yesterday, on the Northern Central railroad, at Rockville, Pennsylvania, was wrecked. The train was wrecked by a car containing Jacob Baker and Miss Julia Strow, injuring Baker and killing Miss Strow justly. She was on her way to Dauphin, where she was to have been married last evening.

NEGRO KULKUX OUTRAGES.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—A special from Little Rock, Ark., to the Enquirer contains a statement from Alfred S. Bradford, brother of one of the men who was shot by the negroes in Chicago...

Why is it that these turbulent and blood-thirsty negroes—these thieves, murderers and incendiaries are permitted to indulge in their favorite pastime for weeks together without attracting the attention of Scott's Kuklux Committee? Has their conscience been engaged in wickedness since these yagobond negroes have been guilty of what a howl would have gone up from Grant's office-holders and licensed thieves, and what has made it so that they have been ordered to Chicago, Arkansas? John Scott, who now, by common consent, considered the greatest falsifier and grossly dishonest man in the United States...

THE Rochester Friend behind the bars.—A telegram dated Auburn, N. Y., Jan. 6, says: The negro Howard, who committed outrage on a white girl in Rochester, few days since, arrived in this city this morning and took his place in the State prison under the name of James Scott. He was very happy to get within the walls, putting his thumb to his nose and making a sign of his fingers to the crowd outside, as he went up the steps of the main hall.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

THE Cincinnati Gazette, one of the oldest, ablest and staunchest of the "People's Journals," says: "The Republican protest against the false position in which they have been placed by Republican Senators who voted against Trumbull's resolution."

SAD ACCIDENT.—A telegram dated Harrisburg, Jan 5, says: The express train of yesterday, on the Northern Central railroad, at Rockville, Pennsylvania, was wrecked. The train was wrecked by a car containing Jacob Baker and Miss Julia Strow, injuring Baker and killing Miss Strow justly. She was on her way to Dauphin, where she was to have been married last evening.

THE advertisement of an "extraordinary phenomenon," exhibited in New York in 1855, a mammoth girl weighing over 400 pounds, was embellished with the then startling announcement that it took fifteen men three quarters yards to make her a dress. Now a days it takes twenty two yards to make a dress for girls who weigh only one hundred pounds.

GENERAL BONNELL, of the United States army, though on the retired list, was recently married at Fort Smith, Arkansas. The wedding took place on the fiftieth anniversary of his first marriage. General Bonnville served more than half a century in the army, and his exploits in the western wilds, about forty years ago, were described by Washington Irving.

GRANT A DEFaulTER.

Grant, in his annual message, offered a great desire for reform in the office of the country, and declared in favor of the summary punishment of defaulters.

Why is it that these turbulent and blood-thirsty negroes—these thieves, murderers and incendiaries are permitted to indulge in their favorite pastime for weeks together without attracting the attention of Scott's Kuklux Committee? Has their conscience been engaged in wickedness since these yagobond negroes have been guilty of what a howl would have gone up from Grant's office-holders and licensed thieves, and what has made it so that they have been ordered to Chicago, Arkansas? John Scott, who now, by common consent, considered the greatest falsifier and grossly dishonest man in the United States...

THE Rochester Friend behind the bars.—A telegram dated Auburn, N. Y., Jan. 6, says: The negro Howard, who committed outrage on a white girl in Rochester, few days since, arrived in this city this morning and took his place in the State prison under the name of James Scott. He was very happy to get within the walls, putting his thumb to his nose and making a sign of his fingers to the crowd outside, as he went up the steps of the main hall.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

THE Cincinnati Gazette, one of the oldest, ablest and staunchest of the "People's Journals," says: "The Republican protest against the false position in which they have been placed by Republican Senators who voted against Trumbull's resolution."

SAD ACCIDENT.—A telegram dated Harrisburg, Jan 5, says: The express train of yesterday, on the Northern Central railroad, at Rockville, Pennsylvania, was wrecked. The train was wrecked by a car containing Jacob Baker and Miss Julia Strow, injuring Baker and killing Miss Strow justly. She was on her way to Dauphin, where she was to have been married last evening.

FISK'S FINALE!

He is Killed by an Assassin. FULL DETAILS OF THE TRAGIC EVENT. THE MURDERER ARRESTED ON THE SPOT. TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT IMMEDIATELY EXGRES.

James Fisk, Jr., was shot in the breast, by Edward Stokes, at the Grand Central Hotel, at 429 P. M., to-day, and was mortally wounded. All the officers of the Sixth Regiment, all the officers of the State militia were present at the funeral in uniform. Fisk was buried in the Woodlawn cemetery, and placed in cell 15. Counsel were with him, as also his brothers. He says the deed was done in a fit of frenzy. The full journal comment on Fisk's murder will be published to-morrow. It will attract towards Fisk an amount of sympathy to which no part of his career has entitled him.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE THIEVES. Secretary Boutwell Admits that Corruption in the Service is More than Universal. A "Mess" of Three Whos' Expenses for Eating and Drinking are more than $15,000. EXTORTION AND BLACK MAIL. We are induced for the following to the New York Sun of Saturday: The senate investigating committee returned yesterday morning. The first witness was Mr. Lindsay, who produced the following letter, written in his own handwriting, and which he believed that he was accused of extorting from a party in consequence of a general order issued by the collector of the port, to the effect that the house of Fisk was to be taken over by the government.

ONE TERM.—SPRINGFIELD, Illinois, January 5.—The house this morning passed a resolution favoring one term for the President. The resolution was adopted by a majority of 100.

THE dead-lock in the State Senate was "let up" on Thursday last by Mr. Buckalew voting for Mr. Rutan for Speaker. The vote stood—Rutan (Rad.), 77; Broadhead (Dem.), 15.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

FISK'S FINALE!

He is Killed by an Assassin. FULL DETAILS OF THE TRAGIC EVENT. THE MURDERER ARRESTED ON THE SPOT. TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT IMMEDIATELY EXGRES.

James Fisk, Jr., was shot in the breast, by Edward Stokes, at the Grand Central Hotel, at 429 P. M., to-day, and was mortally wounded. All the officers of the Sixth Regiment, all the officers of the State militia were present at the funeral in uniform. Fisk was buried in the Woodlawn cemetery, and placed in cell 15. Counsel were with him, as also his brothers. He says the deed was done in a fit of frenzy. The full journal comment on Fisk's murder will be published to-morrow. It will attract towards Fisk an amount of sympathy to which no part of his career has entitled him.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE THIEVES. Secretary Boutwell Admits that Corruption in the Service is More than Universal. A "Mess" of Three Whos' Expenses for Eating and Drinking are more than $15,000. EXTORTION AND BLACK MAIL. We are induced for the following to the New York Sun of Saturday: The senate investigating committee returned yesterday morning. The first witness was Mr. Lindsay, who produced the following letter, written in his own handwriting, and which he believed that he was accused of extorting from a party in consequence of a general order issued by the collector of the port, to the effect that the house of Fisk was to be taken over by the government.

ONE TERM.—SPRINGFIELD, Illinois, January 5.—The house this morning passed a resolution favoring one term for the President. The resolution was adopted by a majority of 100.

THE dead-lock in the State Senate was "let up" on Thursday last by Mr. Buckalew voting for Mr. Rutan for Speaker. The vote stood—Rutan (Rad.), 77; Broadhead (Dem.), 15.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

FISK'S FINALE!

He is Killed by an Assassin. FULL DETAILS OF THE TRAGIC EVENT. THE MURDERER ARRESTED ON THE SPOT. TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT IMMEDIATELY EXGRES.

James Fisk, Jr., was shot in the breast, by Edward Stokes, at the Grand Central Hotel, at 429 P. M., to-day, and was mortally wounded. All the officers of the Sixth Regiment, all the officers of the State militia were present at the funeral in uniform. Fisk was buried in the Woodlawn cemetery, and placed in cell 15. Counsel were with him, as also his brothers. He says the deed was done in a fit of frenzy. The full journal comment on Fisk's murder will be published to-morrow. It will attract towards Fisk an amount of sympathy to which no part of his career has entitled him.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE THIEVES. Secretary Boutwell Admits that Corruption in the Service is More than Universal. A "Mess" of Three Whos' Expenses for Eating and Drinking are more than $15,000. EXTORTION AND BLACK MAIL. We are induced for the following to the New York Sun of Saturday: The senate investigating committee returned yesterday morning. The first witness was Mr. Lindsay, who produced the following letter, written in his own handwriting, and which he believed that he was accused of extorting from a party in consequence of a general order issued by the collector of the port, to the effect that the house of Fisk was to be taken over by the government.

ONE TERM.—SPRINGFIELD, Illinois, January 5.—The house this morning passed a resolution favoring one term for the President. The resolution was adopted by a majority of 100.

THE dead-lock in the State Senate was "let up" on Thursday last by Mr. Buckalew voting for Mr. Rutan for Speaker. The vote stood—Rutan (Rad.), 77; Broadhead (Dem.), 15.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

FISK'S FINALE!

He is Killed by an Assassin. FULL DETAILS OF THE TRAGIC EVENT. THE MURDERER ARRESTED ON THE SPOT. TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT IMMEDIATELY EXGRES.

James Fisk, Jr., was shot in the breast, by Edward Stokes, at the Grand Central Hotel, at 429 P. M., to-day, and was mortally wounded. All the officers of the Sixth Regiment, all the officers of the State militia were present at the funeral in uniform. Fisk was buried in the Woodlawn cemetery, and placed in cell 15. Counsel were with him, as also his brothers. He says the deed was done in a fit of frenzy. The full journal comment on Fisk's murder will be published to-morrow. It will attract towards Fisk an amount of sympathy to which no part of his career has entitled him.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE THIEVES. Secretary Boutwell Admits that Corruption in the Service is More than Universal. A "Mess" of Three Whos' Expenses for Eating and Drinking are more than $15,000. EXTORTION AND BLACK MAIL. We are induced for the following to the New York Sun of Saturday: The senate investigating committee returned yesterday morning. The first witness was Mr. Lindsay, who produced the following letter, written in his own handwriting, and which he believed that he was accused of extorting from a party in consequence of a general order issued by the collector of the port, to the effect that the house of Fisk was to be taken over by the government.

ONE TERM.—SPRINGFIELD, Illinois, January 5.—The house this morning passed a resolution favoring one term for the President. The resolution was adopted by a majority of 100.

THE dead-lock in the State Senate was "let up" on Thursday last by Mr. Buckalew voting for Mr. Rutan for Speaker. The vote stood—Rutan (Rad.), 77; Broadhead (Dem.), 15.

A TRIBUTE WALL.—The N. Y. Tribune indignantly exclaims, "were one hundred of the best and most efficient officers in the revenue service at the port, after comparing notes, to unite in writing to the members of the House, and their friends, to demand that the House should pass a resolution that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House, and that no man should be permitted to hold office in the House until he had first been examined by a committee of the House."

Advertisement for 48th Dividend.

Advertisements for Scribner's Monthly, and other publications, including names like Scribner, Co., and various literary notices.